What terms can the President make with "spenders" to retain control over Congress? Read Elliott Thurston . . . Page 9.

The Washington Post

THE WEATHER:
Fair; not much change in temperature.

NO. 21,320 ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER, POSTOFFICE, WASHINGTON, D. C. WASHINGTON: TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1934 ★★ COPYRIGHT, 1934, BY THE WASHINGTON POST. THREE CENTS

U.S. May Arm Pacific Areas If Pact Falls, Tokyo Is Told

Naval Treaty Scrapping Threat Countered in Talks at London.

Fortification Plan Takes In Aleutians

Japanese Won't Yield on Equality Demand; Accord Unlikely.

(Copyright, 1934, by the United Press.)

London, Oct. 29.—American delegates to the preliminary naval conversations today warned the Japanese that if they scrap the Washington treaty, the United States may be forced to fortify her possessions in the Pacific.

United States quarters were the source of this information tonight, after a long conference between the United States and Japanese delegations at which the latter refused to budge on naval equality demands.

The situation was characterized as "unpromising" after today's session. The Japanese have indicated they are ready to proceed alone, scrapping the 1922 Washington treaty and, presumably, the London treaty of 1930 unless Britain and the United States are ready to concede her equality demands, at least "in principle."

Aleutians Included.

The American delegates, headed by Norman H. Davis, let the Japanese know fortification plans in the Pacific by Washington were entirely possible, including the Aleutian Islands, north of Japan's empire, off Asia, should Tokyo insist on abrogating the Washington pact and altering collateral arrangements relative to naval affairs and Pacific relations.

Unity between Britain and the United States on naval issues as opposed to Japan's program also was reemphasized tonight after a meeting between the British and United States delegations. A spokesman reaffirmed there were "no irreconcilable" differences, although British sources hinted reluctance to support the American position toward Japan with the firmness Washington evidently desires.

Naval Race Warning.

The Americans suggested both to Japan and Britain that Japan's policy for a common total limit of naval tonnages inevitably would provoke a naval race "because powers already built up to that limit would be held rigid, while others would evolve weapons disadvantageous to their rivals."

The American delegates also refused to recognize Japan's argument that her responsibilities in Manchukuo necessitate a larger navy, the Japanese holding that the creation of Manchukuo itself had increased Japanese insecurity from Tokyo's point of view.

Hugh Wilson participated in the

Continued on Page 7, Column 1.

Woman Slays Home Intruder

Winchester Mother Says He Tried to Attack Her; Two Held.

Winchester, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Lewis Washington, 35, colored, was shot and killed here this afternoon when, according to Mrs. Rena Johnson, 31, he entered her home accompanied by another colored man, and attempted to assault her.

Tonight two colored men, John Ash and Lewis Washington, a brother of the slain man, were held. Mrs. Johnson also is being held pending completion of an inquiry, but no charges have been filed.

Mrs. Johnson, mother of two children, told police she was at a sewing machine in a rear room of her home at 12 Freemont street, when Lewis Washington, accompanied by the other, whom she did not recognize, entered the room. Washington, the woman said, grabbed her, and, with a hand at her throat, forced her against the sewing machine.

As he did so, Mrs. Johnson declared, she reached into a drawer of the machine and got a .32-caliber pistol. In the struggle, she said, the gun exploded in his face. Washington's companion fled.

Turkey Celebrates Its Eleventh Birthday

Angora, Turkey, Oct. 29 (AP).—The Turkish government celebrated its eleventh birthday today. Throughout the country everything was done to make the nation proud of its destiny under the leadership of Ghazi Mustapha Kemal Pasha.

In the capital the government gave a banquet for the diplomatic corps, which Kemal Pasha attended.

$2,260,979 Appraisal On Hitchcock Estate

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 29 (AP).—The estate of the late Gilbert M. Hitchcock, former United States Senator and publisher of the Omaha World Herald, today was appraised at $2,260,979.95 in a report filed in county court by Harry S. Byrne, appraiser.

Kingsford-Smith Flies The Pacific to Hawaii, 3,197 Miles in 25 Hours

Hops From Fiji Isles; Expects to Take Off for U. S. Today.

Honolulu, Oct. 29 (AP).—The first to fly in both directions between Hawaii and Australia, Wing Commander Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith brought his monoplane Lady Southern Cross to earth today at Wheeler Field, near here, after a flight of 3,197 miles in 25 hours and 5 minutes from Naselai Beach, Fiji.

He said he probably would take off tomorrow for Los Angeles, on the last lap of the flight he started from Brisbane, Saturday afternoon, October 20. Bad weather held him at Suva a week.

"If we hadn't done it, some one else would," Kingsford-Smith grinned as he shook hands with a reception committee at the field.

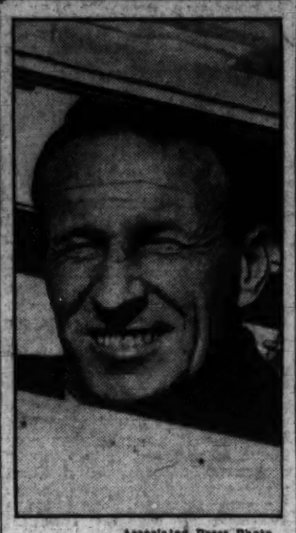
Sir Charles also had a few words on his favorite subject of a transpacific service.

"I did the pioneering work along that line when I made my flight from the American mainland to Australia," he said. "The flight we are now making convinces me the realization of transpacific airplane service will come in the not too distant future."

He said he believed Honolulu and Suva would be among the stopping points for such a service.

About 5,000 persons greeted the airmen at the field. The ceremonies there were brief. The traditional Hawaiian symbols of greeting, leis of native flowers, were draped about their necks, and they received congratulations of territorial and military officials before being whisked away by automobile to Honolulu, 30 miles distant, and Waikiki Beach,

Continued on Page 5, Column 5.



Associated Press Photo.
SIR CHARLES KINGSFORD-SMITH.

Lou Tellegen Kills Self at 52; Illness Balked Film Comeback

Actor, Wed Four Times, Dies in Los Angeles of Stab Wounds.

Los Angeles, Oct. 29 (AP).—Lou Tellegen, matinee idol of the silent film days, died today from seven stab wounds in his breast. Police said he apparently stabbed himself with a pair of scissors.

The former husband of Geraldine Farrar, the opera singer, was found dying in the bathroom of his home, the blood-stained scissors near his outstretched right arm. Tellegen, 52 years old, died an hour later.

Ill health and the fear he was losing his mind were ascribed by police and his physician as the probable reason for the act. Detective Lieut. Frank Egan, who conducted an investigation, reported the death was undoubtedly suicide.

Mrs. J. P. Cudahy, in whose home Tellegen lived, said he had been ill and despondent and expressed the fear he was losing his mind.

The actor was once leading man for Sarah Bernhardt. In recent years he had been inactive on the screen.

Tellegen had been married four times. His first wife was the Countess Jeanne de Bronchere, his second was Miss Farrar, his third was Nina Romano, film actress, and his fourth was Eva Casanova, who had been his leading woman in vaudeville.

The actor and Miss Romano were married in 1923, the day after his divorce from Miss Farrar became final. They kept their wedding secret until in 1925.

Miss Romano divorced him in 1929 and he was wed to Miss Casanova a few months later.

When advancing years made it difficult for Tellegen to obtain parts, he underwent a plastic surgery operation on his face.

Afterward his wife gave him a "lifted face coming out party."

William Wynn, the butler, found the dying man when he was sent

Continued on Page 5, Column 2.

Gunman Turns Tables And Drills the Dentist

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—A patient, leaping suddenly from a dentist's chair, drew a pistol and shot Dr. George W. Hindmarsh today. The dentist was injured in the chest and hand and was rushed to a hospital.

Dr. Hindmarsh said the patient, whose name he did not know, did not threaten him and made no attempt at robbery. Some $3,500 in cash in an office desk was untouched. Police sent out an alarm for the youth's arrest.

Bond Bankers Tread Lightly On New Deal

Praise, Criticism Mixed at Convention; 'Gloomy' Talk Deplored.

By Franklyn Waltman, Jr.
(Post Staff Writer).

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Oct. 29.—Efforts to bring about a rapprochement between the financial world and the Roosevelt Administration, inaugurated last week by the bankers in Washington, are being continued here at the twenty-third annual convention of the Investment Bankers Association.

Throughout today's session it was obvious the investment bankers as a group are becoming oriented to the New Deal and, while they still object strenuously to parts of it, they are no longer denunciatory, even privately, of the Roosevelt policies. In fact, the day was marked by expressions of praise for the work of the securities and exchange commission.

Further evidence of the new attitude was found in the report of the committee on Federal taxation. Instead of expressing concern over the mounting debt, which most bankers feel, and demanding immediate balancing of the budget, this committee contented itself by outlining the situation and then recommending that an effort be made to avoid duplication of taxation and that business be encouraged so that it can absorb the un-

Continued on Page 3, Column 5.

Woman Imprisoned By Parents for 17 Years Is Released

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 29 (AP).—Freed from what officers said was 17 years' imprisonment in a single room of her parents' home, Lulu Angli, 40, is in the Huntington State Hospital.

Her "imprisonment" was ended by Deputy Sheriff Boone Arthur and other officers, who bore a lunacy warrant issued on the complaint of neighbors.

For 17 years, Arthur said, she had been held in a tiny room furnished only with a bed.

Mexican Catholics Seek Rites, Fearing Expulsion of Prelates

Mexico City, Oct. 29 (AP).—Hundreds of men and women, some carrying babies, stood in line all day today inside and outside the cathedral to receive the blessing of Archbishop Pascual Diaz.

They were hurrying to obtain the archbishop's blessing and have their children confirmed in the church, having heard that the government was discussing the expulsion of Catholic archbishops and bishops from Mexico.

Rumors that the archbishop had been arrested and held for expulsion circulated early in the day in the streets of the capital, but authorities made no attempt to prevent him from officiating.

The huge cathedral and the yard outside were jammed with the faithful, mostly the poorer classes of Indians.

Hundreds of candles were kept burning at every altar in the church. The crowd kneeled and stood about, even sat on the floors in family groups, packed so closely together it was almost impossible to move inside the vast church.

The government-inspired newspaper El Nacional renewed its attacks upon the clergy, stating that Archbishop Diaz was now attempting to place all the blame for alleged anti-government activities upon Archbishop Leopoldo Ruiz y Flores, who was expelled from Mexico in 1932 as a "pernicious foreigner."

The government charges Ruiz is attempting to influence the United States to intervene in the Mexican religious situation. Priests reported to have been expelled from the various Mexican states were said to be gathering here preparatory to leaving the country.

Parley Called In A.&P. Row By Labor Unit Starts Today

Union and Firm Chiefs to Air Grievances in Conference Here.

Meat Departments In Milwaukee Shut

39 Company Stores and 9 Others Strike After Order.

Cleveland, Oct. 29 (AP).—The National Labor Relations Board took a hand today in the controversy between the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. and organized labor.

Hoping to settle the labor trouble which caused the company to close its nearly 300 stores in Cleveland, throwing more than 2,000 employes out of work, the labor board invited officers of the firm and representatives of the employes to meet tomorrow in Washington.

The company promptly announced John L. Hartford, its president, will attend the session, and the Cleveland Federation of Labor said its secretary, Thomas S. Farrell, would be present in behalf of organized labor.

Representatives of nonunion employes of the company also probably will attend.

Other Peace Efforts.

Other peace efforts are in progress in Cleveland under the direction of Ralph A. Lind, secretary of the regional labor board.

Lind prepared a six-point plan today which he hoped would bring an agreement between the A. & P. and the local federation of labor, whose efforts to organize the chain stores' employes led to Hartford's decision to quit business in Cleveland. Terms of Lind's plan were not immediately disclosed.

Another effort to come to an agreement was in progress at a conference late today between J. J. Byrnes, vice president of the company, and James Wilson, of Cincinnati, personal emissary of William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor.

Meanwhile, labor troubles of the company spread to Milwaukee, and there was talk of a possible strike of A. & P. butchers in all of its stores in Ohio.

In Milwaukee, 38 A. & P. stores and 9 other chain stores were affected by a strike called today after the A. & P. closed the meat departments in 26 of its stores.

State-Wide Strike Hinted.

Michael Schuld, an official of the meat-cutters' union, was author of a statement that a State-wide strike of A. & P. butchers in Ohio might be sought within a week when the union holds its convention in Columbus.

The A. & P., before closing its stores in Cleveland today, said its decision was due to an inability to protect shipments of merchandise between its warehouses and the stores. The warehouses were picketed by union men several days last week as part of a campaign to unionize the company's employes.

Several comparatively minor clashes between union and nonunion men occurred during the picketing and some merchandise was destroyed.

The assertion of Hartford that the company was unable to get protection was denied by Mayor Harry L.

Continued on Page 6, Column 3.

Church to Oust Wets.

Quincy, Mass., Oct. 29 (AP).—If any member of the Central Baptist Church doesn't vote against liquor license in Quincy, he can find another church to join, the Rev. Frank T. Littorin stipulated today.

$12,500 Bid for Ticket On Lottery Held Here

Two Others in Capital Lucky in Drawings for Sweepstakes.

If you held a lucky ticket on the famous Irish Sweepstakes, and along came a cablegram, offering you $12,500 for it, would you sell?

That's the pleasant, though puzzling, predicament W. Campbell Armstrong, of 1742 R street northwest, a 50-year-old Reconstruction Finance Corporation lawyer, found himself in yesterday.

Mr. Armstrong drew Caymanas, third choice in the historic Cambridgeshire scheduled to be run tomorrow, and will win $150,000 if his horse comes first, $75,000 if second and $50,000 if third.

"I'm going to investigate the chances of my horse for winning before I sell," Mr. Armstrong said yesterday.

He purchased the ticket by sheer accident and never has owned one before. He wouldn't have bought this one if an agent hadn't come into his office to sell one to another lawyer. Becoming interested when

Continued on Page 2, Column 4.

'Burn Down the House,' Screams Fortunate N. Y. Janitor.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—A Negro janitor just off Park avenue strutted into his basement today, shouting:

"Burn down the house; I'm a ring-tailed roaring son of a gun."

He had just been informed that his wife, Gertrude, had drawn a lucky ticket in the Irish Hospital Sweepstakes.

"Good luck has come my way," yelled the janitor—Everett Godfrey.

He roused his wife, who was ill and who had signed herself "Un-lucky Sue."

As cables began sending in the names of 515 Americans who were sure of dividing $1,030,000 in prizes, "lucky" New Yorkers began their celebrations.

The race will be run next Wednesday at Newmarket, England. Every person who drew a horse will receive $2,000. If his horse wins, the lucky holder of the winning ticket will get $150,000. Second place pays $75,000 and third place, $50,000.

Filipino on Way Here To Seek Trade Pact

Manila, Oct. 29 (AP).—Belief that it would be a "blessing if the Philippines continued for 25 years longer under American protection" was expressed today by Resident Commissioner Guevara, who will leave Wednesday for Washington.

Guevra said he would work for the establishment of a reciprocal trade relations treaty with the United States, "which is the only arrangement that will save us from economic extinction."

Crime Control Board Voted, Parole Evil Assailed at Rally; Gang Slaying Suspect Named

McDonald Links Dunn to Takoma Crime, Say Police.

Further Arrests Declared Near

Assailant Is "Identified" by Gambler as Man at the Scene.

Evidence linking John (Slim) Dunn, alias Edward Johnson, now in District Jail under indictment for the alleged part he played in the Union Station mail robbery last December, with the "mistaken identity" murder of Allen B. Wilson, newspaper route carrier, in Takoma Park, Md., October 23, was admitted by police last night.

Dunn has been questioned constantly in his cell since his arrest on the morning of October 23 by Detective Sergt. Frank O. Brass in a downtown office.

"Identification" Revealed.

According to Takoma Park authorities, "Mickey" McDonald, alleged "big shot" gambler and numbers racket operator, for whom the shotgun volley that killed Wilson as he was about to deliver a newspaper at 4 a. m., was intended, said he was certain one of the men he saw flee up the highway was Dunn.

Specifically, Dunn was arrested because of his indictment in the mail robbery, in which Francis White, a guard at the station, was wounded critically. He also has been charged with participation in the Heurich Brewery robbery of a year ago, in which bandits escaped with $1,640. For the last crime he was out on bond at the time of his arrest.

The Union Station holdup was committed by members of the Tri-State Gang, police said at the time of the crime. As far as they know, this is the only holdup in which the Tri-Staters figured in which Dunn participated.

In his cell at the jail, Dunn maintained an obstinate attitude yesterday. He denied, however, any knowledge of Wilson's slaying. McDonald, according to Takoma Park authorities, believed Dunn has good reason for wanting to "get him."

New arrests in the drive to find the killers of Wilson who fired from ambush in front of McDonald's home in Takoma Park were expected by police last night.

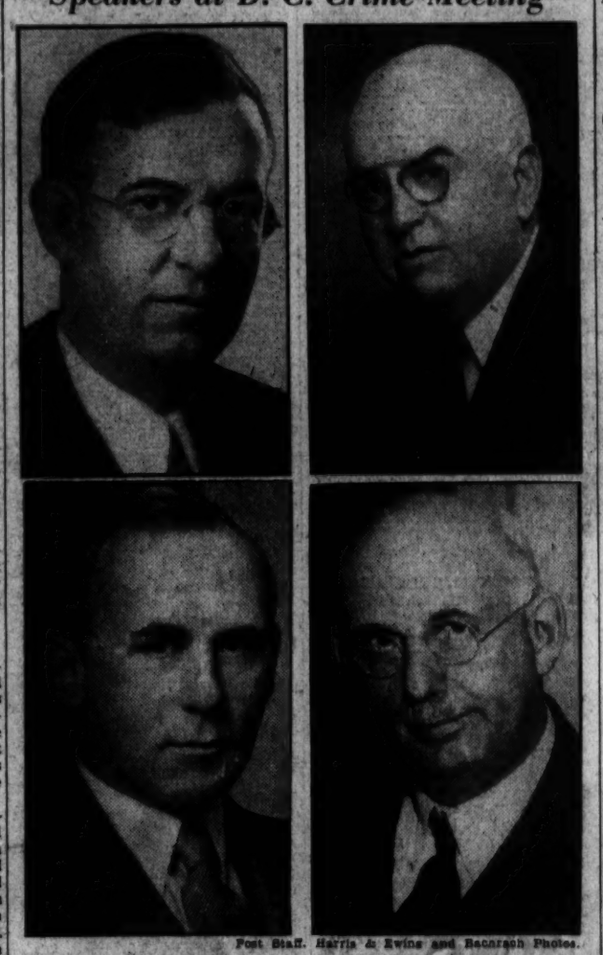
New Arrest Expected.

"There is a possibility we may arrest someone tonight in connection with the case," Inspector F. S. W. Burke, chief of detectives, said last night.

Throughout yesterday Maj. Ernest W. Brown, superintendent of police, conferred with officials, his officers and citizens. He talked with the Commissioners in the District Building, then was closeted with Inspector Burke, Capt. Bernard

Continued on Page 2, Column 3.

Speakers at D. C. Crime Meeting



Post Staff, Harris & Ewing and Bachrach Photos.

Prominent among speakers who were on the program of the citizens' mass meeting against crime in the District in the Mayflower Hotel last night were Corporation Counsel E. Barrett Prettyman (upper left), United States Attorney Leslie C. Garnett (upper right), F. Regis Noel, president of the District Bar Association (lower left), and Maj. Ernest W. Brown, superintendent of police.

$46,000 Cash Cached in 6 Banks By Gambler Murdered in Hotel

Sister, Seeking Letters, Reveals Hoard Left by Melincov.

An estate of $46,000 cash was left by Sam Melincov, slain gambler, it was shown yesterday when his sister, Anabel Edlow, applied to the District Supreme Court for letters of administration which would permit her to distribute the estate in accordance with the District's statutes governing the disposal of personal property.

The gambler, who was fatally wounded in a gun battle at the Houston Hotel September 15, had taken extreme precautions to prevent his cash hoard from falling into alien hands. He had rented his sister's petition showed, safety deposit boxes at half a dozen Washington banks, all under assumed names.

One box at the National Savings & Trust Co. and another at the Hamilton National Bank held $15,000 cash each, while in a third at the Washington Loan & Trust Co. Melincov had stored a stack of personal papers. At the National Savings institution his alias was given as Henry Jacobs, while at the Hamilton the name used was Joseph Myer. The personal papers were

Continued on Page 2, Column 3.

Marine Flier Dies in Crash.

San Diego, Calif., Oct. 29 (AP).—Staff Sergt. Carl C. Long, 32, Marine Corps flier, was killed today when his plane crashed into a hillside. The cause of the crash was not determined. A native of Syracuse, N. Y., Long is survived by his widow here.

Du Ponts Gave To 2 Parties, Report Shows

$438,000 Donated Since 1919; Republicans Got Lion's Share.

A total of $438,000 in political campaign contributions from 1919 to 1934 has been reported to the Senate Munitions Committee by officers and directors of E. I. du Pont de Nemours & Co., the committee announced yesterday.

The bulk of the contributions, some $408,000, went to Republican organizations or the National Republican committee. First returns covered 25 officers of the company, while some 15 officials, including Pierre du Pont, chairman of the board, and John J. Raskob and Alfred P. Sloan, jr., directors, still are to report.

Heading the list of contributors, Lammot du Pont, president of the company, was listed as donating $42,300 to the Republican party in 1928. His contributions to the same party this year were $15,250.

Two gifts to the Democrats by Irenee du Pont, a director, were reported as $8,000 in 1930 and $5,000 in 1933. Offsetting his 1930 contribution, $13,200 more was listed the same year as "liberal Republican, supporting Democratic candidate—other State officials Republican." There was a similar note besides a $845 donation in 1931. While the

Continued on Page 2, Column 2.

Roberts Gets Life in 10-Minute Trial for Killing 3 Relatives

George D. Roberts, former Alexandria policeman and confessed slayer of three members of his wife's family, was sentenced to life imprisonment yesterday by Alexandria's Corporation Judge William P. Woolls.

The proceedings lasted less than 10 minutes. Within half an hour after Roberts had pleaded guilty to the three murders he was on his way to the State penitentiary at Richmond.

As he was being led to the automobile on his way to prison, he was met by his wife. They caressed, and both sobbed as he was placed in the car.

Proceedings before Judge Woolls consisted of the reading of the indictment, after which Roberts pleaded guilty. Asked whether he had anything to say, he replied:

"I do not wish to be rude, but I have nothing to say at this time."

Roberts was accused of having murdered his father-in-law, Ward Stuart; Stuart's brother, George Stuart, and Ward's father, Willie Stuart. The shooting culminated a family quarrel.

On October 14, when Roberts went home for his supper and learned that his wife, Ardath, had gone to the home of her grandfather, he went to the house and opened fire, fatally wounding three of her relatives. Then he surrendered.

He was represented yesterday by Charles Henry Smith, Corporation Counsel Albert B. Bryan represented the Commonwealth.

Bar Proposes Plan to Combat Flaunting of the Law.

Garnett Attacks Probation System

Will Demand Congress Revise the Set-up; Brown Backs Him.

An aroused Washington citizenry last night, at the Mayflower Hotel, applauded a campaign sponsored by the District Bar Association to seek speedier and more effective apprehension and punishment of law violators in the National Capital.

The anticrime drive took immediate material form in the establishment of an organization group, which will recommend the personnel of a permanent committee on criminal justice, to be composed of laymen and lawyers, and "be charged with the duty of systematically following, improving and criticizing the enforcement of the criminal law in the District of Columbia."

Establishment of this committee was recommended by the bar association's committee of 40, headed by George Maurice Morris, which held its first meeting a few hours before the general gathering.

Parole Law Under Fire.

The District's comparatively new indeterminate sentence and parole law and its probation system was the object of the major attacks last night in spirited speeches by Washington law enforcement officials.

Leslie C. Garnett, United States attorney, sounded the keynote of the meeting when he demanded that the parole law be amended by Congress and that the probation system be changed.

His proposal was quickly indorsed by Maj. Ernest W. Brown, superintendent of police, an[illegible] speakers.

More than 1,000 Washingtonians, most of them representatives of civic organizations, packed the Mayflower ballroom to hear speakers discuss the probable causes and cure of the city's lawlessness.

Thousands more heard part of the ceremony broadcast over WMAL under sponsorship of The Washington Post.

Organization Group Named.

Named to membership on the organization group which will recommend the personnel of the permanent committee were the following:

F. Regis Noel, president of the District Bar Association; James G. Yaden, president of the Federation of Citizens Associations; Robert Netherland Miller, chairman of the mass meeting; Frank S. Bright, attorney, and Arthur Clarendon Smith, president of the Federation of Business Men's Association.

This group was authorized to confer with members of the bar, law enforcement officers, judges of the courts, and interested citizens and to report promptly its conclusions to the committee of 40 for appropriate action.

The attack on the District's 2-year-old parole law, under which the courts are required to give convicted felons a minimum sentence which is a fifth of the maximum, was launched by one of the members of the District Parole Board, Wilbur LaRoe, jr., who is also chairman of the civic affairs

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

Movies Will Be Made Of Living Human Heart

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—X-ray motion pictures which for the first time will show the living human heart in animated cartoon style were described to the Society of Motion Picture Engineers tonight.

These cartoons are pulsating shadows on a movie film, made definite by careful outline tracings. The heart thus revealed was said to be so graphic as to offer medicine a new method of diagnosis of heart diseases which are the foremost cause of American deaths.

Pennsylvania Town Is Rocked by Quake

Erie, Pa., Oct. 29 (AP).—Downtown and residential Erie was shaken today by an earthquake disturbance. Buildings swayed, housewives reported dishes fell from cupboard shelves and there was intense excitement but no serious damage.

The shock occurred after 3 p. m. and was felt along Lake Erie but apparently did not affect points 10 miles distant.

14 Texas Destitute Start Hunger Strike

Austin, Tex., Oct. 29 (AP).—Destitute men, women and children of Travis County camped at the Texas capitol entrance tonight in a "starve or get relief" strike.

Only 14 were in the group, but they swore they would starve in public until sufficient rations were given them. Protests were directed to a recent elimination of 1,700 cases from county relief rolls.

Relief to Guide New Tax Bills, Harrison Says

Finance Committee Head Talks With President Regarding Plans.

Additional tax legislation at the coming session of Congress will hinge largely on relief requirements for next year, it was declared yesterday by Senator Pat Harrison, Mississippi Democrat, who heads the Senate Finance Committee, following a conference with President Roosevelt.

At the same time, he predicted the enactment of an unemployment insurance bill, which, under plans now being studied by the President's committee on economic security, would call for the imposition of a direct Federal tax on pay rolls similar to the Wagner-Lewis bill proposed at the last session.

These developments at the White House were followed by an announcement by Harry L. Hopkins, relief administrator, that the number of people on relief, together with total expenditures under the FERA program, had continued with virtually no change from August through the month of September.

Figures on Relief.

The figures showed that 4,016,018 families received help from the Government during September, compared with 3,992,368 in August. Expenses dropped from $147,078,000 to $142,717,000.

The total number of persons receiving relief, Mr. Hopkins explained, is estimated by multiplying the number of families by four and adding the 585,000 single individuals on relief rolls. Under this compilation, the Federal Government is now supporting, or helping to support, 16,649,000 people.

Declaring that no alteration in the present work-relief program is contemplated until Congress convenes in January, Mr. Hopkins said that next month should afford a real test of requirements this winter, when cold weather arrives. The fact that September compared well with August he considered encouraging.

Senator Harrison said that he will call his committee members together the last of November or the first part of December to take up both unemployment insurance and the NRA. He predicted that certain parts of the latter, in accordance with the President's desire, will be continued after the recovery act expires next June 16.

Tax on Pay Rolls.

The Senator said he had given no thought to a tax on pay rolls, but elsewhere it has been indicated that such a levy is included among the unemployment insurance plans now being formulated by the Economic Security committee. This group, headed by Secretary of Labor Perkins, is due to complete its report by Christmas.

Under the Wagner-Lewis unemployment insurance bill, which failed of enactment at the last session, a pay roll tax of 5 per cent would be levied upon enterprises employing ten or more persons. The employer, however, would be permitted to deduct from this amount the sum he had contributed to a certified State unemployment insurance fund.

The Wagner bill, hence, was a direct inducement for the passage of insurance acts by the States. This principle, it is believed, will be continued in the committee's recommendations. Under this plan, the Federal Government would maintain general supervision of the system, but would bear only the cost of the overhead.

Government Receipts.

"Government receipts are very favorable," Senator Harrison continued, "but the whole thing depends on relief requirements. Personally, I think there has got to be a change and certain substitutions made along the lines of rehabilitation instead of direct relief."

The Senator explained that he had rather "give a fellow a mule, a piece of land and lend him money for implements" than to continue him on the dole. This is in line with President Roosevelt's recently rehabilitation and urban slum clearance announced intention to emphasize from now on, and thus to get away from direct relief.

The Administration is anxious to avoid a new tax bill, Senator Harrison indicated, but whether this will be accomplished remained a matter of doubt. A House Ways and Means sub-committee, headed by Washington's Representative, Samuel B. Hill, will meet soon after the elections to begin work.

Both Mr. Hill and Representative Robert L. Doughton, of North Carolina, chairman of the full committee, have expressed a desire to drop some of the $425,000,000 nuisance taxes within the year, if conditions permit. Drains on the Treasury have been so heavy, however, that it was believed the Administration would be reluctant to give up any of the measures now in effect.

Roosevelt Confers.

In this connection, Mr. Roosevelt conferred yesterday with Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, jr., and Daniel W. Bell, acting director of the budget. Beyond the remark that they are still working on departmental estimates, none would comment on the conference.

Senator Harrison expressed the opinion that the RFC and the Federal Reserve banks should pursue a policy of extreme liberalism in their loans to industry. He declared that "Jesse Jones and his people have done a great job," but that red tape should be reduced even further to provide industry with working credit.

"I was very much delighted to read of the love feast between the bankers and the President," the genial Mississippian added. "I hope they mean it."

Borah May "Rest" Here.

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 29 (AP).—Senator William E. Borah said today the "will have to go back to Washington for a vacation" after his extensive speaking tour this summer. During the summer he has toured the State, speaking almost every night and holding frequent conferences with Republican groups.

Between You and Me

Pennsylvania G. O. P. Makes the Most of Having Guffey as Democratic Target.

By Raymond Clapper

PENNSYLVANIA is used to rough political fights, but always hitherto Republicans have had nobody to fight except each other. They managed to do pretty well. For instance, you couldn't print what Boies Penrose, that bluff old heir of Falstaff and Rabelais, said, without Bowlderizing it. It was something to make your ears tingle when Pinchot, in days of yore, went to work on Senator David A. Reed, or when Reed, with the deadly aim of a Department of Justice agent, started after the late Bill Vare.

But this is the first time Pennsylvania Republicans have had the pleasure of operating on a Democrat because never before has one been able to get within claiming distance of the United States Senate, at least not since the Civil War.

That, of all persons, it should be Joseph F. Guffey, squire of Guffeys Landing, who was nominated to carry the Democratic banner against Senator Reed, gives the Republicans the very target they would have picked themselves. They are making the most of it. Radios in Pennsylvania are full of static every time a Republican mentions Guffey on the air.

In one radio speech yesterday, the mildest crack was:

"Don't take any guff from Guffey."

* * * *

Early in the Administration President Roosevelt was fond of remarking that he moved the Government back to Washington from New York. It must be true because the New York Stock Exchange is giving serious consideration to the possibility of opening a Washington office. The purpose would be to keep in close touch with the new Federal regulatory hand which has been laid on it.

The Securities Exchange Commission, in turn, expects to establish a New York office near the Stock Exchange.

* * * *

The Democratic National Committee is trying to get in touch with Representative Loring Black, of New York, chairman of the House Campaign Expenditures Investigating Committee. Black, who is not running for reelection, has neglected to put his committee to work looking into campaign expenses of House candidates, and the National committee wants to know why it doesn't do something. Of course there is no politics involved.

* * * *

In Florida a lynching is advertised like a bull fight hours in advance. Not only men but women, children and babies form a huge audience for the ghastly spectacle. In Oklahoma 20,000 morbid persons attend the burial of "Pretty Boy" Floyd, the killer bandit. Fences are torn down to make room for parked cars. License tags of 20 States are noted. Women bring babies in arms. Children arrive in school buses, to see the slain desperado lowered into the grave. That in a country about to go to the polls to pass judgment on aspects of an extensive social and economic experiment. It must make entertaining reading for Mussolini, who thinks democracy is a passing failure.

* * * *

The quickest way to start an argument in Washington is to find two or more persons and ask:

"Is Mr. Roosevelt going to the right or left?"

You can either remain as a participant or leave. The argument will proceed without further fueling, but it won't get anywhere. Each supposed right step can be matched with an alleged left step.

The truth may be that Mr. Roosevelt isn't trying to fit his decisions into any preconceived phrase pattern. He may be like a man walking toward a destination. First he moves on the left foot, then the right, and so on alternately until he gets where he wants to go. Sometimes he moves in a deflationary direction, as in the Government employes' pay cuts, or in saddling the railroads with the cost of employes' pensions. At other times he moves with inflationary effect, as in the PWA spending or in forcing up agricultural prices. As Mr. Roosevelt puts it, "You pays your money and you takes your choice."

* * * *

When the Supreme Court called at the White House recently to pay its respects, President Roosevelt called Chief Justice Hughes aside. The President, so it is said, remarked that many questions involved in the Washington naval limitations conference would come up in the naval discussions now proceeding at London. Chief Justice Hughes was Secretary of State during the Washington conference, was chairman of the American delegation, and was the driving figure throughout. The President is understood to have indicated it would be helpful if he could call on Mr. Hughes occasionally as an unofficial adviser. Mr. Hughes, glad to be of service, made it clear, however, that he would be compelled to keep his advisory role personal and private.

Precincts Face Responsibility On Crime Curb

Police Likely to Clamp Down With Return to Old Methods.

By Edward T. Folliard.

One result of the present clamor over crime in Washington may be a return to old-fashioned police methods.

The present vice and gambling squad, headed by Lieut. George Little, is an offshoot of a squad set up back in the days when the old "red light" district was closed.

Sergt. John Catts at that time was named head of a squad whose duty it was to see that the district stayed closed.

With the advent of prohibition, the vice squad was given the additional duties of chasing and raiding speakeasies.

Has Threefold Duty.

Today the squad commanded by Lieut. Little has three duties—the raiding of gambling establishments, houses of ill fame, and the seizure of liquor on which no tax has been paid.

Little's squad roams the city, making forays in all 12 precincts.

The belief has been growing lately that in a city of a half million, one squad should not be saddled with such a responsibility. Commissioner Melvin C. Hazen is one who shares that belief. He said the other day that henceforth each policeman would be held responsible for conditions on his particular beat.

In the last analysis that means that each captain of a precinct will be held responsible and will be subject to censure when the situation in his territory gets out of hand.

The theory behind an undercover vice squad is that the policemen and detectives in a particular precinct are too well known and therefore are ineffective where gambling houses are concerned.

Hence the idea of having a special raiding squad work out of headquarters.

The danger of this system, as some see it, is that it encourages a "let George do it" spirit in the various precincts, George in this case being Lieut. Little.

No. 3 Checks Crime.

There is one precinct in Washington where old-fashioned police methods reach their finest flower. It is No. 3, in the Northwest section, headed by Capt. Ed Kelly.

It is related of Kelly's colleagues that since he has been in charge of No. 3, that precinct has become almost barren of crime-breeding establishments.

Kelly's methods are simple. He merely tells gamblers and prostitutes to get out of his precinct and stay out. Knowing Kelly, they do stay out.

That eliminates warrants, raids, trials—and "red tape."

Crime Control Board Voted at Rally Here

Bar Association Proposes Plan to Combat Flaunting of the Law; Evils of Parole System Are Assailed by Speakers.

Continued from Page 1.

committee of the Washington Federation of Churches.

Parole System Assailed.

"To be frank, the District parole law is too loose and needs tightening," he said. "While it would be inhuman to abolish the parole system, it is dangerous to continue it as it operates at present.

"As a member of the parole board I can tell you we feel uncomfortable most of the time. I hope that your investigation will cover the parole board and the parole law from top to bottom."

United States Attorney Garnett went further in denouncing the indeterminate sentence and parole law, while absolving the members of the board from any blame.

Contradicting the usual criticism that delays in law enforcement and judicial punishment are largely re-Garnett said. "That is not the consponsible for crime in the District, tributing cause here," and he cited figures to prove his contention that lawbreakers are speedily tried and punished.

Three causese for the prevalence of crime in Washington were cited by the United States Attorney. They are:

Constructive cooperation rather than resolutions and criticism was asked by Prettyman in an address which was accepted as the point of view of the District government administration.

"Resolutions and criticisms are of little value," he said. "We know already there is a problem, we are already working on the problem; we are frankly puzzled by the problem. If you want to work on it with us, we very heartily welcome your assistance."

Suggesting that "maybe the laws need amending in some respects, and maybe they do not," Prettyman said:

Points to Police Problem.

"It is not sufficient to cry that we need more policemen. We might easily agree on that, but the problem is: How are we going to get them, and what should we do with them after we have them?

"In short, real assistance must take some specific form, tied in tight to the facts, and no assistance comes from hysterical yelling."

One of the major problems of law enforcement in the District, the corporation counsel said, is what to do with the mass of minor law violations. He outlined four methods of dealing out the penalties for these infractions.

First, is the present method, under which the assistant corporation counsel exercise their discretion in nolle prossing many informations and in recommending penalties to the court.

"In the rush and press of the daily business, the judges, in many, many cases, from sheer physical necessity, must adopt these recommendations and dispose of the cases.

"We all wonder, both my assistants and myself, whether this is the best method of handling the work."

Second, the suggestion has been made that all cases be tried by the court or heard by a jury.

Obstacles on Minor Cases.

"This suggestion fails because of its physical impossibility," Prettyman observed. "Perhaps if Congress would triple the number of judges and double the number of assistant corporation counsel at Police Court, some such program might be embarked upon. But I believe that no District official believes that such increases could be obtained."

Third, it has been suggested that penalties for minor violations be made heavier on the theory that heavier punishment will deter infractions.

Adoption of such a policy, the corporation counsel said, would only clog the courts and further impede justice because the violators would take advantage of their right to demand jury trials.

"It is a cardinal, unquestioned fact that if you jam your courts with so many pending jury trials that the time of trial is indefinitely postponed, you break down the effective enforcement of the law," he added.

Lauds Liquor Regulation.

Fourth, the suggestion has been made that the bulk of the minor law prosecutions be handled by some method other than court trial. Citing the method of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board in enforcing its regulation through revocation of licenses, Prettyman said:

"This method has the obviously great advantage of strict control without a multiplicity of minor Police Court cases, and I may add I believe it is working with great satisfaction.

"It has been suggested that the same method might be applied to traffic violations. Of the 55,000 informations handled last year, about 26,000 were for violations of the traffic law.

"The concrete suggestion is made that if the District government should adopt the policy of making notes of all traffic accidents and of all traffic violations without actual arrest, except for serious offense, the habitual violators will easily come to the surface and the tags of their cars would be lifted by administrative officials.

"The advantages pleaded for this method are two: (1) It would effectively remove from our streets the habitual violators or accident-prone drivers and (2) it would remove from the Police Court thousands upon thousands of minor cases.

Would Provide Relief.

"This relief would permit the court and the assistant corporation counsel to examine more closely the more serious offenses, to present them more fully and carefully, to handle in satisfactory fashion the cases which really deserve criminal prosecution."

The mass meeting was opened by Chairman Miller with an explanation of its purpose and the origin of the Bar Association's proposal. Explaining that the special committee of 40 in proposing the establishment of a permanent committee on criminal justice was following a recommendation of the American Bar Association, Miller said:

"While lawyers have been active in starting this movement, they have fully recognized that the hope of real success lies in the combined efforts of both laymen and lawyers.

"It is also evident that the field of criminology is a grim and complicated field, so that seasoned experience and study are required in any attempt to deal intelligently with it.

Sees Lawlessness Menace.

"But every citizen can see that in spite of the vigorous and constant efforts of our National and local law enforcement agencies, lawlessness of a very dangerous kind is an existing menace, not only in parts of the United States which are more or less remote, but even here at the seat of the Government.

"It seems clear that a permanent committee, directly representing the public, will be able to take careful steps to inform itself, and can do effective and constructive work in mobilizing the great power of local public opinion and in intelligently following, improving and criticizing the enforcement of the criminal law. We know that such cooperation is welcomed by the law enforcing agencies.

Test of Plan Awaited.

"The first test of this work will be whether it actually shows results in cutting down the appalling delays and uncertainties in the operation of criminal justice which encourage the criminal and leave the law-abiding citizen helpless.

"The keen interest with which these efforts are being received by the public and by the press of this city is highly encouraging."

Miller urged his listeners "to write down and mail" to the organization group any suggestions they might have as to better law enforcement in the District.

Changes Urged By Republicans

Former Baltimore Mayor Tells Laurel Rally of Need for Progress.

Maryland needs a change of administration to provide the competition so necessary to progress, former Mayor William F. Broening, of Baltimore, told a large gathering at the Republican rally last night in the National Guard Armory, Laurel.

J. Purdum Wright, former assistant attorney general, charged Gov. Ritchie had not included old age pensions and unemployment insurance in his program until the Republicans incorporated them in the Republican platform. He also advocated a service officer to handle problems of Maryland war veterans.

Joseph A. Wilmer, candidate for Representative, declared no lasting prosperity can come to the country until business is taken out of the hands of the Government. William B. Lawson, State chairman, and Dr. Thomas E. Latimer, county chairman, also spoke.

Harry W. Nice, Republican candidate for Governor, and Joseph I. France, candidate for Senator, were scheduled to speak, but had not arrived at a late hour. The speakers were introduced by Col. E. E. Hatch, who was presented as chairman by former Mayor James Curley, of Laurel.

Sinclair Losing Party Support, Merriam Holds

G. O. P. Nominee Declares He's Backed by Many Democrats.

San Francisco, Oct. 29 (AP).—Asserting California's heated governorship fight has ceased to be along party lines, acting Gov. Frank F. Merriam, Republican nominee, today issued a statement claiming he had the "vigrous support of a large proportion of California Democrats."

"And in supporting me," his statement added, "they are not deserting their party or voicing their disapproval of the Government at Washington."

Upton Sinclair, former Socialist, who is the Democratic nominee, is "not a Democrat," Merriam declared.

Not a Democrat.

"My opponent definitely stated before the primaries that he proposed to capture the Democratic party as a means of introducing the EPIC plan after he was in office. He is not a Democrat.

"Those who registered as Democrats in the State of California are so registered to show their approval of President Roosevelt and the 'New Deal.' It is in no sense an indication of how these loyal Democrats regard the situation in California."

An appeal for Sinclair to withdraw from the campaign was made by Milen Dempster, Socialist party candidate for Governor. He urged the former Socialist to abandon his EPIC (end poverty in California) plan and "come back to a sound Socialist program."

Fraud Case Begun.

Meanwhile, the State Supreme Court began hearing a case involving alleged registration frauds.

InLos Angeles, Sinclair critizing Merriam's stand on social credit, said:

"Merfriam's stand on social credit is a perfect instance of mystification to the thinking people of the world.

"I challenge any one to explain Merriam's position that what he advocates is anything but a glorified dole."

Sinclair has stated he will not withdraw from the campaign.

Court Will Rule Today on Gov. Suit Dismissal

W. F. Roberts Co. Seeking Quashing of Federal Action.

Hearing on a petition to dismiss a suit brought by the Government to compel the W. F. Roberts Co. to live up to the NRA code of fair competition for the graphic arts industry was postponed from yesterday to today because Justice Jennings Bailey wanted time in which to read the original petition filed by the Government.

The Roberts Co., one of the city's oldest printing concerns, was charged with disobeying four rules of the code. It was alleged to have paid less than the minimum wage, less than the overtime wage, worked its employes more than the limit of hours and failed to post in their workshops the schedule of work and wages of the code.

Through its representatives the company stated it had substantially complied with the code, although it was a nonsigner. The original action was a petition for an injunction to prevent "continued" transgressions of the code. The Government lost its fight to get a preliminary injunction when Justice Jesse C. Adkins ruled there was no showing that "great harm" would accrue to the Government in the short time necessary for a final hearing.

The company met this move with a motion to dismiss the entire proceedings, and that is what is to be thrashed out before Justice Bailey today.

Hickey-Freeman
CUSTOMIZED CLOTHES
Llamando
A noted weaver has blended the wool of the Llama with the rare wool of the Cashmere goat to produce Llamando coats. These fine coats offer warmth without weight—and are hand-made by HICKEY-FREEMAN.
$78 and $88
Goldheim's
Apparel for Gentlemen . . . Established 1875
1409 H Street N.W. NAtional 1409

FLORIDA CUBA SOUTH
Low Fares
FOR EXAMPLE ROUND TRIPS FROM WASHINGTON
JACKSONVILLE $31.60
MIAMI 46.20
TAMPA 40.05
ST. PETERSBURG ... 41.00
FROM WASHINGTON DAILY
THE TAMIAMI LV. 3.25 P.M. One night out to all Florida points.
HAVANA SPECIAL LV. 3.25 A.M. Arrives Open 10 P.M. With early morning arrivals at South Florida points.
• A Clean Ride on a Double Track, Rock-Ballasted Railroad; Protected by Automatic Signals and Train Control.
TAKE YOUR AUTO—ONE R. R. TICKET CARRIES IT
GEO. P. JAMES, G. P. A., 728 15TH ST. N.W., WASHINGTON, D. C. TEL. NATIONAL 7935
ATLANTIC COAST LINE
The Standard Railroad of the South

FREEDOM from household drudgery

The G-E all-electric range . . . the greatest "comfort and convenience" kitchen appliance known. Three extra hours' freedom a day. Ask us for details.
DOWN PAYMENTS AS LOW AS $10.00
NATIONAL ELECTRICAL SUPPLY CO.
1328 New York Ave. NA. 6800

Like the Smiling Chef of Cream of Wheat
THE BLUE COLOR OF 'blue coal'

The blue tint is a trade-mark worth remembering. It marks a superior grade of coal, selectively mined from rich Pennsylvania Anthracite (hard coal) veins. The blue tint guarantees maximum heating efficiency and economy from every ton you buy. 'blue coal' costs no more than ordinary unbranded hard coal.
Our heating experts will advise you how to regulate your furnace for highest efficiency.
GRIFFITH-CONSUMERS COMPANY
1413 New York Avenue MEtropolitan 4840
BEWARE OF SUBSTITUTES—LOOK FOR THE BLUE TINT ACTUALLY ON THE COAL

10-Story Plunge Held Up to Save People in Street

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—Hobart D. Betts, an electrical manufacturer, hung onto the cornice of the tenth floor of his Park avenue apartment house today for ten minutes before dropping to his death.

He was waiting for the street to be cleared of pedestrian traffic.

J. J. Farmer, building superintendent, ran into the street and in a loud voice pleaded that the manufacturer pull himself back.

"Please, get out of the way," Betts shouted back.

Finally, when policemen reached the landing of the fire escape above Betts, he released his hold.

Betts, 62, a graduate of Princeton, had been suffering from a nervous ailment.

George W. Betts, jr., brother of the dead man, said the manufacturer's only son, Hobart, jr., committed suicide a few years ago.

Massachusetts Fish Strike Peace Is Near

Boston, Oct. 29 (AP).—Settlement of a strike involving nearly 5,000 fishermen and allied workers, which in three weeks has driven the price of fish up 100 per cent and caused a shortage of fish for Midwestern consumption, appeared likely tonight.

The Massachusetts Fisheries Association, embracing a majority of fishing vessel owners and dealers, agreed to meet a delegation of officials of the three unions involved tomorrow to discuss terms of a possible settlement. Spokesmen for both sides expressed hope that the walkout could be successfully arbitrated.

Clark Wills Half Million To Housekeeper's Son

Butte, Mont., Oct. 29 (AP).—The estate of the late William A. Clark, jr., was valued at $3,982,727.72 in an inventory filed today. Clark, son of the late Senator W. A. Clark, died last summer.

Legacies included one of $500,000 to George Pale, 17, son of Clark's housekeeper.

Du Ponts Gave Aid To Both Parties

Continued from Page 1.

was giving $5,000 to the Democrats in 1933, he gave another $4,500 to the Republican State campaign, the report said.

Gifts to the American Liberty League, which Irenee du Pont helped found, included $250 by Vice President A. B. Echols and $25 by Vice President W. F. Harrington.

Reporting no contributions to political parties during the 15-year period were William Richter, E. E. du Pont and W. P. Allen, directors.

The gifts were made public "upon instructions of Senator Gerald P. Nye, chairman of the committee."

Dunn Is Linked By McDonald To Gang Killing

Suspect Seized Here in Union Station Crime Called Assailant.

Continued from Page 1.

Thompson and Lieut. George Little, chief of the vice squad.

At least 12 known colored gamblers have been questioned by scores of detectives and policemen who have been assigned to special duty in clearing up Wilson's killing.

McDonald, for whom the deadly shotgun charges were intended, was known to have had many dealings with colored gamblers. Police recalled that only last year he was stabbed in the shoulder by a gambler with whom he had an argument.

All of the city's known gambling establishments remained closed yesterday, Lieut. Little reported. When his picked men went to conduct raids and make arrests, they found vacant rooms and locked doors.

In Montgomery County, police pushed their investigation of the case.

Takoma Police Aided.

Two detectives were sent from Baltimore to aid Takoma Park officials. They were Detective Lieut. Joseph Itzel and Detective Patrolman Joseph Hudak.

Both arrived in Rockville early yesterday, and then inspected the automobile in which Wilson, the father of three children, met his death. They also examined the shotgun shells, from which bursts of lead riddled the sides of Wilson's car and wounded him fatally.

The officers expected to remain in Rockville all last night, and perhaps longer.

Among the civic groups which conferred with Maj. Brown yesterday was the Mid-City Citizens' Association. The members assured the superintendent of their desire to cooperate with the police in every possible way in stamping out crime in the District, and bringing to justice the slayers of Wilson.

$46,000 Cash Left By Slain Gambler

Continued from Page 1.

stored under the name of Samuel Harris.

Because Melincov left no will his estate will be divided among his nearest kin. In addition to the $30,000 in the two safety deposit boxes he left approximately $16,000 in small amounts in other banks.

Melincov was shot in a gambling war in the Houston Hotel, in which Bryant (Big) McMahon also was slain. Police believe the men killed each other. The slayings are still being investigated by the District grand jury and several men are under bond.

$12,500 Offered For 'Stakes Ticket

Continued from Page 1.

his associate bought one, Armstrong purchased a ticket for himself.

Caymanas is rated a 15-to-1 shot.

"I haven't any plans whatever for spending the money," asserted Mr. Armstrong. "I will wait until I see it."

Mr. Armstrong is married and the father of three children.

A Filipino house boy and a tire shop manager are other Washingtonians who hold tickets as the result of yesterday's drawings. Three other residents of the District got the good news of their lucky tickets Saturday.

Is It True, Is It True?

Teofilo Sarabay, servant for Alfred P. Thom, of 3535 Van Ness street, the Filipino house boy, has a ticket on Miss Tor. He is 30, and a graduate of American University.

"Is it true, is it true?" he gasped over the telephone, when he was informed he would be richer by at least $2,000.

Mrs. Rosamond De Bosky, 26, of 417 Concord avenue, manager of a tire shop, has drawn Grindleton, a long shot.

The total of lucky ticket holders in America is 534, it was announced yesterday.

Washington's other three lucky ones, who hold tickets assuring them of at least $2,000, are Mrs. Mary H. Booth, Treasury Department secretary, of 2201 Fifteenth street northwest; James Jackson, 31, a colored butler, who works for Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Sweeney, of the 1500 block of New Hampshire avenue northwest, and Harris Scandalos, a lunchroom proprietor of 1618 Fourteenth street northwest.

Maryland Speaker's Father Lucky in Draw

Baltimore, Oct. 29 (AP).—Thomas Harrington, father of T. Barton Harrington, speaker of the House of Delegates, was one of two Baltimoreans who appeared to be $2,000 richer today because they hold lucky tickets in the Irish Sweepstakes.

Harrington has a ticket on Aspiration, a nonstarter entitling him to $2,000 but no chance to win more.

Adam Kratz, dairy operator, has a ticket on the Blue Boy, worth $2,000 now and $150,000 more if his horse, an outsider, should win. Kratz said he purchased part of his ticket in milk.

$700 Red Cross Goal Set at Silver Spring

Plans for the annual Red Cross roll call, setting a goal of $700 beginning November 11, were made by the Silver Spring, Md., branch of the Montgomery County chapter of the Red Cross at a meeting held last night in the Jesup Blair Community House at Silver Spring.

2 Candidates Discover What 'Hot Time' Means

The election campaign in Prince Georges County must be getting hot. Two of the Democratic candidates were victims of fires within 24 hours.

Vinton D. Cockey, Democratic candidate for county commissioner, was awakened by fire Sunday which caused damage of approximately $2,000 to his residence in Laurel, Md. Yesterday the automobile of Mayor John H. Beall, of Mount Rainier, Md., Democratic candidate for judge of the Orphans' Court, caught fire and was damaged badly before the local fire department arrived.

Bolivia Anti-Militaristic, Legation Official Says

Bolivia's government is definitely anitimilitaristic since national elections set up an antiwar government in 1931, said Senor Enrique de Lozada, First Secretary of the Bolivian Legation, in a lecture last night before the Inter-American group at the George Washington University.

Senor de Lozada's talk refuted alleged Paraguayan assertions that Bolivia is controlled by a militarist group. He explained that during 1930 a Bolivian revolution overthrew a military government then in power which was desirous of carrying on longer than permitted under the country's constitution.

Office Supply Sales Double.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—Office appliances in certain lines of equipment current shipments are nearly double those for the corresponding time last year, according to trade quarters.

SPECIAL NOTICES.
CHOICE APPLES
SUPER-CIDER
at QUAINT ACRES
Silver Spring-Colesville Pike. (Route 29.) Only 5 miles from District.
GREGG And BOYD Shorthand. Typing. Business Letter Writing. Bookkeeping. Calculating Machines. Secretarial, Stenographic, Civil Service Courses. New classes now forming. Position guaranteed. Inquire now.
BOYD BUSINESS UNIVERSITY.
1333 F (Est. 17 yrs.) NAt. 2338.

Eckener Tells Plans for U. S. Airship Service

Round-Trip Flights Start Next Summer Under Program.

The dream of an air line connecting Europe and North America was brought closer to reality when Dr. Hugo Eckener, of Graf Zeppelin fame, yesterday told the Federal Aviation Commission that he will start a round-trip service next summer if he can get landing facilities in this country.

Interest was evinced by the policy-making commission in Dr. Eckener's plans and serious consideration was being given his later proposal—that America participate in a world-wide airship service providing fast transportation over both the Atlantic and Pacific.

Dr. Eckener told the commission that he is in this country to obtain permission from the Navy to use the Lakehurst (N. J.) landing facilities. With the granting of this request and the location of an alternate mooring place "south of Baltimore," he said, he would be able to start the service late in June or early in July.

Demonstration Flights.

This service will be a series of demonstration flights under actual commercial conditions, he said, and will have to be abandoned after about three months, when the dirigible to be used will have to go back upon the already established line between Germany and Brazil.

"I am certain," said the veteran of 72 airship crossings of the Atlantic, "that after a short while we will be able to accomplish the eastbound North Atlantic crossing from coast to coast in an average time of 45 hours, and the westbound voyage in an average time of 55 hours."

Dr. Eckener urged the establishment of a world-wide dirigible service to connect this country, Germany, South America and the Dutch East Indies and suggested a combined German-American-Dutch operating company to develop such a project.

Urges Helium Exports.

Dr. Eckener stated that it would be desirable to have helium available as the lifting gas for the fleet of ships which would be needed. He said: "It is imperative that in a future combined service of domestic and foreign airships, helium be made available to all countries who will participate."

At present the United States controls the world's supply of helium. None may be exported without the approval of the President.

About the hazards of a North Atlantic service, Dr. Eckener said that airships could surmount any weather difficulties.

"Under competent command," he said, "an airship is able to cope with all weather conditions and all situations."

To Dr. Eckener's testimony was added that of P. W. Litchfield, president of Goodyear-Zeppelin Corporation and the Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., who declared that the United States must choose "between a position of leadership in such transportation or abandoning this field to other world powers."

U. S. Funds Asked.

The Goodyear president recommended that the Government appropriate funds for the construction of ships to be put into commercial service on transoceanic routes, formulate legislation to foster the operation of these lines, encourage foreign lines and arrange for an adequate supply of helium for both domestic and foreign airships.

Mr. Litchfield favored the offer of Dr. Eckener that next summer's proposed demonstration flights be used as an opportunity for the training of American personnel in aircraft handling.

After his appearance before the commission, Dr. Eckener was the tea guest of the President. Today he will call upon Secretary of the Navy Swanson, Rear Admiral Ernest J. King, chief of naval aeronautics, and other Government officials.

Ewing Y. Mitchell, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, repeated his recommendation to the commission that $17,000,000 of PWA funds be allocated for airship construction. This would build two ships of the Zeppelin class, a metal clad airship and a commercial terminal.

Lumber Business Lowest Since July

(Associated Press.)

The National Lumber Manufacturers' Association reports that new business, shipments and production at lumber mills during the week ended October 20 were all below similar items reported for any week since July 1. The association said, also, that orders for new business fell below those of the corresponding week last year for the first time in four weeks.

Reports to the association from 1,326 leading mills gave production as 176,029,000 feet, shipments as 167,358,000 feet and orders of 161,768,000 feet.

In the preceding week production amounted to 190,714,000 feet, shipments to 172,607,000 feet and orders to 177,914,000 feet.

Java Sugar Production Drops to 125,592 Tons

New York, Oct. 29.—Sugar production in Java during August totaled 125,592 long tons as against 331,243 tons for the same month last year, a decrease of 205,651 tons, or a little over 62 per cent, according to advices received by Lamborn & Co.

Production since the start of the campaign in April to the end of August amounted to 402,046 tons as compared with 1,053,809 tons for the corresponding period in 1933, a decrease of 651,763 tons, or approximately 63 per cent.

Dogs get lost in the summer time, but they are quickly found with Post Classified Ads. Just phone National 4200.

Eckener Urges World-Wide Zeppelin Lines

Post Staff Photo.

Dr. Hugo Eckener, Graf Zeppelin commander (left), as he urged Federal cooperation in international airship lines to the Federal Aviation Commission. At the right is Wilhelm von Meister, who interpreted the veteran flier's answers to the commission's questions.

Victim of Crash Dies; 3 Others Injured in City

Hurt at Prince Frederick, Washington Driver Succumbs Here.

Ephraim M. Smith, 44, of 815 Eighteenth street northwest, injured Thursday in a traffic crash near Prince Frederick, Md., died yesterday in Emergency Hospital. Three other persons are recovering from accident injuries received during the last 24 hours.

Smith suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries when his automobile left the road between Prince Frederick and Solomons Island. He was given first aid treatment at Calvert County Hospital in Prince Frederick and brought to Washington.

Mrs. Sylvia Newarth, 53, of the Argonne Apartments, was injured seriously by a motorcycle near her home early yesterday. She was taken to Emergency Hospital with injuries to her right leg and severe lacerations. Irvington Washington, colored, 26, of the 1400 block of Eighth street northwest, said to have been the driver of the motorcycle, was held pending the outcome of Mrs. Newart's injuries.

Thrown from his motorcycle when it collided with a truck at Fourteenth street and Constitution avenue northwest, Park Policeman E. E. Sarr was taken to Emergency Hospital with a wrenched back and neck. Clyde Brisco, colored, 28, of Takoma Park, Md., driver of the truck, was held on charges of reckless driving.

Bernard Penalla, 60, of the 1300 block of Fairmont street northwest, is in Garfield Hospital with injuries received when struck by an automobile while crossing the street near his home. He suffered lacerations and bruises. The driver was not held.

British Fliers Hit 209 M. P. H. Clip On 2,210-Mile Hop

London, Oct. 29 (AP).—Cathcart Jones and Ken Waller, Australian Derby fliers on a back-track speed hop to England, boosted their average speed to 208.8 miles an hour today on a 2,210-mile flight from Singapore to Allahabad, India.

They rested at the latter place tonight preparatory to leaving for Karachi.

On the hop from Darwin to Singapore the fliers made 201.7 miles an hour. The two aviators are bringing home photographs of the derby. They plan for the remainder of the flight to take to the air by day and sleep at night.

A delay at Port Darwin was believed to have spoiled their chances of beating the time of 70 hours 59 minutes and 50 seconds made by Scott and Black, winners of the derby on their England-to-Melbourn flight.

France May Lengthen Compulsory Army Drill

Paris, Oct. 29 (AP).—Several French deputies predicted today that the government soon would seek to lengthen the period of compulsory military service to offset preparations for war in Germany.

The predictions were made after Marshal Henri Petain, minister of war, at a secret session of the chamber finance committee, described military activities in Germany.

4 Civic Groups Meet Tonight

Southeast Citizens to Get Report on Bridge Project.

Four associations of citizens will hold meetings tonight to discuss subjects of city-wide interest or subjects peculiar to their own communities.

The Southeast Washington Citizens Association will hear a report from Vernis Absher, delegate to the joint conference of Southeast citizens associations, on the Pennsylvania Avenue Bridge replacement, proposed addition to the Anacostia Junior High School and the proposed sewer for Hillcrest. There will also be an address by Dorsey W. Hyde, jr., of the housing administration, and the annual election of officers. The meeting will be held in the Buchanan School at 8 p. m.

The annual get-together of the Georgia Avenue Citizens Association will begin at 8 o'clock at the Pierce Cafe, 5200 Georgia avenue. Eugene Minuox, president, will conduct the meeting, and there will be election of officers.

Rhode Island Avenue Citizens Association will meet at Sherwood Presbyterian Church at 8 p. m. and will be addressed by a representative of the Community Chest.

Logan-Thomas Circle Citizens Association, meeting at 8 p. m. at Northminster Church, will complete plans for participation in the municipal Halloween celebration tomorrow night.

Jurors Accuse 4 Vote Judges

Baltimore Officials Are Charged With Ballot Box Stuffing.

Baltimore, Oct. 29 (AP).—Four Baltimore election judges today were presented on criminal charges by the grand jury in the alleged stuffing of precinct ballot boxes in the primary.

The men charged with violation of the election laws are Fred H. Muller, Theodore Sackhoff, George A. Elseffer and John E. Doran. They were suspended as election judges last month by the board of election supervisors.

Muller was accused on two counts—placing improper ballots or papers resembling ballots in the boxes, and neglect of duty.

Bail for the men was set at $1,000 on each count.

First charges of improprieties in the voting were brought on the day of the primary. An immediate investigation was undertaken by the board of election supervisors when a city-wide recount indicated improprieties. The grand jury began its investigation early in October.

Troopers' Ancestors Face German Probe

Berlin, Oct. 29 (U.P.).—Nazi Storm Troopers desiring to remain in the organization must prove that none of their 16 great-great-grandparents were Jewish, and must immediately sever marital ties if they are with "non-Aryans," according to an announcement tonight in the Storm Troop organ.

The organ demanded Aryan purity in Storm Troop ranks far exceeding that demanded among state officials, who are required to prove only that none of their four grandparents were Jewish.

Fake Appraisal In Stock Issues Fought by U. S.

Securities Commission Halts Sale of Distillery Firm Certificates.

(Associated Press.)

The Securities and Exchange Commission, as an offshoot of its campaign against stock swindling, yesterday cracked down upon the allegedly false appraisal of property in connection with the issuance of stock.

An order was issued by the commission stopping the sale of the stock of the Haddam Distillers Co., Moodus, Conn., on the ground that its appraisal, made by the Standard Appraisal Co. of New York, was "inexcusably careless." The commission added:

"The testimony impels toward the view that there was a dishonest attempt to inflate values beyond any maximum that differences of opinion might condone."

Sought to Register $250,000.

The distilling company sought to register $250,000 in stock. Registration requires that a company describe a proposed issue fully before the commission.

The commission said a stop order proceeding also is pending with respect to the registration statement of the Continental Distillers & Importers Corporation of New York City. The appraisals in this case also were made by the Standard Appraisal Co. of New York.

Commission officials have long been aware of questionable appraisal methods as a device sometimes used by stock promoters to create fictitious values for their securities.

Inflated valuations, however, are held by the commission to be only one of a multitude of methods used to fool the unwary.

70 Probers Eye Methods.

About 70 investigators already are in the field examining methods used by various exchanges, and many more soon will undertake the job of seeing to it that stock salesmen tell the truth about their wares.

The commission found that while the Haddam corporation's proposed factory building had been described as having three stories and a basement, that the third story was in fact an attic, and a so-called garage was "nothing more than a barn."

The commission's engineer said a building described as designated for grain storage was a woodshed.

"The appraisal values a distilling unit at a 'replacement cost new' of $125,000 and a 'sound value' of $125,000," the commission said. "Mr. Baker, vice president and director of registration, testified he purchased the unit in Germany in 1929 for approximately $22,000, paid import duties of $8,000 and the total cost was $40,000. He admitted it could not have appreciated over 200 per cent in five years."

Court Considers Sinclair's Oil Bid

Protests Heard on Sale of Richfield Properties.

Los Angeles, Oct. 29 (AP).—Judge William P. James today took under advisement until Saturday the bid of $4,000,000 made by Harry F. Sinclair, oil magnate, for properties of the Richfield Oil Co. of New York, subsidiary of Richfield of California, now in Federal receivership.

Chief objectors to the proposed sale were the Government and Standard Oil Co. of California, a bidder for California Richfield properties.

John R. Layng, special assistant to the Attorney General, said the Government's stipulation to accept $5,001,500 as full settlement of its claim against the Pan-American Petroleum Corporation, Richfield subsidiary, would be subject to change if the sale is consummated. Representing Standard, Attorney Oscar Lawler contended the immediate sale of the properties in question might have the effect of emasculating the California Richfield properties and might upset plans of bidders for the entire property.

Mrs. Hauptmann Sighs At Jail's Restrictions

Flemington, N. J., Oct. 29 (AP).—Mrs. Bruno Richard Hauptmann accepted tonight the elaborate system of guarding her husband while he awaits trial for the Lindbergh kidnap-murder as "just the law."

"In the Bronx," she said, "I was allowed to sit beside Richard in the jail, but I can't do it here."

Hauptmann is watched constantly by three silent guards in the "bull pen" in front of his cell in the Hunterdon County Jail.

Financial Men Urge a Chance For New Deal

Praise, Criticism Mixed at Convention; 'Gloomy' Talk Deplored.

Continued from Page 1.

employed. The committee held it was a mistake for the Federal Government to assume the entire relief problem.

"Gloomy" Talk Deplored.

Moreover, the leaders of this organization have undertaken to have their members stop "gloomy" talk, try to do business under the securities act and the stock market control act as best they can and demonstrate to Congress the need for modifications of that legislation in certain particulars.

This was the atmosphere of the morning session when George W. Bovenizer, of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., president of the I. B. A., declared that "cooperation with our enforcement agencies and with Governmental authorities is essential" and that "criticism must be informed and constructive, not merey destructive."

The same atmosphere pervaded the afternoon session, a confidential forum, which was addressed by Richard Whitney, president of the New York Stock Exchange, in a symposium of views on the stock market control act. Criticism of the act in this meeting was much less than an observer from Washington might have expected, while some of the most stringent provisions against manipulative practices and the improper use of customers' stocks were praised as fully justified.

Pecora Called Fair.

In this meeting a man regarded everywhere as a spokesman for the financial world pleaded with the investment bankers to stop talking "gloom," warning them that they were decreasing their own business prospects because their gloomy predictions discouraged customers. Another speaker described the Securities Commission as "a fair-minded body," and Ferdinand Pecora, who conducted the inquisition of Wall street for the Senate, was called "a vigorous prosecutor as well as an impartial judge." The sincerity of such remarks is evident from the fact that they were made in a session behind closed doors.

This love-making with the Administration is somewhat one-sided here, since Robert E. Healy, of the Securities Commission, is the only Federal official in attendance and he is not on the program to speak. But Mr. Healy is closely observing the proceedings as well as holding informal discussions with investment bankers regarding their views.

Those at this mountain resort are insistent that capital is "not on strike," but that, encouraged by elimination of uncertainties in the Federal program and arduous restrictions in last year's securities act, it will play its part in the recovery program. Mr. Bovenizer dealt at length with this question in his address.

Says Capital Seeks Work.

"There is not and has not been a strike of capital," he asserted. "The frequent statement that capital is on strike is as erroneous as it is harmful. Capital has rarely been so eager to find sound and productive employment. A minute's honest thought will convince any doubter of that fact, for idle capital tends to destroy itself through the impact of taxation and other economic forces.

"In no way can capital preserve itself except through its employment in active production. In no other way can it thrive and grow. In no other way can it meet the large demands of taxation.

"The needs of capital by the private enterprises of this country, once the uncertainties are dispelled and the future assured, are far beyond the powers of government to supply. But capital is cautious and takes thought of the morrow. It needs assurance, for, although you may control men's actions by law, you can not legislate confidence into the minds of men nor legislate fear out of their minds. Given definite assurance or opportunity for productive employment, capital will respond instantly, and our problems of employment, relief and taxation will steadily diminish."

Urges Chances for Laws.

Discussing the problems of the investment bankers, Mr. Bovenizer asserted that experience had shown "imperfections" for which remedies must be found in both the 1933 securities act and the investment bankers' code, but he added: "I venture to say that this team of laws, the code and the act, given unbiased and fair-minded cooperation between Government officials and investment bankers, will become one of the most effective instruments possible against fraud, illegitimate and other unfair practices."

The amendments made to the securities act last spring, while not going so far as many desired, were termed by Mr. Bovenizer a "definite step forward and a substantial tribute to the earnest efforts of the law's administrators and to Congress."

"There remains in the act," he continued, "uncertainties and ambiguities connected with the civil liability provisions."

Yet he said he thought this natural "for it is a long and arduous process to set up a law that places responsibility where it belongs and allows no evasion of proper liability and at the same time does not penalize those who are careful and honest."

Defends Intricacies.

He held that the act could be further improved by "simplification and integration," but he quickly pointed out that such a suggestion was difficult to achieve because the act deals with "as complicated a commodity as exists in any industry," and the law naturally tends to be complicated.

"The character and volume of the information required for registration statements and prospectuses presents a difficult question," he asserted. "I appreciate that, in some cases, the law could not demand too much information. In many instances, however, the large amount of information that must be assembled and organized will impose inordinate expense, or may be even prohibitory, without any benefit to the investor.

"It has also been said that the large amount of information required may confuse rather than enlighten the investor. That may well be. Certainly no amount of statistical information can give to any individual the expert knowledge that will make him a judge of values."

Tax Relief Demanded.

The committee on Federal taxation stated that "permanent relief from the heavy and increased taxation which seems to be ahead will come only by the Government using every method to increase the confidence of business and to assist it in every manner to take over into its employ those who are now relying on the Federal, State and local government to provide them with the means of livelihood.

"Such a course will lead to a decrease in the need of tax revenue and an automatic increase in the revenue of private business which can be taxed, thus enabling a reduction in the rate of taxation to be made," the report continued. "The present tendency of the Federal Government to take over from the States and local governments the relief of needy citizens is a step in the wrong direction."

The committee held that the problem can be more efficiently handled and the money better expended, if the money is both raised and spent under local auspices.

Geraldine Farrar Is Not Interested

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—"Why should that interest me?" snapped Geraldine Farrar, when informed of the suicide in Hollywood of her former husband, Lou Tellegen.

The former opera star was reached by telephone at her Ridgefield, Conn., home.

"It doesn't interest me in the least," she repeated, slamming the telephone receiver on the hook.

U. S. Is Buying Mexican Silver

Total of 4 Million Ounces Believed Purchased in Past Mouth.

(Associated Press.)

Purchases of silver from the Mexican government as part of the Treasury's program of giving the currency a 25 per cent silver backing were disclosed yesterday by Secretary Morgenthau.

He declined to say how much had been bought, but import figures revealed that nearly 4,000,000 ounces had arrived from Mexican ports during the last month, consigned to the Federal Reserve Bank of New York.

The Treasury head said no purchases were being made direct from any other government, although buying was being pursued in the open market throughout the world.

The Mexican silver, Morgenthau added, was chiefly newly mined metal and was exclusive of the amount which Mexico was obligated to withhold from the market under the London agreement.

Morgenthau said no significance was attached to the Mexican buying.

In some quarters there was a disposition to connect the move with the Chinese protest against the United States buying policy, which brought assurances that America would try to carry out the mandate of Congress so as to cause as little disruption as possible elsewhere.

Silver acquired under the nationalization order of August 9 reached 98,068,937 ounces on October 26, the Treasury reported. Receipts during the week ended on that date were $746,469.

Newly mined domestic silver receipts for the week were 268,900 ounces, bringing the total to 15,813,000.

Dern Urges Cheaper Water Transportation

New Orleans, Oct. 29. (AP). Cheaper inland waterway transportation as a first step in industrializing the Mississippi Valley was advocated today by Secretary of War George H. Dern.

Completing a 2,000-mile inspection trip down the Mississippi from Minneapolis to New Orleans, Dern said: "What the interior of this vast country needs is more industries. To accomplish such a development, cheap transportation facilities must be provided."

Miss Pickford Testifies in Suit.

Los Angeles, Oct. 29 (AP).—Mary Pickford testified today in a suit to recover a $25,000 investment from several Los Angeles corporations. She said representations made to her were not carried out.

Next American Sailings to Europe

MANHATTAN
NOV. 7 and DEC. 4
World's Fastest Cabin Liners
WASHINGTON
NOV. 21 and DEC. 14

To Cobh, Plymouth, Havre and Hamburg. The popular Pres. Harding and Pres. Roosevelt sail on alternate Wednesdays to the same ports.

S. S. PRES. ROOSEVELT . NOV. 14; DEC. 27
S. S. PRES. HARDING . NOV. 28; JAN. 9

NEW LOW EXCURSION FARES TO EUROPE
and return for as little as $110 Third Class
In TOURIST and THIRD CLASS the round trip fares permitting 15 days in Europe will be 1⅓ the one way rate on all sailings until April 30, 1935.
For particulars consult your local agent or
UNITED STATES LINES
Roosevelt S. S. Co., Inc., General Agents
Company's Office, 743 14th St. N.W.
Telephone National 1648

Rugs, Chairs, Sofas look like new after a good brisk brush with
Vapoo . . . $1
It's the wonder cleaner for rugs and upholstery. Just whisk it on with a brush! It removes hairoil, perspiration stains. It cleans, moth-proofs, and disinfects in one operation. Small can cleans three sofas, ten chairs or a 9x12 rug.
Economy can (double size) $1.50.
Housewares Dept.—First Floor.
Mail and Phone Orders Filled.
DULIN & MARTIN
Connecticut Ave. and L
Telephone National 1293.

18th Century Type
Bed Room Suite
A Grand Rapids Registered Group
6 Pieces as Shown $195
Just imagine being able to buy fine Grand Rapids craftsmanship in an 18th Century Type Bedroom Suite for as little an investment as $195! There are six pieces in all, including the 44-inch dresser, the chest of drawers, the vanity, full-size bed, chair and vanity bench. It is here in your choice of mahogany or walnut and gumwood and is available, too, with twin beds and night table, making eight pieces, $248. Let us show you this and the many other quality bedroom suites.
MAYER & CO.
Seventh Street Between D and E

45,000 Virginians Get Work Through PWA, Say Officials

Direct, Indirect Employment Figured on Federal and Non-Federal Jobs.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Slightly less than 5,000 men are now directly employed in Virginia on non-Federal PWA projects, officials at the State PWA engineer's office said today.

In addition, 10,000 other men, most of whom are Virginians, are employed indirectly in manufacturing equipment and materials for these projects.

The engineers estimated that the big Federal PWA program, involving the construction of battleships, highways, etc., is providing direct employment to more than 10,000 persons in Virginia and indirect employment to about 20,000 persons. About one half of the indirect employment on Federal projects is from Virginia, they estimated.

Picturing the widespread effects of this employment, the PWA officials declared that "if a man has employment for a month or so at a good wage of $33 a week, it should keep him off the relief rolls for a much longer period."

"We have found that the total employment figures have not increased as rapidly as we hoped, but on the other hand, they will continue over a longer period, and probably at an increased rate," an official said.

"Our largest project is the $2,500,000 sewer job in Arlington County and has hardly started from the employment standpoint. We expect this to jump from 380 men now employed to about 2,000 men in the next six months."

Cemetery Asks Court for Rule Against County

Washington National Seeks Restraint to Halt Interference.

Injunction proceedings to restrain State's Attorney Alan Bowie and Sheriff W. Curtis Hopkins of Prince Georges County from interfering with conduct of the Washington National Cemetery on Suitland road near the District line was filed yesterday in Prince Georges County Circuit Court at Upper Marlboro, Md.

The suit, filed in the name of the Washington National Cemetery Corporation by Attorneys S. Marvin Peach and Ogle Marbury, asks the court to issue an injunction restraining the defendants from interfering with the conduct and operation of the cemetery and from further prosecution of the criminal case based on an indictment returned by the Prince Georges County grand jury October 11.

Judge Joseph C. Mattingly issued a rule, returnable November 12, directing the defendants to show cause why the injunction should not be issued. State's Attorney Bowie said, "I have nothing to say except that you can't enjoin a State's attorney from prosecuting a criminal case."

The petition sets forth that the cemetery company purchased 64.15 acres of land from Jesse Belle, recorded January 26, 1931, in Spalding District of Prince Georges. A cemetery for colored persons operated by the Lincoln Memorial Cemetery Corporation is situated beside it, but nearer the District of Columbia, and the Cedar Hill Cemetery is located across the road, the petition states.

By reason of the criminal indictment, alleging violation of Chapter 184, of the acts of 1933, of the General Assembly, which prohibits location of cemeteries in an area of approximately 19,800 square miles near the District line in Prince Georges County, and by the resultant publicity, the cemetery company sets forth it is unable to conduct sale of cemetery lots or to conduct interments without danger of arrest.

It further alleges that the act was enacted after the company had dedicated the land to cemetery purposes and had advertised sale of cemetery lots and had conducted burials and that therefore the application of the act to the company is unconstitutional both by the Maryland and the United States Constitutions. Inability of the company to sell the land as burial lots would result in considerable loss of money, inasmuch as the land is good only for farm land otherwise, and as such would be far less valuable, it is contended.

Vital Statistics

Births.

Frank and Rose Tolotto, boy.
Stewart and Vivien Preece, boy.
Leonard and Valera Playfair, boy.
Robert and Victoria Toole, boy.
William and Lilla Morgan, girl.
Charles and Ernestine Coffman, girl.
Alva and Frances Ingles, girl.
Thomas and Evelyn Sansbury, girl.
Charles and Evelyn Murray, girl.
Saul and Eleanor Nelson, girl.
August and Ernala Sarton, girl.
David and Audrey Fenton, girl.
Daniel and Alice Powell, girl.
Thomas and Myrtle Thompson, girl.
George and Gladys Butler, twin boys.
David and Georgia Miller, boy.
Stewart and Georgia Flournoy, boy.
Daniel and Bertha Harris, boy.
Amos and Emma Dorsey, boy.
John and Elizabeth Alston, boy.
William and Annie Nathan, boy.
Richard and Martha Weaver, girl.
Alonzo and Pearl Gibbs, girl.
Aubrey and Mary Mayoes, girl.
Clad and Rosa Crumwell, girl.
Andrew and Georgiana Barnes, girl.

Deaths.

George F. Dickey, 85 yrs., United States Soldiers' Home Hos.
Eleanor C. Van Reypen, 78 yrs., 2308 California st. nw.
Emily Brewood, 76 yrs., 3108 South Dakota ave. ne.
James J. Sweeney, 74 yrs., 908 1st st. ne.
George E. Davis, 73 yrs., 2328 Nicholson st. se.
Gabriel Tapponnier, 71 yrs., 401 16th st. ne.
James J. Kavanaugh, 70 yrs., 5507 5th st. nw.
Everett L. Phillips, 67 yrs., 1443 Belmont st. nw.
Charles F. Durand, 67 yrs., 813 North Capitol st.
Max H. Cook, 62 yrs., 65 S st. nw.
Therse Pannuin, 60 yrs., 804 I st. nw.
Edward J. Greene, 60 yrs., Garfield Hos.
James Gray, 58 yrs., 630½ I st. nw.
Mary J. Connors, 40 yrs., Georgetown Hos.
Burton R. Rose, 32 days, Children's Hos.
Infant Sams, 6 days, Sibley Hos.
Margaret Pryor, 70 yrs., 1715 14th st. nw.
Ella Berry, 70 yrs., Gallinger Hos.
Jenny Jackson, 60 yrs., Home for Aged and Infirm.
Sarah Johnson, 58 yrs., Home for Aged and Infirm.
Lawrence McAble, jr., 19 days, 1804 8th st. nw.
Infant Smith, 5 days, Gallinger Hos.
Infant Day, 12 hours, 620 Morton st. nw.
Infant Butler No. 1, 2 hrs., Gallinger Hos.
Infant Butler No. 2, 1 hr., Gallinger Hos
Infant Clifton, 5 min., Gallinger Hos.

Licensed to Marry.

Stuart Hagner Gillmore, 38, 1827 Nineteenth street northwest, and Mary Gorman Hills, 29, 1820 Nineteenth street northwest. The Rev. U. G. B. Pierce.
William T. Tolson, 23, 403 Columbia road northwest, and Virginia K. Keene, 24, 5825 Colorado avenue northwest. The Rev. A. F. Poore.
Thomas Coleman Hill, 26, 1433 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, and Ruth Louise Payne, 26, Hinton, W. Va. The Rev. L. L. Bowers.
Walter Christian Staehr, 45, Willard Hotel, and Johanna E. Ottersen, 42, 1424 K street northwest. The Rev. J. H. Dunham.
Hiram Arthur Bush, 24, 1225 Fifth street northeast, and Esther Raigh, 26, 2410 Tenth street northeast. The Rev. J. C. Ball.
Gilbert B. Braxton, 22, and Adelaide Rebecca Taylor, 24, both of Richmond. The Rev. Wiley Westray.
Francis E. Jackson, 30, 909 Eighth street northeast, and Agnes Corinne Robinson, 29, same address. The Rev. J. W. Dowling.
Larch Cooley, 60, 514 Fenton street northeast, and Rachel Donaldson, 50, same address. The Rev. J. W. Burdurant.
Charles Harry Noon, 34, and Elizabeth Wark, 34, both of Philadelphia. The Rev. A. F. Poore.
Milton E. Wirth, 31, and Cecelia Staniewics, 22, both of Baltimore. The Rev. L. J. McDoustle.
Henry Horn, 30, 2146 Wyoming avenue northwest, and Louise Watson, 20, Rockville, Md. Judge R. E. Mattingly.
Samuel L. Mercer, 22, 1767 Oregon avenue northwest, and Dora Washington, 21, same address. The Rev. Ed Mercer.
Carmen Tavanion, 21, 121 Anacostia road northeast, and Ivy Cecelia Thomas, 18, same address. The Rev. Presley Rohrer.
John C. Dunlap, 27, Baltimore, and Edna Grace Shermer, 28, 6600 Piney Branch road northwest. The Rev. B. J. Hannemann.
George R. Powell, 25, Arlington, Mass., and Margery B. Jones, 23, Wethersfield, Conn. The Rev. E. B. Phillips.
Ralph Jerome Dunmore, 22, 2612 Douglas road southeast, and Ola Mae Green, 18, 2843 Pomeroy road southeast. The Rev. H. W. Coleman.
Frederick W. Allen, 68, Providence, R. I., and Elizabeth W. Read, 49, Brookline, Mass. The Rev. F. A. Parsons.
George K. Shannon, 21, 1305 Irving street northwest, and Edith Hunter Lawe, 20, 3600 Mozart place northwest. The Rev. W. N. Ridenour.
Charlie Thornton, 21, 2618 Twelfth street northwest, and Mozalla Bowles, 18, Ashburn, Va. The Rev. C. T. Murray.

Licenses issued at Upper Marlboro, Md.: Fidon E. Ehringer, 22, Aboukir, Va., and Eula Virginia Mohler, 24, Centerville, Va.
Leonard Allen Johnson, 28, Berwyn, Md., and Marguerite Cecelia Gerhardt, 24, Brentwood, Md.

Treasure Trove of Art in Unusual Exhibition

Among the most valuable art objects in the Walters collection is a marble Diana of the first century, at the left, and a Madonna and Child, by Agostino Duccio, Italian sculptor of the fifteenth century, carved in high relief.

Federal Court Opens Session In Alexandria

Two Cases Are Postponed and Two Slated for Action Today.

THE WASHINGTON POST BUREAU.
907 Prince St., Alexandria, Va.
Phone Alexandria 523.

An adjourned term of the United States Court for the Eastern District of Virginia, with Judge Luther B. Way presiding, convened yesterday, and two cases were postponed and two set for trial today. The case of Morris Thomas, administrator of the estate of Thomas Thomas, against the United States, a suit to recover $10,000 War Risk insurance, was continued. In the suit of Irene Sullivan, administratrix of the estate of Guy F. Sullivan, against Philip T. Kront and Felix J. Kepper, removal proceedings from the State court, was continued until December 6.

Motion to quash summons in the suit of Earl H. Miller against the Washington Rapid Transit Co. for $25,000, for alleged personal injuries, is slated to be heard today. The suit of Robert C. Rollins, an infant, against the Griffith Consumers Co., Inc., to recover $20,000 for injuries, is set for hearing today.

Those summoned to serve on the jury are Harry Rudd and Herbert Tancil, of Alexandria; George Burrus, of Penola; J. A. Frank, of Shiloh; J. G. Pepper, R. F. D., Alexandria; Lucien Gaines, of Alexandria; R. L. Sadd, of Manassas; J. M. Turner, of Alexandria; D. F. Hannah, of Fairfax; B. B. Ezrine, of Alexandria; R. C. Carter, of Brandywine; W. J. Turner, of Fredericksburg; John W. Thomas, R. F. D., Bowling Green; Roy Hollis, of Fairfax; R. E. Owens, of Jersey, Va.; J. S. Dishman, of Nindes Store; R. H. Motley, of Rappahannock Academy; Wilbur Sheppard, of Fredericksburg; Randolph Brawner, of Dumfries; William K. Coakley, of Alexandria, and T. W. Holloway, of Port Royal.

Dan S. Hollenga, a director of the Alexandria United Charities, who was delegated to confer with the Community Chest officials in Washington regarding Alexandrians employed in Washington being required to subscribe to the Community Chest in the District, has reported that such is not the case. Consequently Alexandrians employed in the Government and other service in Washington are expected to give their contribution to charity to the local organization and report to the solicitors in the District that they have done so.

Gov. George C. Peery is expected to be the principal speaker at 3 p. m. today, when a ceremony will be held in Gadsby's Tavern to present to the trustees of that building the National housing loan secured for the Alexandria Post, No. 24, American Legion, to further restore the historic building.

All Virginia automobiles must be inspected prior to midnight tomorrow and bear the official seal. There are 13 official testing stations in the city. No charge is made for the inspection, but a charge is made for any needed adjustment.

W. A. Smoot & Co. has paid the reward of $250 offered for the arrest and conviction of the slayer of the company watchman, William H. Woodfield, who was killed the night of October 18. The money was divided between Detective Sergt. Edgar Simms, Detective J. P. Butler, Sergt. Lawrence Padgett and Policemen Russell A. Hawes and Earl E. Watkins.

Theodore Gibson, colored, was sentenced to the penitentiary for life for the crime one week from the date of the murder.

Father Charles Gallagher, of the Jesuit mission band, opened the mission for women at St. Mary's Catholic Church yesterday and will continue for two weeks with services at 6, 7 and 8 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Pessimistic Picture Painted To Elders by American Youth

World Is Ruled by Greed, Older Generation Is Informed.

New York, Oct. 29 (U.P.).—American youth took off the wraps tonight and told members of the older generation exactly what was wrong with them.

Called into a huddle before a battery of elders, including Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Ida Tarbell, social crusader; Newton D. Baker, former Secretary of War, and Dr. Daniel A. Poling, head of the Christian Endeavor, 19 young men and women talked for two hours without pulling a punch.

They told the old folks, among other things, that:

The world is ruled by greed, ambition, envy and lust.

Things are bad and there seems no immediate prospect of them betting any better.

They are tired of being fed the Golden Rule in school and church and being laughed at if they try to practice it.

The group ranging in detachments from Camp Fire Girls to the Young People's Communist League, openly advocated birth control, attacked the "profit motive" in civilization and urged unemployment insurance.

Frederick Phillips, also a college student, landed the most direct haymaker. Leaning over the table and pointing to his elders, he said:

"You people are supposed to be our leaders. But we don't know whether we can trust you. You tell us one thing, and act another. Perhaps we will have to just go along, if that is so. We will probably have to buckle down and become like you."

Politics and business came in for the chief beatings.

Trade Body Rules On Lumber Term

'Sugar Pine' Producers Get 'White Pine' Warning.

(Associated Press.)

The Federal Trade Commission has opened the door a little way to satisfying an old request by business men—that it indicate in advance what it thinks of an action planned by an industry or corporation.

It has informed certain producers of "sugar pine" lumber they should not call their lumber "white pine." The producers had asked the commission whether the name properly might be changed.

Requests of business men in the past for such opinions have been based on a desire to know in advance whether a contemplated step would be in violation of the Clayton act, which frowns on unfair trade practices.

Hebrew Philosopher Weds.

Chicago, Oct. 29 (A.P.).—Rabbi Solomon B. Freehof, Nationally known Jewish spiritual leader, Hebrew scholar and philosopher, and Miss Lillian Simon were married today at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris W. Simon.

Fusionists Called 'Tories' of Present

Botts Warns of Voting to Overthrow Ritchie.

Theodore S. Botts, president of the Progressive Democratic Club of Washington, yesterday termed the Fusionist party of Montgomery County "the Tories of the twentieth century."

Addressing a clambake held by the colored Democrats of Montgomery County, near Rockville, he declared "these Fusionists are the same old 1929 depression Republicans and those disgruntled Democrats who would like to dethrone your celebrated Governor.

"I wish to indelibly impress upon your minds that every vote you put into the ballot box for a Fusionist or Republican candidate, you are giving the Tories ammunition with which to destroy the humanitarianism and masses of people leadership in the Democratic party of this State."

Benefit at Poolesville.

The F. A. Society and Home Economic Club, of Poolesville, Md., will hold a benefit card party at the Poolesville High School at 8 p. m. Thursday. Admission will be 25 cents.

Judge Clears Hotel Trustees Of Misconduct

Finds Letter to Mayflower Bondholders Was Not Their Work.

Trustees of the Mayflower Hotel were exonerated of charges of unbecoming official conduct in the District Supreme Court yesterday, when Justice F. D. Letts discharged a rule requiring them to show cause why they should not either be restrained from future "misconduct" or be removed.

The trustees, John Lewis Smith, J. Miller Kenyon and Rush L. Holland, had been cited on a charge they were responsible for a letter that went out to the bondholders of the Mayflower suggesting that they discard their allegiance to the bondholders' protective committee plan of reorganization and pledge their support to the trustees in devising another plan.

Edmund M. Toland, attorney for the Mayflower, assumed responsibility for sending out the letter and also for obtaining a permit from the Postoffice Department authorizing the bondholders to return, stamp free, a post card setting forth their views. This card was addressed to the trustees.

The trustees denied any knowledge of the letter or the card. John Lewis Smith, acting as spokesman, said the first the trustees knew of the affair was when the cards began coming in. Justice Letts authorized Joseph Low, representing a group of petitioners, to draw up a letter which will be sent all bondholders to clarify the situation and explain that the letter was not authorized by the court, which has jurisdiction because of the bankruptcy of the Mayflower. That will be done next week.

Catholic Ladies Plan Sale.

The Ladies of the Catholic Mission of Takoma Park, Md., in conjunction with the local American Legion, will hold a rummage sale Saturday at Cedar and Carroll avenues, Takoma Park. It will begin at 9 a. m. and last throughout the day. Those in charge include Mrs. Leo M. Cavanaugh and Mrs. H. P. Ware.

Markham Lectures Against Use of Brandy, But Declares That Bryan's Bed is Dandy!

'Man With Hoe' Author Talks at American U. on Many Subjects.

Edwin Markham, the poet, slept last night in the bed of William Jennings Bryan, the statesman, to get inspiration for a new poem. And he'll present it to the girls of American University.

Let it be clear, though, that the author of "The Man With the Hoe" did not come from Harrisburg, Pa., for the sole purpose of sleeping in Mr. Bryan's bed. Rather it was a lecture engagement at American University that brought him here.

But the bed is in the guest room of the girls' dormitory at A. U., the very same guest room to which Markham retired after lecturing the student body last night, and so the poet decided to kill two birds with one stone.

"Barnstorming" at 82.

Probably the youngest old man still poetizing (he is 82), Markham is on a barnstorming tour of the Eastern States, reading his works, speaking on the relationship between poetry and religion, flailing capitalism and other things. A capacity crowd came to hear him last night in American University's Hurst Hall.

Yesterday afternoon, in a sort of dress rehearsal (the dress consisting most conspicuously of a Tom Heflin hat and striped trousers), he told an interviewer that he reached his age by eschewing strong drink. Emerson and Poe were the greatest poets produced in America, the hereafter is simply a continuation of earthly existence and Mr. Bryan had the "most gorgeous bed in North America."

The bed and other pieces of furniture used by Mr. Bryan were donated to American University some time ago.

Markham is a teetotaler, although he has tasted beer and light wine. "Whiskey, gin and brandy!" he exclaimed, "only destroy the body."

Is a Fiend for Tea.

But tea—he has been known to drink 14 cups of tea at a single sitting. And his sparkling black eyes, snappy gait and hair-trigger brain are testimonials to the truthfulness of that old saw about an apple a day keeping the doctor away. When a representative of American University went to the station to meet Markham, he found him munching a pippin and holding a bagful in the other hand.

He was asked if he resents being known as the poet who wrote "The Man With the Hoe."

"No," he replied, "but I consider my 'Lincoln' and 'Ballad of the Gallows-Bird' on a par with that poem. 'Ballad of the Gallows-Bird' is 700 or 800 lines in length and resembles 'The Ancient Mariner' in form but not in content. The hero tells the story. He has been hanged for murder and comes to life * * *"

Puts Heart Into Story.

And the poet, with grand gestures, launched into a narration of the story. Whatever he does, Markham puts his heart into it. It may be a social conversation or a discussion of religion or eating an apple—all the same he plunges in with an enthusiasm which would become a pickaninny confronting the season's first watermelon.

In the matter of English, he is a militant purist, regarding a split infinitive as an archdemon. He concedes, however, there is room in the language for slang expressions so long as they do not monopolize the vocabulary. Indeed, he employs "bird" with great zest, viz.: "Shakespeare was a great old bird."

This morning he leaves Washington to pursue his lecture and reading tour in Virginia.

Arlington Cut In Eductional Cost Reported

County Expenses Are Far Below U. S. Figure, Record Shows.

ARLINGTON COUNTY BUREAU OF THE POST.
Tel. Clar. 509. Clarendon, Va.

With Arlington County leading the 100 counties in the State in public instruction, it is revealed from the records in the office of Superintendent Fletcher Kemp that during the past five years there has been a material reduction in the cost of instruction per pupil.

The figures show that during the school term of 1929-1930 the cost of instruction per pupil was $48.78, while during the term of 1933-1934 it was $37.75, or a reduction of $11.03.

During the same period teachers' salaries were reduced from an average of $1,500 to $1,217 a year.

The corresponding figures for the United States in 1931-1932 show an annual teacher's salary of $1,417 and $81.36 per pupil for instruction.

Pleading guilty to a charge of assault and larceny, Lawrence T. Tinsman, of Cherrydale; Clifford J. Todd, of Georgetown, and William G. Smith, of Clarendon, each was given a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary by Judge Walter T. McCarthy in the Arlington County Circuit Court yesterday.

They were charged with assaulting Fred Berry with a dangerous weapon and taken $20. Berry is a service station attendant at Rosslyn.

The Fidelis Circle of St. George's Episcopal Church holds its annual Halloween party in the Parish Hall at 8 p. m. today. Mrs. E. K. Kloman is chairman of the arrangements committee, assisted by Mrs. Sara E. Carl.

Bids for installation of the Four Mile Run inceptor to the sewage disposal plant extending to Rosslyn were opened by the County Board yesterday. The contract will be awarded today.

The Arlington Citizens Association will meet at 8 p. m. today in the Community Hall on Columbia Pike. R. E. Royall will preside. The establishment of park and playgrounds in the community, the need for a highway connection between Columbia Pike and the Lee Boulevard and better policing at the intersection during school hours will be discussed.

The students of Arlington Hall College for Girls have elected Louise Hempstead as editor in chief of the Spinning Wheel, the college annual. Other staff officers are Martha Stroud, literary editor; Jane Reynolds, joke editor; Mary Peddison, photograph editor; Marguerite Chatain, art editor; Betty Spengeman, business manager; Martha Sanderson, advertising manager, and Maize Ballard, athletic editor.

Nomination of officers will feature the meeting of the Arlington Kiwanis Club tomorrow at Windsor Arms.

Plans are being made by the Young Democratic Club of Arlington County for a dance to be given at Windsor Arms the night of November 16. The committee in charge is composed of Stuart Richardson, chairman; Virginia Kelley, Gertrude Richardson, Thelma Bates, Mildred Preston, Leon Turnburke, Richard L. C. Moncure and Elmer Sebastain.

Stolen Liquor Truck Found; Youth Seized

Less than a half hour after a liquor truck had been stolen in the 2400 block of Fourteenth street northwest, police recovered the truck and its contents a block away and arrested a man in the driver's seat.

The man gave his name as Frank Herring, 23, of 1472 Ogden place northwest. He is held for investigation. The truck was recovered by Patrolman J. M. Smith, of the Second Precinct. The truck is owned by the Milton Kronheim Liquor Co.

Sanity Test Rejected In Shank Poison Case

Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 29 (A.P.).—Efforts to keep Mark H. Shank, Akron, Ohio, attorney, out of the electric chair for a quadruple poison slaying, will be continued by his counsel despite a decision today of the Arkansas Supreme Court rejecting a sanity hearing for the condemned man.

The petitioner had sought to have Superintendent S. L. Todhunter, of the State penal system, empanel a jury to determine Shank's present mental condition, saying he had changed since he was convicted last spring.

Church Halloween Party.

The Ladies Guild of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Bladensburg, Md., will hold its annual Halloween masked ball at 8:30 p. m. tomorrow in the parish hall. Proceeds will be devoted to the rectory debt. Mrs. Richard Schuler, president, and Mrs. Norman Alsop are in charge of arrangements.

Ship Movements

At New York.
Arrived Yesterday.
American Trader, from London.
Caledonia, from Glasgow.
General von Steuben, from Bremen.
Georgic, from Liverpool.
Penniand, from Antwerp.
Sail Today.
Excambion, for Beirut.
Exchange, for Naples.
Gripsholm, for Gothenburg.
Sail Tomorrow.
Black Tern, for Antwerp.
Deutschland, for Hamburg.
President Harding, for Hamburg.
Sails Thursday.
City of New York, for Cape Town.
Reported by Radio.
Majestic, from Southampton; due at pier 54, North River, today.
Scanstates, from Copenhagen; due at pier D, Jersey City, today.
Volendam, from Rotterdam; due at Fifth street, Hoboken, today.
Exochorda, from Mediterranean ports; due at pier F, Jersey City, tomorrow.
Saturnia, from Trieste; due at pier 97, North River, tomorrow.
Konigstein, from Antwerp; due at Weehawken docks, Thursday.
Lafayette, from Havre; due at pier 57, North River, Thursday.
Manhattan, from Hamburg; due at pier 60, North River, Thursday.
Stavangerfjord, from Bergen; due at Thirtieth street, Brooklyn, Thursday.
At Baltimore.
Sails Tomorrow.
City of Havre, for Hamburg.
Arrives Thursday.
City of Hamburg, from Hamburg.

Jurors Decree Life For 'Phantom Killer'

Steubenville, Ohio, Oct. 29 (A.P.).—A jury of five women and seven men today convicted David Dasco, 47, of the "phantom" killing of Raymond Kochendarfer, 34, a Wheeling Steel Corporation worker, last July 1.

William Messer, 28, was killed the same night. On January 30, Fred Melsheimer, 38, was shot and killed by the "phantom," who made all three of his visits to the mill yard beneath the light of a full moon.

Including a recommendation of mercy, the verdict makes a life sentence for Dasco mandatory.

Fairfax Pupils To Get Report

5,000 to Receive Their New Cards This Week, Says W. T. Woodson.

FAIRFAX BUREAU OF THE POST.
P. O. Box 245, Fairfax, Va.
Phone Clarendon 126-J.

Approximately 5,000 school children in Fairfax County will receive their report cards this week. The report card will be in the form designed to fit in with the new State curriculum, according to County Superintendent W. T. Woodson.

The monthly report card of previous years has been done away with and the new report will be distributed every six weeks. The old formal deportment grade also has been abolished and the pupils will be graded on citizenship instead. Personal habits, work habits, cooperation and appreciation are given a prominent part on the new blank. Under personal habits are included punctuality, self-control, voice, attention to work, conduct to and from school, observance of safety rules, health habits, care of personal and public property and acceptance of blame for mistakes.

Work habits include planning work, carrying out of plans, independence of work, following of directions, use of library, initiative, clearness of thinking and recognition of need for help. Cooperation allows for participation in group activity, acceptance of leadership, observance of rights of others and performance of duty in accordance with ability.

Under appreciations are included music, stories, poetry, art, pictures and ideals of conduct. Grades on the new report will be A, B, C and D, passing, and U and I for unsatisfactory and incomplete work.

5 California Students Suspended as Radicals

Los Angeles, Oct. 29 (A.P.).—Charged with participation in Communistic activities at the University of California, John Burnside, president of the associated students, and four other students were suspended today for a year.

The others suspended were Sidney Zsagri, chairman of the forensic board; Thomas Lambert, chairman of the men's board; Mendel Lieberman, chairman of the scholarship committee, and Miss Celeste Strack, former member of the university debating team.

Democrats Set Session Tonight In Montgomery

Expected to Be Largest Rally of Party in Campaign.

What is expected to be the largest Democratic rally of the present political campaign in Montgomery County will be held tonight at the Silver Spring National Guard Armory.

The principal speakers will be Stedman Prescott, State's attorney; Miss Levinia Engle, candidate for county commissioner; James H. Pugh, candidate for State's attorney, and Roger J. Whiteford, counsel to the county commissioners.

Other county candidates are expected to be present and to be introduced. An unprecedented turnout of the local Democrats is expected.

Another Democratic rally will be held Thursday at the Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School. Representative David J. Lewis, candidate for reelection, will be the principal speaker.

Other speakers on the program will include Andrew J. (Cy) Cummings, Miss Engle and George P. Hoover, counsel for the county liquor control board.

The list will also include Frederick P. Lee, member of the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission; Mr. Prescott, Frederick Stohlman, Chevy Chase attorney, and Roger J. Whiteford, counsel to the board of county commissioners.

Benjamin C. Perry, president of the Bethesda Democratic Club, sponsors of the affair, announced that "all of the issues of Montgomery County will be fully discussed.

"Regardless of your political affiliation, you owe it to yourself and to your community to hear the answers to the charges and allegations made by our opponents," he said.

Weirton Firm Fights Back at Government

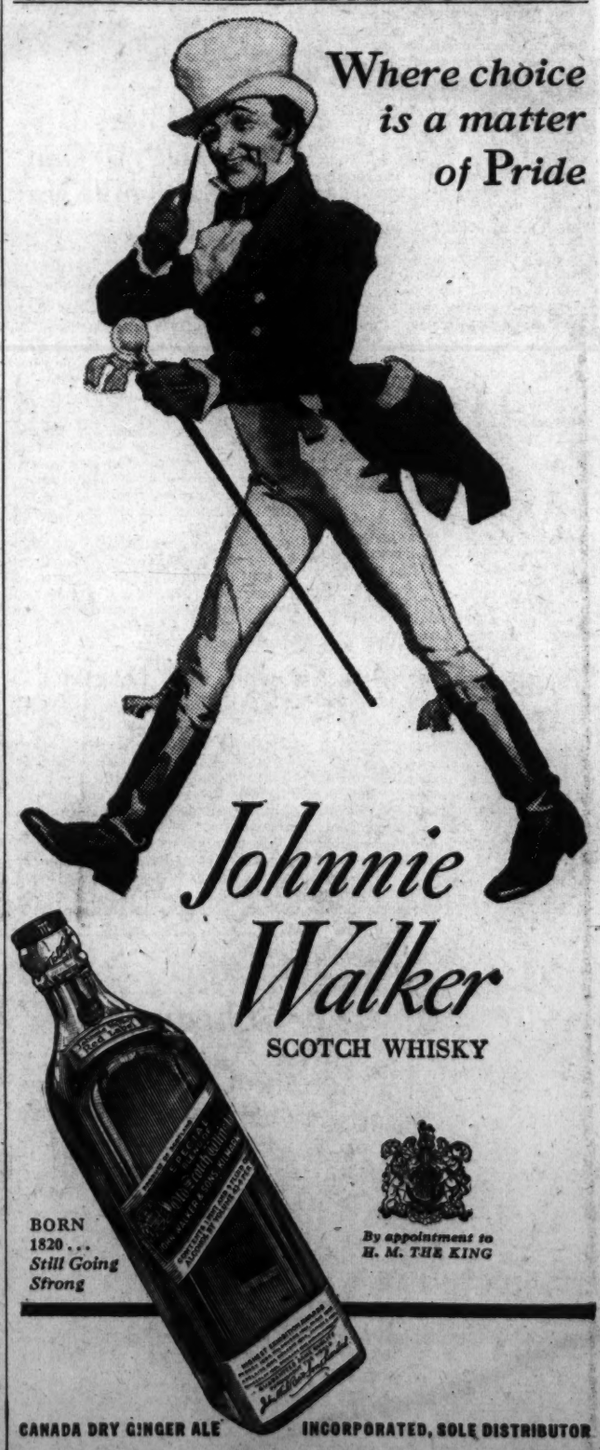
Wilmington, Del., Oct. 29 (A.P.).—Testimony intended to disprove statements of Government witnesses in the suit against the Weirton Steel Co. was given by more than a score of persons summoned by company counsel today.

Presenting the witnesses throughout the first session of the fifth week of hearing in the suit, Weirton counsel devoted most of the day to efforts to disprove Government allegations of coercion and intimidation in the selection of a bargaining agent by the company's employes.

Number of Idle Boosted 177,000 in September

New York, Oct. 29 (A.P.).—Unemployed numbered 9,976,000 in September, according to a preliminary estimate of the National Industrial Conference Board.

This is an increase of 177,000 over August and 1,037,000 over the low point of 8,939,000 in May, 1934.



Where choice is a matter of Pride
Johnnie Walker
SCOTCH WHISKY
BORN 1820 . . . Still Going Strong
By appointment to H. M. THE KING
CANADA DRY GINGER ALE
INCORPORATED, SOLE DISTRIBUTOR

Thomas Fights Stabilization Aid of England

Senate Inflationist Hits Bingham Proposal for Tie-up With Pound.

By Robert C. Albright.

A revival of Congressional inflation activity gathered impetus yesterday as talk of dollar stabilization in terms of pound sterling was quietly disowned by the Administration.

Serving notice of a drive further to devalue the dollar, Elmer Thomas, Senate inflationist leader, cabled the United States Ambassador in England that Congress will map its own monetary policies.

His warning dovetailed with new agitation for payment of the $2,200,000,000 soldiers' bonus, as House and Senate cheap money advocates took up the keynote sounded at Miami by the American Legion.

Opposes British Tie-Up.

The Thomas statement was in answer to Ambassador Bingham's proposals for a tie-up between the American dollar and the British pound sterling. Although generally regarded as a "trial balloon," the Bingham suggestion was coolly received in Treasury circles here, and officials denied the proposal is being discussed.

Thomas, however, was deadly serious in his "protest" to Bingham of what he regarded as "a movement toward stabilization."

"The dollar still has a value or purchasing power of over 130 cents, and the people can not possibly meet their taxes, interest and debts with such a valued dollar," he wired Bingham.

The tall, white-haired Oklahoman, who aligned himself with both the silver and bonus blocs in strenuous efforts for further devaluation, is stumping his State for the Democratic ticket, but released the cablegram through his Capitol office.

Bent on New Inflation.

He will return to Washington after the elections, bent on obtaining inflationary legislation of a more binding character. An amendment to the AAA act which he sponsored gave the President unprecedented inflationary powers, but the authority was discretionary, and has not been used.

Recently the Oklahoma Senator and inflationist satellites in House and Senate have been clamoring for a speeding up in silver purchases to accomplish the same objective. They are preparing new silver legislation purporting to place this country on a bimetal base broader than was contemplated under the silver laws of the last Congress.

Their hand was materially strengthened last week by American Legion approval of bonus cash payment. Although a number of pro-veteran Senators, including Senator Tom Connally, of Texas, believe the $2,200,000,000 in adjusted service certificates can be paid off in so-called "sound" dollars, the proposition has been seized on by the inflationists as a new means of cheapening the currency base.

Passing of Bonus Seen.

Few of the House leaders now believe the bonus can be stopped on its initial course through Congress, and there are some who forecast overriding of a Presidential veto. One of those who would like to accomplish bonus payment and inflation at one and the same stroke is Representative Wright Patman, of Texas, who pressed the issue at the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars conventions and now is preparing to marshal the measure through the House.

Seizing on the Bingham incident to announce his determination to press the inflation fight, Thomas yesterday cabled the ambassador:

Protests to Bingham.

"Presuming to speak for millions of farmers, wage earners and leaders in industry, I protest any and all efforts at stabilization of the value of the dollar until the value of such dollar has been so adjusted to enable the masses of the people to secure such dollars with which to meet their obligations."

Thomas wired the following additional arguments in opposition to stabilization:

"A further deflationary influence can result only in private and public repudiation and bankruptcy. * * *"

3. "Such stabilization will be tantamount to giving Great Britain control over our financial and economic policy."

Warns of Cheap Prices.

"Great Britain controls production of approximately 75 per cent of the world's gold. * * * Therefore Great Britain demands preservation of control through gold."

"England produces negligible quantities of commodities and raw materials, hence desires cheap prices for commodities and raw materials and cheap prices for labor. * * *"

"Stabilization at present dollar value will pull down standard of living of American farmer and wage earner to European level."

"Your deflationary proposal contrary to policy of the Congress and the President's repeated statements that the price level of commodities will be raised."

"* * * Under existing price level, banks can not make loans. * * *"

"Credit of individuals, institutions, cities, counties and States now impaired because of a too high valued dollar, and with such value stabilized, it is a question if any such units are solvent."

Post Ad-Writers will be glad to assist you in preparing a good, result-producing ad when you call National 4200.

Lou Tellegen Kills Himself; Tried Comeback in Hollywood

Wide World Photo.

Lou Tellegen, actor, ended his life in his Los Angeles home yesterday.

Continued from Page 1.

to the actor's room by Mrs. Cudahy after the maid, Mrs. Eugene Coffey, said Tellegen failed to come out of his room for breakfast.

Mrs. Cudahy told police she had called upstairs, asking the actor if he wanted some soup, but he answered in a very weak voice, causing her to worry about him.

Clad in his bathrobe and half-shaved, the actor was found by Wynn on the bathroom floor. Wynn thought at first Tellegen had fainted, police said. Bloodstains on the front of the bathrobe led to the discovery of the stab wounds when he was removed to his bed.

Tellegen was found by Dr. C. L. Cooper, his physician, to have seven stab wounds in the left breast. The actor was weak from loss of blood, unconscious and gasping when Dr. Cooper arrived.

Dr. Cooper had telephoned only 15 minutes before Tellegen was found, asking about the actor's health. He did not talk to Tellegen directly, police said.

Underwent Operation.

Dr. Cooper told police the actor came to him three weeks ago, declaring he was afraid of losing his mind because of sickness and that he could not go on working. Dr. Cooper assured Tellegen of his mental condition, but warned him he was a sick man.

Tellegen underwent an operation for cancer last spring and had been ill since, although he was still attempting to work. Recently he completed a small part in a film.

Siamese King Keeps Throne, Bangkok Holds

Dispute Over Power Will Be Settled Shortly, Officials Say.

Bangkok, Siam, Oct. 29 (AP).—An attitude of calmness and confidence that Projadhipok would be induced to return to the throne of his native Siam prevailed tonight in government circles.

Government spokesmen issued assurances that Siam's legislative tangle growing out of promulgation of a law to which the King objected could be straightened out without the King going through with his threat to quit the throne.

The press was refraining from comment pending official instructions. The country's 10,000,000 people still were largely uniformed of what was going on.

The secretary of state council said peacemaking negotiations already were well under way and gave assurances the King would be persuaded to abandon his threat to abdicate.

The diminutive King issued a virtual ultimatum some two weeks ago, it was learned, threatening abdication unles sthe government acceded to his wishes.

He objected to a law promulgated by the government of Prime Minister Phya Bahol, depriving his majesty of the last word in imposition of the death penalty, an age-old prerogative of Siamese royalty.

It was learned reliably that no formal abdication papers have been received from the King, who is in England, only a notice of his intention. Peace and order prevailed throughout the country. Reports of a revolution were branded absurd.

The United States Minister to Siam called on the premier this afternoon and appeared satisfied that the situation was not serious and that disturbances were improbable.

Australians Land in Hawaii After Long Hop Over Pacific

Continued from Page 1.

where breakfast awaited them. After that, the program was bed for the aviators, while their plane was being given a thorough going over by Wheeler Field mechanics.

Gasoline Left in Plane.

Kingsford-Smith's airplane still had gasoline for two and a half hours in the air at the time the motor was stopped at Wheeler Field, although some doubt had been expressed before the flight that it could be made with only one fueling.

As a precaution, Sir Charles used a 20-gallon can of fuel for his seat on the plane and had made arrangements for an emergency fueling at Fanning Island, more than a thousand miles south of here, should it prove necessary.

In 1928, Kingsford-Smith, with co-pilot C. T. P. Ulm, Navigator Harry Lyon and Radio Operator James Warner, flew a rebuilt trimotored monoplane from Oakland to Wheeler Field here, and on to Suva and Brisbane.

On his present flight he has only one companion, Capt. P. G. Taylor, navigator and co-pilot.

The day here was bright and clear as the plane, with its wheels folded under its single low wing, appeared over Honolulu.

Pass Through Time Zones.

The landing at Wheeler Field was clocked at 8:40 a. m. (2:10 p. m., Eastern standard time). The take-off time from Naselai Beach was 6:05 a. m., also on Monday morning, as Fiji is on the western side of the international date line.

The fliers had gone from Monday back to Sunday and through Sunday into Monday on their trip. As they crossed the equator they also passed from spring to autumn.

Most of the trip here from Fiji, the wing commander said, was "smooth sailing." One bad storm was encountered around the middle of the night. The air feed failed and Kingsford-Smith said in one of his radio reports that in fumbling about the cockpit he knocked on the switch for the wing flaps.

"Imagine the result," said his radio report. "We stalled and spun but after losing lots of height we got her under control and then found out about the flaps."

The report was made after the storm had passed. The report referred to it merely as "a bad hour."

The last section of today's flight was made at cruising speed, with the motor throttled down to about 100 miles an hour. The first island sighted was Molokai, southeast of Oahu, on which Honolulu is located. To that point the course had been set by dead reckoning.

Fitzmaurice Is Balked On Hop to Australia

Croydon Air Field, England, Oct. 29 (AP).—Col. James Fitzmaurice's sleek American (Bellanca) monoplane, which took off from Lympne Airdrome this morning on a postponed speed flight to Australia, returning three hours later, was in the hands of mechanics here tonight.

They were tackling the engine cowling of the huge machine, from which bolts had been sheared off in flight. The wheel shields broke adrift, bending back the wing flaring and loosening it.

Fitzmaurice decided not to continue.

Not until the repairs have undergone strenuous tests, Fitzmaurice said, will the projected Australia record flight be attempted again.

Fitzmaurice and his co-pilot, Eric Bonar, were over Belgium in their Irish Swoop, in which they had hoped to reach Australia in not more than 55 hours, when their trouble began. They were favored with a tail wind which had boosted their speed to 230 miles an hour.

Indiana Averts Electric Tie-up With Mediation

State-Wide Power Strike Called Off; Governor to Name Board.

Indianapolis, Oct. 29 (AP).—A State-wide utility workers' strike which threatened to tie up electric power in more than 800 cities and towns in Indiana, beginning tonight, was called off this afternoon by Irwin Knott, of Chicago, business agent of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers.

Knott said electrical workers had been instructed to continue work pending negotiations by a board of mediators to be appointed by Gov. Paul V. McNutt. The Governor assured Knott the utility workers would receive a "fair deal" at the hands of the board.

The board will be appointed under a 1915 statute, which gives the Governor the power to intervene in labor disputes. It will consist of three members, and the secretary of state will act as secretary of the board.

Knott had informed officials of the Public Service Co. of Indiana that unless wage demands were met, members of the Electrical Workers Union, employed on southern and central Indiana properties would be called out at 5 p. m. A sympathetic strike by employes of the Northern Indiana Public Service Co., the Indiana Service Corporation and the Gary Heat, Light and Water Co. was to have been called at the same time.

J. N. Shannahan, president of the Public Service Co., declared the demands of the union "impossible" because compliance would add more than $300,000 annually to the companies' operating expenses. He urged arbitration.

The union demanded wage increases, time and a half for overtime, double time for Sundays and minor changes in working conditions.

Unsightly Complexions muddy-looking, blotchy and red—relieved and improved with safe, medicated Resinol.

Rollfast Bicycles

SIDE-WALK BIKES, VELOCIPEDES and ROLLER SKATES

Other good wheels. Wheel goods repaired. Your old wheel taken as part payment on a new one.

Hazleton Bicycle & Sporting Goods Co.
424 Ninth St. N.W.

Hallowe'en Celebration

75c

Cover Charge Per Person

No Raise in Menu Prices

UNDER NEW MANAGEMENT
RECENTLY REMODELED

Bob Winiferes' "Collegians"

SHO-CASE
4449 Conn. Ave. N.W.
Tel. Cleve. 9782

BERLITZ SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES

WOODWARD & LOTHROP
10TH 11TH F AND G STREETS — PHONE DISTRICT 5300

This Leather Chair

Fits a Man's Idea of Comfort

$45

It is the kind of chair a man finds at his club, and will enjoy having in his own home. Generous proportions . . . wide, deep seat for stretching and lounging . . . a back that is just right . . . low hospitable arms. Upholstered in green, maroon or brown leathers, with antique nail trim.

FURNITURE, SIXTH FLOOR

★ ★

The Plumber protects the health of the Nation

DOWN the street . . . often away from shopping centers . . . sometimes almost obscured by the flashing fronts of other merchants . . . frequently, identified only by a modest sign, you'll find the guardian of health—your Master Plumber.

Without the Master Plumber there would be no modern civilization . . . no large thriving cities . . . no modern homes . . . no skyscrapers . . . for modern civilization depends upon modern sanitation. And, sanitation is the life-work of the Master Plumber.

His skill has brought the cleanliness, comfort and protection which have made American homes and American health the wonder of the rest of the world. His craftsmanship has made possible modern apartments, modern skyscrapers, modern homes.

Unheralded, sometimes unnoticed, the Master Plumber has done his work so well that the world actually has beaten a pathway to his door. His work is so important that states and cities have laws not only regulating the installation of plumbing, but setting a standard for the plumber himself. No other profession is more strictly regulated than the Master Plumbers. And these laws to protect public health and insure the highest standard of professional skill have been passed largely through the insistence of the Master Plumbers themselves.

So get acquainted with your Master Plumber! You will find him ready and eager to serve you. He will be glad to show you the most modern Plumbing Fixtures and help you select the designs most suitable to your purse and purpose. His practical knowledge, his long experience, his familiarity with local sanitary laws will be of inestimable value in assuring you the utmost service at the lowest cost. He will be glad to explain the National Housing Act—arrange convenient payments without red tape—without down payments. See your Master Plumber first for new Plumbing Fixtures.

Henry M. Reed
President

Standard Sanitary Mfg. Co.
PITTSBURGH, PA.
Division of AMERICAN RADIATOR & STANDARD SANITARY CORPORATION

★ ★

Roosevelt Hope For Industry's Peace Dimmed

Fear Chain Store Dispute May Spread, Spurring U. S. Action.

(United Press.)

The dispute between the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co. and union workers developed rapidly last night into a major threat to President Roosevelt's hopes for industrial peace.

The decision of the National Labor Relations Board to invite representatives of both sides to meet here today emphasized the concern felt by Administration authorities over the situation. They feared the strikes might be a forerunner of a disturbance which might sweep through the chain stores from coast to coast and even pierce the peaceful processing plants.

Warning by Schilling.

They found little comfort in a warning by H. J. Schilling, secretary of the Meat Cutters Union, in Milwaukee, that the walkout which affected 100 Great Atlantic and Pacific stores and nine owned by the Kroger Co. today might spread to other parts of Wisconsin before Saturday.

Millions of dollars, thousands of workers, and Mr. Roosevelt's projected truce between capital and labor are at stake in the struggle now being waged. The two firebrands of industrial discord—the closed shop and company unions—precipitated the clash.

Unionization of the chain store industry is one of the juciest plums dangling before the eyes of organized labor. It would be but a step from this to the extension of trade unionism in plants of food processors which supply the chains and which thus far have remained cool toward the union card.

The drastic action taken by the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Co., in closing more than 400 stores in Cleveland and throwing 2,200 persons into idleness demonstrates the extent to which the chains are prepared to go to combat demands of trade unionists.

The rapidity with which Green moved in sending one of the federation's most sober-minded advisers into the troubled area also indicated to observers here a desire by labor to avoid criticism that its hosts were deliberately provoking discord at a time when President Roosevelt is working for peace between the worker and employer.

Green's Statement.

Green issued a statement late yesterday saying he had been in constant touch with the situation in Cleveland. He described it as "serious."

The issues in the controversy are sharply drawn. There is no Federal statute to compel an employer to yield to the demands of his workers for a closed shop or one in which only union workers could be employed. Obviously the closed shop is a vital link in organized labor's continuing drive to place a union card in the pocketbook or purse of every worker in the Nation.

Likewise, the employer is forbidden under section 7(a) of the NIRA to coerce employes into joining a union sponsored by the company as a condition to continued employment. Under that section workers are assured the right of collective bargaining through representatives of their own choosing. These may be either agents of organized labor unions or company unions.

Textile Labor Board Probes 300 Complaints

(Associated Press.)

The textile labor board worked overtime yesterday on a probe of more than 300 complaints by the United Textile Workers, asserting that erstwhile textile strikers were being discriminated against. U. T. W. officials declared strikes involving 25,000 workers have been threatened in mills from Maine to Georgia. Tentative sanction for these strikes has been granted by the union's emergency board. A walkout called for yesterday at Roanoke Rapids, N. C., was deferred at the labor board's request.

Meantime, the labor relations board sought to enlarge its powers for dealing with these and other such situations, suggesting to President Roosevelt it might well be given statutory authority to enforce its own decisions.

"The most serious difficulties which we face flow from the fact that the board has no power (except to a limited extent in ordering elections) to issue subpenas or to enforce its orders," the board said, in its third monthly report to the President.

Under the present set-up, the board refers its decision on violations of the recovery act's labor clause to the NRA compliance division for Blue Eagle removal and to the Justice Department for "appropriate action." The Justice Department so far has failed to carry any case to court.

Other sections of the Government dealing with labor problems are awaiting word on what will be done about the automobile code which expires Saturday. The automobile situation is generally considered the most dangerous in the labor relations field just now, particularly in view of the A. F. of L.'s renewed drive to organize the industry.

Labor leaders here said today there was gossip abroad that the manufacturers were ready to drop the code entirely rather than lose the merit clause which the A. F. of L. has insisted should be eliminated.

Distillers Will Submit 'Ads' to Code Board

The Nation's distillers took steps yesterday to keep their advertising free of "objectionable" and inaccurate statements, the Associated Press says.

Dr. James M. Doran, supervisor of the distillers code authority, announced that members of the industry had agreed to submit their advertising copy to the code authority for approval. The Alcohol Control Administration was asked to back up the self-censorship plan by making it a part of the distillers' code.

American University Offers Unexcelled Advantages to Post Scholarship Winners

An air view of the campus of American University.

Wide Choice of Subjects for Specialized Training Available; Originality and Initiative Are Main Objections; School Has Ideal Location.

Few cities in the world can match Washington in facilities for higher education in the arts, sciences and professions. For the student who would approach his subject in the light of events during the present unprecedented period of social developments, Washington, vortex of these developments, offers incomparable advantages.

Four institutions — American, Georgetown and Howard Universities, and the Catholic University of America—for a second year have joined with The Washington Post in the second Washington Post Scholarship Competition, presented to high school seniors in the District of Columbia, Alexandria, Va., and 40 counties in Maryland, Virginia and West Virginia.

This is the first of a series of four articles in which The Post describes the opportunities awaiting winners of the eight four-year tuition scholarships to be awarded final winners of the competition by these four institutions.

The American University's 80-acre campus faces east on one of Washington's most beautiful Northwest heights, overlooking some of the city's finer residences, and, in the distance, the Capitol and other Federal buildings. The institution's Gothic-spired chapel, dormitories, marble school buildings and athletic field are ideally located—removed from the city's distractions, convenient to its unrivaled cultural contacts.

Over 500 young men and women register here each year, most of them for bachelor's degrees from the College of Liberal Arts, others for training in the new School of Public Affairs, and others for master's or doctor's degrees in the Graduate School. It is the College of Liberal Arts which offers four four-year full tuition scholarships to champions in the Second Washington Post Scholarship Competition, two to the highest rated girls and two to the highest rated boys.

A wide choice in specialized training awaits these four champions. Following two years of broad basic academic studies, intensive cultivation is arranged for junior students, under guidance of faculty advisers, in the departments of art, biology, chemistry, classical languages, economics, education, English, French, German, history, mathematics, physics, political science, psychology, religion and philosophy, Spanish and speech.

Originality Is Objective.

Programs are directed especially toward development of initiative and resourcefulness, as well as scholarship. Originality in thought and work, an understanding of current problems, adjustment to social conditions and endowment of a practical Christian philosophy are major considerations.

Special classes in each department answer special student requirements. Economics courses, for example, are provided with reference to law, social work, the Christian ministry or public service, as well as business problems. The departments of education and psychology provide courses valuable to the future social, religious or business worker, as well as to the teacher. The English department provides a thorough coverage of the great masterpieces of English literature, as well as an excellent background to any career and especially valuable to author, teacher, journalist, minister, lawyer, secretary or the man or woman in public life.

Language courses are planned not only along conversational, literary and artistic lines, but also with special reference to foreign commercial terms and tactics. So with the departments of religion, philosophy, history, music, biology, mathematics, chemistry, art, speech, et cetera, instruction is adapted to both intensive and related courses.

Physical Education Required.

Physical education is required of all freshmen, sophomores and juniors. Track, football, tennis, baseball, soccer, volley ball, group games and calesthenics are offered men, and women's sport include hockey, soccer, baseball, volley ball, basket ball, folk dancing, stunts and games. Provision for swimming is made at the Y. W. C. A. pool.

Student activities and social events provide a full life outside of study hours. They include programs of fraternities and sororities, choral, glee, orchestral, dramatic, debating and athletic clubs, and poetry, language, religious, honor and alumni societies.

Washington's only chapter of the International Relations Club, a National honorary political science fraternity, is sponsored at American by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. Membership in this club, which never exceeds 25, is limited to students of high scholastic standing who are especially interested in international affairs. The endowment has provided the college library with a liberal number of books and current publications.

American's debating teams have been victorious in over 80 per cent of their decision contests. Membership in teams, for both men and women, averages 15 per cent of the student body. American debaters have met outstanding National and international teams, including Oxford University, the University of Hawaii, the University of Pennsylvania, Oberlin, Dennison, Ohio Wesleyan, Syracuse and many others. The 1935 program includes a trip for the women's team through North Carolina and Georgia, and a trip for the men through Ohio.

College publications, which provide students practical journalistic experience under supervision of faculty members, include the American Eagle, which for two successive years won first place in its class in the regional press association competition, and The Aucola, a year book deriving its name from initial letters of "American University, College of Liberal Arts."

The University was established over a quarter of a century ago, the culmination of a desire to erect in the Nation's Capital an institution of higher learning devoted to the principles of Protestant Christianity. Its colleges have advanced to the forefront of the Nation's educational institutions under the original leadership of Bishop John Fletcher Hurst, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and the continued support of that Church.

Dr. Gray is Chancellor.

Dr. Joseph M. M. Gray, lecturer minister and author, is the University's chancellor. Dr. George B. Woods, author of many widely used textbooks in both literature and rhetoric, is dean of the College of Liberal Arts. Faculty members represent foremost educators in many branches of learning. Dr. Charles C. Tansill, author and historian, and acting dean of the Graduate School, was recently selected by the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace as one of four historians in the country to write an up-to-date account of international relations.

College spirit runs high among American students. They are especially proud of their cosmopolitan enrollment, as well as environment, their roster representing all parts of the country. They boast a unique fusion of Southern cordiality, New England culture and Western grandeur.

In welcoming new students to the college, the faculty and administrative officers, through Dean Woods, emphasize the college's existence "for its students, and its purpose to teach them the art of living and to cultivate all sides of human nature, that each may gain a genuine social refinement, an appreciation of the beautiful and an intelligent and reverent attitude toward religion."

The Washington Post Scholarship Competition is open to any bona fide fourth-year student, under 19 years of age on January 15, 1935, enrolled in a public, private or parochial senior high school within the competition area, which embraces the District of Columbia; in Virginia, Alexandria City and the counties of Albemarle, Arlington, Augusta, Clarke, Culpeper, Fairfax, Fauquier, Frederick, Greene, King George, Loudoun, Louisa, Madison, Orange, Page, Prince William, Rappahannock, Rockbridge, Rockingham, Shenandoah, Spotsylvania, Stafford, Warren and Westmoreland; in Maryland, the counties of Allegany, Anne Arundel, Calvert, Carroll, Charles, Dorchester, Frederick, Howard, Montgomery, Prince Georges, Talbot, St. Marys, Washington and Wicomico, and in West Virginia, Berkeley and Jefferson Counties.

The competition calls for the writing of preliminary essays on stipulated governmental subjects, the principal of each participating school to submit his school's best essay for judging in division eliminations, by March 16, 1935, to the director of the competition.

Enrollments or inquiries should be addressed to Louise Proctor Engle, director, The Washington Post Scholarship Competition, The Post, Washington, D. C.

Parley Is Called In A. & P. Dispute

Continued from Page 1.

Davis and Police Chief George Matowitz.

Mayor Davis asserted "there is no justification for the company's claim that it suffered from lack of protection. Chief Matowitz proved conclusively that the company was given all the protection it asked for, and that 50 more policemen, held in reserve, never were called for by the company.

"If the A. & P. should leave Cleveland, I'm satisfied it would not be because of lack of proper police protection. It looks to me like a move in which they are considering their stores in other parts of the country," the mayor said.

Nelson Named Special Aid to NRA Chairman

Appointment Gives Big Business Greater Voice in Affairs.

Big business gained greater voice in NRA affairs yesterday with appointment of D. M. Nelson, former Sears-Roebuck Co. vice president, as a special assistant to Clay Williams, chairman of the new NRA administrative board. He is a member of Secretary Roper's business advisory and planning council.

Other evidence that important industries will play a more active part in the reorganized recovery unit came with the recent appointment of Edward B. Stettinius, a United States Steel Corporation vice president, as a special adviser to the administrative board on personnel problems and with the return to NRA after extended absences of W. Averell Harriman, United Pacific Railroad board chairman, and A. R. Glancy, a General Motors Corporation executive.

Significance also was attached to selection of Samuel E. Thomason, publisher of the Chicago Daily Times and the Tampa Tribune, as adviser to the administrative board on public relations. He accepted appointment on a temporary basis.

"Perpetuation" Forecast.

A hearing on a proposal for election of a new code authority for the retail solid fuel industry brought a prediction by Arthur D. Whiteside, administrative board member, that NRA would be "perpetuated" with modifications based on suggestions received from code authorities between now and next spring.

George Houston, a division administrator, questioned more than a score of witnesses on methods of choosing the successors of the industry's original code authority, which resigned in a body in protest against action of Washington officials in requiring division offices to send price-fixing changes here for approval.

Rodney Stephens, of New York, representing the Retail Coal Merchants Association, reported the industry was prepared to submit the names of five men "qualified" to administer the code. He opposed enlargement of the code authority.

Labor Representative Urged.

John P. Frey, of the Labor Advisory Board, testified greater compliance and public confidence could be obtained through appointment of a labor representative.

Meanwhile, it was learned ranking officials did not look with favor on a proposal by an Illinois citizen that NRA buy surplus goods of all manufacturers and hold them off the market until they could be sold without seriously reducing the profit of private enterprise.

Congressional Library Office Given to Slade

Will Quit Folger Post to Head Bibliographic Division Nov. 1.

William Adams Slade, now director of the Folger Shakespeare Library, will become chief of the bibliographic division of the Library of Congress on November 1.

He has submtted his resignation as Folger Library director to the trustees of Amherst College, and the present director of research there, Dr. Joseph Quincy Adams, will move into that position on the same date.

Both changes were reliably confirmed late yesterday.

In Familiar Surroundings.

Back in surroundings made familiar to him by 20 years of experience, Mr. Slade will be doing work he prefers to his present administrative duties. He held the same position from 1923 to 1930, until he was named to head the Shakespear Library as its first director. This time, his duties will be much broader, and he will supervise the reference work of the Library of Congress and will correlate his bibliographic investigations.

Born in Fall River, Mass., Mr. Slade is now 60 years old. He first joined the Congressional Library staff in 1898, and continued there until 1909, when he left to become librarian of the National Monetary Commission. He returned to the Library of Congress in 1912, became chief bibliographer in 1923, and remained in that capacity until he joined the Folger Library.

Noted as Bibliographer.

Author of numerous bibliographic lists and member of several library and historical associations, Mr. Slade resides at 3425 Ordway street northwest.

Florence S. Hellman has been acting chief bibliographer for the Library of Congress.

Dr. Adams, born in Greenville, S. C., in 1881, is a noted Shakespearean scholar who has served on the faculty of Cornell University. A member of the executive council of the Modern Language Association of America and honorary vice president of the Shakespeare Association of America, he has written several books on researches connected with Shakespeare. He lives at 4000 Cathedral avenue northwest.

Nippon Trade Menace Bared

Glassware Men Protest Proposed Reduction in Existing Tariffs.

A Japanese "trade menace" to one section of American industry and labor was detailed yesterday before the Federal Committee for Reciprocity Information by representatives of glassware manufacturers and workers.

C. B. Roe, Moundsville, W. Va., manufacturer, and Harry H. Cook, of Toledo, Ohio, labor spokesman, opposed the insertion in a reciprocal trade treaty now being negotiated with Belgium of any provisions for reduction of existing tariffs on goods from that country.

They contended any tariff reduction granted Belgium automatically would benefit other nations having "most-favored nation" treaties with the United States. Belgian competition in the American glassware market is bad enough, they declared, and if other competing countries such as Japan, Germany and Czechoslovakia were allowed tariff benefits, the result would be disastrous for the American industry.

Roe attacked the "cheap labor" glass production in Japan and other foreign countries, which permits foreign manufacturers to undersell American producers in their home market.

U. S. Finishes Case Against Samuel Insull

Fights Defense Effort to Get Directed Verdict of Not Guilty.

Chicago, Oct. 29 (AP).—The Government rested its mail-fraud case against Samuel Insull today and followed with a vigorous resistance to an attempt by Stanley Field, one of the 16 codefendants, to obtain a directed verdict of not guilty.

Field, socially prominent and former intimate friend of Insull, was the first to seek a directed verdict. Through his attorney, Frederick L. Burnham, he contended that even had there been a swindle the Government had not proved him a party to it.

The plea drew a retort by Leslie E. Salter, special assistant to the Attorney General, that Field was not "a babe in the woods" in this matter, and that it was Field's duty to know what was being done by the Corporation Securities Co., of which he was a director.

Salter charged that Field, former chairman of the board of the Continental Illinois National Bank & Trust Co. and a nephew of the original Marshall Field of department store fame, had used the prestige of his name to further the scheme to defraud.

Reading from the 1930 annual report of Corporation Securities, the company through which the 17 defendants are charged with bilking the investing public of a hundred million dollars, Salter asserted that the listing of the net earnings of $8,000,000 was an attempt to deceive and that Field as a director had authorized the report.

"Is it your contention that these annual reports were deceptive?" interrupted Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson.

"It certainly is!" answered Salter. "Stock dividends were carried as income, in violation of every rule. Stocks were valued at the market price on the day they were taken in, and nowhere was there anything to show that the market price was rigged. The defendants sought cleverly to avoid mail fraud responsibility."

Hotel Rum Sale Report Given Dern

Richmond, Va., Oct. 29 (AP).—Gov. Peery said this afternoon he had written a letter to Secretary of War Dern outlining the controversy over sale of liquor by the Chamberlain Hotel on an Army reservation at Old Point Comfort.

He said that before writing the letter he had conferred with Senator Byrd and that he had cited the study made by Assistant Attorney General G. Stanley Clark, assigned to the Virginia Alcoholic Beverage Control Board, who found that the staff was powerless to enforce its edict that the hotel must stop hard liquor sales.

The Governor said his letter did not refer to the controversy raised over allegations that the Chamberlain was advertising that only gentiles were welcomed as guests.

"That matter," he said, "was covered by the Virginia Senators in the protest against the practice.

Woman Hurt in Crash At Takoma Park, Md.

Mrs. Alma L. Jones, 25, of 3006 Twenty-fourth street northeast, was injured yesterday when her auto collided with a truck at Blair road and the underpass, Takoma Park, Md.

Police said Mrs. Jones was operating an auto which struck an oil truck driven by Marvin S. Winkler, 2845 Belair place northeast. She was treated by a local physician for severe lacerations of the chin and leg.

BERLITZ SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES

When the favorite comes flying home and glasses are lifted high..

You'll find Saccone & Speed Scotch is the favorite of discriminating people. This ancient whiskey has been the selection of the British services and all persons of good taste for over a hundred years. It has the rich, mellow peat fragrance that spells smooth, perfect liqueur—and at a surprisingly low price for Scotch of this quality.

SACCONE & SPEED Ltd.

Liqueur Cream Scotch

Marvin & Snead, Inc.

1612 K Street N. W. • Wholesale Distributors • DIstrict 1154-59

Just look at that calendar: October 30 already! November's here, and December is right behind. Gosh, here it is almost Christmas and where are those presents? What shall we give Aunt Minnie, and Cousin Ezra, and Sister Henrietta? Can it be a book, or has Aunt Minnie already got a book? Will it be all right to give the Joneses that awful chromo Aunt Susan gave us last year? Or did Aunt Susan give it to the Joneses in the first place?

But a word to the wife is sufficient, and here's the word: Look up Ruth Anne Davis' column in The Washington Post. You see, Ruth Anne is a woman, and therefore is afflicted with that terrible disease, "shopping-itis." Ruth Anne at a bargain sale is far happier than any man at a free lunch counter. She loves to ferret out the interesting things for sale in Washington shops, and she's always on the lookout for those odds and ends which make a home . . . or a dress ensemble . . . perfect. She likes Nice Things. In fact, the Office Misogynist has branded her the Husbands' Worst Enemy . . . because she finds so many pretty things for wives to buy!

She likes to discover new cosmetics, too. Marcus Valerius Martialis, that Noble Old Roman, first chronicled Woman's penchant for buying things to make themselves prettier. You remember his verse:

"The golden hair that Gullah wears
Is hers; who would have thought it?
She swears 't is hers; and true she swears,
For I know where she bought it!"

Of course, Martial was right, but he didn't tell the name of the wigmaker. Ruth Anne improves on the old Roman custom: she tells the ladies where to get that new blonde hair-wash, where to buy durable lipsticks, where to find that new shade of hosiery. She's an information bureau for busy shoppers, a Miss Fix-it for worried housewives, a Suggestion-giver-outer for the man who wants to buy a present. Whether you're seeking a $1,500 Swiss music box, a patented foot-warmer for these chilly nights, or a new lamp shade, Ruth Anne Davis can tell you just where to find it.

You can find Ruth Anne Davis each morning in the Woman's Pages of

The Washington Post.

Japanese Face Pacific Arming If Treaty Falls

U. S. Warns of Possible Action to Fortify Possessions.

Continued from Page 1.

interdelegation conversations today for the first time.

Japan's Treaty Move Rejected by Powers

London, Oct. 29 (AP).—Japanese proposals for a new naval treaty to supplant the London and Washington pacts are not acceptable to the British and American delegates, it was learned today.

The Japanese, it was understood, have been informed that the two powers are unable to accept Japan's flat declarations of the principle of equality and proposal for a maximum or global tonnage basis of limiting armaments.

The next move in the vital discussions, therefore, was up to the Japanese. It was understood that unless they modify their attitude, there is virtually no possibility of a compromise.

May End Open Door.

An American spokesman indicated the belief that tearing up the Washington treaty of 1922 may mean the end of collateral pacts which now guarantee the open door in China and nonaggression in the Far East. The delegation understands the Japanese would seek to change these pacts or end them entirely should naval limitation be thrown overboard.

American and British delegations have studied ways of giving the Japanese a possible face-saving clause if it is specifically stated in any new treaty that Japan would not have a navy equal in strength to that of England and the United States.

Until Japan is willing to make such a guarantee, any clause of the kind will not be considered. Suggestions for a compromise, therefore, must come from the Japanese.

Some Concessions.

The seriousness of the situation was further emphasized in American quarters. The belief was expressed that unless the Japanese yield, naval limitation will be ended two years from December, the earliest date at which the Washington treaty could be destroyed.

Both Occidental delegations were represented as willing to make some concessions, such as substituting "relative strength" for "ratio," but they hold the principles of the treaties must be maintained.

The Americans feel that military elements dominate the political situation in Japan, preventing the Japanese people from realizing the equality in security already guaranteed by existing treaties.

They also hold that granting the principle of equality to Japan would give the other powers a chance to build upward rather than downward.

County to War On Diphtheria

St. Marys Fights Spread of Dread Disease.

Leonardtown, Md., Oct. 29 (Spl.). Dr. D. St. Clair Campbell, county health officer, today began a campaign to fight the spread of diphtheria among the school children of St. Marys County.

Clinics have been established by the health department to treat the school children with diphtheria antitoxin. Dr. Campbell urged all parents to have their children inoculated at these clinics or by private physicians.

The first of the clinics was held today at Charlotte Hall at both the white and colored schools, while others are set for tomorrow morning at 9:30 at the Cardinal Gibbons Institute, Ridge, Md.; Wednesday at 9:30 a. m. at the Laurel Grove and Oraville white schools, and Thursday at 9:30 a. m. at the Morganza white parochial school and at the Morganza colored parochial school at 11 a. m. Children at the Oakville School will be taken by bus to the Laurel Grove School.

Dr. Campbell said that precautions had been taken to prevent the spread of diphtheria from Charles County, where it is said to be prevalent.

Giant Waterspouts Hit Buffalo Docks

500 Feet High, They Hurl Sea Gulls Skyward.

Buffalo, N. Y., Oct. 29 (AP).—Tossing sea gulls into the air like feathers and crashing against the seawall and docks, five huge waterspouts roared into Buffalo Harbor from Lake Erie today amidst snow and a near gale.

From 100 to 500 feet high, the spouts traveled in Indian file as they swirled into the harbor from a black spot on the lake about a mile southwest of the city.

Pushing everything upward in their wake, the blasts of water spent themselves against the break wall and docks along the harbor shore without causing damage.

Emergency Treatment Urged for Pneumonia

Oklahoma City, Oct. 29 (AP).—A pneumonia patient should be given emergency treatment as quickly as a man hit by a truck, Dr. Russell L. Cecil, of Cornell University, told the fifth annual Oklahoma City Clinical Conference today.

Describing pneumonia as an illness where minutes count, Dr. Cecil related recent discoveries which have made detection of pneumonia possible in two hours. Two days sometimes had been required for definite diagnosis before, he said.

Wins Fight Against Extradition

Associated Press Photo.

Thomas H. Robinson, sr., left center, who yesterday won his fight against the Government to prevent his being taken to Louisville for trial in the Stoll kidnaping case.

McCarl Blocks Ship's Removal

Rules PWA Funds Can't Be Used for Work on Morro Castle.

Efforts of the Navy Department to drydock the fire-razed S. S. Morro Castle yesterday were reported to have struck a reef, legally speaking, in the person of Comptroller General J. R. McCarl.

McCarl was said to have ruled a tentative PWA allotment of $180,000 could not be used to remove the once proud Ward liner to New York from the Asbury, N. J., beach.

There now is a possibility, it was understood, that McCarl will permit expenditure of the money on the theory that the vessel is an obstruction to navigation.

Should the funds be released the ship eventually might be reconditioned as an aircraft carrier. If the hull and machinery should not be considered worth repairing, the vessel would be sold as junk.

Vocational School Is Set at U. of Md.

Agricultural Courses to Be Offered.

Announcement of establishment of a winter school in vocational training at the University of Maryland sponsored by the colleges of agriculture and home economics was made yesterday by Dr. Harry J. Patterson, dean of the college of agriculture.

The school will open January 7, and continue until February 15. It will offer intensified instruction to high school graduates and others from rural districts who have been unable to complete their education.

Courses will be animal husbandry, rural sociology, animal and plant industry and home making. No entrance examination or requirements will be held except that the age limit will be 18 years. When a student attains a specified number of credits he will be given a certificate of achievement.

TVA Loses Again In Utility Fight

Writ Preventing Purchase at Knoxville Upheld.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 29 (AP).—The Tennessee Valley Authority lost today in another of a series of legal tilts involving its right to purchase Tennessee Public Service Co. properties in and around Knoxville.

Justice Colin P. McKinney, of the State Supreme Court, ruling on a TVA petition asking that a circuit court order temporarily restraining the sale be set aside, held that he had no authority to void the lower court's ruling, since a proper bond had been executed.

The deadline for consummation of the sale, under an agreement signed by bondholders, is midnight Wednesday.

Leo Kahn Beaten, Dies; Indian Wrestler Held

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 29 (AP).—Leo Kahn, 44-year-old furniture dealer, known throughout the mid-South for his weekly radio programs in which he acted as master of ceremonies, died in a hospital today as a result of a beating police said he received at the hands of Jim (Big Jim) Clinkstock, 30-year-old professional Indian wrestler.

Clifford Davis, commissioner of police, ordered a first-degree murder charge placed against Clinkstock, and the wrestler was held pending arraignment tomorrow.

Hungary Will Brand All Gypsies at Birth

Budapest, Hungary, Oct. 29 (AP).—Authorities declared today that hereafter all gypsies born in the Farczali district of Hungary will be branded with tattoo marks showing the date and place of their birth, and their name.

They wished to prevent gypsies from wandering and changing their identity when accused of horse-stealing and other misdeeds.

Sell your house with a Post Classified Ad. Just phone National 4200.

Fund Drives Pushes On Toward Its Goal

Warrenton, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—The Warrenton Chamber of Commerce teams which solicited an emergency fund for the Fauquier County Hospital Association and reported collections of $768 the first of the week are still increasing their figures.

Team Captain E. E. Risdon received two checks of $25 Friday and, with the pledges still coming in, it is felt the drive through the Chamber of Commerce may reach the $1,000 goal.

Father of Stoll Kidnap Suspect Is Freed by U.S.

Robinson Held Guiltless, but Fight Is Pushed for Extradition.

Nashville, Tenn., Oct. 29 (AP).—Removal of Thomas H. Robinson, sr., to Louisville for trial in connection with the kidnaping of Mrs. Alice Speed Stoll was refused today by United States Commissioner Julian H. Campbell, but the Department of Justice made immediate preparations for an appeal.

After listening for two days to testimony and arguments on the Government's application to send Robinson to Kentucky, Commissioner Campbell decided there not only "is no probable cause to believe" the 61-year-old engineer guilty, "but no fact to reasonably believe a suspicion of his guilt."

Robinson is the father of Thomas H. Robinson, jr., 27, sought throughout the Nation as the kidnaper of Mrs. Stoll, Louisville society matron, who was held captive in an Indianapolis apartment for five days. The younger Robinson's wife is in custody at Louisville. The three were jointly indicted.

At the request of United States District Attorney Thomas J. Sparks at Louisville, the Federal Court trial there of Mrs. Robinson, jr., was postponed today until December 3 in order that further efforts might be made to remove her father-in-law from Nashville to be tried with her.

Meantime, the Justice Department announced at Washington that it would apply to a Federal District Court in Tennessee, probably by the court for the Western Division presided over by Judge Harry B. Anderson, Memphis, for an order setting aside Commissioner Campbell's decision.

If the district court declines to order Robinson's removal, the Justice Department plans an appeal to the circuit court of appeals at Cincinnati and, if necessary, to the United States Supreme Court.

Dictatorship Threatens U. S., J. L. Green Says at Leesburg

Unemployment Greater Than When Roosevelt Took Office, Clarendon G. O. P. Candidate Declares; Waynesboro Rally Set.

Leesburg, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Declaring that unemployment is greater now than when President Roosevelt first took office, John Locke Green, of Clarendon, Republican candidate for Congress from the Eighth Congressional District, made his second address before Loudoun County voters this evening in the courthouse here.

Mr. Green said that despite huge expenditures of money it is estimated that the number on relief rolls this winter will be larger than last year.

The speaker said the policies of the present Administration at Washington are bringing about a chaotic condition which will result in the establishment of a dictatorship. He charged that the New Deal party had broken away from the principles of the Democratic party and had embraced those of the Socialist party.

Mr. Green promised, if elected to Congress on November 6, to vote for the repeal of all laws conferring extraordinary or legislative powers upon the President; for a balanced budget; a stable currency and sound money; the abolition of the alphabetical commissions, boards and bureaus; the prevention of monopolies, and the encouragement of the production and not the destruction of agricultural wealth.

Shirley Piggott, chairman of the county Republican committee, presided at the meeting.

Waynesboro Rally Set.

Waynesboro, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Republicans of this section of the Shenandoah Valley will meet here tomorrow night in a rally pointing for the November 6 elections with J. Everett Will, Luray, party nominee from the Seventh District for the House of Representatives, as the principal speaker. L. Brown Deputy, president, and Westford Warner, secretary, of the Waynesboro Republican Club, are in charge of arrangements.

G. O. P. leaders here have been working to iron out the rift in the party occasioned when the Waynesboro Republican Club publicly denounced as "ridiculous" the action of the Waynesboro Industrial Employes Republican Club in announcing a boycott on all business establishments displaying the Blue Eagle or adhering to code prices.

Capital Police Seize Fugitive Gang Leader

Grafton D. English, 22, fugitive gang leader, was arrested yesterday in a downtown rooming house. He escaped from Richmond Penitentiary September 17.

English, police said, was serving a 30-year sentence for robbery. He was admittedly the leader of a hoodlum gang responsible for a series of chain store robberies in Arlington County, Va., last year.

He made his escape by knocking a prison guard unconscious and taking his gun, police said. A squad of headquarters detectives arrested English in the 200 block of G street northwest.

V. F. W. of Annapolis To Install Thursday

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 29 (Spl.). Annapolis Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Thursday night will install Louis N. Phipps as the new post commander.

The other officers include: Senior vice commander, James A. Haley; junior vice commander, John F. Stevens; chaplain, E. C. Brooks; officer of the day, John A. Mooney; judge advocate, Roscoe C. Rowe, and surgeon, B. E. Kirwin.

Whenever you hear anyone mention the "Result Number," he is talking about Post Classified Ads—National 4200.

Farley Dangles Federal Money In Reed Attack

Reminds Pennsylvania of 625 Millions U. S. Spent in State.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 29 (AP).—Urging the defeat of Senator Reed, Pennsylvania Republican, Postmaster General Farley said here tonight the Keystone State had received more than $625,000,000 through Federal recovery measures opposed by Reed.

Quoting the Senator and Chairman Henry P. Fletcher of the Republican National committee as having said Pennsylvania had been discriminated against in favor of Western farmers, and would have to pay far more than its share of the Nation's relief cost, the Democratic National chairman said the State had been alloted $197,000,000 alone from the PWA.

In addition, he said, Pennsylvania led the list of States which furnished the building materials for the public works program, and some of the clients of Reed's law firm were the "chief beneficiaries" of this program.

"It so happens that the manufacture of structural steel, &c., is not the only business of these clients," Farley said. "They are also engaged in the industry of politics, which perhaps explains why Mr. Mellon and Mr. Grundy have not put a silencer on their representatives in the United States Senate."

He said Pennsylvania had been allotted 50 per cent more of PWA funds than Ohio and nearly twice as much as New York and Illinois, second and third, respectively, other States that furnished the structural materials under the program.

"Of course," he added, "these purchases were made not as a favor to Pennsylvania, but because you could deliver the goods." Farley called for "full redemption of Pennsylvania from its long period of political subjection to a selfish, exploiting, political control."

In urging election of the Democratic slate, Farley mentioned Joseph Guffey, Senatorial; George E. Earle, gubernatorial, and Pat Boland, Scranton, Congressional candidate.

Save $120.00
GUARANTEED
SHERWOOD OIL BURNER
NOW ONLY $285 With 550 Gallon Storage Tank.
Complete, Installed, for Small Down Payment—Terms as low as $7.90 a Month—3 Years to Pay
Visit Our Showrooms at 1725 Connecticut Ave., N.W., or telephone Decatur 4181 for Complete Information
Guaranteed By SHERWOOD BROS., INC.
Marketers of
BETHOLINE & RICHFIELD

Special!
BARGAIN FARES
NOVEMBER 2 & 3
15-DAY RETURN LIMIT
Round Trip for only 1/3 more than the usual one way fare—
Reductions slightly less to New England.
For these two days only you can go from Washington to all points in the United States at greatly reduced fares. Liberal stop-over privileges on return trip.
You can go home to vote!
For train service and fares apply to ticket agents
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
BALTIMORE & OHIO R. R.
CHESAPEAKE & OHIO R. R.

POST WANT ADS PAY

Good Taste!

Copyright 1934, The American Tobacco Company.

Luckies They Taste Better

The world's finest tobaccos are used in Luckies—the "Cream of the Crop"—only the clean center leaves—for the clean center leaves are the mildest leaves—they cost more—they taste better.

"It's toasted"

√ Your throat protection—against irritation—against cough

The Washington Post

Eugene Meyer, Publisher.

Eugene MacLean, General Manager. Floyd R. Harrison, Comptroller.

The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and local news of spontaneous origin published herein. Rights of republication of all other matter herein are also reserved.

OFFICES OF THE WASHINGTON POST.

New York, N. Y. ..... 270 Madison Avenue
Chicago, Ill. ..... 360 North Michigan Avenue
Detroit, Mich. ..... 8-241 General Motors Building
St. Louis, Mo. ..... 205 Globe-Democrat Building
San Francisco, Calif. ..... 742 Market Street

DELIVERED IN WASHINGTON.

Daily, Sunday, 1 yr.	$7.80	Daily, Sunday, 1 week.	15c
Daily only, 1 yr.	5.20	Daily only, 1 week	10c
Sunday only, 1 yr.	2.60	Sunday only, per copy.	5c

BY MAIL—MARYLAND, VIRGINIA, WEST VIRGINIA AND NORTH CAROLINA.

Daily and Sunday.		Sunday Only.		Daily Only.
One year	$9.00	One year	$4.00	One year	$6.00
Six months	5.00	Six months	2.00	Six months	3.50
One month	.85	One month	.40	One month	.60

OTHER STATES, MEXICO AND CANADA.

Daily and Sunday		Sunday Only.		Daily Only.
One year	$11.00	One year	$4.50	One year	$7.50
Six months	6.00	Six months	2.50	Six months	4.00
One month	1.00	One month	.45	One month	.70

All Subscriptions by Mail Payable in Advance.

Entered at the Postoffice, Washington, D. C., as second-class mail matter.

TELEPHONE NATIONAL 4200.

Tuesday, October 30, 1934.

Models And Debutantes.

In the good old days the moralists used to wax indignant over the idleness of "society girls." They were wasting their lives, it was said, and should find themselves some useful, preferably gainful, occupation. That was when work was a fetish in America—and could easily be found.

Now there is just as much indignation being worked up over society girls who have gone to work, who have eschewed the paths of idleness. But it is less a moral than an economic indignation. Workers, and would-be workers, see in the trek of debutantes to the workshops a definite and growing menace.

The professional models of New York have, through the front-page lure of the word that describes them, been able to make articulate their resentment against the usurpation of jobs hitherto held by the "working gal." The weight of the argument is all on the side of the models. Through arduous training, as well as good looks, they have fitted themselves for the difficult tasks of deluding dowagers into thinking they are as slim as the models who show them how to wear their gowns.

In the midst of the depression, ladies still wear clothes. They still go to the couturieres to see the latest fashions. But the garments, instead of being shown by those whose work it is to show them, are now increasingly displayed by debutantes, and ostensibly far from poverty-stricken debutantes.

Public sympathies in the issue will lie with the models, and that less because of their looks than because of their argument.

Going Forward Together.

The resolution adopted by the United Lutheran Church of America at its Savannah convention, calling for a merger of this body with the American Lutheran Church and the Lutheran Church of the Missouri Synod, is in keeping with the modern trend toward church unification. It is also a move toward meeting the challenge of present-day anti-religious sentiment.

Whether hostility to organized religion is increasing, or is merely more articulate and frank, and whether crime is gaining, or is only more startling, church people everywhere are beginning to concentrate on the development of a united front. The evidence of this is seen on every hand.

At the Atlantic City convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church, further efforts were made to cement more closely the high and low church elements. The major Presbyterian factions today are nearer homogeneity than ever before. Faced with the most disconcerting spirit of irreligion in modern times, minor differences over dogma, forms of worship, modes of church government and degrees of evangelism have become subordinate issues.

Since the separation of the Methodist Episcopal Church South from the parent body in 1845, climaxing a ten-year quarrel over nothing more vital than the rights of bishops, earnest leaders of the Methodist denominations in America have striven for solidarity. Slavery and similar aggravating factors have vanished. Advance in communications has wiped out territorial difficulties. Organization and details of worship are much the same. The two leading Methodist groups even have a common hymnal.

As was made clear at the Baltimore Methodist rally recently, the general unification of all Methodists, for which commissions were appointed in 1925, is soon to be effected. Bishop William F. McDowell and Bishop Edwin Holt Hughes, both of Washington, bespoke speed in the union in the face of "a renaissance of paganism and spiritual chaos." The Lutherans at Savannah pleaded for a firm stand against "destructive social forces." At the Episcopal convention, present conditions were found "alarming."

These and other churches are not just now awakening to the need for their influence. They have long striven, perhaps too passively, for world betterment. But the idea of cohesion and harmony and a phalanx-like front grows daily. Such a movement will not long pass unnoticed by that large percentage of Americans whose agnosticism is at bottom largely a hostility to narrow religious institutionalism.

The Real Biography.

Alfred Stieglitz, perhaps the most famous photographer in America, and the one man credited with making the camera a tool of art, will be honored in December by the publication of a book containing 24 eulogies by as many authors qualified to speak of his life and work. There will be 119 illustrations in the book, many from Stieglitz's own plates. But there will be no photograph of Alfred Stieglitz.

Asked by a reporter to explain this, the 70-year-old pioneer, and champion of modernism in the arts, replied: "If the book contains an adequate picture, there is no need for a photograph." The "adequate picture," of course, will be given in the words of his admirers.

It may seem strange that a photographer should thus seem to decry photography. But is it really paradoxical? To Mr. Stieglitz the camera is not so much a machine for the harsh and accurate picturing of reality as it is a vehicle, like a brush or a crayon, for the rendering of beauty. In his hands it has really been an eye that has seen even as the human eye sees—with the mind and the soul as well as with the optic nerve.

Alfred Stieglitz does not think that people should care what he "looks like." He wants them to see him through his own photographs of other people. In other words, he realizes that the biography of all great artists is primarily in their work.

Training For Public Service.

In order to train young men for public service, and to give those desiring to enter private commerce a better understanding of the relationships existing between Government and business, the Harvard Business School is establishing a two-year course of study in public administration. This new departure is significant evidence of the growing importance of the Government as a factor in industry, and as a competitor for the services of young men planning to follow business careers.

There are two prerequisites to efficient performance of the new and complicated tasks that are falling to the lot of public officials. First, the merit system must be firmly established in order to make specialized training for Government service worthwhile. Secondly, opportunities must be afforded for acquiring the kind of knowledge needed for efficient work with regulatory bodies such as the Federal Trade Commission, the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Securities Commission, and a host of other agencies, new and old.

As Dean Donham, of the Harvard Business School, points out: "The changes now going on emphasize more concretely than ever the necessity for broadly trained men both in business and in government. Regardless of the degree of government control, or the form of government, the complex structure of an industrial civilization must be operated by competent trained men who have a keen sensitiveness to the constantly changing relationship of their specialized problems to the general problems of society."

Unfortunately, there is an appalling dearth of men who are capable of meeting any such tests of fitness for public service, although there are many experts now employed by the Government who have a profound knowledge of the technical questions with which they must deal. They are, however, a mere handful compared with the numbers needed to fill posts in the newly established regulatory services.

Moreover, as Dean Donham indicates, effective administration requires something more than specialized training. It requires also an understanding of the importance to the general welfare of the particular activities on which the specialist is engaged. It involves an ability to see the way in which particular cogs contribute to the functioning of the whole machinery.

If public administrators are spoilsmen or narrow-minded bureaucrats, they will inevitably do more harm than good when they attempt to manage or control industrial operations. Yet spoilsmen or improperly trained men will necessarily fill public posts unless the colleges and universities recognize their responsibility for providing the requisite education.

The Harvard Business School is preparing to do its part. Its announcement is equivalent to a challenge to the Government to increase the attractiveness of the public service by eliminating cheap patronage methods. Such methods have brought, and are still bringing, disillusionment to those who would gladly make public administrative work their life career.

Britain's Way.

While the American textile industry has tried to solve the problem of over-production through code restrictions upon machine hours, the British cotton spinning industry, which has been struggling vainly to eliminate excess capacity ever since the war, is considering a proposal for scrapping about 10,000,000 spindles. A committee of the Master Cotton Spinners Federation has just approved a plan to buy up mills and destroy their equipment, placing a certain number of spindles in reserve to meet possible future needs.

Systematic destruction would proceed under the supervision of a board legally empowered to levy a tax on the industry to defray the costs of the undertaking. It is also proposed to organize the remaining mills into a voluntary association to regulate production and prevent sales below cost. Inauguration of the plan is contingent upon its acceptance by the owners of 90 per cent of all spindles affected. If it is approved, the government will be asked to enact legislation to make the scheme effective and enable the association to exact penalties for noncompliance with the agreement. However, as the British cotton industry is highly individualistic, scepticism exists as to the outcome of this latest attempt to bring productive capacity into closer conformity with demand.

The method proposed has one great advantage over that followed in this country: its aim is to eliminate the high-cost establishments and concentrate work in the more efficient mills. Destruction of superfluous capacity, moreover, would remove the potential competitive menace presented by excess equipment merely withdrawn from use. Again the plan is not complicated by accompanying regulations in regard to wages and hours, which are subject to independent negotiations. Finally, only one section of the cotton industry—that which spins American and Egyptian cotton—would be affected.

For these reasons, the remedy for excess production capacity proposed by the British spinners holds out greater hopes of permanent relief and is economically sounder than a system of restriction which makes no distinction between efficient and inefficient establishments, and attempts to control output by curtailing the effective utilization of all existing equipment.

Inconsistent Labor Policies.

According to the estimates of organized labor the numbers of unemployed are now substantially higher than a year ago, totaling 8,348,000 persons, exclusive of the 2,200,000 engaged in Government relief work of an emergency character. The sheer magnitude of the figures shows the futility of trying to find any instantaneous solution for our unemployment problem. So there is more good will than promise in the efforts which President Green of the A. F. of L. is making to find a miraculous cure for our deep-seated economic malady.

Mr. Green shows a sound understanding of the fact that full employment for labor depends upon the production of more rather than less wealth. In emphasizing the importance of expanding industrial output he has helped to clear away some of the gross misconceptions of those who would restore prosperity by producing less of everything. However, neither Mr. Green nor any other spokesman for the A. F. of L. has as yet explained how industrial expansion is to be encouraged if production costs are concurrently increased by further shortening of the working week, without comparable decreases in pay.

Advocacy of a 30-hour week certainly can not be reconciled with the philosophy of abundance which underlies Mr. Green's present plea for cooperative effort to lift the level of production 30 per cent. Moreover, the assumption that production could suddenly be raised 30 per cent by a mere decision to expand operations carries no conviction. Mr. Green is undoubtedly under great pressure to suggest ways and means by which to put men back to work, but that does not warrant indorsement of proposals that are patently impracticable.

Of course, if every employer were suddenly to start producing enough to warrant the hiring of all idle men, and if it could be done in such fashion as to adjust production to consumption needs, our troubles would be solved. But that picture of an economic Utopia omits the obstacles to its attainment.

The essence of the unemployment problem lies in finding and eliminating existing obstacles to industrial expansion. Like the campaign to revive business by inducing people to spend more, appeals to produce more will be ineffectual unless inducements to respond exist. Without doubt, greatly increased production is necessary to provide employment for our workless millions. But such increased production can only come by degrees, not as a result of an anticipatory burst of business activity before the foundation for profitable operations has been laid.

Shakespeare Hunt.

The suggestion was made recently in the London Star that Leslie Hotson, that literary sleuth extraordinary, be turned loose in the British Public Record Office. It was suggested that among its vast collection of memoirs of Elizabethan times, he might discover many hitherto unknown facts about the Bard. Certainly if anyone could track down facts lost these 300 years it would be Detective Hotson, who already has dug into the forgotten history of Christopher Marlowe's strange death, who has unearthed the lost letters that Shelley wrote to Harriet, and who has found out many amazing facts about Justice Shallow.

Innumerable lives have been written around the page of known Shakespearean facts, from Sidney Lee's "Life" to J. Dover Wilson's delightful, brief and understanding "The Essential Shakespeare." But all have had the same set of facts to begin with—facts (if all of them are facts) concerning only his birth, the date of publication of his plays, and his death. A. G. Gardiner, in the Star, is convinced that there must still be in existence documents which at least would offer a scent for a discovery."

Dean Inge recently said that the mystery of Shakespeare seems attributable to Shakespeare's own indifference to fame and the fate of his works. The former head of St. Paul's even suggested that Shakespeare may have destroyed his own traces deliberately! Mr. Gardiner disagrees with this and so has appealed to Mr. Hotson to get out his magnifying glass and his bloodhounds. The difficulty which seems to stand in the way is a lack of funds, for even literary detectives must eat. The suggestion, therefore, is made that universities and literary institutions combine to supply the wherewithal. Thus endowed, Mr. Hotson could proceed gaily to work.

There probably is no greater adventure left in literary research than trailing Shakespeare's life. Should no new Shakespearean knowledge be found, still who knows what other thrilling material might be unearthed from the dust and mustiness of the prosaic Public Record Office? We hope that the Hotson Shakespeare Hunt can be endowed, even if it leads only to irrefutable evidence that Shakespeare was Bacon after all!

A designer says forthcoming styles in women's dresses will have "a certain knee-hinting effect." But some of us will never be satisfied until they bring back those good old outspoken styles of 1929.

It is encouraging to note that 92 per cent of the seniors in a certain girls' college are truthful. In answer to a questionnaire, only 8 per cent of them said they had never been kissed.

It isn't so easy to be neutral. To sit on the fence is to make of yourself a target for both sides.

Harvest Moon.

Letters to the Editor

The Post welcomes letters from its readers. All communications must be signed with the writer's name and address. Upon publication initials or pen names will be used if requested. Letters are subject to condensation and in no case should they exceed 250 words.

For The Bonus—Now!

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

It seems that I am to acquire the reputation of a chronic grouch by being always in opposition, but, in self-justification, I quote from your editorial column of October 23 this aphorism, equal to any ever pronounced from Proverbs to Benjamin Franklin inclusive: "A theory is a thing of beauty until it gets run over by a fact." You must have had in mind the large-scale example of this now being staged by Mr. Sinclair in California!—all of which is prefatory to taking issue with you, and official opinion generally, upon the expediency of paying the soldiers' bonus.

Ever since the depression started, it has been contended by some that the one thing needed to start recovery is more currency in general circulation. It is hard to conceive a more speedy and inexpensive medium than the bonus, if we want to get approximately $2,500,000,000 into evenly distributed general circulation, and at the same time discharge one public debt, instead of creating another.

The fact that two administrations, of opposing political creeds, have made the same cardinal blunder can not be attributed to obtuseness or motives of economy. The fatal obstacle to this method of currency distribution is apparent. The boys higher up get no immediate benefit. The bonus checks would be mailed out direct, and there would be no political rake-off, or enticing flavor of the pork barrel.

By way of contrast, consider the almost futile projects of distribution of far larger sums than the bonus under present government policies, which are strangling rather than clearing the approaches to recovery. Not one-tenth of these funds will ever reach that social and business stratum where the permanent revival of prosperity must be rooted—that is, the people.

F. G. DAWSON.

Charlottesville, Va., Oct. 26.

Screened Washington.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

The present controversy as to whether the movie producers or the public should be blamed for movie morals being below par brings to mind a picture of last year, "Washington Merry-Go-Round," with Lee Tracy starring, in connection with which an observer of even such limited capacity as that of the present writer was left wondering what kind of mentality the producer had, or what kind he thought the movie-patron has.

In this picture Lee Tracy, as Congressman Button Gwinnett Brown, from Georgia, on his way to begin his term in Washington, is handed a telegram mind you, in a sleeping car on the Congressional Limited, known to millions of people as an afternoon train between New York and Washington which reaches its destination before bedtime and needs no sleepers. It has never been known to run down to Raleigh, Atlanta, or the like on its way between Washington to New York. The movie had to have him on the Congressional just the same.

But that was not enough. Our nice city is known for its buildings; large buildings, small buildings, beautiful and ugly ones, but no tall buildings, unless you must bring in the Capitol and Monument. And all the country knows about Washington's buildings being relatively low, just as we know Atlantic City is not exactly famous for its mountains. But Mr. Movie Man in this picture has us looking out of the Senate Office Building and gazing upon skyscrapers, 40 and 50 stories high. Some one might have helped that by just pulling down the curtain.

EDWARD G. SCHARF.

Washington, Oct. 28.

"Chapel At Princeton."

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

In your issue of October 19 appears an editorial entitled "Chapel at Princeton." This little quip must be far worse than the student editorial which inspired it. The least you can say for it is that both must be of the same kind and that the writer of it needs some church atmosphere in his own life, even if it should be compulsory.

Every minister and churchman should literally jump on your editorial neck.

In this day of apostasy, it is gratifying to know that one university in the land is even trying to cling to something fundamental. The most of them haven't anything more left than the writer of your editorial.

The only reason that this Nation has gone as far as it has is because the forefathers stood for something, both politically and religiously. We have, so far, traveled under their steam, which is practically exhausted. Our old institutions of learning, founded along with the Nation, were religious institutions, but their foundations have been so "hacked, chiseled and chopped" by just such unbelievers as the students you mention that there isn't much of anything left. It is hoped that Princeton, in the face of your editorial, will not rescind its church-going regulations, although it would not be surprising. If it should take on a few more like Einstein, what it has will soon go.

If you wanted to write a real editorial along this line, find out how many Princeton or other university students have come through with their religious faith scuttled. Then you would have something real to write upon.

BART B. PIGMIN.

Washington, Oct. 21.

Our Cooking School.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

My dream of owning a nice gas range was realized at the closing session of your Cooking School held last week, when I was thrilled to hear that my number was the lucky one. That session was the only one that I was able to attend, since it was held in the evening, so I was more thrilled than ever to think that I should be the lucky winner.

However, had I attended every session and not won anything, I should still consider my time well spent, as the free instruction received was of great value.

The stove has been installed and is lovelier than any I ever hoped to own. I take this opportunity to thank your paper and the Washington Gas Light Co. for the chance to win this wonderful prize, also your paper for the nice write-up.

MRS. A. T. MINOR.

Washington, Oct. 25.

"A Spicy Rival."

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

I want to register a protest against the daily invasion of The Post into what might otherwise be considered domestic tranquillity.

Between cutting clippings (I cut nine yesterday) for a very busy husband and a few for my recipes and catalogue, and scanning other columns, I accomplish little in the first hour or two of the day and find myself so mentally stimulated that I eagerly anticipate a Post-inspired family discussion over the dinner table.

This is not saying that I invariably agree with your editorial policy, but that you are a distinctly spicy rival to my other interests.

DISMAYED HOUSEWIFE.

Washington, Oct. 25.

Bell The Criminal.

To the Editor of The Post—Sir:

Once upon a time (Aesop speaking) the rats and mice met in conclave to devise ways and means for the prevention of the cats slapping them down with such continuity that it had become fearsome.

After the pros and cons had been discussed without finding a satisfactory remedy, a young rat, whose face still held the roseate glow of babyhood, rose to a point of order suggesting that the rats catch the cat and tie a bell to her neck. This, he felt sure, would solve the problem.

A wise old campaigner sitting in judgment took up the suggestion, and speedily disposed of it by asking: "And who, pray, will volunteer to catch the cat?"

Along with the story I wish to thank Mr. Harland J. Finchen for his letter of agreement with my theory of destroying literature that glorifies crime; and also to let him know that I cordially agree with his idea about catching criminals and treating them scientifically. For instance: Make them wear a bell on their neck.

WILLIAM MEYERS.

Washington, Oct. 27.

As Others See It

Newspapermen In The New Deal.

The newspaperman is being drafted for service in Washington along with the professor of economics and the specialist in political science. Writing in the Christian Science Monitor, Erwin D. Canham, head of that newspaper's Washington bureau, calls attention to the fact that approximately 50 former Washington correspondents are now to be found in the various Government departments. If we take Mr. Canham's judgment that the Washington corps of reporters of similar professional caliber has never included more than 250 or so, we see what heavy inroads the Roosevelt Administration has made on the ranks of those who report the Capital's news.

Thus it is that John Herrick and Guy McKinney, for instance, are no longer with the Chicago Daily Tribune, but connected with the Subsistence Homestead and Civilian Conservation Corps offices, respectively. Henry Suydam, formerly bureau chief for the Brooklyn Eagle, is with the Department of Justice. M. Farmer Murphy, recently of the Baltimore Sun, is attached to the division of the Department of State which is at work on reciprocal treaties. With the Farm Credit Administration is Lawrence Stafford, lately of the Wall Street Journal. And so the list could be expanded to include men from all parts of the country and from the newspapers of varying attitudes toward the policies of the Roosevelt Administration.

Mr. Canham concludes that so long as these compilers and releasers of news for the New Deal function only as news furnishers, they will be of service to their former colleagues who continue as correspondents. This is a fair judgment. But there is another side to this departure in government. Unless great care is exercised by the correspondents, these former newspaper writers now in Government posts may become the channels through which edited news is supplied to the country. We do not mean to say that this will be the case, but the situation is one which should put the correspondents on guard.

Now more than ever before, the men who report affairs in Washington for the Nation must take the official "handout" for what it is and go behind it whenever necessary.

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch.)

The Post Impressionist

Outline of H. G.

Postoffice, Tuesday.

EVERYBODY has his pet disbelief. Some people don't believe in God. The Post-Impressionist doesn't believe in H. G. Wells.

To be sure, most pet disbeliefs contain contradictions. Half the atheists won't walk under a ladder. The other half worship science. So we admit faith in an H. G. Wells whom we happen to know. But we declare that the H. G. of the so-called "Experiment in Autobiography, by H. G. Wells"—published a few days ago—does not exist.

* * *

The book will be a best-seller. It ought to be. In one sense, it stands first among all Wells' first-rate imaginative works. In another sense, there is only one untrue statement between its widely separated covers. It is exactly what H. G. thinks he is. Yet, for that very reason—the fact that no man knows himself—this altogether fascinating volume possesses about as much authenticity as the already somewhat less popular bust of Homer.

* * *

Between bust and book further comparison is impossible. The bust represents Homer as blind, and, since tradition calls him blind, he probably was. The whole trouble with the book is its endeavor to destroy a tradition which is perfectly veracious and perfectly the key to Wells' character. That effort—perhaps an effort of modesty—completely falsifies the picture, mars every tint, distorts every line.

Here is Wells' thesis:

"There is a sort of journalistic legend that I am a person of boundless euthusiasm and energy. Nothing could be farther from the reality . . . For most things and people I don't care a damn."

Now, if H. G. says that, H. G. believes it.

But it isn't so.

And, since his thesis is false, he produces not "A Portrait of the Artist by Himself," but a portrait of somebody else by an artist.

* * *

Not "a person of boundless enthusiasm?"

Few men have ever held so many opinions so tightly, so briefly and so intensely.

Wells had hardly become a Socialist before he became too socialistic for the Fabians. No sooner was he a Communist than he must rush to Soviet Russia—and of course discover that it was insufficiently communistic. One afternoon, at tea-talk, he played with the idea of government by an oligarchy of the intellect; next day, he was writing a book in praise of it. His discovery of Diety resembled George Moore's discovery of Dickens: Wells proclaimed it to every friend at every chance encounter—couldn't understand why one friend, who had always held orthodox opinions, wasn't amazed at the find.

* * *

Not energetic?

Whatever their results, his methods are those of Trollope. No matter what guests Wells has, no matter whose guest he is, he is early up and at work—stub pencil, pulp paper, small script—every morning.

"I have always," he once confided, "wanted, in Victorian phrase, to 'amass a competence.' Now I have at last amassed one—and shall write no more. Henceforth I shall only compt."

Then he wrote "William Clissold."

* * *

Doesn't he care for "most things?"

Then he has forgotten the barn-floor at his Dunmow place, where somebody would pump the player-piano, and everybody else must simultaneously improvise a dance; Mrs. Wells, the Countess of Warwick, Frank Swinnerton, Lady Mercy and, most delighted with it all, H. G. himself. He makes up a "war-game;" nobody may remain out of it. He plays tennis. He plays charades. He cares for talk on any subject under the sun—or stars:

"I never know what I'll write about next. It will be whatever I next care about, and so it may be whaling, or it may be love."

The only subjects we can recall his not having any interest in whatever are the novels of Virginia Wolf and James Joyce.

* * *

But worst of all things in the thesis of the "Experiment in Autobiography" is its author's allegation that "for most people I don't care a damn."

The Post-Impressionist hereby challenges the real H. G. to name anybody for whom he doesn't give a damn—one way or the other.

What literary authority since the greatest editor of "The Edinburgh Review" has damned more people than H. G. has? What literary person since William Dean Howells has helped more? H. G. is a bonny enemy. But he is a miraculous friend.

Will the Sidney Webbs ever forgive "The New Machiavelli?" That utterly impossible Bull of Bashan, Frank Harris, went to his grave cursing Wells because Wells had been too lenient to him.

On the other hand, if Wells' pension-list were ever made public—which it never will be—its story would be "front page" for a week. Some day, perhaps, somebody will tell the true story of "Mr. Polly."

* * *

No, no; we simply decline to believe in an H. G. who has not "boundless enthusiasm and energy" and who, for most things and people, doesn't "care a damn."

The real H. G. has written another great book in the "Experiment in Autobiography." You must read it. But, if there were (as there should be) a British statute against criminal self-libel, that book would send H. G. to jail for life.

Staff Chief Choice Soon to Be Decided

Military Observer Says Interest Extends Far Beyond Army Post Circles.

By Brig. Gen. Henry J. Reilly, O. R. C.
(Special Correspondence of The Post.)

WHOM will President Roosevelt appoint, at any time now, to be Chief of Staff of the Army? Will he reappoint Gen. Douglas MacArthur, one of the other prominent candidates or some general officer, whose appointment will be a surprise? The choice is of interest to more than military circles. The growing importance of military and civil aviation, and of mechanization and motorization of armies especially makes it significant to industry.

The struggle in some of our schools and colleges over compulsory military training of students makes it of interest also to parents and educational circles. The question now being discussed and argued in all the important countries of whether machines can replace manpower makes it a vital matter to the civilian soldiers of the National Guard and Reserve and their auxiliaries, the Reserve Officers Training Corps and the Citizens' Military Training Camp.

These four categories of civilian soldiers are prominently identified with the activities not only of every State in the Union but practically every community. They have frequently demonstrated this through their Representatives and Senators on "the Hill." They would furnish, in case of war, the overwhelming majority of the Army of the United States if manpower is still the dominant factor.

If it is not and machines, which must be handled by well-trained soldier specialists, are to constitute the war Army, then the regulars brought to war strength from the reserve and reinforced by the National Guard will make up the Army of the United States.

* * * *

THE part aviation is to play in our peacetime National defence scheme has just been laid down for the Army by the report of the Aviation Board, headed by Newton D. Baker. However, an aviation group not satisfied with this report is building up its case before the Howell Aviation Committee, now holding hearings. The latter group plans to renew the fight it made in the last Congress in the coming session.

The Nye munitions investigation, if it takes the manufacture of munitions from private industry and puts it in Government hands, will bring about probably the biggest reorganization and expansion of the War and Navy Departments yet seen. The coming session of Congress will see all these questions fought over in the annual struggle to determine how much money will be given the Army and for what purposes it will be spent.

Besides Gen. MacArthur, the present Chief of Staff, those most prominently mentioned for the appointment are Maj. Gens. Nolan, Fox, Conners, Drum, Johnson, Hagood and Simonds. Gen. Nolan now at Governors Island, N. Y., in command of the Second Corps Area, and Gen. Conner, Boston, First Corps Area, are the last two of Gen. Pershing's assistants chiefs of staff who are now on the active list of the Army.

Gen. Drum now deputy chief of Staff was chief of staff of the First American Army, A. E. F. Gen. Johnson Hagood, now at San Antonio, Tex., in command of the Eighth Corps Area commanded a section of the S. O. S. in France. He first attracted notice when on the staff of Gen. Murray, the chief of artillery, who some years prior to the World War put our coast defenses on the highest plane of efficiency they have ever reached by influencing the Chambers of Commerce and other civic bodies of different seaports to believe that it was in their interests to see that they were defended against attack from sea. Gen. Simonds was Chief of Staff of the Second Army Corps which served with the British during the war. He is now president of the Army War College.

Other possibilities mentioned are Gens. Malone at Baltimore, Craig at San Francisco, Mosely at Atlanta, McCoy at Omaha, and Bowley at Columbus, Ohio. Commanding respectively the Third, Ninth, Fourth, Seventh and Fifth Corp Areas. Gen. Preston Brown at Chicago, commanding the Sixth Corps Area, has removed himself from the list by applying for retirement.

* * * *

UNDER the law, neither rank, seniority, nor length of service are governing factors. The President may choose any one of the 21 major generals or 46 brigadier generals of the line of the Army. The theory of the law is that the President, as Commander-in-Chief, is entitled to and needs a Chief of Staff as does any other Commander-in-Chief. Therefore, he picks from among the officers of the Army with the proper qualifications that one who best suits him.

In a way the relationship is based on the same principle as that by which the colonel of a regiment picks his adjutant. He chooses the officer of the proper rank who is personally agreeable to him. It is no reflection on the other officers of the same rank who are senior to the one picked. Neither does it hurt any officer's chance of promotion because it does not change the total number of officers of that grade.

Similarly the choice of Chief of Staff in no way affects the regular line of promotion. There are a definite number of major generals and of brigadier generals. Choosing one to be Chief of Staff does not change that number, despite the fact that while he is Chief of Staff he enjoys the rank and pay of a general.

However, there is a chance of one vacancy when a new Chief of Staff is appointed. This because the old Chief of Staff can either retire as a general, or he can remain active and revert to his proper place in the list of general officers. If he retires, his place on the regular list becomes vacant and thus promotes one officer of the next lowest grade, and so on down through all the grades, including second lieutenant. Necessarily under our form of Government the Chief of Staff must be an officer agreeable to the Secretary of War as well as to the President.

The Chief of Staff system in this country was brought into existence by Mr. Elihu Root when he was Secretary of War. He found the Army without a General Manager and without the General Manager's staff of of technical advisers. The system originating with George Washington, of a general officer nominally Commander-in-Chief of the Army had never worked satisfactorily. Either he was constantly at odds with the staff corps within the War Department or else he was only a figure head. Gen. Sherman became so disgusted with the arrangement when he occupied the post that he moved his headquarters from Washington to St. Louis.

Contrary to general belief, the Chief of Staff and General Staff Organization—really the General Manager and Staff of technical advisers of the Army—is not of Prussian origin. It is the result of a gradual evolution based on the fact that one man, the Commander-in-Chief can not do everything himself with the help of only a few aids-de-camp and some chiefs of supply departments.

Gen. MacArthur is the thirteenth Chief of Staff. Beginning with George Washington, he is the thirty-third general officer to occupy the highest position in the United States Army.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Vote$ in a Cri$i$.

It look$ like one of the mo$t one-$ided election$ in the hi$tory of the United $tate$.

* * * *

In fact, the more you look around the country the more you wonder whether this is a political campaign or a silver shower.

* * * *

Democratic candidates everywhere are asking for votes in return for Federal appropriations poured into the States. And Republicans are refraining from criticism on the ground that there is no percentage in trying to break up a picnic with an appeal for thinner sandwiches.

* * * *

The G. O. P. candidates put up a few early bleats against the use of relief funds to swing votes, but have swung back to the old political theory that when the party in power is buttering bread on both sides nobody can get any votes campaigning for smaller butter knives.

* * * *

While the idea isn't entirely new, it makes the fellow who used to denounce the buying of elections feel pretty old-fashioned.

* * * *

In most States the Democratic candidates are proudly quoting figures to show how many million dollars have been received from Uncle Sam and demanding, "Why monkey with the mechanism when the pump is giving maximum service?"

* * * *

The battle cry is "Never change Santa Clauses in mid-chimney!"

* * * *

Throughout the land the question seems to be whether November 5 will be the night before election day or the night before Christmas.

* * * *

"My fellow citizens," says the candidate for Congress, "these are grave times—and if I said gravy don't correct me."

* * * *

"If elected," he continues, "I promise you a square deal, a constant devotion to duty and an unlimited supply of sugar."

* * * *

Do you think the Republicans, if in power in a similar crisis, would behave like that? So do we. Which probably accounts for the lack of widespread indignation.

Sounds Familiar Anyhow.

John Ringling, the circus man, and his wife are having marital troubles. Do you suppose they will go to Rhino for the divorce?

It is always possible that a circus man's wife is bound to lead a more or less unhappy life, and it is not hard to imagine her chiding him with, "Oh, what do you care about me? You're always thinking about your old lions and tigers!"

It would be ironical if it took a Republican real estate man to get a tenant for President Roosevelt's New York houses, idle for two years.

"The Newswanger children, Janet and Sarah, have a new pet, a dog purchased for them last week. The children especially wanted a bird dog, so their father got them a bird dog. Their father is very fond of hunting pheasants in the fall."—Honey Brook Herald.

* * * *

Anything to please the kiddies.

Simile from Sid Glickman: As unconvincing as a radio orchestra on a cigar program playing "Two Cigarettes in the Dark."

(Copyright, 1934, Associated Newspapers.)

"Gee, I sorta wish our team wasn't so good!"

Along the Potomac

With Carlisle Bargeron

West Virginia's Dilemma

IN ALL OF this broad land of ours when the voters go to the polls next week nowhere will they be so bewildered as in West Virginia. There is bewilderment in many other States, particularly in those where the Republican candidates are trying to out-Roosevelt the Democrats, but in West Virginia, one has reason to suppose, it will be the apex, the zenith, the utmost or something, in bewilderment.

BARGERON.

Because there it is most difficult for them to tell which of the two Senatorial candidates is the people's friend. Ordinarily, of course, the voters are divided into two unequal parts, those who want the people's friend elected and those who want to perpetuate the vested interests and the malefactors of great wealth. In this election the trouble is in determining which is which.

* * * *

The American Federation of Labor says the people's friend is Mr. Rush Holt, the boy wonder who, if he is elected, will only be 29 years old, whereas the constitutional requirements for a seat in the Senate call for one being 30 years old.

On the other hand, the four railroad brotherhoods say that he is not the people's friend, that it is hardy old Senator Hatfield. The federation has the Senator on the blacklist; the railroad brotherhoods have embraced him.

When the two arbiters of who are the people's friend do like this, what, pray, are the people to do?

* * * *

One has only to know how the federation and the four brotherhoods pursue their campaigns to appreciate just how confusing the situation in West Virginia must be. I assume the campaign there is running true to form.

They have a way of cartooning their hero as an upstanding man, with brawny muscles and with a clean, honest face, while the enemy they portray as a big fat man with a sinister smile and smoking an expensive cigar. The honest young workman seldom smiles because the legend is that the big fat, sinister looking man takes the sweat from his muscles for his own fatted self, but his face does reflect a radiance which, as I understand it, is the countenance of honest men who never do worse than play the numbers game.

* * * *

Well, you can imagine what a picture this conflict of poster campaigns must create in West Virginia.

Here are the federation posters the voter sees depicting Mr. Holt as enthusiastic youth, with a lean, lithe waist line looking eagerly out toward the world with a slogan: "Rush is the people's friend," while next to it is the federation's conception of the Senator—a pot stomach with dollar marks splotched all over it, the smug smile of an evil-doer, and the label "enemy" in box car letters.

A few feet away there is the Four Brotherhoods' presentation for the enlightment of the voter. In this the pictures are exactly reversed.

* * * *

Now it is the Senator who is angelic in print, with a shining and enraptured face and, parenthetically, the cartoonist who did it must have had a hard job—and I suppose a big stomach has been put on the boy wonder, Mr. Holt, and a cigar stuck in his mouth in utter violation of the laws against selling tobacco to juveniles.

It is the youngster in this portrayal, overfed from the fat of the land, who takes the production results from the Senator's sinewy arms, takes them for fine automobiles, fur coats and jewelry and hardly leaves nourishment enough for the honest Senator to carry on.

What, under the circumstances, is the poor West Virginia voter to do?

National Gallery

DR. LEON CARROLL MARSHALL, member administrative board, NRA. Taught law, political economy and economics 1903 to 1933. After advanced study at Ohio Wesleyan University, he became dean of the College of Commerce and Administration at the University of Chicago. Most recently served Johns Hopkins as professor of the Institute of Law. During the war he was secretary to the advisory council of the Department of Labor. Former vice chairman of the National Labor Board, he also directed industrial relations for the Emergency Fleet Corporation. Short, rotund, pensive, his manner is pleasant but retiring. Humor, dry, subtle. Hobby, detective stories.

Such a large proportion of those who have been pictured by Mr. Robles have asked for the originals that The Washington Post is saving all these drawings to honor the requests of any future members of "The National Gallery."

No End of Books

Novels and Sandwiches, or How to Pack a Picnic Lunch With Our Fall Fiction.

By Theodore Hall.

TO tell the truth, there's no book I relish more than a cook-book especially the sandwich section. Short on plot it may be, but in the matter of certain qualities which we'll lump together under the term "human interest," the cook-book has all the others backed off the map. So it's in terms of sardine-with-a-squeeze-of-onion and anchovies-chopped-with-parsley-and-a-hard-boiled-egg that some of the fall novels come clearest to my mind. You can pack them up into a picnic lunch, or save them until late in the evening, like a raid on the ice-box.

Evelyn Waugh, back from 92 days in British Guiana and Brazil (about 3 in the latter), scrambles up Brazilian exploration and the English countryside, together with pathos and extravagant farce, into a novel called "A Handful of Dust" (Farrar & Rinehart, $2.50). It's a teasing sort of book which you can't put down, quite chipper and equally mad.

Sandwich recipe: White bread sliced very thin, pate de foie gras, and a minced maraschino cherry.

* * * *

Miss E. H. Young takes up the Rendall's where she left off in "Jenny Wren"—lets Jenny make her way in the world, and sister Dahlia (bright as a new penny) marry the curate, Rev. Cecil Sproat—all this in "The Curate's Wife" (Harcourt Brace, $2.50). Dahlia is much too nice for Cecil, but she buckles down, learns how to fit the clerical scene, and gets into a feud with a preacher's wife across the way. Very English green sort of thing, and amusing in a quiet way.

Sandwich: Tomato and lettuce, with a touch of tart French dressing.

* * * *

Frances Parkinson Keyes, wife of the senior Senator from New Hampshire, loves to travel. Her last novel, "Senator Marlowe's Daughter," skipped around the world with her. Now, in "The Safe Bridge" (Messner, $2.50), she stays at home, giving us a brave, romantic tale of a bonny Scotch lass a 100 years ago in Vermont. Elizabeth was true to the husband who "saved her from herself," as the phrase goes, but then along came her early love.

Sandwich: Graham bread and strawberry jam.

* * * *

If you enjoyed Ethel Boileau's "A Gay Family," you'll find more of the same in her latest novel, "When Yellow Leaves" (Dutton, $2.50). Fine young American actress, fine young Englishman, fine large ancestral mansion, and fine loyalties to fine traditions. Still, Miss Boileau makes it very palatable.

Sandwich: Whole-wheat bread with the crusts trimmed neatly off, and queen olives chopped into sweetish mayonnaise.

* * * *

William Gerhardi returns, after "Futility" and "The Polyglots" and "The Memoirs of a Polyglot" (he holds the copyright on that most satisfying word), with a strictly tour de force novel entitled "Resurrection" (Harcourt Brace, $2.50). Don't be taken in by his dwelling on the life-after-death theme—it's really a London man-about-town, of 37, making some amazingly sound and shrewd comments on the gilded life. Vastly recommended.

Sandwich: Apparently chicken in thick, solemn slices, it turns out to be a tunafish canape, none the less nourishing.

* * * *

Pendleton Hogan, author of "The Bishop of Havana," sets his second novel in Texas, 1834-50. In that period, "The Dark Comes Early" (Washburn, $2), can find plenty of adventure, lovely women and stalwart men, to dwell sweetly upon.

Sandwich: Thick white bread, with abundant butter and brown sugar.

* * * *

For an A-1 Western, try Raymond A. Berry's "Dusty Rivers" (Macrae Smith, $2). The author of "The Holding of Recapture Valley" shows that he knows his trigger-fingers in this tale of cattlemen versus sheepmen.

Sandwich: Barbecued beef on rye, and plenty of mustard.

* * * *

Let's drop fiction and have a look at a mad and merry little book called "Addlegrams: the New Party Game" (Houghton Mifflin, $1.50), by Admiral Christopher Jettison. The admiral is just a dodge, hiding W. E. Spaulding and LeBaron R. Barker, jr., a couple of waggish Harvard men. To each question in the book, four or five answers are given—you're to pick out the right one. Thus: "Is Hamburg a black hothouse grape, a name applied to felt hats, a kind of sandwich often made up as a Trilby, a slang term for faker, or a seaport town in Germany?" As you can guess, it's Mrs. Malaprop's ghost with us again.

You see, the admiral, who is supposed to ask these questions, is a bit vague in the head. Here are some cheery points about him, quoted from the blurb—"He was born in the small seaport town of Intalglio. He likes to hear Tibet sing; prefers Hamburg to Trochee grapes; is an old fustian about his clothes; insists on anthrax coal for his furnace; claims that he once climbed Blanc Mange, wearing lobster shorts and a beri-beri; that he always stays at the Mandrake when in Chicago; that he would rather see the Decameron than any other make of portable camera; that he takes ginger-beer in his Tristram Shandies; that he has a catenary for his pet pussies in the back yard; that he equips his car with heavy-duty Siblings, and that he can remember when 'Ta-ra-ra Bombazine' was first sung."

The good admiral's sandwich is nothing less than calf's liver on Boston brown bread, topped off with marshmallow sauce.

Baltimore Retail Price Remains at 13 Cents

Baltimore, Oct. 29 (AP).—The retail price of gasoline was unchanged today—13 cents for straight fuel—but distributing company officials said the price had been boosted 1 cent a gallon to retail consumers, who buy in tank-wagon lots.

The retail price has been pulled down more than 5½ cents a gallon in a price war that broke out a little more than two weeks ago.

Woman Loses Jewels Worth $1,840 in Street

Loss of jewelry valued at $1,840 was reported to police yesterday by Mrs. Charlotte Bissell, of the Ambassador Hotel. She said the jewelry was lost on a downtown street.

The loss, Mrs. Bissell said, included two diamond rings worth $1,800 and a wrist watch valued at $40. They were in a small hand bag.

Memorable Ball Game

By Wm. Lyon Phelps

IN the history of the peculiarly American game known as baseball, the date of Thursday, October 4, will never be forgotten. There have been many exciting games in the history of this sport, which have afforded endless opportunities for heated discussion, and for happy and tragic remembrance; but this particular game was great drama, and ended in a fashion that left the city of Detroit in a condition of hysterical ecstasy.

I spent the summer in Michigan, and I am glad to say that we were not only in the State of Michigan; we were in a state of excitement. The chief subject discussed was the Tiger baseball team, and its chances for victory. When in midsummer it became apparent that Detroit might win the championship for the first time since 1909, everybody cheered up. No part of the country had felt the financial depression of the last few years more keenly than Michigan; and no city suffered more from the treatment of the banks than Detroit. In the midst of all this melancholy stagnation, the glorious advance of the Detroit nine gave everybody something cheerful to talk about. I think it is no exaggeration to say that the Tiger victories did more good to the people of Michigan than any collection of medicines that could have been discovered. I can remember nothing resembling the effect of these games.

Well, as everybody knows, the Tigers won the championship of the American League, and it had been expected that their opponents in the National League would be the New York Giants. At the last moment, however, thanks to the combined efforts of the St. Louis Cardinals against Cincinnati and of the Brooklyn players against New York, the Detroit team found themselves obliged to take on St. Louis at the moment most favorable to the success of their antagonists.

In Detroit hundreds of men and women took their places all night long preceding the first two games, in order to gain admittance to the field of combat. St. Louis won the first game very easily, 8 to 3. The second game is going down in history as one of the most memorable.

"Schoolboy" Rowe, with his fiancee looking on, pitched for Detroit. The Cardinals quickly gathered in one run, and then another. But after the third inning, with the score two to nothing against Detroit, Rowe gave an exhibition of pitching that takes us back in memory to the year 1884, when the immortal Radbourne was pitching for Providence. During the entire game Rowe gave not a single base on balls. After the third inning, and during nine successive innings, only one Cardinal reached first base.

Detroit kicked up one run in the fourth inning, when the strong wind blew a fly out of the reach of a Cardinal fielder, and the batsman took two bases. A hit brought him in. In the last half of the ninth, Detroit took the risky chance of putting in a pinch hitter, Walker. He knocked a foul that could have been easily caught, but the wind was deceitful. Then Walker made a hit and brought in the tying run. In the twelfth inning, with two men on bases, Goslin drove a clean hit to center field, and the game was won, 3 to 2.

The entire city of Detroit went insane. Nothing had been seen like it since the Armistice. All traffic and all business ceased, and the population went into a prolonged delirium.

(Copyright, 1934.)

Roosevelt Will Check, Not Battle, Congress

His Control This Winter Will Depend on Terms He Makes With Spenders.

By Elliott Thurston.

CAN Mr. Roosevelt control the new Congress? That is becoming the stock question of the moment. The bankers and the business men are beginning to perceive more clearly that what Mr. Roosevelt will do next depends largely on what Mr. Roosevelt thinks Congress will demand next. This may be a way of saying that Mr. Roosevelt is still moved by political expediency. But if that is unflattering in many minds, it does not sound like a reproach in the ears of those New Dealers who are convinced, as most of them are, that the wisest course is to try to check Congress rather than to fight it.

In any case, Mr. Roosevelt's method all along has been to compromise rather than to fight. There is no reason to assume as yet that he means to change his tactics. It comes down, in the end, to the nature of the compromises. The most objectionable compromises last winter were with the silverities, with the proponents of the railroad pension bill and of the farmers' bankruptcy act. Probably Mr. Roosevelt could have divided and beaten the silverites. He might have stood off the advocates of the other two measures. He might, too, have vetoed Hiram Johnson's vindictive legislation barring out of our capital markets debt defaulters whose defaults were partly if not wholly compelled by American policy.

MR. ROOSEVELT signed the Johnson act over the disapproval of the State Department, and presumably, because of his friendship with the embittered Mr. Johnson. Moreover, it was a popular if short-sighted measure. He signed the farmers' bankruptcy act and pension bill grudgingly.

At the same time he continued to head off the bonus, the bank pay-off bill, the currency inflationists and the more exaggerated spending measures. He will have much the same problem on his hands this winter. For the new Congress, like the last one, will be a spending, inflationist Congress. It promises to be more spending than the last one, and less inflationist, save as the spending would ultimately make currency inflation inevitable.

* * * *

Not the least of the gains in the recent development of "better feeling" between the Administration and the banking-business world is the consolidation of more conservative forces of the country behind Mr. Roosevelt as an instrument through which to work rather than a target for their brickbats.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States in its current weekly review comments on the "convergence of the general aims of business and the Administration in promoting recovery" and notes "a growing realization that it must come about through the revival of industry and employment."

This presumes that Mr. Roosevelt wants to do essentially what business wants done in order to revive. It presumes that Mr. Roosevelt wants to check the spenders and the inflationists. Every recent indication supports both presumptions. The question is how to do it.

AT this juncture the inflationists are less noisy and less effective because the rise in prices has robbed them of their most telling argument. The overshadowing problem is relief. And relief is really the budget problem. Mr. Roosevelt is now at work on his relief program. It is clear that he wants to cut down the total outlay, and yet in the face of such unemployment figures as the A. F. of L. publicizes, he can not propose radical retrenchment with any reasonable hope of having Congress accept it.

It has been true all along that dominant if not controlling forces in Congress always go much further in their relief demands than whatever limit is set by the Administration. That will be true again, inevitably, this winter. The problem before Mr. Roosevelt is to set a figure which he can be reasonably sure of holding, against the bigger congressional spenders, and yet have that figure "reassuring" to capital. It is hard to think of a stiffer problem for any Government to solve.

Once that is solved, Mr. Roosevelt's chief difficulty in dealing with the new Congress is solved. There is continual talk about Congress being radical. It is not radical in the sense of being consciously socialistic, communistic or won to other imported "isms." It is radical in the sense of spending—for the simple reason that spending is popular with the masses of voters who do not think or care where the money is to come from.

The question is, then, not so much whether Mr. Roosevelt can control Congress, but the terms he makes which in his judgment, at least, are necessary to retain his command and his leadership.

Florida and Alabama Push Lynching Probe

Marianna, Fla., Oct. 29 (AP).—Investigation into the lynching of a colored man near here last Saturday went forward in Florida and Alabama today as authorities considered withdrawing National Guardsmen who have patrolled the courthouse and jail for the last three days because of threats of a second lynching.

Gov. B. M. Miller of Alabama ordered an investigation into how a band of Floridians removed the man, Claude Neal, from a Brewton, Ala., jail, where he had been taken for safekeeping, brought him into Florida and put him to death.

A&P'S BIG FALL SALE of Pennsylvania or New York State POTATOES

Orig. 100-lb. Bag When Packed 97c

1 Pound Per

These potatoes are good quality Cobblers and Russets from the fine producing areas in New York State and Pennsylvania and particularly recommended for Winter storage.

Maine (Green Mountain) POTATOES
10 lbs. 15c
25 lbs. 35c
50 lbs. 65c

Original 100-lb. Bag When Packed $1.19

Halloween Suggestions

WHITE HOUSE SWEET CIDER
qt. 15c ½ gal. 25c gal. Jug 45c

PUMPKINS for faces, each 19c or 25c

For Pies smaller sizes lb. 3c

Stayman Apples ..... 4 lbs. 15c
Delicious Apples ..... 4 lbs. 25c
Grimes Golden Apples .. 3 lbs. 13c
Jonathan Apples ..... 4 lbs. 25c
FRESH LIMAS ..... 3 lbs. 29c

Italian CHESTNUTS 2 lbs. 25c

Zion Protocols Laid to 'Lying' Russian Agents

Slavic 'Sherlock Holmes' Tells of Unmasking Ace Trouble-Maker.

Berne, Switzerland, Oct. 29 (AP). A 72-year-old Russian, Vladimir Berzew, regaled the Jewish protocol trial today with stories of how he hunted down fomenters of trouble in Russia, finally unmasking the famous Azeff, ace trouble-maker.

Out of his Sherlock Holmes tales came allegations that the so-called "Protocols of the Elders of Zion," which Jews claim are spurious, were fabricated by secret Russian agents.

Who wrote the famous protocols which painted Israel as setting out to conquer the world?

When were the alleged falsifications of these documents committed?

Swiss Nazis Accused.

These were questions which kept the trial at high tension throughout the day. Swiss Nazis, alleged to have had the support of Chancellor Hitler of Germany, are charged with spreading the allegedly spurious protocols by publication in a Swiss Nazi organ.

The present part of the hearings is devoted to an attempt of Jewish leaders to prove the "protocols of the elders of Zion" were forged and false.

Jewish leaders said all testimony so far showed the absurdity of the contention that the protocols were the work of Israel.

Burzew said he was informed that Gen. Rachowsky, supposed to have been head of the Czar's secret police in Paris, had prepared the protocols with the aid of a man named Golowynsky, agent provocateur and expert librarian, working in the French National Library.

Berzew insisted the same protocols were responsible for the persecutions of Jews in Russia in 1918 and 1919.

Russ Historian Testifies.

Boris Nikolajewsky, Russian historian, was another witness. He declared another historian living in Yugoslavia had affirmed that he saw the protocols as early as 1895. This was two years before the Zion congress at Basel, Switzerland, where, according to the critics of Jewry, the protocols were drawn up.

There are five defendants, four of them present in court, including Fischer and G. Haller, Swiss Nazis. Fischer said, however, that Haller no longer was connected with the party. Two other defendants are named Schnellhand and Aebersold. They are supposed to belong to the Swiss National Front party, which is a kind of modified Nazi organization with about 5,000 members.

Haller testified earlier in the day that the Nazi regime in Germany was based largely on the principles of the so-called Protocols of Zion.

The world-wide publicity of the trial has provoked a large demand for pamphlets alleged to have been distributed by Swiss Nazis, published in 15 languages.

Alleged Edicts Listed.

A French edition, available at Berne, entitled "The Jewish Peril," says the salient points in the so-called protocols, 22 in number, are in the form of steps leading to the creation of a kingdom of Israel over the earth.

Some of the alleged edicts are as follows:

Corrupt the young generation by subversive education, dominate peoples through their vices, destroy family life, undermine respect for religion, encourage luxury, amuse people to prevent them from thinking.

Poison the spirit by destructive theories and weaken human bodies by inoculation with microbes.

Further developments of the program attributed in the pamphlet to Jews provide for fomenting of international hatreds, increase of armaments, the overthrow of monarchies, destruction of financial stability and multiplication of economic crises as a preparation for universal bankruptcy and concentration of gold in the hands of Jews along with the weakening of humanity by suffering, anguish and privation with the idea that hunger creates slaves.

Knifer Slays 'Lifer' In Michigan Prison

Jackson, Mich., Oct. 29 (AP).—Michigan State Prison had a slaying mystery all its own today in the fatal beating of Lewis Bell, 30, a life inmate, apparently by another prisoner who has not been identified.

Deputy Warden D. C. Pettit said Bell was found dying in the dugout on the baseball diamond. He had been beaten with a shovel and stabbed.

U. S. Diplomat Weds Iowa Girl in N. Y.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—Gerald A. Mokma, counselor in the Diplomatic Service in the State Department, and Anna L. Cochrane, of Des Moines, were married today by Dr. Randolph Ray, rector of the Church of Transfiguration.

Mokma, 34, is a native of Holland, Mich.

Poet Drowns Himself To Outwit Creditors

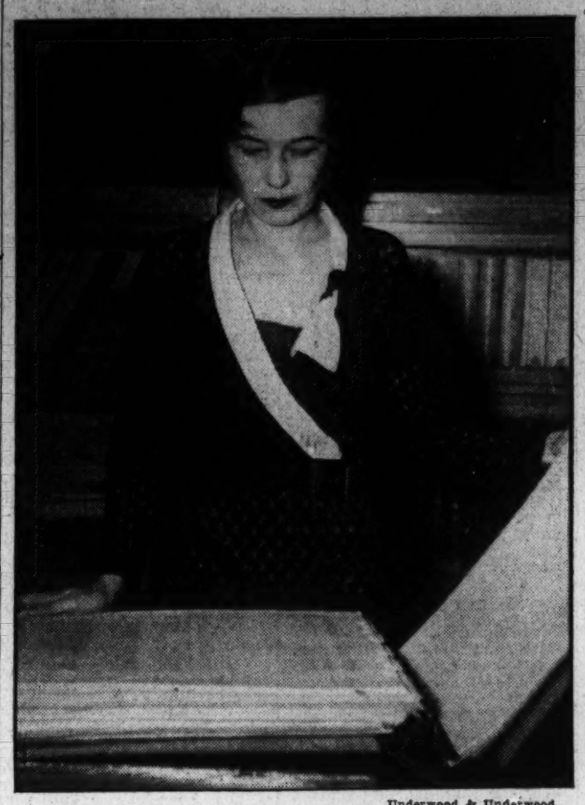
Brod, Yugoslavia, Oct. 29 (AP).—Janko Pejnovitch, Bohemian poet whose work achieved attention in the United States 30 years ago, drowned himself in the Sava River today after creditors had pressed him.

He left a long poem, entitled "Creditors, Wipe Clean the Slate."

HIGHEST BIDDER TO GET 1 GOOD BRAIN!
Will sell my fertile brain (and sound body) for reasonable period. Good for advertising, publicity, stenography. Poor for dish-washing, street-cleaning. But—anything for a living these days. University man. Speculative and commission deals are OUT.
Write The Washington Post, Box 66

The Federal Diary

(Trade-Mark Applied For.)



Underwood & Underwood.

Indications of returning prosperity are seen in the increase of privately owned American yachts, according to the Bureau of Navigation and Steamboat Inspection records. Since June 30, 1933, they have increased 1 per cent and now total 3,776, with a gross tonnage of 209,279 tons, the greatest figure in the history of the bureau. Photo shows Mrs. Laura B. Irvine (P), bureau employe, examining the yacht registry.

By Morgan Baker.

AFTER weeks of searching for additional emergency work, Census Director William L. Austin last night said that none could be found for his staff, which has been completing the CWA Census of American Business. Hence, approximately 135 persons will be dismissed from the Census Bureau today. Others will be dropped December 1 and January 1.

BAKER.

As much as Mr. Austin would like to keep this group of employes, who are now experienced in census routine, he can not do it under the law. Mr. Austin has sought to have the Civil Service Commission give examinations so that these people could remain in service, but the commission also is prevented by law from giving such tests. The Civil Service examinations would be given throughout the country and, on the basis of response to recent examinations, 200,000 or 300,000 persons would take them. Such a procedure, it is obvious, is impossible at this time for two reasons:

1. Lack of funds to give such an extensive examination.

2. Time; it would take months to correct and grade the papers.

Today a delegation from Commerce Lodge, No. 9, American Federation of Government Employes, will confer with Mr. Austin, presenting the following resolution:

". . . that all employes who have had six months or more training in the bureau with a good record be granted preference in appointments made for the census of agriculture."

"I am thoroughly in sympathy with these workers," Mr. Austin declared, "but there is nothing I can do about it. I can not place them under Civil Service."

As pointed out previously, the 1,800 additional employes for the Washington staff on the agricultural census, which is getting under way, must be chosen strictly from Civil Service ranks. However, the approximately 27,000 field workers and supervisors will not be under Civil Service.

It appears that there are three hopes for those now being dropped:

1. Appointments to field positions, which are to be obtained through the Representatives and Senators.

2. An Executive order from President Roosevelt.

3. Additional work from some of the emergency agencies.

Mrs. Mae Albaugh and Miss Vera Chambers (C), Crop Estimates, Agriculture, have just returned from a three weeks' motor trip to Florida. En route back to Washington they stopped in Atlanta a few days, visiting friends and relatives.

Diary Guest Tickets.

IF your name is followed by (F), (P) or (C), call in person on the Federal Diary editor. You will receive tickets to (F) Loew's Fox (stage, Bob Murphy and other acts; screen, George Arliss in "The Last Gentleman"); or to (P) Loew's Palace (second week of Will Rogers in "Judge Priest"); or to (C) Loew's Columbia (Rosemary Ames and Victor Joy in "Pursued").

Diary office hours are daily, except Sunday, 12 noon to 1 p. m., and from 4:30 to 6 p. m.; Saturdays, 12 noon to 2:30 p. m.

Thoughts on Working.

I thought it would be terrible to work for the CWA.

If I hadn't needed the money so badly, I wouldn't have had courage to stay.

Now I'm glad I wasn't a coward and from that job shirk.

For it led to the Census of American Business, and I've enjoyed every day of the work.

Everyone has been so kind and helpful, the task has been a pleasure.

So, besides the useful pay check, we have wonderful memories to treasure.

Now that is drawing to a close, and we feel very blue.

We will miss the pleasant contacts and the needed money, too.

E. S. WOLLBERG (P).
Census Bureau.

Postettes.

Miss Betty Durr (F), Treasury, is in charge of arrangements for the All States Society Halloween ball, under auspices of the New England States Society, at the Kennedy-Warren tonight.

L. S. Richardson, Bureau of Animal Industry, has returned from a field trip to Waterloo, Iowa.

Miss Jane Williams, Internal Revenue, recently was called to her home in Pikesville, Pa., due to the death of her mother.

Miss Mabel Gooch, Internal Revenue, has returned to her desk, after being confined to her home two weeks by illness.

Irvin M. Carbalan (P), Patent Office, spent the week-end again in New York.

Glenn Ritchie, Library of Congress, has returned from a six weeks' visit to his home in Plymouth, Ind.

Miss Anne Snure (C), Library of Congress, attended the wedding of a friend in Philadelphia over the week-end.

Gordon Walker (F), Justice, and Mrs. Walker, the former Miss Sylvia Harris, have been spending their honeymoon in Norfolk.

Thomas Argy, Justice, spent the week-end in New York.

Sidney Roth, formerly of Veterans' Administration, has been transferred to his native city, New York, as a Government meat inspector.

Miss Myrtle E. Johnson, FDIC, and Miss Edith Tavenner, NRA, enjoyed the week-end in New York.

Two Youths Are Slain Holding Up Officers

Chicago, Oct. 29 (AP).—Two youths were shot and killed early today by two detectives who said the boys mistook them for customers in a tavern and tried to hold them up. One of the plainclothes men was seriously wounded.

Before he died one of the victims gave his name as Maurice Stell, 16, of Omaha, and the other was identified as Joseph Vorachek, 22, of Chicago.

Croatian Girl Held As Poisoner of 16

Zagreb, Yugoslavia, Oct. 29 (AP). Charged with poisoning 16 persons, 7 of whom died, Milka Pavlevitch, a 22-year-old Croatian girl, was taken to a hospital today for a sanity test.

The police said the poisoned persons stood between Milka and her inheritance of a large estate and that they were all poisoned at a feast she gave them.

BERLITZ SCHOOL OF LANGUAGES

Our K-S Budget Plan
Convenient Weekly or Monthly Payments.
Kassan-Stein, Inc.
510 ELEVENTH STREET, N.W.

GOOD MORNING!
Again We Offer Our Famous Half Portions
SPECIAL BREAKFAST 15c
And Your Morning Post
Select Meats, 10c-15c
Homemade Pies, 8c-12c
Salads, 10c up
Choice Green Veg. 5c-8c
Desserts, 5c-8c
Soup, 5c
DINNER SPECIALS
12 Cents and 14 Cents
Breakfast 7:30-9:30. Lunch 11:30-2:00. Dinner 4:30-8:00.
McREYNOLDS CAFETERIA
C. F. HARPER 709 18th St. N.W.

Weaver Widow Gets $258,932

Utilities Man Bequeaths Home to Daughter, Another to Son.

Mrs. Mary A. R. Weaver, widow of Robert D. Weaver, vice president of the Georgetown Gas Co. and formerly a vice president of the Washington Gas Light Co., was named as the principal beneficiary of his quarter-million-dollar estate in his will filed yesterday in the District Supreme Court.

Mr. Weaver, who died September 29, left a home at 2503 Wisconsin avenue northwest, to a son, Maurice E. Weaver, and the home in which he died, 2101 Wisconsin avenue northwest, to a daughter, Catharine L. Weaver.

The rest of his estate, consisting of $79,798 in real property and $179,134 in personal property, he left his widow. After Mrs. Weaver's death, he directed that whatever was left should be divided equally between the son and daughter.

Mr. Weaver, numbered among the oldest of the native-born Washingtonians, was reared in the home where he died. He and his ancestors have occupied the same land since shortly after the war of 1812. His will was filed by Attorney C. C. Henry.

Worker Hurt in 10-Foot Fall.

Jake Zuro, 38, of 826 Twelfth street northeast, construction company employe, was injured seriously yesterday when he fell ten feet from scaffolding on the new Postoffice extention. He was taken to Emergency Hospital.

And Rover Dog Went With Her!

They were grinding Uncle Joe's sugar cane that week, and Mr. Man, Uncle Joe and Tom were all as busy as a bee in a bucket of tar. It was cut and haul and grind and dip and bring wood and build more fire, and then go all over the same thing again. This was one time when there wasn't any lazying done, and even at dinner time they all swallowed Aunt Judy's good turnip greens, fresh pork and apple pie in a hurry, and got right back to their work.

You know how it is with most people in the country. They talk over all their plans time and again before they do anything, and so Jay Bird always knew just what Mr. Man and his wife were going to do long before they did. That's why Blackie could always have somebody right on the spot at just the right minute. And that's why he knew that pretty soon after dinner Mrs. Man was going to hitch Hee-Haw to the wagon, put in a lot of cans and buckets to bring back the syrup in, and drive over to Uncle Joe's house. And Mrs. Man was just as glad to have Rover dog go along with her as he was to go. So there would be a whole afternoon when there wouldn't be man, woman, nor dog at Mr. Man's house! Jay Bird didn't waste any time in taking the news to Blackie.

We thought Blackie had everything in the world he wanted in his smokehouse, but he found that there was only one little pumpkin left, and that the beautiful fire had roasted sweet potatoes so well that they were moving away mighty fast. So this was the time for attending to those things, for it wouldn't be any sort of Thanksgiving dinner without a pumpkin pie. And even if they did have several turkeys and chickens salted down in the smokehouse, they had just as well have a nice fresh turkey for the big dinner, and so Dr. Coon had better go along to bring him back.

It was no trouble at all for Jocko to catch the turkey, and he soon had him in a bag and tied onto Dr. Coon's back, for he was too big and heavy to be carried in his mouth. And it certainly wasn't any trouble to go to the potato hill and fill Blackie's bag with yellow yams. It was just as easy as falling off a wet log for Jocko to go under the shelter and fill his own bag with three nice fat pumpkins. Jocko didn't let Blackie or Dr. Coon come in the yard at all, so the only tracks Mr. Man could see would be those made by the "strange animal," and he would still believe that Blackie was dead. And now surely Blackie could take it easy for a while.

(Copyright, 1934, The Washington Post.)

Post Classified Ads have fulfilled wants of readers and advertisers for over half a century and they serve better—today. National 4200.

Dawson to Talk On West Indies

Lecturer to Give Second of Post Travel Series Tonight.

The beautiful West Indies, those lazy islands which, once a haven for desperate pirates, are now a mecca for happy vacationists, will be described tonight as Albert K. Dawson, famous traveler and lecturer, delivers the second of the 1934-35 series of Washington Post travel lectures. The lecture will begin at 8:15 p. m. at the Masonic Auditorium, Thirteenth street and New York avenue northwest.

Mr. Dawson's lecture will be illustrated with colored slides and motion pictures of scenes in Haiti, Cuba, the Bahamas, Trinidad and other islands of the group. Tickets may be obtained at The Washington Post's business office, E street near Fourteenth, or may be purchased at the auditorium box office before the lecture.

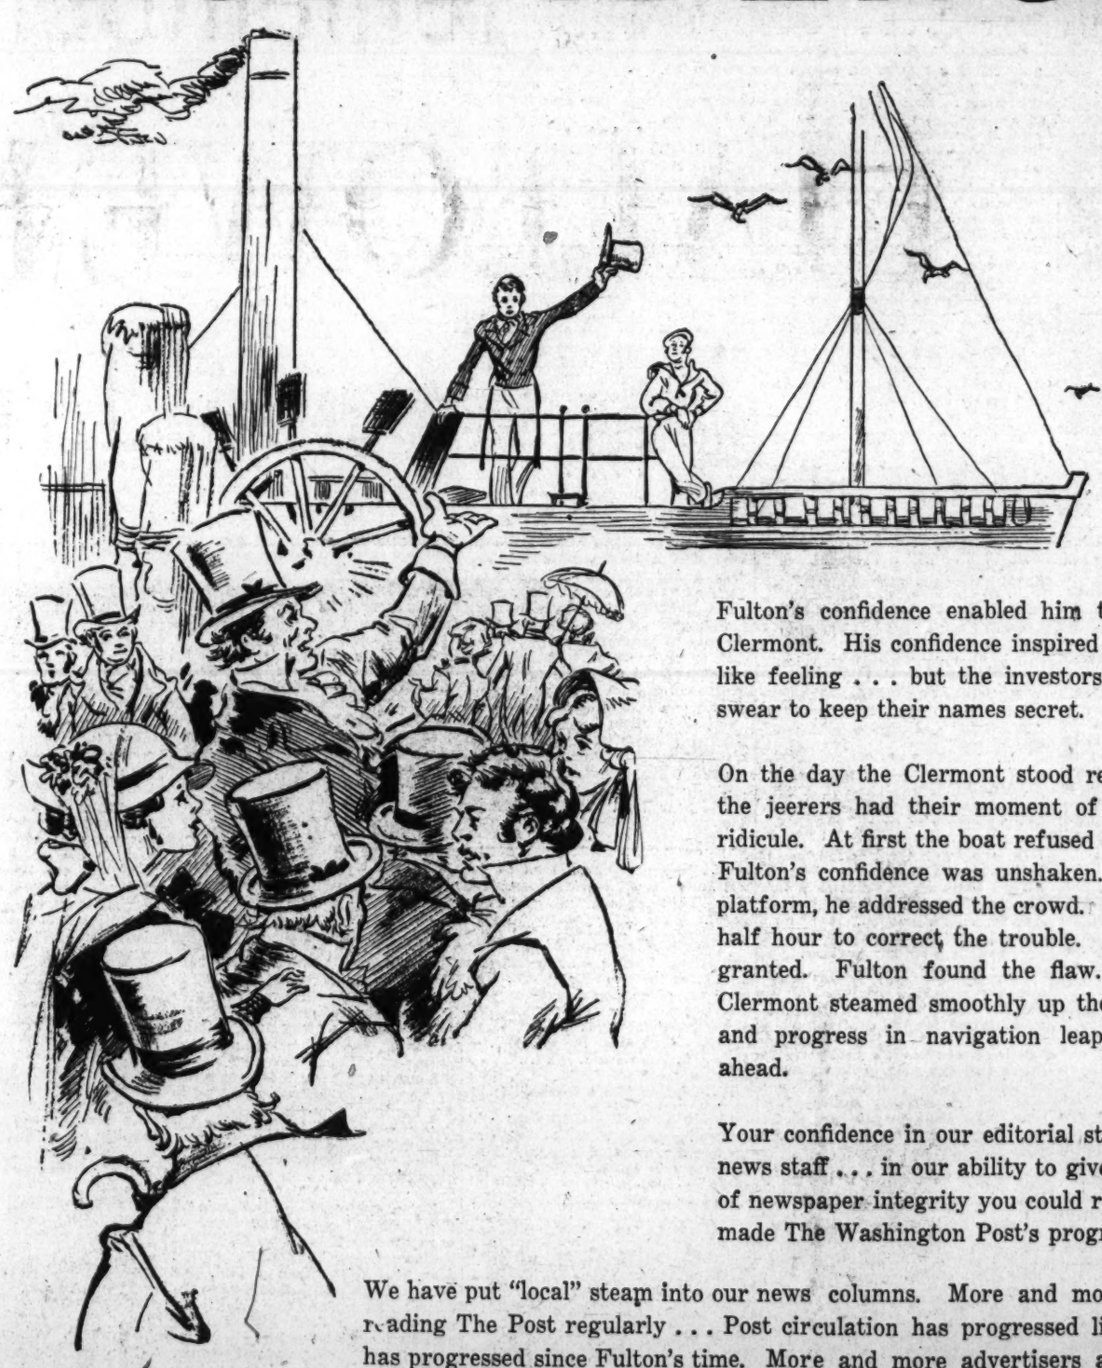
In addition to a description of the West Indies as they now are, giving a thrilling pictorialization of the lands Columbus first discovered, Mr. Dawson will tell of their past history, tales of adventure which are closely interwoven with America's past.

Post Travel Lectures are given each Tuesday evening at the Masonic Auditorium.

PAINT
MATERIALS
MUTH 710 13 TH N.W.

Elements of Progress

CONFIDENCE



Fulton's confidence enabled him to finance the Clermont. His confidence inspired others with a like feeling . . . but the investors made Fulton swear to keep their names secret.

On the day the Clermont stood ready for trial, the jeerers had their moment of laughter and ridicule. At first the boat refused to move. But Fulton's confidence was unshaken. Mounting a platform, he addressed the crowd. He asked one-half hour to correct the trouble. The time was granted. Fulton found the flaw. The gallant Clermont steamed smoothly up the Hudson . . . and progress in navigation leaped a century ahead.

Your confidence in our editorial staff . . . in our news staff . . . in our ability to give you the kind of newspaper integrity you could respect . . . has made The Washington Post's progress.

We have put "local" steam into our news columns. More and more people are reading The Post regularly . . . Post circulation has progressed like navigation has progressed since Fulton's time. More and more advertisers are using The Post. Results show that their confidence is well placed . . . and their advertisements well placed . . . before the readers of

The Washington Post.

Heavy Program Of Legislation Faces Britain

Defense, Arms and Aid Listed for Parliament, Reconvening Today.

London, Oct. 29 (AP).—A heavy program of important social, economic and political legislation, headed by the vital problem of home rule in India, faces the House of Parliament which reconvenes tomorrow after the summer holiday.

The cabinet met today to put the finishing touches on the policies it will present to the parliamentarians. Consideration of the report on India is likely to be postponed until December.

Britain's legislators will vote on plans for increased empire defenses, moves to bring about an inquiry into armaments exports, various schemes for further aid for agriculture and industry, and many highly controversial measures of domestic interest.

Defense to Be Discussed.

Measures for increasing the empire's defenses will be discussed early in the session. The first step in the bigger defense program was taken before the summer recess, when the government announced its intention of expanding the air force.

British export trade in armaments will be attacked in several ways and at least one demand will be made for an inquiry by a special commission.

Slum clearance will be an important subject. Both the government and the opposition are expected to present new projects for further elimination of overcrowded areas.

Relief Will Come Up.

A few forms of aid for the unemployed are certain to be discussed, but no specific program has yet been drawn up.

The government's methods for assisting agriculture will probably cause a sharp clash, as will two highly controversial bills now pending, the incitement to disaffection bill and the betting and lotteries bill.

The first of these two bills would give the government extensive powers in dealing with revolutionary propaganda, strengthening the present laws greatly. It has been bitterly attacked by the Socialists.

'Pennsy' Sued In Man's Death

Harrisonburg, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.). An aftermath of the Pennsylvania Railroad wreck on the washed-out Anacostia Bridge in the District of Columbia in August, 1933, was aired in United States district court here today.

David Fox, deputy sheriff of Page County, is suing the railroad company for $50,000 for the death of his son, Basil Fox, 28, killed when the telegraph pole on which he was working broke.

Fox, a lineman for the railroad, was cutting the lines across the river in order to permit the rebuilding of the bridge. His estate contends that the pole was rotten and not properly braced. The defense maintains the pole appeared solid and that Fox did not use approved methods in cutting the wires.

Sell your house with a Post Classified Ad. Just phone National 4200.

REPORT OF CONDITION OF THE McLachlen Banking Corporation in the District of Columbia, at the close of business on October 17, 1934:

ASSETS

1. Loans and discounts		$1,092,410.66
2. Overdrafts		428.93
3. United States Government obligations, direct and/or fully guaranteed		197,136.48
4. Other bonds, stocks and securities		1,066,562.59
6. Banking house, $78,052.37; furniture and fixtures, $72,147.46		150,199.83
7. Real estate owned other than banking house		22,951.38
8. Reserve with Reserve bank		624,157.66
9. Cash in vault and balances with other banks		371,646.73
10. Outside checks and other cash items		14,466.48
14. Other assets		8,835.50
Total assets		$3,548,796.24

LIABILITIES

15. Demand deposits, except United States Government deposits, public funds and deposits of other banks		1,594,280.36
16. Time deposits, except postal savings, public funds and deposits of other banks		1,462,643.48
18. United States Government and postal savings deposits		10,000.00
19. Deposits of other banks, including certified and cashiers' checks outstanding		45,430.50
Total of items 15 to 19: (a) Secured by pledge of loans and/or investments	$39,000.00
(b) Not secured by pledge of loans and/or investments	3,073,354.34
(c) Total deposits	$3,112,354.34
31. Other liabilities		200.07
32. Capital account: Class A debenture shares, par	$150,000.00
Class B debenture shares, par	50,000.00
Common stock, 3,000 shares, par $50	150,000.00
Total	$350,000.00
Surplus	50,000.00
Undivided profits—net	26,241.83
Reserves for contingencies	10,000.00
Total capital account		436,241.83
Total liabilities		$3,548,796.24

Memorandum: Loans and investments to secure liabilities.

35. United States Government obligations, direct and/or fully guaranteed	40,000.00
36. Total pledged (excluding rediscounts)	$40,000.00
37. Pledged: (b) Against United States Government and postal savings deposits	10,000.00
(c) Against other deposits	29,000.00
(h) For other purposes, to secure Clearing House Association	1,000.00
(i) Total pledged	$40,000.00

District of Columbia, ss:

I, JOHN A. MASSIE, Cashier of the above-named bank, do solemnly swear that the above statement is true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

JOHN A. MASSIE, Cashier.

Sworn and subscribed to before me this 29th day of October, 1934.

Correct—Attest:
(Seal.) EVELYN E. McINTYRE, Notary Public.
L. P. McLACHLEN,
L. E. HORNER,
EDWIN H. ETZ,
E. H. McLACHLEN,
A. McLACHLEN,
Directors.

Mrs. Vanderbilt Hears Prince Deny Nurse's Bedroom Charges

Gottfried Believes Wife Didn't Learn Anything Not Known Already.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—Prince Gottfried zu Hohenlohe und Langenburg took the stand today in behalf of his former fiancee, Mrs. Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt, to deny charges of impropriety made at the beginning of the habeas corpus fight for the custody of Gloria Vanderbilt, 10.

The hearing remained closed to the press and public. The prince told of his denials as he was leaving the courtroom.

Miss Emma S. Keislich, formerly employed as Gloria's nurse, testified four weeks ago that one morning in Cannes she and Mrs. Laura Kilpatrick Morgan, mother of Mrs. Vanderbilt, saw the prince and Mrs. Vanderbilt, both clad in pajamas, in a bedroom.

"I certainly did," the prince said when he was asked if he denied the nurse's charges.

"Did your wife learn anything about you that she didn't know before you testified?" he was asked.

"I don't think so. You see that's the way we marry. We tell everything beforehand."

"Why didn't you marry Mrs. Vanderbilt?" was the next question.

"I stated that before—because of the child."

It had been explained Mrs. Vanderbilt did not marry him because she wanted Gloria to be reared and educated in the United States.

The princess heard all of her husband's testimony and described it as "very good."

Mrs. Vanderbilt appeared pale and drawn when she arrived to hear the prince's testimony. Nathan Burkan, Mrs. Vanderbilt's counsel, said he expected to call her tomorrow.

Right of Mrs. Dall To Cast Her Vote In N.Y. Questioned

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Oct. 29 (AP).—The question was raised informally today whether Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Dall, daughter of President Roosevelt, was eligible to vote in the New York State election Tuesday.

The board of elections was asked whether Mrs. Dall, by establishing legal residence last summer in Nevada in order to obtain a divorce, had not forfeited her New York State citizenship.

The board decided to take no action unless Mrs. Dall's vote is formally challenged.

Mrs. Dall applied from the White House to the board for permission to vote by absentee ballot. She requested that a ballot be sent to Washington, and the board complied.

Fusionists Plan Six More Rallies

Party Maps Full Program in Montgomery.

Faced with but one more week before election day, leaders of the Montgomery County Fusion movement last night announced a schedule of six more political rallies to be held between now and next Tuesday.

The first will be held tonight at Bethesda, when John E. Oxley, candidate for the State Senate, will explain why he believes there should be a change in Montgomery's administration.

Other meetings are scheduled as follows: Tomorrow at Potomac, Md.; Thursday, at Damascus, Md., and Bethesda; Friday, Rockville, and Saturday, Poolesville. Fusion candidates will speak at all meetings.

Cuts for Year In Power Rates Set New Record

More Reported to Federal Commission Than in Any Other Period.

(Associated Press.)

More rate cuts for the user of electricity have been reported to the Federal Power Commission during the past year than for any other 12 months on record.

Whether they are attributed to the growing activity of the Federal Government in the power business, through the Tennessee Valley Authority and other projects, or have been brought about by a combination of other reasons, members of the commission yesterday declined to say.

The commission is conducting a dual inquiry. One phase, when completed, will give a comprehensive picture of the country's utility rate structure. The other will outline the present and estimate the future power requirements of the country and tell from what sources these can best be met. Both are far from complete, but a report on rates will be ready for Congress soon after its January opening.

In general, the commission has found ready cooperation. Curiously enough, the greatest difficulties it has met have been in gathering information from municipally operated concerns.

In such cases, commission experts said, the municipal plants were small, usually operated by the chief of police or some other city official, whose principal bookkeeping was in the form of hastily jotted notes on the back of an envelope.

The rate survey covers all types and classes of power, and amount sold, where it was sold, for how much money, how much power went to farm consumers, and the extent to which the concern engaged is selling electrical appliances.

Official Asked Why Institution Freed Inmate

Danville Holds Salesman Released by Hospital for the Insane.

Danville, Va., Oct. 29 (AP).—The Danville Register, in an editorial today, called upon Arthur James, State director of public welfare, to explain why C. M. South, 52-year-old salesman of barber supplies was released from the State Hospital for the Criminal Insane at Marion after being held there six months in 1932.

South, in jail here, has confessed to the attempt to molest ten Danville girls ranging in age from 6 to 12 years and that he had been arrested twice on the same charge in Roanoke. He said he was committed to the hospital at Marion by a Roanoke court and was kept there only six months, when he was discharged by order of Dr. George Wright, the chief physician.

"The case of C. M. South, arrested here for molesting children, poses questions to which the people of Danville and the rest of the State have a right to expect an answer," the Register says. "Why was this man released from Marion and why was his case handled so inefficiently in the courts of Roanoke? Where was the State department of public welfare in the case? This State department recently spent a considerable sum of money investigating the method of commitment and detention of insane persons in other States. Its most important duty is the protection of the children of the State of Virginia. Yet here is a man, who by his own confession molested more than a dozen children in the city of Roanoke, who was kept at Marion for only six months and served, upon another occasion, only eight months in jail before being released to prey upon the children in Danville and other Virginia cities."

The Register called upon Mr. James for an investigation and explanation of the history of South's case at Marion, in a telegram sent him today.

Former Kaiser Lets Grandson Enlist in Hitler's Reichswehr

Hubert Might Be Called to Help Put Down Monarchists.

(Copyright, 1934, by the Associated Press.)

Berlin, Oct. 29.—Prince Hubertus of Prussia, third son of the former crown prince, has obtained his grandfather's permission to join the German army—Adolf Hitler's Reichswehr. He will be the first member of the Hohenzollern family to bear arms for the third Reich.

Two of his brothers are identified indirectly with the new regime, Wilhelm as a subleader of the Stahlhelm, or steel helmets, an integral part of Hitler's political army, and Louis Ferdinand as a pilot in the air defense union, of which Hermann Wilhelm Goering, air minister, is the chief.

The two older brothers' commitment is not much more than that of every German subject, however. Hubertus, by joining the Reichswehr, might theoretically be ordered by Hitler to suppress a monarchists' plot.

In giving permission for his grandson's step, the former kaiser said he had been actuated by the idea that the Hohenzollerns always have prided themselves on being good soldiers and loyal servants of the state.

Hubertus, who is 25, made a trip to Africa in 1932 with Duke Friedrich Franz of Mecklenburg to study the possibilities of German emigration to that continent. He speaks English and French excellently.

Fish Picks New Deal Grid Team; Santa Claus in Role of Coach

An All-American New Deal football team, coached by Santa Claus, with Postmaster General Farley and Secretary Ickes assisting in the skull work, yesterday was gratuitously selected by Representative Hamilton Fish, New York Republican.

Fish, a former Harvard grid star, who numbers the President among his constituents, pulled Mr. Roosevelt out of the quarter back position at the last minute and substituted Prof. Felix Frankfurter, Harvard "brain truster."

Upton Sinclair, Democratic candidate for Governor of California, was assigned right end, although Fish conceded "it is a little difficult to figure out just which members of the New Deal All-American eleven would not team up and play ball" with Sinclair.

Fish said his line-up could "beat both Harvard and Yale, but that isn't saying much." His selections follow:

Right end, Sinclair; right tackle, Prof. Frederic C. Howe, AAA; right guard, Sidney Hillman, NRA; center, Prof. Paul H. Douglas, NRA; left guard, William L. Leiserson, National Labor Board; left tackle, Henry T. Hunt, PWA; left end, Jerome Frank, AAA; quarter back, Frankfurter; right half back, Prof. David Lilienthal, TVA; left half back, Rexford Guy Tugwell; full back, Donald R. Richberg, Assistant coaches, Raymond Moley, Bernard Baruch and Rudolph Hecht. Cheer leaders, Frances Perkins and Rose Schneideman. Band leader, Huey Long.

Mellon Fights For Refund of $550,000 Tax

Sues U. S. for Return of Sum Levied on State of His Brother.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 29 (AP).—Andrew W. Mellon, three times Secretary of the Treasury, went to court today with representatives of the estate of his brother, the late R. B. Mellon, in an attempt to obtain from the Government a refund of approximately $550,000 in income taxes.

Counsel for the Mellons charged they were doubly taxed in connection with the liquidation of A. Overholt & Co. and the West Overton Distilling Co., in which the two brothers were partners with the late H. C. Frick, coal and coke magnate.

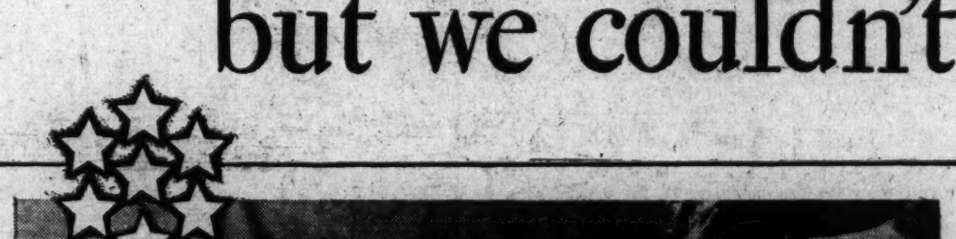
Mellon was present while attorneys introduced documentary evidence, but he was not called upon to testify.

The Mellons contend the Government collected taxes from 1920 to 1925 upon liquidation of the partnership, and made another levy later on the final distribution. These, the attorneys claim, constituted double taxation. Andrew Mellon seeks a refund of $202,502, and the R. B. Mellon estate asks $187,787. The sum claimed amounts to about $550,000, including interest from 1927.

Other phases of Mellon's income-tax affairs were called to the attention of a Federal grand jury last June, but the present action finds him in the role of claimant. The grand jury refused to indict him last June on the Government's charge of tax evasion.

Mellon was represented by W. W. Booth, John Fraser and Don D. Shepard. For the Government were M. H. Eustace, of the Attorney General's department; E. L. Updike, of the Internal Revenue Bureau; Assistant U. S. Attorney D. Lloyd Claycomb, and George H. Zeutzeus, of the Department of Justice.

"We remember HALLOWE'EN 1928 but we couldn't go to the Party!"



"'Way back in '28 we had just been distilled and were too young to be allowed out . . . our first date was with the Excise Officers of the Canadian Government . . . we were all sealed up in casks, tucked away on racks, and just left there to think it over . . . then came Hallowe'en, 1929, and that went by, and the same in 1930 and 1931 . . . but when we heard about all the fuss being made over four-year-old whiskies, we certainly figured we'd make the Hallowe'en Party in 1932 . . . we were four years old and growing mellow . . . but nothing happened . . . along come Hallowe'en, 1933, and we thought sure we'd get a break this time . . . but still nothing doing! . . . five years old and still no fun! . . . then in the Spring of this year, the 'Stars' broke and took America by storm . . . and the cask at my left gurgled to me: 'There is destiny in the Stars'. . . and sure enough, we're nearly six years old and we're going to our first party this Hallowe'en! . . . don't miss us! . . . we'll be good!!"

"Judge your Whiskey by the Stars"

G & W

SEVEN STAR . . . FIVE STAR . . . AND TWO STAR WHISKIES DERIVE THEIR RARE AND ANCIENT FLAVOR FROM WHISKIES AGED AND BONDED UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF THE CANADIAN GOVERNMENT FOR NEARLY SIX YEARS

MARVIN & SNEAD, Inc., Sole Distributers

1612 K Street N.W. DI. 1154

D. C. Reception Marks Turkish National Day

Declaration of Republic Is Celebrated at Large Function, With Mr. Munir Greeting Guests in Grand Hall of Embassy.

By Evelyn Peyton Gordon.

With the congratulations of hundreds of colleagues and friends, the Ambassador of Turkey, Mr. Mehmet Munir, celebrated the anniversary of the declaration of the Turkish Republic yesterday afternoon with a brilliant reception in the embassy on Sheridan Circle.

The ambassador arrived in this country only a few months ago, and since then has been in Mexico City, where he presented his credentials as Minister to the Mexican Republic. During the comparatively short time he has been in Washington, he has made a great number of friends in diplomatic, official and resident society, and all of them were preseht to share the national day of Turkey with him.

Mr. Munir received his guests in the grand hall of the embassy, which is among the most beautiful as well as palatial residences in the Capital. The dark oak paneling of the walls in the hall and on the magnificent staircase reflected the lights of many candles, the rich colors of tapestries and the gowns of the women. In the dining room the long tea table was decorated with masses of autumn flowers and the only lights were candles.

Mlle. Nihal Menemenli, daughter of the Minister of Egypt and Mme. Ratib, presided at one end, making a charming picture in her afternoon frock of American beauty taffeta, straight from Paris, and vastly becoming to her sleek, dark hair and brown eyes. At the other end a group of women from the State Department and Near Eastern legation alternated.

Orchestra Plays for Dancing.

A delicious punch was served from buffets in various smaller rooms, and in the library, where many of the men gathered, there were highballs and spicy appetizers. In the ballroom, with its scarlet and blue painted ceiling, its carved golden doors and embossed medallions on each wall, an orchestra played for dancing, and there the younger members of society gathered. The Charge d'Affaires of Czechoslovakia, Dr. Josef Nemecek, was dancing with pretty Miss Florence Harris, debutante daughter of Mrs. Russell-Bennett, and seemed to enjoy himself enormously. Dr. Nemecek entertained at a similar reception Sunday afternoon in celebration of the national day of his country.

In a group in one of the drawing rooms were Mrs. Henry A. Morgenthau, jr., wife of the Secretary of the Treasury, smart in a gown of brown crepe with a hat to match, chatting with Mrs. Claude A. Swanson, wife of the Secretary of the Navy, who wore navy blue. Nearby were Mrs. Henry Latrobe Roosevelt, wife of the Assistant Secretary of the Navy, with her daughter, Miss Eleanor Roosevelt. Both were in gowns of smart black with small hats to match and soft fur scarves.

Mrs. Harold L. Ickes, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, was glimpsed in the dining room as she stopped to speak with the Ambassador of Argentina and Senora de Espil. Mrs. Ickes wore a gown of black satin with a hat to match, and Senora de Espil was in black crepe with one of the new high crowned turbans of black velvet. The Ambassador of Spain, Senor Don Luis Calderon, was accompanied by the Minister Counselor of the Embassy, Senor Don Luis Irujo, with Senora de Irujo, the latter wearing black, which is always popular for smart afternoon costumes, and a small beret of black antelope.

Offer Felicitations.

The Ambassador of France and Mme. de Laboulaye were present, the latter still wearing the official mourning for the late Foreign Minister of France, and remaining only briefly while she and her husband offered their felicitations.

The Minister of Switzerland and Mme. Peter stopped for a greeting with the Minister of Portugal and Mme. de Bianchi, and the Minister of Denmark, Mr. Otto Wadsted, while nearby the Minister of Greece and Mme. Simopoulos chatted with Rear Admiral and Mrs. Mark L. Bristol. Yesterday Mme. Simopoulos wore a suit of thin black wool with a collar and long revers of beaver, and a black cossack hat.

Mrs. Michael MacWhite, with her husband, the Minister of the Irish Free State, held a small court in the palm room, and later looked in on the dancing, where the Solicitor General and Mrs. J. Crawford Biggs were watching the young people. Mrs. Biggs wore a frock of brown crepe with a jabot of pale blue lame, and a large soft beret of brown.

Other Guests Listed.

Others there were the Minister of Ecuador, Senor Capt. Colon Eloy Alfaro; the Assistant Chief of the Protocol Division, Mr. Julius C. Holmes; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Southgate, Mr. Harry Villard, the chief of the Far Eastern Division of the State Department, Dr. Stanley Hornbeck; Mrs. Charles B. Drake, Maj. and Mrs. Parker West, Mrs. Robert Mackenzie, Mrs. Russell-Bennett, in a trailing costume of black velvet trimmed with silver fox; Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Alfred T. Smith and the Minister of Austria and Mme. Prochnik.

Also the Naval Attache of the German Embassy, Capt. Robert Witthoeft, chatting with the Naval Attache of the Soviet Embassy, Mr. Paul Oras; the Minister of Guatemala and Senora de Recinos, the Minister of Uruguay, Mr. J. J. Richling, and the Minister of Persia and Mme. Djalal with the Charge d'Affaires of Bulgaria and Mme. Petroff-Tchomakoff.

Political Study Club Committee Meets Today

Mrs. Lloyd A. Morrison, chairman of the hospitality committee of the Political Study Club, called a meeting today of that committee at the Carlton Hotel to be followed by luncheon and bridge.

Mrs. Frank M. Shortall, president of the club, will be guest of honor. The members present were Mrs. Eugene R. Whitmore, Mrs. James F. Barnes, Mrs. James Councilor, Mrs. A. Natalie Dezio, Mrs. Ernest F. Gude, Mrs. P. L. Hodges, Mrs. Harry Landrus, Mrs. William Theophilus and Mrs. William W. Wheeler.

Costume Ball Is Sponsored By Debutantes

Annual Halloween Dance to Be Held Tonight at Shoreham.

The annual debutante Halloween costume ball will take place tonight at the Shoreham Hotel. The debutantes in their lovely costumes will receive with Mrs. Helen Ray Hagner. Mr. Clifford Berryman, Mr. Powell Minnigerode and Mr. Felix Mahoney will be the judges of the costumes.

Miss Marion D. Venable and her ballet group will dance at 11:30 o'clock and then will start the march of all of those in costume. The debutantes and their escorts will come in first, followed by the married couples, the committee and then all others in costume.

The most beautiful and most original costumes will be awarded silver cups. Mr. and Mrs. William S. Stanley are chairmen of the young married group and on their committee are: Mr. and Mrs. Chester E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. H. Prescott Gatley, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hyde, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Korth, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Murray, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Upson and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Watson. Supper will be served at 12:30 o'clock.

Reservations Taken For Ballet Russe

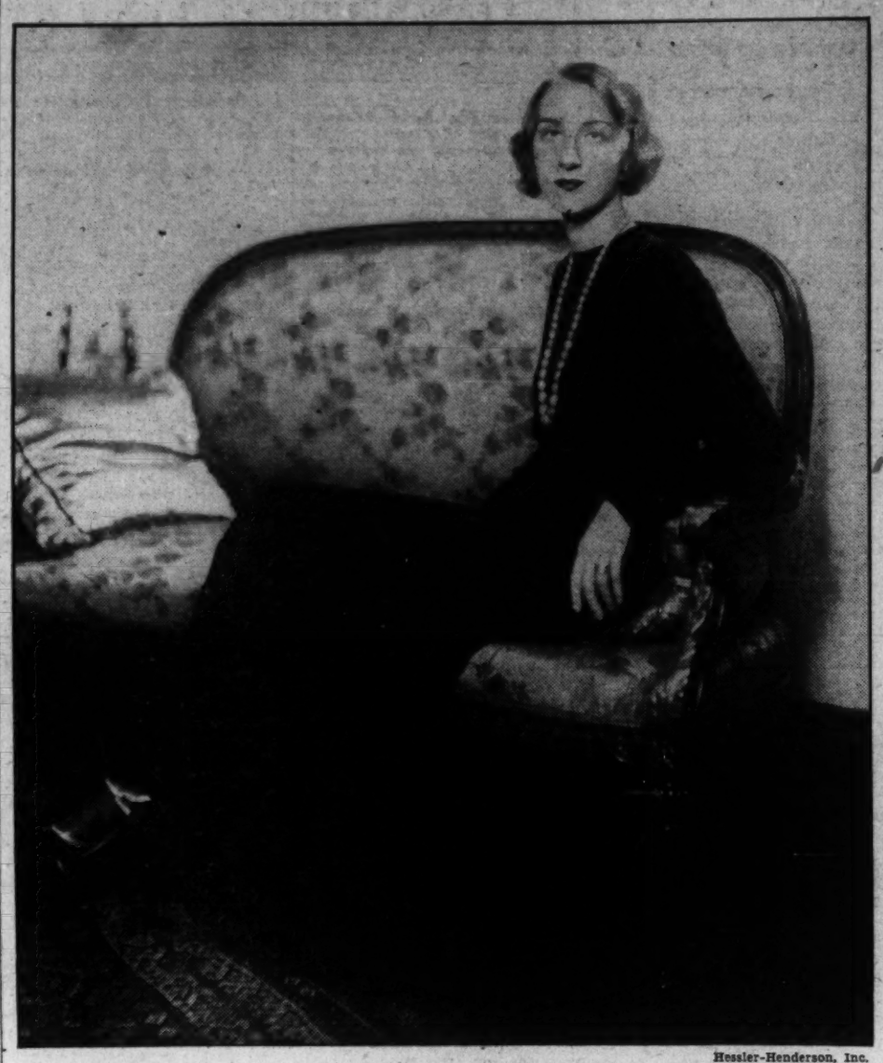
Diplomatic Circles Show Interest in Program.

Washington apparently plans to be out "en masse" at the two performances of the Monte Carlo Ballet Russe, Sunday afternoon and evening at 2:30 and 8:30 o'clock, at the National Theater.

Diplomatic circles especially are showing a keen appreciation in the performances. Among those who have made reservations are the Minister of the Irish Free State and Mrs. Michael MacWhite, the Second Secretary of the French Embassy, M. Claude de Boisanger, also Maj. F. C. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Clark, Mrs. Tracy Dows, Dr. and Mrs. Raoul d'Eca, Dr. Herbert Friedenwald, Mrs. John Philip Hill, Mrs. John R. Hogan, Mrs. John Howland, Miss Edna Hall, Mrs. Charles Keller, Miss Marian Lane, Mrs. George Hewitt Myers, Mrs. Thomas B. Nolan, Mrs. Norman Oyster, Mrs. L. B. Pinckney, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Remon, Miss Ruth Remon, Mrs. A. N. Warner, and Capt. A. R. Wilson.

Many parties are being given for various members of the ballet, especially in the dance studios, where there are many who have danced with some of the leading artists in the company abroad.

To Be Presented This Winter



Hessler-Henderson, Inc.

MLLE. GLADYS BROZ, daughter of the First Secretary of the Legation of Czechoslovakia and Mme. Broz, who will be presented to society this season by her parents during the holidays. She is a student at George Washington University.

OFFICIAL and RESIDENT
Society Notes

Mrs. Roosevelt held a special meeting of the committee in charge of the Ruggiero Ricci recital for the benefit of the educational department of the New York Women's Trade Union League at her home in New York City yesterday afternoon. The concert will be held November 24 in the Carnegie Hall in New York.

The First Lady is honorary chairman of the committee, which is headed by Mrs. Myron I. Borg, chairman, and Mrs. Henry Morgenthau, associate chairman.

The Ambassador of Italy, Signor Augusto Rosso, is among the honorary patrons of the benefit.

Mrs. Roosevelt will return this morning in time to hold her weekly press conference at 11 o'clock.

The Ambassador of Japan and Mme. Saito and their two children will arrive this morning from the West Coast. They docked October 24, coming from their home in Tokyo, Japan, where they had spent the summer.

Mr. John Dickinson, Assistant Secretary of Commerce, was among those who entertained informally at luncheon yesterday at the Carlton Hotel.

Hurleys Entertain At Buffet Supper.

Former Secretary of War and Mrs. Patrick J. Hurley entertained at a buffet supper at their country estate, Belmont Plantations, near Leesburg, Va., Sunday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott Roosevelt, who have recently leased Widworthy, also near Leesburg.

Mrs. Henry L. Stimson, wife of the former Secretary of State, is honorary chairman for the bundle tea to be given this afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. Stewart Baker in New York for the Lincoln Hospital Social Service Auxiliary.

Mrs. James Francis Sullivan, of The Woods, Radnor, Pa., is at the Mayflower Hotel. For the last few weeks, Mrs. Sullivan has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Albert Lincoln Hoffmann, who recently returned to Long Island from Newport.

Miss Randolph Richardson, debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dawson Richardson, of Whitehouse, Fairfax, Va., was the guest in whose honor Miss A. L. Parkins entertained at a luncheon yesterday at the Carlton.

Mr. and Mrs. Braxton Brigg Comer, jr., have arrived from Birmingham, Ala., and are making their residence at the Shoreham. Mr. Comer is a newly appointed member of the Industrial Advisory Board, representing the textile industry.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Trent Wilson are at the Shoreham for a few days before going to make their home at Hopewell, Va. Their marriage took place Saturday in Fredericksburg. Mrs. Wilson is the former Miss Emily Lincke, of Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold A. Dodge and daughter, Miss Dorothy Dodge, have returned from Colorado Springs and reopened their apartment at the Mayflower for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Seipp were among the luncheon guests at the Carlton yesterday, having motored from their home in Middleburg, Va.

Mrs. S. Wallace Dempsey Is in New York.

Mrs. S. Wallace Dempsey is spending several days at the Roosevelt Hotel in New York. She will return the end of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Larrabee, of Warrenton, Va., have been passing a few days at the Shoreham as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Newbold Noyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Armat, whose house Graystone, on the edge of Rock Creek Park, is leased to Commander and Mrs. Thomas, have taken an apartment at the Fairfax for the season.

Dr. and Mrs. Macpherson Crichton had Mrs. Donald Gottwald, of Akron, Ohio, Mrs. Tolar Nolley and Miss Peggy Nolley, of Richmond, Va., as their guests for the last week.

Young Capital Matron

Harris & Ewing.

MRS. MILTON E. AILES, Jr.,
popular young matron in Capital society, with her Dachshund puppy, Snootie. Mr. and Mrs. Ailes make their home at 3134 Dumbarton avenue in Georgetown.

Mrs. Ickes Accepts Banquet Invitation

Will Talk at Newbery Prize Winners' Dinner.

Mrs. Harold L. Ickes, wife of the Secretary of the Interior, who is widely known for her "Mesa Land: The Story of the Southwest," has accepted the invitation to be an honor guest at the first Newbery prize winners' banquet at the Mayflower Hotel November 9.

Mrs. Ickes will say a few words in compliment to the 1931 winner, Mrs. Laura Adams Armer, of California, whose book, "Waterless Mountain," has for its theme the folk-tale of the American Indian. Mrs. Armer is coming to Washington to attend the banquet, and while here will be the guest of Mrs. Dorothy DeMuth Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth Leaving for West Coast

Mr. Julius Wadsworth, United States vice consul at Shanghai, and his bride, the former Mrs. Cleome Carroll Miner, arrived yesterday and will be guests at the Mayflower until this afternoon, when they are leaving for Vancouver preparatory to sailing for China.

Mr. and Mrs. Wadsworth were married October 20 at the Episcopal Church in Middletown, Conn. A reception at Long Hill, the home of Col. and Mrs. Clarence S. Wadsworth, in Middletown, followed the marriage ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. W. Thornton Carroll, of Eugene and Portland, Oreg.

Miss Platt Makes Bow At Tea December 9

Mr. and Mrs. Landra Platt will introduce the former's daughter, Miss Jane Esther Platt, at a tea at their home in Chevy Chase December 9. On Christmas Eve Mr. and Mrs. Platt will have a small dance for Miss Platt at the Chevy Chase Club.

James Weaver Is Married to Miss Grattan

Ceremony Held in First Presbyterian Church of Harrisonburg.

The First Presbyterian Church, of Harrisonburg, Va., was the scene Saturday evening at 8 o'clock of the wedding of Miss Margaret Stuart Grattan, daughter of Mrs. George Gilmer Grattan, jr., and the late Mr. Grattan, to Mr. James Madison Weaver, son of Mrs. W. P. R. Weaver and the late Mr. Weaver. The Rev. Parkes W. Wilson performed the ceremony.

The church was decorated with evergreens, ferns and white chrysanthemums, and lighted with many candles that mellowed the dark oak of its simple architecture.

As friends assembled Miss Shaffer played wedding music from Moskowski and Wagner. She was assisted by Miss Isabell, who played Schubert's Serenade on the violin, with Mr. Nelson Huffman tenor; the choir chorus followed with Ellerton's wedding hymn, and Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin.

The bride was escorted by her brother, Mr. George Gilmer Grattan 3d. Her gown of white taffeta was charming with its off-shoulder neckline and yoke of old lace. The veil of tulle was caught with lilies of the valley, and her flowers were a colonial bouquet of gardenias and lilies.

Miss Deyerle Maid of Honor.

Miss Evelyn Byrd Deyerle, maid of honor, wore a rust-colored velvet gown that toned in with her bouquet of talisman roses and bronze chrysanthemums. Mrs. George G. Grattan 3d wore a similar gown and carried red roses and chrysanthemums.

The bride's maids were Miss Annabelle Essary, of Washington; Miss Frances Everett Flavell, Moorestown, N. J.; Miss Mary Gratton, Richmond, Va.; Miss Anne Brosh, New York City; Miss Peggie Cannaday, Biltmore Forest, N. C., and Mrs. Charles A. Nelson, of Harrisonburg, Va.

Miss Katherine Bland Brown, in a frock of peach velvet, was flower girl, and Russell Weaver, jr., in a suit of black velvet, preceded the bride.

Mr. Russell M. Weaver, of Washington, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. The groomsmen were Mr. Jean Mauze, New York City; Dr. C. Hampton Mauzy, Cincinnati, Ohio; Mr. Courtney Mauzy, Mr. J. B. Dyer, both of Winston-Salem, N. C.; Mr. Randolph Grymes Heneberger, and Mr. John Roller Grattan, of Harrisonburg.

Reception Is Held.

The ushers included Mr. G. Frederick Switzer, Mr. S. H. Parkins, Mr. George A. Roller, Mr. Hamilton Haas and Mr. Frank G. Switzer.

A reception followed at Bent Hollow, the bride's home. Mrs. Grattan wore a gown of black velvet and a corsage of red roses, and Mrs. Weaver wore a black lace model and a corsage of gardenias.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Weaver and Mrs. J. Fred Essary, Washington; Dr. John Deese, Baltimore, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Gillum, Charlottesville, Va.; Miss Elizabeth and Miss Diana Dyer, Mr. and Mrs. Willoughby Newton Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Archer Crenshaw, Winston-Salem, Va.

Mrs. Joseph Pratt Luncheon Hostess

Mrs. Claudius Murchison Is Guest of Honor.

Mrs. Joseph Hyde Pratt entertained at luncheon at the Chevy Chase Club yesterday. The guest of honor was Mrs. Claudius Murchison, wife of the chief of the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Affairs of the Department of Commerce. Other guests were Mrs. J. Crawford Biggs, Mrs. O. Max Gardner, Mrs. John Small, Mrs. Arthur W. Dunn, Mrs. Rutter, Mrs. Arthur MacArthur, Mrs. C. Griscombe Randle, Mrs. David Tucker Brown, Mrs. Albert L. Cox and Mrs. Arthur Carpenter.

Miss Hopkins Sets Date for Wedding

Miss Eloise Hopkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hopkins, will be married to Mr. Thomas Glover, son of the former Assistant Postmaster General, Mr. W. Irving Glover, on Thursday, November 8, at the home of her parents in Woodside, Md. The ceremony will be witnessed by only the immediate families and a few close friends. Additional guests have been invited to the reception which will follow the ceremony.

Miss Hopkins will have as her attendant her sister, Miss Mary Georgia Hopkins, and Mr. Glover will have his brother, Mr. Warren Irving Glover, jr., as his best man.

Women Democrats Hear Power Board Chairman

Mr. Frank R. McNinch, chairman of the Federal Power Commission, was guest speaker at the forum luncheon of the Woman's National Democratic Club yesterday. Mr. McNinch was introduced by Mrs. Merritt O. Chance. He told of the purpose, accomplishments and aims of the Federal Power Commission.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Basil Manley, Mr. and Mrs. Huston Thompson, Mrs. Luke I. Wilson, Mrs. Ellen L. Woodward, Mrs. H. E. C. Bryant, Miss Elizabeth Hawry, Mrs. F. R. McNinch, Mrs. B. H. Lingo, Mrs. Frances Hagner, Mrs. Hugh Mathews and her guests, Mrs. Grace Lembach and Mrs. Lewis J. Battle.

All States Ball Set for Today

New England Society to Play Host at Party at Kennedy-Warren.

The Kennedy-Warren main ballroom this evening at 9:30 o'clock will be the scene of a gala social affair when the All States Ball, given by the New England State Society, takes place. Members and their friends from all the State societies in this city are expected to attend.

Miss Betty Durr, general chairman, has announced that all plans have been completed for the affair.

The receiving line will be headed by Col. William H. Humphries, assisted by Mr. George Harper, Mrs. Harold Whitcomb, Mrs. Hazel Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. James Sullivan, Mrs. Lenora Wooding, Mrs. Edna Bennett, Mrs. Charles Freeman, Mrs. F. F. D. Callahan, Mrs. Charles Garnett and Mrs. Evelyn Smith.

An entertaining floor show will be presented during the intermission of dancing and there will be tables for those desiring to play bridge.

G. O. P. Women to Hold Afternoon Reception

The League of Republican Women will hold the first reception of the season this afternoon, from 4 until 6 o'clock, at the National Capital Republican Clubhouse. The guests of honor will be Mrs. William Fitch Kelley, president of the league, and the members of the board.

INWEAVING
New Process of Repairing Tears in All Woven Materials
(Silks—Linens—Woolens)
SOUTHERN STELOS CO
613 12th St. N.W. Nat'l. 8448.

20th and R Sts. N.W.
"Speaks for Itself"
THE PARROT
CRAB IMPERIAL—
This popular seafood delicacy is a Parrot specialty. Nowhere is it served with the delicious seasoning and freshness that Parrot cuisine achieves.

UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD
Portraits of Quality
Portraits for CHRISTMAS GIFTS—as low as $15 the dozen—Telephone DIstrict 4488 now for your sitting.

SWIM REGULARLY
MEMBERSHIP CARDS
give special privileges at reduced rates.
AMBASSADOR SWIMMING POOL
14th & K Streets

PIERRETTE
Conn. Ave. at Que
Try Our Famous Harlequin Cocktail

Special features during the Cocktail Hour, Halloween.
Afternoon and Evening—Until 9

If you tire easily—
why not reason out the cause of this unnatural condition?
Your first thought may be, "I must eat more." That's not all. You should enjoy what you do eat. Frequently, the blood cells are low... and this, perhaps, is what makes you feel weak. If this is your trouble the stomach may not be calling for sufficient food. Zest to eat may be lacking. But what a difference S.S.S. makes when taken just before meals. Just try it and notice how your appetite and digestion improve.
S.S.S. stimulates the flow of gastric juices and also supplies the precious mineral elements so necessary in blood-cell and hemo-glo-bin up-building. Do try it. It may be the rainbow you need to brush away present discouragement over your health condition.

Do not be blinded by the efforts of a few unethical dealers who may suggest substitutes. You have a right to insist that S.S.S. be supplied you on request. Its long years of preference is your guarantee of satisfaction.
S.S.S. the world's great blood medicine

ROMANCE of the West Indies
By Albert K. Dawson
All the enchanting beauty of these languorous, lovely isles . . . with their thrilling background of adventure and daring . . . will be pictorialized in the second Washington Post lecture of the 1934-1935 season. You'll see pirates' castles . . . an astounding Hindu temple . . . and other sights that bespeak the romance typical of these islands.

POST TRAVEL LECTURES
. . . are open to the public. Admission is 2 cents and tickets may be procured direct from The Post . . . or on the evening of the lecture at the Masonic Auditorium box office. Be there . . .

TONIGHT AT 8:15 at the
• MASONIC AUDITORIUM •
13th and New York Avenue Northwest

Beauty Served Without Cost At 'Vanity Bar'

Powders, Creams, Rouges Are Available for Weary Shoppers.

By Ruth Anne Davis.

THERE'S much buzzing about the new "vanity bar" that opened its doors on Connecticut avenue yesterday. It's a unique touch added to Washington's galaxy of charming rendezvous.

Local shoppers should rejoice to learn that here is an idyllic spot where they can stop for a breathing spell, have their faces cleansed, creamed and re-made—without paying for the privilege. Yes sir, here is beauty served on a silver tray, or more literally, powders, creams and rouges from a glass-covered bar placed along one wall in front of a long mirror in a striking modernistic setting.

Worn and weary shoppers, who wend their way here between engagements sit in front of the beauty bar and watch the old make-up give way to new, and shiny noses succumb to the soft pat of a puff. Five or ten minutes here and they're ready to turn a new face to the world.

The creams and powders, which are so freely served, have the approval of several local doctors. The woman, who is responsible for their sale in Washington and for this charming "vanity bar" itself, imports the herbs and oils which go into their making. A chemist has been at work for a long time perfecting them to their present excellence.

You'll enjoy especially trying an all-purpose cream called "Magnolia," because of the peculiar soft, creamy quality it gives the skin.

Original Christmas Gift.

All the way from Mexico come the colorful interesting tiles featured in a local shop. Those who see them feel the urge to buy them for Christmas gifts. They are so beautifully designed and colored that it's difficult to conceive of a more interesting and original gift.

One of these with a bright blue and orange figure against a golden brown background is placed in a wrought iron frame, which stands against the door to prevent it from slamming to and fro.

Several of them are joined together to form the top portion of a wrought iron cocktail table on which two roosters, outlined in vivid Mexican colors, are pictured on the verge of a fight.

Another tile has been molded in the form of a fruit bowl with a semi-circular wrought iron handle. In the middle of this is the colorful figure of a Mexican fruit girl.

Small square tiles, all exquisitely tinted and designed, are fine for vase or hot plate mats.

Suits For Small Boys.

Now at last the styles are catering to little boys. A downtown store has some new suits ready for the little tot to scramble into easily.

There is a pair of pants, plain, soft flannel with well turned seams. And then a cute little button-on blouse with a turn-over, Peter Pan collar. This is topped off with a clever little sweater striped in football colors.

There are some in red and blue, or two tones of blue with blue trousers, and others in brown and orange with brown trousers.

These sets are fine things for the youngster to wear these chilly days. They're warm and comfortable and at the same time, fashionable.

Useful Gift for Showers.

A useful gift for showers, bridge prizes, or an ideal present "from you to you" is the new "bean-x" otherwise known as bean slicer and stringer.

Those who have tried it say that beans prepared with a bean-x cook faster because they are cut in thin slices. Due to this rapidity the protein percentage and caloric fuel values are greatly increased. Furthermore they taste better after the seams have been removed.

Little bean-x is so simple even a child could use it. With one easy operation the beans are stemmed, cut, and strings removed all in one movement.

All in all it's the newest, quickest and trickiest bean cutter yet to make its debut.

Water Jug Sets.

Water jug sets are fine for the convalescent to keep by her bedside day and night. They consist of a tray, glass, and thermos jug with a handle.

Warm milk, tea, or hot water may be kept at a regulated temperature for hours, or ice water may be kept cold. Those who are nursing semi-invalids back to health will find that this thermos set will save them many extra steps.

Modernistic Atomizers.

Atomizers in modernistic shapes are priced now to meet budgets of any size.

A local store has some black jet ones in queer bulbous shapes for only 40 cents each.

Others with touches of silver are the same price.

There are some slightly larger in dizzy striped designs for 50 cents. When you get to the dollar section, there are pyramid and spherical atomizers, dreams of crystal and silver.

Call Ruth Anne Davis, of The Washington Post, NAtional 4200, Extension 105, for further information, or write, inclosing stamped, addressed envelope.

This Robe Comfortable As Well As Smart

Pattern No. 721.

WEATHER seers have been predicting another long, cold winter. Nothing can be done to prevent cold weather, but a good, cozy robe can do a lot to mitigate it. The one shown is both comfortable and smart. It has a good deep "wrap" in front and raglan sleeves. Two large patch pockets are convenient and the tied girdle is in the best dressing-robe tradition. Soft woolen bound with contrasting silk would be a nice combination of fabrics. If desired the robe may be longer and made with a shawl collar.

The pattern is accurately cut in sizes 34 to 46. Size 40, in the version shown, requires 4⅛ yards of 39-inch material, with 4⅜ yards of bias binding.

H. P. Co. (c) 1934.

Clip Coupon and Mail to
WASHINGTON POST BUREAU, HOLLYWOOD PATTERNS
420 Lexington Ave., New York City.

Inclosed find 15 cents in stamps for Pattern No..... Size..... [ ] and 10 cents additional for Mid-Winter Pattern Book [ ] or, 15 cents for Pattern Book ordered separately [ ]

NAME .....

STREET .....

CITY and STATE .....

(Print name and address clearly in pencil)
Patterns and books may be ordered by mail only.

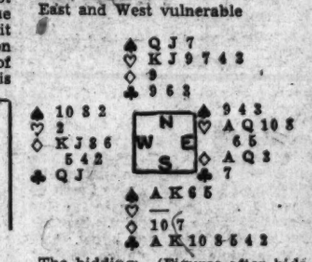
Culbertson on Bridge

1213.
Avoiding a Dangerous Leave-In.

The overcall in the opponents' bid suit is the strongest bid that a player has at his command when the opponents have opened the bidding. It is used whenever a player can practically guarantee a game, even with an almost trickless partner, provided some sort of vague fit or some intermediate honor is found. When the hand is not this strong but is of medium strength the take out double should be used. If the partner of the doubler holds some actual strength, he should indicate the fact by making more than a minimum response.

However, it is occasionally not only possible but proper to use the overcall in the opponents' bid suit rather than the takeout double on a hand which falls a little sort of guaranteeing a sure game. This is done on fairly strong hands on which the player has an absolute void of the opponents' suit and knows that his partner probably has both length and strength in the opponents' suit. If a double is made on such a hand, the partner will most probably pass to the double for penalties and since the doubler's hand is not at all suited for the leave-in, the Declarer will be able either to fulfill his contract or to get out for a very small set which will by no means compensate his opponents for the game which they probably have. This use of the overcall in the opponents' bid suit is shown in the hand below:

East, Dealer
East and West vulnerable



The bidding: (Figures after bids refer to numbered explanatory paragraphs.)

1st	South	West	North
♡	2♡(1)	Pass	2NT
♠	3♣	Pass	3NT
♠	5♣	Pass	6♣(2)
	Pass	Pass

1—This overcall in the opponents' bid suit, as explained in the paragraph above, is justified because of the possible damaging leave-in by North of one heart doubled. In addition, South has reason to believe that there must be some fairly good play for a five-club contract.

2—All of North's previous responses have been forced. Therefore North realizes that he must take some action in view of his partner's very strong bidding. South must have some spade holding which needs solidification, and the Queen-Jack in North's hand must serve this purpose. In addition, North has three trumps and a diamond singleton which is almost certain to be of value. If South can bid five clubs single-handed without all of this assistance, and furthermore jumps to five totally disregarding a possible ten-trick spade game or nine-trick no-trump game, six-odd must be almost a laydown with North's support.

South, of course, trumped the opening heart lead, and after finding out that the trumps did not all lie in one hand, was able to claim six-odd.

It is easy to see that had South doubled one heart for a takeout, North, in view of the fact that his side was not vulnerable and the opponents were, would almost certainly have passed for penalties. The play against one heart doubled, of course, would have been rather complicated, but East, with a constant menace over North's trump holding, would almost certainly have made at least one-odd for a tremendous swing.

(Copyright, 1934, Ely Culbertson.)

How to Keep Well

By Dr. Irving S. Cutter.

Intestinal Parasites.

None of us relishes the idea that our bodies may harbor worms of one kind or another, and yet a fair percentage of our population plays host to animal parasites of some sort.

Worms do not just happen. They gain entrance to the body either through their eggs or larvae mixed with food or drink, or are conveyed to the mouth by soiled fingers. Certain species of parasites may burrow through the skin or be introduced into the body by biting insects.

Once the parasite gains entrance to the body, it is difficult to eradicate. As a rule, worms reproduce in huge numbers, and, in some cases, like the trichina (pork worm) are able to travel through the blood and lmph and thus gain entrance to the muscles.

The most serious damage caused by intestinal parasites is due to the absorption of their poisonous secretions and excretions. Just as bacteria produce poisonous waste products, so do worms. Recently products have been isolated from tapeworms and from round intestinal worms that have a positive poisonous effect upon both the nerves and the muscles of human beings.

Under skilled management, and with persistent treatment, worms may be eradicated, and there is no excuse for harboring parasites within our bodies. Much attention has been given to practical methods of treatment with the result that most of the common parasites may be completely eliminated. We have heard much within recent years as to the havoc hookworms have created in certain sections of the South. These worms devour the cells of the mucous membrane of the intestine, not infrequently causing extensive bleeding. Because of special attention given to the hookworm menace, harmless and efficient drugs have been found that will destroy the parasites.

Copyright: 1934: By The Chicago Tribune.

Goose Is Better With Apple or Onion Stuffing

Braising Advised for Those Who Don't Like Its Rare Flavor.

By Dorothea Duncan.

THE WILD game season is here, and until January 1 we will have plenty of opportunity to vary our menus with game dinners of every description. The word game distinguishes such birds and animals as are hunted in the fields and forests, and are suitable for food, from the domesticated bird or animal called poultry. Rabbits, deer and moose, as well as ducks, geese, partridge, reed birds, quail, plover, &c., are called game.

One of our readers has asked for a recipe for cooking wild goose. The following recipe may be used for either wild goose or wild duck.

Game, unless it is being held in cold storage, should be drawn immediately and put in a cool place. Because of the strong flavor of the wild goose, it is better if stuffed with onions or apples. A bird, large enough for four, requires anywhere from 20 to 60 minutes of roasting in a hot over (400 degrees F.). Roast the goose until no red juice is drawn when pierced with a fork. If the persons who are to eat the goose do not like its rare flavor, the bird should be braised. Braising is a combination of stewing or steaming, and baking. The food to be braised should be first stewed and then baked. The above recipe may be varied this way. When the goose is partially cooked, remove it from the oven and carve it. Then press the juice out by covering the goose with a plate. Put the goose in a frying pan and add several tablespoons of the extracted juice. Cover and cook for ten minutes and serve.

Every woman who cooks meets a jinx in preparing some certain dish. One reader reports she never has any success in making popovers.

Remember these few important factors when you make popovers and you will never again have to worry. The popover mixture should be beaten thoroughly with an egg beater for several minutes. This beating will introduce as much air as possible and break the liquid present into tiny droplets. Popover mixture, being very thin, will not hold air very long, so it should be poured immediately into the baking containers. Any kind of muffin pan may be used, but if the pan is metal, be sure it is hot when you add your batter, so that the baking will begin as soon as the pans are put into the oven. A hot oven is needed at first and until the batter has risen to its full height, then the temperature should be reduced to prevent its burning.

Popovers.

1¼ cup flour
¼ teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 teaspoon sugar
1 cup milk

Mix the flour, salt and sugar. Gradually add the milk and the well-beaten eggs. Beat thoroughly. Have ready some small ramekins or muffin pans, well greased and piping hot. Fill them about half full of the batter and bake in a hot oven (450 degrees F.) for 20 minutes. Lower to 350 degrees F. and bake 15 to 20 minutes more.

Here is the recipe for brioche that was requested. It is a French, not Italian, bread.

Brioche.

1 yeastcake softened in 3 tablespoons lukewarm water
½ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons sugar.
4 cups sifted flour
1½ cups butter or butter substitute
5 eggs

Add to the yeast enough flour to make a soft, pasty ball. Drop this ball into a pan of warm water (not hot water, as that would stop fermentation), cover the pan and set in a warm place for about an hour, then the ball will be found on the surface.

Put the flour into a bowl, make a well in the center, into which break three eggs whole, add the salt, sugar and soft butter or butter substitute. Work these together with the hand, gradually mixing in surrounding flour and adding one more egg. Mix and beat for quite a long time until the dough entirely loses its stickiness.

Take the leavening ball from the water with a skimmer, and work into the mass, adding the last egg. Work and beat for a very long time, so that the texture of the dough will be very fine. Put the dough in a bowl with a cover and let it rise until double in size. Beat it down again and place it in the refrigerator for at least 12 hours.

The paste must be handled quickly and lightly when taken from the refrigerator, as it softtens if it becomes warm. Form into small balls, glaze with egg and allow to rise until light. Bake about 20 minutes in a moderate oven—350 degrees F.

What Today Means

"Scorpio."

IF OCTOBER 30 is your birthday the best hours for you on this date are from 9:45 to 11:45 a. m., from 3:45 to 2:45 p. m. and from 8:45 to 10:45 p. m. The danger periods are from 12:45 to 2:45 p. m., from 5:45 to 7:45 p. m. and from 10:45 p. m. until midnight.

This October 30 may bring you a wealth of promising prospects of either social or business activities. Business deals may prove slow in closing, due to dilatory tactics on the part of the customer or client. Speculative enterprises may suddenly blossom forth, and should be regarded with a cautious eye.

It would probably prove good judgment, if giving or attending a social event, some regard was paid to the keeping of reasonable hours, as a disregard of time might have an unpleasant aftermath.

If a woman and October 30 is your birthday, you may have the opportunity of showing your appreciation of a very thoughtful attention before the day passes. You might make a mistake if you are lacking in enthusiasm, so be careful not to place yourself in the position that you will be charged with indifference. It will possibly prove advantageous, both in a social as well as a business way, if you practice being both sympathetic and unassuming when dealing with people less fortunately situated than you are.

You have probably many admirers both feminine and masculine, who express their praise in no uncertain manner, but do not let this cause you to assume a haughty manner. Secretarial work should be a good field of activity for you. You should find a great deal of contentment and happiness in married life.

The man born on October 30 may be inclined to be slightly impetuous, but this trait possibly is due to excessive energy and the ability to think quicker than the average person he is thrown in contact with. If born on this date, watch out for this characteristic so as to control it and you will achieve greater success in any line of work you undertake.

(Copyright, 1934.)

JENNIFER HALE

By Rob Eden

Suspected of the murder of David Corey, Jennifer Hale escapes to Seattle under the name of Mary Dixon. En route, the boat she is traveling on is shipwrecked and she is rescued by Kent Severn, who falls in love with her and announces his engagement to her at a house party in his wealthy parents' home. Mrs. Severn pretends to approve, but retains Andy Young, a detective, to investigate her past.

Andy already knows Mary, but does not suspect her identity. He is shocked to discover she is Jennifer Hale, and does not know whether to betray her in order to earn the $7,000 reward offered for her. When a newspaper reporter tells him that Jennifer Hale's watch was found in the wreckage of the Grace Larsen and it only remains to discover which passenger was traveling under an assumed name, he knows that the hunt is closing in on Mary, and that if he does not announce her discovery and claim the reward, someone else will. He calls the police.

CLARA SEVERN, a robe thrown over her nightdress, a sleeping cap of pale pink net over her finger wave, was sobbing. Henry Severn, a flannel bathrobe over his pajamas, was pacing the floor of his wife's smart boudoir, chewing the end of an unlighted Havana cigar. Larry, half undressed, was standing over his mother, his arm around her shaking shoulders. Kent was the only one in the room completely attired.

"I tell you it isn't true!" Kent cried, vehemently.

"I tell you it is true!" his father boomed, rolling the cigar from the left side of his mouth to the right. "What would a herd of reporters be doing outside on the front doorstep if it wasn't true? The girl is a murderess! A nice mess, and remember, Kent, you got us into it!"

"There, there, mother," Larry soothed. "Don't cry like that. I never heard you cry before."

It was quite true. Mrs. Severn hadn't wept for years, perhaps because she had had nothing to weep about.

"Oh, Larry, the scandal of it. Poor Doris, poor Emily—"

Reporters Persist.

Winters, the butler, appeared at the door. He had scrambled into some semblance of a uniform, but it wasn't correct. He hoped that Mrs. Severn wouldn't notice his clothes. She was so particular about such things.

"The reporters won't go away, Mr. Severn. I asked them to leave, but they won't. They say they're going to stay until somebody comes out. Four of them at the back door, three at the front. There's also one at the conservatory entrance, one at the library and another one at the garage. I didn't know there were so many reporters in town, sir. Some photographers, too, sir. They took a flashlight picture of me as I opened the door."

Kent took a step forward. "I'll go down and explain to them that Mary Dixon isn't Jennifer Hale. That's what they want to know—"

Henry caught hold of his son's arm fiercely.

"You'll do nothing of the kind, Kent! You'll stay here with us. If we have to stay here six weeks, we'll stay here six weeks. Don't go to the door again, Winters, and see that none of the other servants do. See that the blinds are all drawn—"

Mother Is Furious.

"I've done that, sir."

"But father, we can't let her stay down in jail without doing anything for her!"

"I'll say we can! Inviting a murderess to be your mother's guest!" Henry's face was bright red. Winters still gaping at the door, was worried about him. The doctor had told him to avoid excitement.

"Well, I'm going down to the station and I'm going to see Mary, and ask her about this—"

"Kent!" Clara screamed. "You're not going out of the house! Henry, don't let him go!"

"He's not going, Clara. Don't worry. He's staying here with the rest of us."

Kent went to the table and picked up his hat. He had arrived in the house exactly one minute before the bombardment of reporters and exactly ten minutes after the phone call from the police station which had taken Winters out of bed for the second time that night. "I'm sorry, but I'm going. You can do what you like, but I'm going to the station to see Mary."

To Change His Will.

"You see that girl, Kent Severn, and you never come back into this house again! You can make up your mind right now!" From scarlet, Severn's face turned to purple. Back of Winters appeared the frightened faces of three more servants. Mrs. Severn was usually so careful that the servants hear nothing of the important conversations that went on in the family. Tonight, however, she was too broken, too shaken to protest.

"I'm going, father, regardless—"

"All right, then, it's settled. Winters, pack Mr. Kent's things immediately, and phone Tyron, and tell him to come out here as fast as he can get her. Tell him I'm going to change my will." Burns Tyron was Severn's personal attorney. "Yes, sir." Winters stumbled past the upstairs maid, the cook, and the second man. Kent was a particular favorite of his. Winters was fond of Larry, too, but Kent was his pride. Anything that Mr. Kent did was all right.

Brother Remonstrates.

"That's what I'm going to do, Kent. Cut you out of my will entirely. Forget you ever were a son of mine. From this minute you no longer have a job with the Severn Lumber Co. Now get out if you're going or if you intend to reconsider—"

"I don't." Kent walked up to his mother and looked down on her. "Mother, I'm sorry—"

"Don't talk to me, don't talk to me!"

"Kent, you're being a damned fool," Larry cried. "The girl's not worth it. She's murdered a man! Don't you understand? Are you crazy?"

Kent left the room, closed the door behind him, and threaded his way through the group of servants which the chauffeur and the gardener had joined by now.

In the lower hall he met Winters. There were tears in the old butler's eyes. "Mr. Kent—I'm sorry. Mr. Tyron is coming out. I just reached him. Your father's in earnest. I've known him for a long time. I know his temper. He means what he says. He's not joking. You were too young to remember, but he did the same thing with his brother—"

Father Was Harsh.

Kent nodded. He understood his father, too. Although, as Winters said, he was very young when Henry Severn had turned his brother out of the house, he had heard the story. Several times in the last few years he had pleaded with his father about his uncle, but to no avail. When Henry Severn made up his mind it stayed made up. There was no changing it. Millard Severn lived now on an income provided secretly by his two nephews.

The young man picked up the coat he had thrown over a chair when he entered the house. The old man helped him into it.

"Winters!" a harsh voice bawled from the top of the stairs.

"Yes, sir, coming." Then to Kent. "The library door seems the safest, sir—only one reporter there. And where shall I send your clothes, sir?"

"The Gramercy." Their hands met for a moment, Winters' trembling, Kent's strong, firm.

Outside the library door a reporter tackled Kent. "I'm Jim Hackett of the Star, Mr. Severn. We understand Jennifer Hale worked in your department under the name of Mary Dixon. Right?"

"Mary Dixon worked for me—"

"We also understand—just got the tip—that at Bainbridge last evening you announced your engagement to Miss Dixon—informally."

"Right, Mr. Hackett—now if you'll let me go." Kent threw off the grasping hands that were hanging to his coat sleeve, and strode ahead on the path that led to the garage.

"Going down to the jail by any chance, Mr. Severn? If you are, it's safer to go in my taxi. You'll bump into a herd of reporters at the garage, and we can slip through the hedge here and be gone before they know it."

Kent hesitated for an instant. As yet Hackett was the only reporter near him. Safer to play ball with one than try to dodge a dozen.

"Fine, we'll go in your taxi."

They crawled through the hedge and soon were in the street, walking swiftly to where Hackett had left his cab, half a block from the house.

"Neat, eh?" Hackett chuckled when the car was flying down the hill. Of all the vantage points he had chosen the library door on a hunch, and his reward had been great. A scoop! Taking Kent Severn to see Jennifer Hale at the jail! He couldn't resist rubbing his hands. And getting an admission from Severn that he was engaged to Mary Dixon! What a story!

A Sly Minx.

"There's been some mistake, of course," Kent said after he had been silent for a time. "Some terrible mistake."

"Of course there has, Mr. Severn," Hackett replied soothingly. "We'll get everything straightened out when we get to the station."

(Copyright, Register & Tribune Syndicate.)

To be continued tomorrow.

Feminine Feet Will Maintain Gold Standard

Precious Yellow Metal to Grace Footgear for Formal Wear.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29 (AP).—Feminine feet are going on the gold standard this winter.

Gold kid and gold fabric slippers were described today by heads of shoe departments as the very newest and smartest footgear for formal wear with all-silver or gold and silver combinations in second place.

It was also observed that women will dance with hearts on their toes this winter.

One of the very newest models was a sandal with the narrow straps of satin radiating from a satin heart at the base of the instep. It was developed in black outlined with green—and that's a new color combination—and also in black trimmed in gold or silver.

Velvet is booked for a big vogue, and very rich looking are velvet sandals in the new evening colors. Most of them are trimmed with either gold or silver.

One very clever velvet number gave the impression of a swath of cloth draped across the instep and through a metal ring to form a sandal thrt leaves the toes exposed.

Sandals right now are the leaders for formal evening wear, but it was predicted that opera pumps will run a close second and may catch up before the season is over.

THE NEW Jelleff's
1214-1220 F STREET

Shopping with Lorgnette

Today, I want to tell you the story of a Fabric, that goes to Town . . . "CRYSTELLE VELVET" . . . A fabric that is non-crushable and rarely damaged by moisture . . . Adaptable for sports, afternoon and evening . . . It outwears most feminine fabrics and retains its beauty.

THE VICE-VERSA FROCK

The Vice-Versa frock may be worn . . . like this, like that . . . The blouse is featured in a delicate Raspberry shade of 'Crystelle Velvet,' the skirt is dull black crepe . . . with front pleats. One may wear the skirt with a lovely, satin blouse or Vice-Versa the Crystelle blouse with a black, velvet evening skirt. If you like a lot of changes . . . this is the frock for you . . . My dears . . . Only 16.95 . . . Misses . . . Fourth Floor.

A GRAND SLAM

A grand slam for the bridge game . . . This interesting Fuschia Crystelle gown. A flattering neckline and lovely full sleeves owe their beauty to the tiny buttons, that may be worn open to the elbow or closed . . . You will adore the simplicity of this dainty frock . . . Crystelle velvet lends itself so well for draping and falls in lovely, soft, graceful lines . . . You'll play a better hand at bridge in this gown . . . 29.75 . . . Misses.

HAPPINESS AHEAD

There's happiness ahead, if you stop, look and purchase my favorite, "THE CAFE FROCK," you'll lift your glasses high to "CRYSTELLE VELVET" and thank me for the tip . . . Fashioned in the new blue, softly draped neckline embellished with grand Antique Gold Clips . . . The back of the Cafe Frock tells a story all its own. Buttons, buttons and more buttons—running north and south. Slit skirt. A Sophisticated frock with a wealth of detail . . . 25.00.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE

To dress or not to dress, that is still the question . . . If you are going formal just remove the tiny Jacket and you possess a devastating evening gown . . . Note the new version of the halter neckline. This evening gowns boasts about its unusual baguette clips. You'll forgive my madness if I break into ecstatic ravings . . . but this frock has everything . . . For informal dinner slip into the tiny fitted jacket with its quaint sleeves. The color . . . Oh, Dearie me . . . that new soft green that is indescribable . . . 29.50.

I hope you will be as thrilled as I am when you select your CRYSTELLE VELVET.

Madame helena rubinstein is forging ahead with a grand new idea . . . Budget your beauty . . . Individual home treatments in a very attractive box. Stimulant cleanser and nourishing, also makeup . . . Budgeted for you at 3.50 to 10.50 . . . All this week . . . Ask about budget plan . . . helena rubinstein's . . . Special representative here now.

Lorgnette

Only ONE PRICE . . .
The Lowest Always!

¾-Length Swagger

Samoli Leopard COAT
$295
Priced Regularly at $395

Typical Zirkin quality, of course, beautified with a Tuxedo Beaver Collar. Imported Kasha lining and matching Ascot tie. Any wonder Zirkin is Washington's leading furriers?

H. Zirkin & Sons Incorporated
821 14th Street N.W.
Washington's Oldest Furriers
Established 1885

Coat Exchange In Cloak Room Has Odd Twist

Resourceful Tea Guest Traces Her Wrap From Label.

By Marguerite C. Rand.

NOW THAT cool weather is here and coats are being worn again you had better be careful how you leave your wrap in cloak rooms . . . that is if you have a nice new coat and want to keep it. On the other hand, if your coat is a couple of seasons old and you are tired of it, the possibilities of exchange are intriguing.

An exchange which occurred the other day at a tea at one of the leading women's clubs proved quite unsatisfactory for one of the women involved. Mrs. X was a prominent club woman and wore a lovely new cloth coat, size 38, with a handsome fox fur collar, which she had recently purchased at one of the large department stores here in Washington. On arrival at the clubhouse, she left her new wrap in the cloak room and went into the lounge to join the others at the tea.

Two hours later she returned to the cloak room for her coat. As she put it on, it seemed extraordinarily large for her. She looked at it more closely. Yes, it must be hers . . . the same cloth, the same soft fur. She tried to adjust it to her but it fairly dragged about her ankles and the buttons needed to be set over 6 inches. Examining the inside of the collar, she found that it bore the label, not of the department store from which she had purchased her own coat, but that of one of the leading Washington furriers. She looked on the rack but there was no other coat like it. She sat down to wait, feeling sure that the lady who had inadvertently taken hers would return it.

Watches Patiently.

One by one the women put on their wraps and started homeward, while Mrs. X watched patiently until at last she was the only guest remaining. She had to get home for her husband would be wanting his dinner.

The next day she phoned the club but no one had notified them of possession of the wrong coat. She phoned again the second day but no success. The third day she was really worried. What should she do?

Finally a bright idea occurred to her. She took the coat downtown to the furrier whose label it bore and talked to the salespeople. At first they seemed unable to help her, but at last a sales girl was found who remembered that Mrs. Y, the wife of a very prominent public official here, had rushed into the store a few days before, saying that she had just returned from her summer vacation and must have a coat immediately to wear to a tea that very afternoon. The sales girl was sure the coat Mrs. X wore was the coat Mrs. Y had bought. Mrs. X hastened home to telephone.

Phones With Timidity.

This she did with some timidity, as she thought more about it. What if the sales girl had been mistaken?

Mrs. Y's maid answered the phone and after a little delay Mrs. X found herself in conversation with Mrs. Y, who was polite but cool.

"Oh, no, my dear. I'd never do such a thing. . . . You say you wear a size 38? . . . Well, I wear a 44 and I'd certainly know it if I ever got into a 38!" After a few mild words Mrs. X received this reply:

"Yes, yes: I got my coat at that fur company. . . . But such a thing just couldn't happen. Why, I've been wearing my coat every day since to a dozen affairs."

"Well, just to be perfectly certain," Mrs. X suggested, "would you be kind enough to look inside your coat and see whether it has the label of the fur company or that of the department store?"

Mrs. Y sounded quite annoyed as she replied: "Why, yes, I'll look if you'd feel better about it but really it's quite foolish and useless."

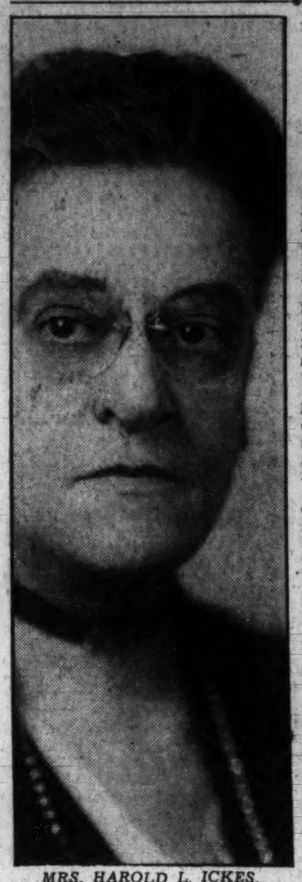
Startled by Peal of Laughter.

Mrs. X waited while Mrs. Y went to look. After a few moments she was startled by a sudden peal of laughter.

"My dear, that's the funniest thing I ever heard. This coat is yours . . . at least it has the department store label and not the furrier's. I just tried it on again and took a good look in the mirror. It's 6 inches shorter than my dress and it won't button. Imagine! I've been in such a mad rush I just haven't looked at myself for several days. My husband would certainly gloat over this if he knew. He always says I'm hopelessly absent-minded. You won't tell him though, will you? I'll send my chauffeur right over with your coat. Please do forgive me. I'm so sorry."

Play Based On Indians Hailed By Mrs. Ickes

Will Attend Performance of "Pocahontas" at Children's Theater.



MRS. HAROLD L. ICKES, authority on Indian history and culture, who looks forward to seeing "Pocahontas" on Saturday.

ANYTHING pertaining to the Red Man is of interest to Mrs. Harold L. Ickes, patroness of Indians of the Southwest, whose favorite avocation for many years has been the study of the Pueblos and Navajos, and whose extensive knowledge of these two tribes had led her to study many other groups.

This is the chief reason she will be one of the audience that waits for the curtain to rise on the performance of "Pocahontas" to be given at the Children's Theater Saturday morning.

"I am looking forward to 'Pocahontas' with particular interest because the story is woven around some noted Indian characters," she said at her home on Glenbrook road.

"The Indian has always been a colorful, glamorous figure in our history. No wonder so many of the highly intellectual persons of our country have een avidly interested for many years in his history, his culture and his philosophy."

Mystery Shrouds History.

Yet, for the most part, she pointed out, the life and history of the Indian have been shrouded in mystery. His exact history no one knows. His culture can only be surmised from the remnants now existent. His philosophy can be grasped only by those who devote much time to its study.

The average person, who has a natural curiosity about the Indians and who has no opportunity to observe them first hand in their native habitat, must be content with learning about them either through books or by glimpsing representations of Indian history across the footlights.

In view of this, Mr. Ickes is particularly enthusiastic about the play "Pocohontas," which, although designed for children, will undoubtedly attract many adults who have been fascinated by incidents common to both Indian history and the history of the Colonists.

Hails Indian Theme.

"It seems the movement exemplified in the Children's Theater is one in which almost everyone should be interested," Mrs. Ickes went on. "I am very glad to have the history of our country presented in dramatic form for children, and I am particularly happy the first play has an Indian theme.

"I am sure the sponsors of the Children's Theater appreciate the importance of presenting authentic scenes from Indian history—scenes that reflect the Indian's high standard of culture. While the directors will be primarily concerned with the dramatic and spectacular side of the Indian to their youthful audience, I am convinced they will be aware of the imporatnt and dignified role the Indian has played in the past and that we confidentally expect he will play in the future."

Reputed to recreate the atmosphere of Virginia in the early seventeenth century, the play of the Indian maiden, her father—Powhatan, and Capt. John Smith—has been written by Clare Tree Major, who has definitely tried to bring to life a fascinating and very human picture of Indian life.

Strictly Speaking

What About These?

1. Who was Damocles and why was a sword suspended over his head?
2. Why is an Adam's apple so called?
3. Why is a lady's maid frequently called an "Abigail," particularly in England?
4. "Please tell me what the seven wonders of the ancient world were?"—T. F., Charleston, S. C.

Answers Here.

1. Damocles (DAM-o-klez) was a courtier whom King Dionysius treated to a feast but over whose head he caused a sword to be suspended by a horsehair as a lesson that danger often overhangs power.
2. The thyroid cartilage of the throat is called the Adam's apple from the superstition that it was caused by the forbidden apple sticking in Adam's throat.
3. A lady's maid in England is frequently called an "Abigail" from the name bestowed upon a lady's maid in a popular play by the English authors, Beaumont and Fletcher.
4. The seven wonders of the ancient world were the Egyptian pyramids, the mausoleum at Halicarnassus, the temple of Diana at Ephesus, the hanging gardens at Babylon, the Colossus at Rhodes, the statue of Jupiter Olympius and the lighthouse of Alexandria.

Dr. Buck Studies Far East Farming

Novelist's Husband Works on Chinese Problems.

Dr. J. Lossing Buck, husband of Pearl Buck, author of "The Good Earth" and other novels, is as busy in his agricultural and sociological undertakings as his wife is in her literary ones, the Associated Press reports.

Mrs. Buck is in New York working on a book about American life. Her two daughters are with her. Dr. Buck is in China working for a solution of one of that country's fundamental problems. As chairman of the Department of Agricultural Economics of the University of Nanking he is studying conditions among Chinese farmers in the hopes of improving the lot of China's 80 per cent of population which wrests its living from the soil. His studies in land fertilization and population in 23 provinces are being financed by the Institute of Pacific Relations.

Coaches to Push Basket Ball League for Women in East

By Ware Torrey and Janet Owen.

BASKET BALL appeared over the sports horizon with the meeting last week of the Women's Eastern Amateur Basket Ball League in New York. Representatives attended the meeting from a majority of the amateur teams of the East, playing both girls' and boys' rules.

This fall will see further action on the part of a group of coaches toward starting a basket ball league in the East, to play competitive games. This project, which has gained favor in some quarters, is frowned upon by groups which are opposed to heavy stressing of inter-organizational competition.

Once more there come into opposition the two factions that lead present-day women's sports — one favoring competitions, the other stressing play days, practice games and other modified forms of sport, in an effort to eradicate the more strident bad points of intense competition for girls.

Basket ball in the main is played in colleges, community clubs and by teams from industrial concerns. The college teams keep most closely in touch with the changes in National ruling, year by year. Teams of the other two groups play a more varied assortment of rules, which may be boys' rules, a mixture of the two, or a version of girls' rules agreed upon by the teams.

Among the college players, there is basket ball played on a three-division court, with three variations of the game. Then there is the two-division court, the game played with roving centers.

The change that has affected basket ball most is the new guard rule, instituted in 1932-33. This rule permits a player to deviate from the vertical plane, in guarding, and gives her a better chance of getting the ball.

Another important change in ruling is the new method of starting the ball, instead of a center toss, by having the ball thrown to the center by the referee.

This BUSINESS of LIVING

By Mary Haworth.

DEAR MISS HAWORTH: I am coming to you for help. I am 37 years old with a 14-year-old daughter to support unaided. I have a small income which needs a position to help make things go better. I was educated to a position which in the past few years fate has turned upside down.

* * * *

However, people are my main interest, particularly those with problems, and I would so much like to feel I am being a real joy and help to somebody. I would consider it an honor to contact some home that was without a mother, so that I could be a real understanding friend, as most folks are so very much in need of understanding. Whether or not my services were paid for doesn't matter just now.

* * * *

I'm not going to tell you my name because we have been a very prominent family here for years, but if anything develops from this, whereby I can find the joy of serving human needs, I shall be oh! so thankful. WAITING.

Don't Evade Issue.

DEAR WAITING: If, as you say, you are dependent upon your own potential earnings to augment an income insufficient to meet your own and your daughter's needs, aren't you being inconsistent and impracticably altruistic in hypothesizing a future for yourself as unpaid companion-friend in some motherless household?

* * * *

May it not be that subconsciously you are hoping in some motherless home to find romance, marriage, an expedient delivery from the necessity of standing on your own feet, economically? Or, at least, a refuge from the stern responsibility of adjusting your income to your expenditure? In other words, confronted by a necessity of mastering your own economic destiny, aren't you looking for a loophole through which to escape the issue? Aren't you hoping to thrust the burden on other shoulders? To borrow an outmoded slang phrase: "Don't be like that."

* * * *

Perhaps you do have a genuine preference for expressing your talents in gracious fluent ways of living, as far removed as possible from the hurly-burly of commercial competition, with its harsh and painful disciplining of the individual. But then, so do most women thrown upon their own resources. However, the only relatively sure way of getting the best of the situation is to meet it at least half way. Plunge into the stream and swim; don't sit on the bank, dipping in a reluctant toe and trusting to fortuitous circumstance to send along a sturdy wayfarer willing to carry you across. Don't be somebody's potential Old Man of the Sea.

* * * *

Chances are, if you're seen swimming strongly in the midst of the current, you'll receive many more proffers of assistance, more applauding encouragement, than you'll ever get sitting on the banks.

If you prefer managing a home to any other type of work, very well. But seek it on a business-like basis. Keep your personality in the background, and place your usefulness in the fore. Also, in addition to making a bid for opportunity through this column, list your name with the proper agencies. Perhaps you might find a place as apartment house manager; as hotel housekeeper; as dining-room or tea-room manager; as house mother in fraternity or sorority house.

* * * *

Take comfort in the thought that "to him that hath is given." The person with even a small assured income usually finds economic opportunity with less agonizing than is required of one who has no buffer against actual want. I suppose it's because the margin of safety offers a better perspective in surveying the scene. It's hard to look where one's going when one's head is beneath the waves.

Incidentally, it would have been more foresighted of you to have provided me with your address, just in case some one, reading your letter, should make a bid for your services as companion or housekeeper. M. H.

Miss Kirlin Named By Women Voters

Selected as Congressional Secretary of League.

Miss Florence Kirlin, of Indianapolis, is the new Congressional secretary of the National League of Women Voters. Interviewing members of Congress in behalf of the league's National legislative program, and keeping the State league organizations informed of the status of Federal measures will be Miss Kirlin's principal duties under the direction of Mrs. Harris T. Baldwin, chairman of the legislative department.

Since her graduation from Indiana University ten years ago, Miss Kirlin has been actively interested in governmental affairs. She has been indentified with various public endeavors in Indiana. Miss Kirlin has just relinquished the directorship of women's work, Emergency Relief Administration of Indiana, a post she has held since November, 1933.

Wide World Photo

Girl athletes' fancies are now turning to basket ball. Important games are one in most of the colleges. Above is shown a basket ball play at the Savage School of Physical Education, where new rules are being tried out.

Women More Truthful On Ages Than Divorces

Post Staff Photo.

Every person should be required to register before moving from one place to another, believes Dorothy Thomas, census expert. She declares the registration system is necessary for an accurate census. Sweden has used it for many years.

Miss Dorothy Thomas, Specialist on Population Figures, Says Sweden Has Ideal System for Keeping Census Figures.

By Virginia Lee Warren.

WOMEN ARE notorious for the way they flirt with the truth when telling their age. Even doctors and census takers frequently get the wrong answer. But there is one thing women lie about more often than their age, and that's their divorces.

"The number of divorced persons enumerated in the census is always much less than the number of divorces granted," Miss Dorothy Swaine Thomas, a specialist on population figures, explained yesterday. As a member of the University of Stockholm's faculty and of the Yale Institute of Human Relations, she has delved into the methods of census taking and the results of those methods. She is now in Washington to assist in compiling booklets for the FERA on the relief census.

"It's not the fault of the census takers that the number of divorces and the number of divorced persons don't agree," Miss Thomas said. "The census takers have only the word of the person being interviewed to rely upon. Evidently a good many persons fail to acknowledge their marriage ties have been dissolved at some time in the past."

Men Also Accused.

Although she has no way of proving it, Miss Thomas believes almost as many men as women give false returns on divorce to the census takers.

"Evidently both sexes are sensitive on the subject," she smiled. With her bobbed hair and flat heeled shoes she looked more like a high school student than a college professor and the author of several ponderous books on sociological subjects.

Miss Thomas believes Sweden has the ideal system for keeping track of its population.

"It's the one country that has absolutely perfect statistics on population," she said. "Here in the United States we may be conscious of a back-to-the-farm movement. But we have no way of knowing the extent or direction of it. For instance: we are positive that after the 1930 census was taken, many people moved from cities to rural districts. But before the 1940 census is taken it is not unlikely most of those people will have moved back to the cities again. And yet we will have no definite record of this shifting of population."

Certificates Required.

But in Sweden, according to Miss Thomas, the census books are kept open and can be balanced at any time.

"Every person who lives in Sweden is required to obtain a certificate before he moves from one place to another," she explained. "When he reaches his new home he turns over the certificate to the pastor of his community. Sweden has a state church, you know. The pastors have complete records of everyone who lives in their particular districts."

While the Swedish government does not absolutely demand that its citizens get their certificates, the citizens soon find it is to their advantage to do so. Without them they can not obtain marriage licenses, they can not obtain houses or apartments, they can not buy on credit, and they can not hope to have any social standing in the community.

Keeps Down Crime.

"It would be a fine thing if the United States could have a similar check on its population," said Miss Thomas. "The Swedish system, which has been in operation for several hundred years, keeps down crime and makes it possible to have an absolutely accurate census."

Sweden is ahead of this country on still another count, according to Miss Thomas. It had a "brain trust" long before President Roosevelt gathered around him his famous group.

"Swedish professors have an important voice in their government. For years they have been consulted on major problems and have taken an active part in the country's legislation," Miss Thomas said. She will return to Stockholm in February to resume her lectures and research at the university there.

Glass Sandals in Vogue.

London (AP).—Glass sandals for evening wear have made their appearance in London. They are made of finely spun glass woven into a "fabric" which resembles woven silk. They are in glass of all colors.

Grouches Laid To Deficiency Of Magnesium

Grouchiness may not be due to mere "cussedness" but to lack of magnesium in the system, recent experiments at Johns Hopkins University have shown.

Dr. E. B. McCollum, professor of biochemistry in the School of Public Health of the University, says the experiments carried on by himself and associates with rats proved that magnesium tended to sweeten the disposition.

"We have proved the necessity for this element in food, but in small amounts," he said. "Too much results in dopiness. I would say that you can't have a sweet disposition without magnesium, but that does not prove that you will have one when you take plenty."

Human beings who get an inadequate supply of magnesium tend not only to be grouches, Dr. McCollum found, but are also subject to nervous twitchings.

Dr. A. D. Hischfelder, of the University of Minnesota, found from blood tests of students that those who were irritable and subject to nervous twitchings had a deficiency of magnesium.

Spicebox

Clean up a stronger battery;
In danger
If sulking just won't work,
Try flattery.

W. T.

Child Chats

It's Not Too Late to Plan Halloween Party; Games Suggested.

By Alice Fox Pitts.

IT'S NOT too late to plan a Halloween party for tomorrow night, for this is the most informal of occasions.

For a peanut race, divide the party into two teams; each member with a silver knife in his or her hand. At one end of the room, place two large bowls of peanuts; at the other two empty dishes. Each team scrambles to carry its peanuts to the empty dish, on the knives; fingers must not touch the peanuts, and if any are spilled, they must be picked up on a knife. The team that completes the task first wins.

For telling fortunes, seat the party in a circle on the floor. The leader takes a bottle and spins it on the floor, first asking "Who will be married first?" The one the bottle points to when it stops spinning will be married first. It is well to have a list of questions made up in advance, "Who is the greediest person in the room?" "Who will be an old maid?" and so on.

For a riotous game, hang a sheet across the room, the top about the level of the players' heads. Have on hand a dozen balloons, six each of two different colors. Divide the guests into two teams, and at a given signal, let each team try to bat its balloons over to the other side, and also prevent the other team's balloons from coming over. At the end of 5 minutes, the team that has the fewest balloons on its side wins.

Don't deny the children the fun of a Halloween party when it is so easy to give them a good time. Even if your invitations go out by word of mouth today, you can arrange an entirely successful entertainment for tomorrow evening.

(Thursday: Toys for a boy of 8.)

Final Touches Play Principal Make-Up Role

Seven Suggestions Will Help Women Improve Appearance.

By Frances Mangum.

TO GIVE your make-up the last degree of grooming, take care with your finishing touches.

Seven suggestions you might clip and review from time to time are listed below:

1. Never apply new make-up over old. Thoroughly cleanse your skin and remove the last layer of lipstick before you make up again.
2. Always apply a make-up foundation as a protection to the skin.

How to Use Rouge.

3. Apply rouge carefully. If you use cream or liquid rouge, as many with oily skins prefer, apply this before you put on powder. Dry rouge should be put on over powder to heighten your color.
4. Pat on powder. Do not rub, as this grinds it into the skin. Always use a fresh puff or cotton pad. Be sure that you powder the neck just as you do your face.
5. After powder apply oil or vaseline to eyelids, eyebrows and lips and remove with tissue. This takes away with any trace of powder around your eyes and gives a lovely dewy effect.

Use Pencil on Light Brows.

6. Blend a little eye shadow on your upper lid near the lashline. Brush eyebrows with a clean tiny eyelash brush. If the brows are very light, use an eyebrow pencil, lengthening the line slightly if you wish. Brush the lashes and apply a bit of vaseline. Use mascara sparingly for daytime.
7. Now your lip rouge. This should match the cheek rouge and harmonize with your costume coloring.

Lansburgh's

NO CONNECTION WITH ANY OTHER WASHINGTON STORE 7TH, 8TH and E

RIPPLED FUR

Makes You Look Young

$79.75

Soft ripples of fur, gracefully draped at the neck—for that delightful young look. Try this coat of Forstmann's diagonal woolen with a tie of Jap mink at your throat—it's an eye-catching, spirit-lifting coat. Or if you prefer you may take your ripples in kolinsky, Persian or fox. Misses' and women's sizes.

LANSBURGH'S—SECOND FLOOR—COAT DEPARTMENT

The Washington Post

WASHINGTON: TUESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1934

Lewis Flays Bonus Bill as Bad Finance

Inflation Would Break Down Buying Power of Dollar, He Says.

Congressman Recalls Disaster Faced by Europe in 1920.

Denouncing the Patman bill for immediate payment of the soldiers' bonus by issuing $2,200,000,000 in new "printing press" money, and condemning other proposals that would float a bond issue for the same purpose, Representative David J. Lewis, Maryland Democrat running for reelection, assured a radio audience from Station WJEJ in Hagerstown last night that he would continue to vote against such proposals in Congress.

He said his Republican opponent, former Representative Frederick A. Zihlman, declared for immediate payment of the bonus in a press interview September 20, and has the support of the Veterans Voters League of the Sixth Congressional District of Maryland.

"Have we not already had enough false finance in the fields of private finance!" Lewis exclaimed. "Consider the now worthless fiat stocks and bonds—the 'printing press' securities—issued by private concerns from 1922 to 1929."

Would Hit Incomes, He Says.

One person out of every four in the United States is a holder or beneficiary of life insurance, interested in one of about 328 companies which "have passed successfully through the most crucial test in American financial history," and which "can be truthfully declared to be absolutely safe and solvent," Lewis went on. But currency inflation would break down the buying power of the dollar, he argued, and the worth of dollar incomes from insurance policies would be greatly reduced.

Recalling the disastrous effects in Austria, Germany, Italy and France of the failure to stop the tide of new certificates issued in the early 1920s, Lewis asserted:

"Nothing has happened since to show that we Americans can repeat the fiat money experiments of these countries and not reap the same harvest—32 million life insurance policies virtually canceled, of from 75 to 100 per cent of their paid-in value lost, the real wages of labor continuously reduced from day to day, the savings of a nation driven from the savings banks, the justly earned pensions of school teachers, private employes, soldiers and others ruthlessly reduced, and investments in securities of all kinds stricken down to little or no value."

Against Bonus Bill.

He pledged, regarding the bonus bill:

"If reelected, I shall vote against this bill and its proposal again. Certainly it is not because I have grown cold toward the soldiers. I feel the same toward them now as I did when they went forth to the treacherous battlefields of France. I have voted for pensions to their widows and orphans, I voted for the so-called Tabor amendment which included the humane 'four-point program' of the American Legion, I introduced and steered through the House the Federal emergency relief bill to aid them and their brother soldiers of industry when in need.

"But this is a world of duties as well as a world of rights. I know how bravely the soldier met his duty. A good soldier will not expect me, in our present National exigency, to default on my duty. Nor will he, in return for his services to his country, expect me to become a party to a political fraud by voting the veteran shall receive at the present time false and counterfeit money. It is better for him to be patient for a while, as President Roosevelt has recently asked him to be, and receive payment for himself, his wife, and his children at the proper time in a full-value dollar."

Recalls European Chaos.

No one could stop currency inflation in Europe once started, Lewis declared. Purchasing power of money cascaded down, and people rushed to spend before they lost everything. Farmers bought diamond rings. Stock brokers bought carpenter's tools. Money wages were readjusted twice a day toward the end, and employes got time off at noon to spend before their money depreciated further. Insurance policyholders suffered most, receiving but one-tenth of 1 cent per dollar of paid-in value in Austria.

Noting that the American Federation of Labor opposes currency inflation, Lewis added that the Patman bill "would inflate the outstanding currency by more than 40 per cent and start us down the toboggan road of repudiation * * * in the largest 'first step' in all the fiat money experience of history."

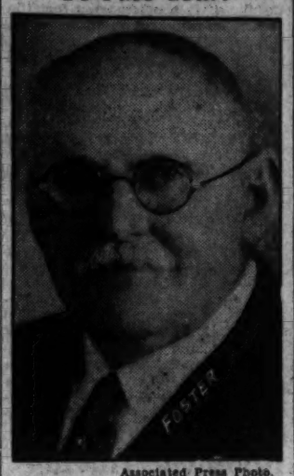
"A bond issue for the purpose would prove equally disastrous in our present conditions," he added. "Confidence in the Treasury and Government's credit is still intact. But such a bond issue would wreck both of them beyond repair."

Hit by Falling Tree.

Leesburg, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—T. Janney Connor, 56, laborer, of Hamilton, Va., was brought to the Loudoun County Hospital this afternoon unconscious, suffering from a fractured skull caused by a tree falling on him.

Connor was employed on a nearby farm. His condition is serious.

To Face Court



Associated Press Photo.

JOHN G. SAUNDERS, Richmond (Va.) city sergeant, who must appear before a court there to answer the recommendation of a grand jury investigation that he be removed from office.

Richmond City Sergeant's Trial in Jail Break Set Next Month.

Richmond, Oct. 29 (AP).—John G. Saunders, Richmond city sergeant, charged with gross negligence in guarding prisoners at the city jail, will be tried at the November term of Hustings Court, Commonwealth's Attorney T. Gray Haddon said today.

Removal of the 66-year-old city sergeant from office was recommended Saturday by a special grand jury which investigated circumstances surrounding the escape of Walter Legenza and Robert Mais, convicted gangsters, who shot their way out of the city jail September 29, and still are at large.

The rule ordering Saunders to show cause why he should not be ousted probably will be prepared next week, Mr. Haddon said. The November term opens next Monday.

The special grand jury, composed of seven Richmond business men, recommended that the chief deputy sergeant be dismissed for neglecting to enforce "reasonable rules and requirements" in guarding dangerous criminals committed to the jail. The removal of Deputy T. F. O'Connor was asked because it was said he failed to inspect carefully the contents of all packages brought to the prisoners.

Mrs. Elizabeth Mais, 57-year-old mother of Robert Mais, also is expected to go on trial charged with being an accomplice in the jail break.

She is accused of having taken to the jail a can labeled "baked chicken," in which the two pistols used by Mais and his pal Legenza were said to have been concealed.

VERA Aids Get 17.9 Pct.

Virginia Group Trying to Reduce Cost of Relief Administration.

Richmond, Oct. 29 (AP).—Administration cost 17.9 per cent of the total outlay for relief in Virginia during September, Administrator William A. Smith, of the Virginia Emergency Relief Administration, said in his monthly report.

Smith added that his organization is doing everything in its power to bring administrative costs lower.

County relief, his report showed, cost more than did aid given in cities. For the urban areas the administration charge was 12.6 per cent, he reported, while in the counties the figure rose to 22.6 per cent.

Average cost per case showed approximately the same spread. In the cities an individual case cost $2.23 to administer. In the country the charge was $3.62. The State average was $2.99 per case.

The costs were figured on the 36,418 active cases during September only. The average relief given was $11.30 per case in the cities and $8.05 per case in the counties—a State average of $9.50. Richmond, with an average administration cost of 9.9 per cent, was the most economically administered of any relief area in the State. Louisa County, where administration costs were 47.9 per cent of the $1,678 expended, was the most costly of any area.

Charity Benefits By Elks' Minstrel

Cumberland Show Will Be Repeated Tonight.

Cumberland, Md., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—The Elks' 1934 charity minstrel show to raise funds to provide at least 500 Christmas baskets for the needy, was held at the Strand Theater tonight, and will be repeated tomorrow night.

Rehearsals for the minstrel were under the direction of Nat Dantzic. Arthur B. Gibson was interlocutor.

Others in the big cast were:

W. T. Damm, Lawrence Trozzo, Paul Boyland, Charles R. Keyser, Harry Haller, G. C. Beckwith, Lyle Stewart, H. C. Wickard, Robart Boliak, I. R. Bane, Charles P. Buiac, Robert Thwaites, C. P. Kversole, C. E. Fleckenstein, John J. Drumm, John G. Snyder, William J. Pitzer, Harry C. Landis, Franklin S. Cook, D. Glynn Davis, Lester Warnick, John McCullough, Homer Wise, George Schaeffer, Thomas Cox, Owen J. Brady, C. F. Fletcher, C. Philip Joley, J. E. Yarnell, Francis Hodel, Harry Jamison, Truman Kemp, James Fatkin and Martin C. Johnson.

Before the performance a uniformed street parade was held, being led by the Allegany High School Band and headed by C. P. Fletcher, chairman of the show.

Woman Dies, Several Hurt In Car Crash

Mrs. Walter Dodds Is Victim; Husband Badly Injured.

E. O. Kremer Succumbs After Accident in Virginia.

Clarksburg, W. Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Mrs. Walter Dodds, 45, of Elkins, was instantly killed last evening when her husband's car was in collision with another car driven by Dr. W. T. Cameron, of Mace, at Valley Head.

Dodds suffered a fractured skull and a compound fracture of the left leg. He may die.

Others less seriously injured were Mrs. Ella Hamrick, of Mace; Mrs. Ruby Lee Boughton and Miss Vernell Fansler, both of Spruce, all occupants of Dobbs' car. Dr. Cameron and wife escaped injury.

Dies After Accident.

Winchester, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Edward O. Kremer, 32, died this morning in a local hospital from injuries at first believed to be minor, received in an automobile accident yesterday on the Lee-Jackson Highway in Middletown, Va. Andrew Danko, 29, driver of the automobile, has been summoned to appear at 10 o'clock next Monday for a hearing in connection with the case.

Danko is said to have swerved the automobile to avoid hitting another car, and in doing so the machine went out of control and turned over several times. Kremer, thrown free, landed on the highway. Danko, trapped, was unconscious when taken from the wreckage. He was admitted to the hospital, where his condition is said to be satisfactory.

A member of many Masonic fraternities, Mr. Kremer also was an ardent sportsman and was a former Shenandoah Valley Academy and Handly High School football star. He was identified in the mercantile business with his father.

He is survived by his wife, the former Miss Fannie Smith, of Richmond; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Kremer; one sister, Miss Dorothy Kremer, and one brother, J. Thomas Kremer.

The funeral service will be Wednesday at 3 o'clock.

Six Hurt in Collision.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Four Jefferson County youths and two men were injured, three of the youths seriously, in a head-on collision of two automobiles last night on a by-road near Millville, that county. Three of the youths were in hospitals today.

The injured boys are Walter Manuel, jr., broken leg; J. Willard Moler, driver of the car, lacerations; Clarence Mills, broken collar bone and jaw and scalp wounds, and Densen Welsh, broken arms. The names of two men slightly injured were not known.

The father of one of the youths told State police as they started an inquiry that the car which hit the youth's car was operated by Oscar Stutzenberger, of Washington, and a hunt was started for him. The two men with him in the car were said to have been picked up by him as they were en route to church. Stutzenberger is said to have escaped unhurt.

Suffers Injured Hand.

Annapolis, Oct. 29 (AP).—Roy P. Morgan, of Annapolis, was painfully injured today while working in the laundry at the Naval Academy.

Morgan was placing a canvas apron in a flat work ironer when his right hand was pulled into the rollers. The machine was stopped and Morgan was taken to the Naval Hospital, where he was treated for a bruised and burned hand.

Dixie Driver Killed.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Ernest David Shanton, 24, colored, was instantly killed last night when the taxi he was operating ran off the road east of here and turned over. His neck was broken. A coroner held an inquest unnecessary. Two colored women with him were not seriously hurt.

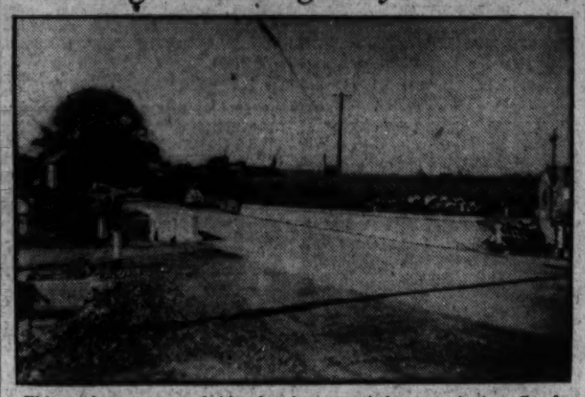
Body Identified.

Baltimore, Oct. 28 (AP).—The body of a man instantly killed when he was struck by an automobile on the Hammond Ferry road near here Saturday night has been identified as that of William Wesley Moyd, 48, of Fernandino, Fla.

The identification was made by his wife, Mrs. Lillie Moyd.

Police said Moyd was struck by an automobile driven by Israel Steinberg, 27.

Bridge Ends Highway Hazard



This modern concrete bridge has been erected across Antiem Creek, at Bridgeport, Md., on the Smithsburg-Hagerstown highway. It was considered too narrow for traffic safety. The new structure replaces an ancient stone bridge more than 100 years old, which cost $45,000.

Along the Tri-State Trail with

C. B. Carr

Post State Editor

Good news for the huntsmen: Reports from many sections of Pennsylvania indicate that game is more plentiful than in many years, due largely to the action of the State Game Department in restocking forests this year.

The sound of the huntsmen's gun will be heard Thursday when the season opens for wild turkeys, male ringed-neck pheasants, ruffed grouse, Virginia partridge, blackbirds, snowshoe hares, cottontail rabbits, squirrels, raccoons and mink.

And do those tobacco farmers in the vicinity of South Hill, Va., believe in the AAA tobacco program? They met the other day, 500 strong, and unanimously approved the tobacco reduction program of the Federal Government, indorsed President Roosevelt's farm program and emphatically condemned the sentiment in Virginia National politics which they construed as hampering, hindering and obstructing Secretary Wallace's farm program.

Students at Swarthmore College, Philadelphia, Pa., are against war and "will fight or aid in none," a poll of students there revealed.

Of the 293 students registering their opinion on war, 46 per cent took a stand for pacifism and 66 per cent denounced military training in colleges.

Elder Walter Strickler, the "marrying parson" of Luray, Va., has tied the nuptial knot for his 663rd couple.

And the elder hasn't lost track of a single couple he has united in marriage. Every couple married by him is noted in a little black book and the story goes the rounds that on many occasions in subsequent years the parson inquires of friends if those he joined in matrimony are happy.

The little town of Glascow, Va., at the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains near Roanoke, Va., feels it is again "in the money."

Announcement has been made by the Cochran Carpet Co., of Philadelphia, that it will transfer its operations to Glascow. New factory buildings are to be erected on a tract of 75 acres and then 1,500 workmen will be needed.

Dr. C. F. Palmer Is Dead at 87

Left Request to Omit Flowers and Apply Cost to Charity.

Chambersburg, Pa., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Dr. Charles F. Palmer, 87, a pioneer in abdominal surgery in the Cumberland Valley, died today at his home here, after a long illness. He retired from active practice several years ago.

Dr. Palmer left written instructions that there should be no floral tributes or honorary pallbearers at his funeral. Money that would have been spent for flowers, he requested be applied to a fund to be given to the Associated Charities in memory of him. Private funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon with burial in Cedar Grove Cemetery.

Dr. Palmer was the second oldest physician in Franklin County, the oldest being Dr. J. Burns Amberson, of Waynesboro. He was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania School in 1878 and for many years was surgeon for the old Cumberland Valley Railroad, now a part of the Pennsylvania system.

Three brothers and a sister survive.

Progress!

Monticello Carriage Road to Be Replaced.

Charlottesville, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—A new hard-surfaced driveway will soon replace the old carriage road leading to Monticello, historic home of Thomas Jefferson here.

Started several months ago with PWA funds, considerable progress has been made on the entrance from the State highway to the famous mansion, which is visited annually by thousands of sightseers from all parts of the world. The new drive will follow a circular route around the famous "little mountain," including part of the old road, which has not been materially improved during the last 100 years.

Couple Escape As Home Burns

Dog Awakens Frederick Man and Wife; House Is Destroyed.

Frederick, Md., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Fire starting from chimney sparks fanned by a high wind destroyed the country home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Crawford, near Charlesville, early yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford escaped in their night clothing.

Mr. Crawford was awakened by a barking dog and found his room partly filled with smoke. He aroused Mrs. Crawford and discovered the upper part of the house in flames.

They carried a small bundle of clothing outdoors and when Mr. Crawford attempted to re-enter he was driven back by a wall of flames that licked his head and face. In short time the 11-room frame building and most of its contents was in ashes.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford came to Frederick County from Corpus Christi, Tex., about one year ago and purchased the property. Their daughter, a high school girl, was spending the night in Frederick.

Teacher Awaiting Forgery Hearing

Presented by Grand Jury on Six Charges.

Baltimore, Oct. 29 (AP).—Catherine Bouserman, 23-year-old Virginia school teacher, who was arrested here last week on bad-check charges, today was presented by the grand jury on six charges of forgery and false pretense involving bad checks.

Prosecuting authorities immediately began preparation of indictments in the six cases which will be placed before the grand jury later this week. Bail for the young woman was set at $500 for each case.

Since she has been in jail here, it was disclosed several days ago, the young woman has been ill, apparently because of her refusal to eat. Jail authorities, however, did not characterize her refusal of food as a hunger strike.

Neil C. Farley Chosen As County Candidate

Oakland, Md., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—The vacancy on the Republican ticket in Garrett County for State's attorney has been filled with the name of Neil C. Fraley, Oakland. The choice was made by the Republican State Central Committee for the county of which Mr. Fraley is chairman.

There was no contest in the primary in September for this office, and Frederick A. Thayer, who was named for the place on the ticket by the committee, declined.

News Briefs of Maryland

(Associated Press.)

Annapolis—St. John's College students of government will gain some practical knowledge of the functions of party organizations by working at the polls on election day. Dr. Julian S. Duncan, professor of government and economics, has given his students a choice of the parties at whose ballot boxes they must officiate for half a day in various capacities.

Baltimore—Harry Greenstein, State Relief Administrator, announced yesterday that the slaughter of the 13,000 head of drought cattle now in Maryland will begin November 1. The cattle will be butchered at the rate of 500 per day and the meat canned for distribution to relief agencies throughout the country.

Frederick—Cold winds have led to the removal of the CCC camp at South Mountain near here and its reestablishment at Fort Frederick. The 48 men at the camp are working on the reconstruction of the Washington Monument at Boonsboro.

Cumberland—City expenditures here during the first six months of the fiscal year exceeded appropriations by $2,116.34, a report of City Auditor Frank A. Wolfhope has disclosed. Expenditures so far account for 50.66 per cent of the total city budget, Wolfhope said.

Hopkins Asks Relief Parley With Peery

Federal Administrator Still Not Satisfied With Program.

Meeting in Capital to Settle Highway Aid Issue.

Richmond, Oct. 29 (AP).—Gov. Peery said today that Federal Relief Administrator Hopkins had invited him to talk over the relief fund situation as it affects this Commonwealth the next time the Virginia Executive visits Washington.

No definite data for this conference has been decided upon, the Governor added.

Some time ago Mr. Hopkins was quoted as asserting that several States, including Virginia, would lose their Federal relief appropriations unless they did more themselves to help meet their needs.

Virginia officials then pointed out that they had been following a policy inaugurated during the term of Gov. Pollard by considering the highway department as a relief ageney and planning its work to meet relief needs to as great an extent as possible. They said this policy had been approved by Federal officials and that it would be inconsistent for them, after approving this program, to withdraw Federal aid from Virginia because direct relief appropriations were not made.

Still Not Satisfied.

An exchange of correspondence between Gov. Peery and Administrator Hopkins followed and although the Virginia Executive did not give out the contents of Mr. Hopkins' letter today he indicated that the Federal official still was not satisfied with Virginia's relief program as now being carried on, but was willing to talk the matter over with the Governor.

Discussing the Virginia relief question today, Gov. Peery said that the highway commissioner estimated the State's policy of using his department as a relief distributing agency had resulted in an expenditure of approximately $3,000,000, which should be charged to relief.

Cities as well as rural districts benefited from this program to the extent that it was possible to do highway work on city streets included in the State highway system or on roads adjacent to cities, the Governor said, but he did not claim that the State's contribution to urban relief through this means was large or in itself adequate.

Pressure From Cities.

He said city needs had been taken care of by the Federal funds now in dispute and that while he believed "the situation had been carried satisfactorily so far," in this way, the "pressure" for relief funds now comes from the cities.

Rural conditions are considerably improved, the executive believes, as result of higher prices for tobacco, better conditions in the coal mining district of southwest Virginia and general improvement of agricultural conditions.

He was reticent as to what would happen in the future but admitted that much might depend upon the outcome of his conference with Administrator Hopkins.

What if Mr. Hopkins insists that the State change its present policy of giving relief only through the highway department? he was asked. Will that mean a special session of the General Assembly?

Gov. Peery smiled and turned away to place his signature on the commission of A. B. Gathright, appointed today as State treasurer.

"There is no provision for direct relief made in the present budget," he said.

FERA Relief Roll Grows.

Warrenton, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—The FERA office, for Fauquier County, in Warrenton, through Mrs. J. Ford Thompson, reports an increase of at least 50 on their relief roll, due to the approach of cold weather, and following the long drought of the summer, which played havoc with crops.

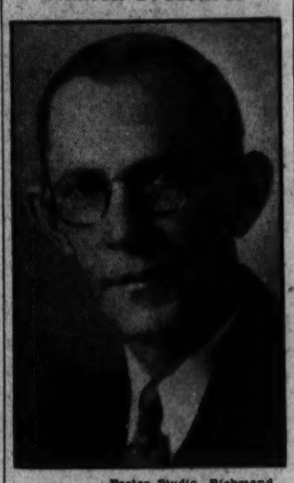
!

Good morning! Fifteen years ago a vast sigh of relief arose in the Western Hemisphere. Van Heusen had perfected a soft collar that was as neat as a stiff collar. Now Van Heusen has adapted the idea to shirts which display the celebrated Van Heusen collar.

Meyers.
MENS SHOP
1331 F STREET

NRA

Named Treasurer



Foster Studio, Richmond.

A. B. GATHRIGHT, named by Gov. Peery of Virginia as State treasurer to succeed the late John M. Purcell. Mr. Gathright was selected from nearly a dozen persons recommended for the position.

Promotion Is Announced as Reward for 'Long, Valuable Service.'

Richmond, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Arthur B. Gathright, assistant State comptroller, today was appointed State treasurer by Gov. George C. Peery.

"I am appointing A. B. Gathright treasurer of Virginia to succeed the late John M. Purcell," the Governor said. "This appointment is made in recognition of long and valuable service as a State official."

Mr. Gathright has been in the public service since October, 1915, and between December, 1933, and June, 1934, served as comptroller while E. R. Combs was in temporary service as Virginia manager for the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

He was born in Richmond, educated in the public schools here and for 33 years has been a resident of Henrico County.

The successor of Mr. Gathright as assistant comptroller will be Sidney C. Day, jr., who is chief of the disbursing section of the comptroller's office. Mr. Day, a natice of Norfolk, has been in the State service for 18 years.

Mr. Combs announced this appointment shortly after the Governor named Mr. Gathright. Mr. Combs also announced that George W. Settle, formerly of Rappahannock County, will be promoted to Mr. Day's position.

"The State's gain is my loss," Mr. Combs said, in commenting upon the promotion of Mr. Gathright.

Mr. Gathright will take his new office as soon as the preliminaries are completed.

A State treasurer is bonded in the sum of $250,000, and an additional bond of about $40,000 is required of the office as custodian of Federal relief funds.

T. B. Cash to Head County Democrats

Officers of Group Named in Maryland.

Westminster, Md., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Headed by Truman H. Cash, of Westminster, as president, organization of a Young People's Democratic League has been effected for Carroll County.

Other officers named were: Mrs. Lee Hoke, New Windsor, vice president; Miss Julia Murray, Hampstead, second vice president; Ralph Hoffman, Westminster, secretary; James Burke, Taneytown, treasurer.

Charles E. Moylan, judge of the appeal tax court of Baltimore, was principal speaker at the organization meeting. Addresses were also made by Larry Fenneman, Baltimore, president of the Maryland branch of the Democratic League; C. Robert Brilhart, Manchester, chairman of the Carroll County State central committee, and James M. Shriver, chairman of the county central committee.

U. S. Starts Liquor Quiz In Virginia

Alleged Conspiracy in Franklin County Investigated.

Several Officials May Be Involved in Charges.

Harrisonburg, Va., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Believed to be the most far-reaching investigation of its kind ever held in Virginia, and perhaps in the East, a United States court grand jury here today began investigation of alleged conspiracy to violate National revenue laws in illegal whisky operations in Franklin County, Va., described in the celebrated Wickersham report as the "wettest" spot in the Nation under the prohibition regime.

Federal officers who have been working on the case for months refused to divulge the persons involved and how the evidence was obtained. Reports are current that several public officials are involved, and that the investigation will include illicit whisky operations in the territory surrounding Franklin County.

A half dozen witnesses, all of them residents of Franklin County, appeared before the grand jury today. Rumors are that several hundred witnesses have been summoned and that the grand jury may be in session for two weeks.

Judge John Paul informed the jurors that their deliberations must be conducted in the utmost secrecy. At the reconvening of the afternoon session, Judge Paul again warned the jurors not to discuss the case with anyone and to report to the court any attempts to talk over the case with them. This second warning is said to have resulted from information that persons unknown to court officials were seen loitering about the corridors leading to the grand jury room.

Sterling Hutchsson, of Richmond, United States attorney for the Eastern District of Virginia, and Frank Tavener, Woodstock, assistant United States attorney in the Western District, are presenting the case to the grand jury. There are said to be more Federal Department of Justice agents in Harrisonburg than at any time in history. The grand jury room and the courthouse are kept under surveillance.

The Federal Justice agents are said to have received information that the persons alleged to be implicated in the conspiracy may have representatives here to learn the identity of the witnesses appearing before the grand jury.

Duncan Is Appointed For Boundary Case

Richmond, Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Attorney General A. P. Staples has designated James R. Duncan, Alexandria attorney, special counsel for the Commonwealth in the Virginia-District of Columbia boundary case now before a special joint commission, it was announced today.

Mr. Duncan, formerly with the staff of the State Department, was designated at the request of interests concerned in the boundary negotiations and will serve as special agent of the attorney general on the ground.

Accused Wife Poisoner Ends Sanitarium Stay

Fredericksburg, Va., Oc. 29 (Spl.).—E. C. Bell, alleged poisoner of his invalid wife, returned here yesterday after spending a week at Richmond Sanitarium.

No report of his condition was released. Bell pleaded not guilty to a grand jury's charge of poisoning his wife. His trial will take place December 11. The accused man is free on $10,000 bond.

BETTER HOMES PROGRAM

HOME IMPROVEMENTS
Loans from $100 to $2,000

Are available, depending on your income and record, to improve your home.

WRITE FOR INFORMATION

Better Homes Dept.,
The Washington Post,
Washington, D. C.

Kindly send latest information regarding Better Housing and Home Improvements as sponsored by the Federal Housing Administration.

Name .....

Address .....

City ..... State .....

The Palace Theater Plans Celebration of Its Sixteenth Birthday Next Week

Opened in '18 With 2 Other Leading Houses

'Movies' Were Growing Up; Fox Has Big Sensation; Amusement Chat.

By Nelson B. Bell.

Beginning Friday, Loew's Palace Theater will observe the sixteenth anniversary of its formal dedication as one of the National Capital's foremost places of amusement.

This announcement from the executive offices of Loew's, Inc., in Washington, will recall to the minds of old-timers in the local theater that three important theater openings were celebrated almost within the brief span of one month, back in the early winter of 1918. That year may be said to have marked the graduation of the cinema from its primary days to at least the beginning of its present high estate.

The Crandall interests celebrated a rapid growth and extensive neighborhood development by opening the Metropolitan Theater, one of the first of the "cathedrals of the motion picture" to lead the procession from Ninth around into F street.

Had Local Investors.

Marcus Loew came along with the Palace, in which the late Walter Brownley and other well-known Washingtonians were heavily interested.

The last of the "big three" to open in 1918 was Tom Moore's Rialto, unique in design and distinguished in its clientele, over at the corner of Ninth and G streets, approximately—a location that proved no handicap so long as the Rialto's screen reflected images that represented the cinema's highest achievement at that point in its progress.

It is interesting and just a little inexplicable, in some instances, the way popularity has settled upon all of the big first-run, downtown picture houses in turn.

Off to Flying Start.

The Rialto got off to a flying start and was the first to adopt the fixed policy of full-week runs for its pictures, instead of the split-week customary a decade and a half ago.

Then the Metropolitan swept into an indisputable leadership and with the perfection of the "presentation" form of entertainment, principal favor swung to the Palace.

The Earle and Fox, of course, have come along later and RKO-Keith's still wears something of the halo that fell across its brow when it was the last of the "big-time" vaudeville houses in the country.

It is all a little nostalgic and emphasizes a trifle too vigorously that time flies—something that was hinted at in this space no longer ago than yesterday!

While we are vaguely on the topic of the Palace's approaching maturity, something should be said concerning its rotund and respected manager, Signor Orangelo Ratto, one of the best-known and best-liked of the Capital's theatrical men. Instead of a paltry 16 years, like the house over which he presides, "Angie" is celebrating his twentieth anniversary with the Loew organization simultaneously with the birthday of the real estate. It is a personal hope that Angie may stand up longer than his theater!

A Drama That Wrote Itself.

There has probably never been a day in the history of the theater when it has not striven to produce "the drama of the century."

Expensive scenarists, noted directors, costly supervisors and great stars are constantly being sought in the hope of accomplishing this titanic feat.

Yet, without a scenarist, supervisor, director or even a screen story, Fox Film has built the most dramatic picture ever made, according to critics, and it will be released generally on or about Armistice Day under the title "The First World War."

The picture is a stirring drama of fact—historical fact. Its locale is all the principal countries of the world. Starred in its cast of 22,000,000 are some 680 presidents, kings, emperors, czars and kaisers. It was directed by the unseen hand, which knowing naught of screen technique or story value, has managed to grind out the greatest and most dramatic spectacle the world has ever known.

Skillful Selections.

Fox Film's contribution to the tragedy was merely to select Truman H. Talley, who supervised the production as it will appear at accepted feature length, and Laurence Stallings, who edited the "work of the gods," and supplied the commentary to point the action more clearly.

The soaring and insatiable ambition of the world formed the background of the story. Its opening sequence is an actual motion picture of Germany's "Iron Leader," Bismarck, whose precepts and principles led his and other people to a thirst for world power.

From there, the drama begins to accelerate. The tension between the nations tightens and finally cracks when the Archduke Ferdinand is assassinated.

"Then Came the War."

Then there follows the enthusiastic parade of nations entering the conflict. Austria, Serbia, Germany, Belgium, France, England, Russia, Italy, Montenegro, Rumania, Turkey and finally America.

The world is aflame and suddenly the Armistice.

No author could have written such a story. No director could have staged it. Fox feels fortunate that after 15 years they were able to unearth the true and heretofore unseen story of the war as it was conceived, as it developed and as it, if only temporarily, had died.

The home of the world-famous Barnum & Bailey Circus, Bridgeport, Conn., will be honored with the world-premiere showing of "The Mighty Barnum," the Twentieth Century production, releasing through United Artists. Wallace Beery, as everybody must know by now, plays the title role, with Adolphe Menjou, Janet Beecher, Virginia Bruce and Rochelle Hudson leading the support.

Goldwyn Signs Two.

With Ralph Bellamy and Helen Vinson signed by Samuel Goldwyn—the man who declares Fred Astaire to be the fastest-coming male star on the screen—for important roles in support of Anna Sten and Gary Cooper in "The Wedding Night," work on that production will soon be begun.

Under the skillful direction of King Vidor, it goes before the cameras as soon as Miss Sten returns to the West Coast from a trip to New York to attend the premiere of "We Live Again," in which she shares honors with Frederic March.

Those who thought Miss Sten's career had ended with her slightly dismal first picture, may guess again.

On to Victory Note.

Under the name of Charles Wendling, Claudette Colbert's brother has been discovered working as an assistant director on the Paramount lot.

Sort of Wendling his way to fame, as you might say!

Gas Customers Increase.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—Manufactured and natural gas companies gained 277,000 customers during the first eight months of this year, according to the American Gas Association. During this period manufactured gas industry revenues were $255,499,100, an increase of 1.1 per cent over the same period last year.

From Broadway to Hollywood

Queenie Smith, last seen in Washington in one of Wee and Leventhal's trifles in the Belasco Theater, has departed the legitimate theater and Broadway for the Paramount studios in Hollywood, where she will make her screen debut in "Mississippi," a new picture featuring Lanny Ross. In private life Miss Smith is Mrs. Robert Garland, wife of the well known New York critic.

Film Table

Screen and stage bills will be presented on the following schedules at the theaters named:

Loew's Fox—"The Last Gentleman," at 11 a. m., 1:35, 4:15, 7:10 and 10 p. m. Stage shows at 12:20, 3, 6 and 8:45 p. m.

Earle—"Scarlet Empress," at 11 a. m., 1:35, 4:25, 7:15 and 9:55 p. m. Stage shows at 12:50, 3:40, 6:25 and 9:10 p. m.

Columbia—"Pursued," at 11:30 a. m., 1:10, 3, 4:40, 6:30, 8:10 and 9:50 p. m.

Metropolitan—"One Night of Love," at 10:30 a. m., 12:20, 2:10, 4:05, 5:55, 7:50 and 9:40 p. m.

RKO-Keith's—"Gay Divorcee," at 11:32 a. m., 1:32, 3:32, 5:32, 7:32 and 9:32 p. m.

Palace—"Judge Priest," at 11 a. m., 1:10, 3:20, 5:30, 7:40 and 9:50 p. m.

Tivoli—"Barretts of Wimpole Street," at 2, 3:55, 5:50, 7:45 and 9:40 p. m.

Ambassador—"Scarlet Empress," at 5:45, 7:40 and 9:35 p. m.

Tau Beta Pi Elects 8 From Maryland U.

Election of eight Maryland University students to Tau Beta Pi, National honorary engineering fraternity, was announced yesterday. Five were seniors and three were juniors.

Those elected were Karl Baldwin, jr., Julius Goldman, John Kemper and Charles Ludwig, of Washington, and John Gangler, of Baltimore, all seniors, and Jack Phillips, Washington; Andrew Beveridge, Berwyn, Md., and John Maynard, Baltimore, juniors.

Apartments are rented quickly with Post Classified Ads. Just phone National 4200 and tell Post readers about your offer.

Straight From the Studios

Fred Astaire Signs Long-Term Picture Contract; Elissa Landi Profits by Recent Assignments; News Notes and Chatter of Filmdom.

By Edwin Schallert.

Hollywood, Oct. 29.—The future of Fred Astaire, who has just danced himself to the top rung in "The Gay Divorcee," is settled. He has signed a seven-year contract with RKO, reportedly at a flat salary per picture and a percentage of profits. That's the start, anyway, but such things usually show a rising tendency as time goes on.

NILS ASTHER

In a local radio interview last night, Samuel Goldwyin, discoverer of many screen personalities and who has no interest whatever in Astaire professionally, predicted that Astaire would be the next rising star on the screen.

The new Astaire picture will be "Roberta," for which Jerome Kern is to write an entirely new set of musical numbers, excepting "Smoke Gets In Your Eyes." Work will start early next month, with Irene Dunne and Ginger Rogers in other leading roles. Ginger is returning tomorrow from her New York vacation.

Melody Note and Songstresses.

Peggy Wood may have a chance to sing on the screen, which ought to be granted her more regularly since she was successful on the stage in the musical domain. She has finished her role in "The Right to Live," with Josephine Hutchinson and George Brent, and now reportedly may play in "Sing Me a Love Song."

Another melody luminary is scheduled for appropriate casting—June Knight, who has not only signed a long M.-G.-M. contract, but also will appear in "Broadway Melody of 1935." She recently secured her release from Universal, where she last made "Wake Up and Dream."

Mary Ellis, the opera singer, is expected here within a few days to make her initial film appearance—in a musical, of course.

Role for Landi.

Elissa Landi seems to be the likely choice for feminine lead in "All the King's Horses," which indicates that plans are elaborate for this production. Miss Landi is very highly rated for her recent performance in "Enter Madame," which also aligns her with musical pictures, although the actual singing was done by Mme. Nina Koshetz. Carl Brisson is to be starred in the picture, his second since coming to Hollywood.

Tobin Irked By Type.

Genevieve Tobin still can't avoid playing those semivillainess roles, though she has a great desire to be free of them. She has been elected to portray one of the snubbing society women of Long Island in "North Shore," in which Barbara Stanwyck is the heroine.

Incidentally, Miss Tobin is much excited at the moment over securing a home in Santa Barbara, as she has always wanted to spend most of her time there.

Asther Headed Back.

Nils Asther is soon to be back in Hollywood, his arrival from England being scheduled for November 10. He has two pictures to make for Universal and was slated for "Strange Wives," but didn't return in time. He appeared in "Abdul Hamed" while abroad.

Meanwhile, Francis L. Sullivan, the English actor, under contract to Universal, is setting out for London late this week. He has played in "Cheating Cheaters," "Great Expectations" and is in "Strange Wives" now. His contract calls for a holiday in England every once in a while.

Texas 'Hot' Oil Flow Dammed, Fahy Reports

Railroad Body Cooperates With Federal Men to Check Shipments.

Complete stoppage of the movement of "hot" oil from the east Texas field, a development that may have its effect on the gasoline price wars that have raged along the Atlantic seaboard, was announced yesterday by Charles Fahy, vice chairman of the petroleum administrative board.

Production of 125,000 barrels of "hot" or bootleg oil daily has been blamed by the major gasoline companies for the price wars that now have the gasoline prices here down to 11 and 12 cents a gallon.

Mr. Fahy yesterday said that the Federal tender board, set up to issue permits for shipment of legally produced crude oil or products from legally produced crude, has been sitting daily at Kilgore, Tex., and had been given full cooperation of the Texas railroad commission. Railroads serving the refineries have refused to accept shipment of any crude oil or products not accompanied by tenders approved by the Federal board.

Forty refineries in east Texas were said to have stopped operations until they can present applications for tenders. Practically all of the "distress" gasoline which has come from that field, Mr. Fahy said, was transported by rail, and the interstate competition of gasoline made from illegally produced crude has been "effectively eliminated."

No news was received here from New York, where representatives of major and independent gasoline distributors are engaged in negotiations that may stabilize gasoline prices in Washington and the 18 seaboard States in which a price war has gone on for several weeks.

Local dealers held prices at the level of 12 cents a gallon for gasoline of the major brands and 11 cents for unbranded types while the negotiators sought to determine whether the price differential should be a half cent, as the majors desire, or 1½ cents, the figure preferred by the independents.

Remains of a Zoo Million Years Old Is Found in Idaho

What is left of a "zoo" that existed 1,000,000 years ago in Idaho has been found by Smithsonian Institution scientists.

Dr. C. L. Gazin reported he had found fossil remains of 65 wild horses—ancestors of the present-day animals. Two types of rabbit bones, one of which hitherto has appeared only in Asia, also were found.

Bones of beavers, birds, cats and fish also were discovered.

$75,015,000 in Bills Sold by Treasury

The Treasury yesterday reported the last sale of 182-day discount bills was made at an average interest rate of .19 per cent. Of $198,826,000 subscriptions, $75,015,000 were accepted.

The bills are dated October 31.

Town Has One Man Idle.

Pittsfield, Mass., Oct. 29 (AP).—The town of Mount Washington, which has enjoyed the record of being the only town in the State not to have a CWA or ERA project, which has no relief roll and until recently no one unemployed, at last has been touched by adversity. One man in the town is out of work.

Cuban Cabinet Revamped.

Havana, Oct. 29 (AP).—President Carlos Mendieta reorganized his cabinet today, making it Nationalist, with the exception of Manuel Despaigne, new secretary of the treasury, who is nonpartisan.

AMUSEMENTS

15c NIGHT PARKING 15c
6-12 P. M.
Lot illuminated.
13½, 14th and D Sts. N.W.
Rear District Bldg.

NATIONAL TONITE AT 8:20
Nights, $1.10 to $3.30. Mats. Wed. & Sat., 55c to $2.20.
Seats available at Box Office for all performances
MAX GORDON presents
"ROBERTA"
The Only Musical Comedy in the United States
by JEROME KERN and OTTO HARBACH
NEW YORK CAST DIRECT FROM ONE SOLID YEAR IN THE NEW AMSTERDAM THEATRE N.Y.

Giannini Subdues Jones With Quip About 'His' Bank

Criticism of the Federal Reserve system failure to provide more loans to industry was expressed here yesterday by A. P. Giannini, chairman of the board of the Bank of America, San Francisco, Calif. Of 500 applications for loans in his district, he declared, only one has been approved.

This statement provoked Jesse H. Jones, chairman of the R. F. C., to chide, Mr. Giannini — when he dropped in during Jones' press conference—for not taking over some of the loans himself. Protesting, the Californian shot back:

"Now, listen, Jesse, you don't lend on anything like that through your bank"—the National Bank of Commerce, at Houston, Tex.

That ended the argument.

Gen. Donaldson's Burial Set Today

Veteran of Indian Wars Dies in New York.

Funeral services for Maj. Gen. Thomas Quinton Donaldson, U. S. A., retired, will be held at 2 p. m. today in Fort Myer Chapel, with interment in Arlington National Cemetery. Burial will be with full military honors.

Maj. Gen. Donaldson died at East Northport, Long Island, last Friday. He was 70. A veteran of the Indian campaigns of 1890, Gen. Donaldson also served in Cuba, in the Philippines and during the World War.

In France he acted as inspector general of the services of supply. On his return to this country he served in the office of the inspector general and on the War Department general staff.

He held the Distinguished Service Medal and the French Legion of Honor. He is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. C. B. Rucker, and two sons, Capt. T. Q. Donaldson and A. H. Donaldson.

PostofficeDamaged In Annapolis Fire

Short Circuit Fires Jugs of Paint.

Flames that leaped 15 feet high in the Annapolis Postoffice last night, attracting a crowd of more than 300, were extinguished quickly with slight damage.

The blaze began when a short-circuit in the postoffice wiring came in contact with jugs of paint and varnish remover.

Capt. R. L. Fisher, chief of the Annapolis Fire Department, ordered all equipment to the scene, and the fire was brought under control immediately.

Action Planned to Block Eviction of Landowners

Luray, Va., Oct. 29 (AP).—Action through the Federal court in session at Harrisonburg to prevent eviction of landowners in the Shenandoah National Park who were ordered to vacate by November 1 is planned, it was learned here today from William Hughes, Washington attorney.

Mr. Hughes said the court would be asked to prevent eviction of former landowners who have refused to sign agreements for remaining in the park and have not applied for subsistence homestead privileges. The number of landowners affected is said to be aproximately 100.

Three Years for Motorist.

Baltimore, Oct. 29 (AP).—Richard C. Munson, St. Mary's Industrial School employe, found guilty of manslaughter two weeks ago in the death of a man struck by his automobile, today was sentenced to serve three years in jail by Judge Robert F. Stanton in Baltimore Criminal Court.

AMUSEMENTS.

Gayety Burlesk
Don't Miss
"PEANUTS"
This Week.
Coming—NADJA

NATIONAL The Children's Theater presents
Sat., Nov. 3, 10:30 A. M.
Seats now 55c, $1.10, $1.65, $2.20.
"Pocahontas" with a cast of real Indians.

NATIONAL SYMPHONY
Hans Kindler, Conductor and Lucrezia BORI
Soprano Metropolitan Opera
Nov. 1, 8:30 p. m. Constitution Hall
Single tickets, 50c to $2.50
Season tickets, $5 to $18
Box Office—Garfinckel's NA. 7730
C. C. Cappel, Manager.

Walters Gallery in Baltimore Reveals New Art Treasures

Preview Is Given Critics; Exhibits Are Compared With Metropolitan's.

By Vylla Poe Wilson.

Outstanding examples of creative art produced through the centuries in all parts of the world, never displayed in America before, were shown yesterday at the Walters Art Gallery in Baltimore to a small group of art critics and connoisseurs in a preview before the formal public opening of the remodeled and rearranged collections of that institution on Saturday.

A corps of experts have examined the 243 cases belonging to the gallery and unopened at the time of Henry Walters' death on November 30, 1931, and arranged in chronological order more than 1,200 art objects and paintings together with the most selective of the old collection.

These treasures have been placed in sequence as to art eras and trends. Mr. Walters left his entire art collection, with the Walters Gallery building and the Walters home, adjacent to it, to the mayor and City of Baltimore, a fact which is making that city one of the art centers of the world.

Father Started Collection.

Not only is the reopening of the Walters Art Gallery with its additions of priceless objects the most notable art event of the year in America, but art circles also regard it as a proper memorial to the great labors in the world of art collecting of Henry Walters and his father, William Thompson Walters, of Baltimore, who brought back the nucleus of what is now the Walters Art Gallery from expositions held in London in 1862, Vienna in 1873 and the Paris expositions of 1867 and 1878.

The reopening of the gallery will prove, according to authorities present yesterday, of inestimable value for the study of art, its history and the category of subjects related to art. Rated second in richness only to the Metropolitan Museum in New York, in some respects it is held that the Walters collections excel even those of the Metropolitan, particularly in the line of exhibits relating to the Byzantine period, said to surpass any of this type of art in the world.

The City of Baltimore placed the work of arranging the exhibits, a triumph of artistic discrimination and evaluation, in the hands of an advisory committee which has been working on the task since the middle of last June under the board of trustees of the gallery. Each member of the committee was a well-known authority in his field. The committee included Francis W. Taylor, director of the Worcester Art Museum; Miss Belle Green, of the Pierpont Morgan Library; Prof. Tenney Frank, of Johns Hopkins University, and Henri C. Marceau, of the Philadelphia Academy.

Priceless Stained Glass.

An important innovation connected with the rearrangement and installation of new objects at the gallery is to be found in the placing of two huge windows from Sens, a French cathedral, priceless examples of the art of stained glass creation in the twelfth century, at the end of the first tier of the grand stairway leading up from the main court. After the windows had been cleaned and repaired it took three months to install them. These windows give a mystic glow to the entire main floor as the light streams through the ruby and blue glass melting into a violetlike haze.

The exhibits have been arranged so that a visitor may enter a court once choked with exhibits, but now cleared, into a spacious open area flanked by sculpture of ancient Greece and Rome. It is then possible to traverse each salon and view exhibits in sequence from ancient Egypt, Hellenistic and Roman art, rare Persian items, Gothic, early and high Renaissance down through the ages to a modern group. It is a noteworthy fact that the modern note ends with the nineteenth century in which Monet, Manet and Degas figure prominently.

The Chinese collection is of particular interest, although it has been necessary to store many specimens and cut the exhibition down to 100 rare pieces. The authorities of the gallery have made it possible for some of the objects in the storerooms to be viewed by those especially interested in this school of art.

Under the direction of C. Morgan Marshall, the acting director, the walls of the salons once covered with brocaded velvet have undergone a transformation which will interest interior decorating circles.

The rich red velvet has been covered with cafe au lait or lighter colored paint. This treatment has given the walls a soft sanded surface which acts as excellent background.

Roosevelt Buying Votes, Says Page

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 29 (AP).—Republican candidates and leaders of the party in the Second District today charged that the Roosevelt Administration "is buying the Congressional election with taxpayers' money."

The charge was made by L. C. Page, candidate for the United States Senate, in a message read before a Republican luncheon, by Gerould M. Rumble, candidate for the House of Representatives from the Second District; by Lester S. Parsons, chairman of the Second District Republican committee, and former Representative Menalcus Lankford, who read Mr. Page's message.

Mr. Lankford, before reading the Senatorial candidate's message, said that Government checks to farmers in the West are being distributed at the rate of $1,000,000 a day and that these funds should have been sent out weeks ago.

Pugh Charges Fusionists Aim To Pare Police

Democratic State's Attorney Candidate Says Now Is Time for Protection.

James H. Pugh, Democratic candidate for State's attorney for Montgomery County, last night charged the county Fusionist party proposed to reduce the county police force "at a time that would jeopardize lives and property."

Citing the recent murder of Allen B. Wilson at Takoma Park, he declared this an hour "when a desperate campaign against a threatened influx of alien criminals" is needed.

The statements were made at a Democratic rally at Potomac, Md.

"Fusion candidates," he said, "have spread the word that they believe our police force and system should be changed and that there should be retrenchment.

"To make such a move would jeopardize the lives and property of residents of Montgomery County. We are threatened with an invasion of alien criminals at this time when Washington is determined to drive the hoodlums out of the Nation's Capital."

Pugh declared that gambling and other forms of vice were not flourishing in the county because the police had made a diligent drive to keep the area free from racketeering.

Mr. Pugh also pointed out that "in the prohibition era it was the work of the Montgomery County police that persuaded the criminal element of Washington and Baltimore that its roads could not be made the boulevards of those running rum."

Automobiles are bought and sold every day through Post Classified Ads.

AMUSEMENTS

The National Fascist Militia Band
(La Banda di Chieti)
"Mussolini's Favorite Musicians"
75—Ambassadors of Good Will—75
— From Rome —
"Uniting the Musical Hearts of Italy and America"
Washington Auditorium
Oct. 31-Nov. 1, 8 P. M.
Tickets 55c, 85c, $1.10. T. Arthur Smith Bureau, 1330 G St. in Homer L. Kitt Co., NA. 3700.

AMUSEMENTS.

NOW KEITH'S 15TH ST. & Washington Institution
2ND WEEK! Flying feet on a rainbow of rhythm!
FRED ASTAIRE
GINGER ROGERS
and half the Beauties of Hollywood
"The Gay Divorcee"
Midnight Show HALLOWEEN continuous schedule Final Feature 11:30
RKO

Gala Hallowe'en show Loew's Fox and Palace Wednesday evening starting 11:30 p. m.

Loew's FOX MET. 5001
Now GEORGE ARLISS in "The Last Gentleman"
Stage . . . BOB MURPHY and other superb acts
Friday—JACK BENNY in "Transatlantic Merry-Go-Round"
Stage—JACK DENNY and Orchestra

Loew's PALACE
Now WILL ROGERS in Irving S. Cobb's "Judge Priest"

Loew's COLUMBIA
Now . . . "PURSUED" with ROSEMARY AMES VICTOR JORY
25c to 5:30 NIGHTS 25c 40c

The Earle Has the Big Shows
EARLE
LAST 3 DAYS
MARLENE DIETRICH in Paramount's Scarlet Empress with J. HAROLD MURRAY GOMEZ & WINONA HAPPINESS WEEK
DICK POWELL HUTCHINSON
HAPPINESS AHEAD
COMING FRIDAY
JIMMY SAVO and SIDEWALK CAFE
25c to 1 P. M.

METROPOLITAN
Shown at 10:30-12:20-2:10-4:05-5:55-7:50-9:40
GRACE MOORE in Columbia's ONE NIGHT OF LOVE
Smoking Permitted—Prices, Mat.-22c-Eve. 25c-40c

AMUSEMENTS.

LOEW'S PALACE SIXTEENTH ANNIVERSARY SHOW
THE BIGGEST MUSICAL FILM EVER MADE!
Gaiety comes your way with girls and romance and spectacle and love songs in the picture that's the happy toast of a nation!
NOW PACKING THE FAMED ASTOR, N. Y. AT $2 ADMISSION!
See it at our POPULAR PRICES!

"I'm going to Maxim's, where all the girls are dreams!"

MERRY WIDOW
A Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Picture
Starring Maurice CHEVALIER, Jeanette MacDONALD and ERNST LUBITSCH Production

LOEW'S PALACE Starts FRIDAY

NEXT SUNDAY!—NOV. 4, 4:00 P.M.—NEXT SUNDAY!
LAWRENCE TIBBETT
Baritone Idol of Opera, Concert and Radio
Constitution Hall, 18th & C Sts. N.W.
Tickets: $1.10, $1.65, $2.20, inc. tax
Mrs. Dorsey's, 1300 G (Droop's)

RACHMANINOFF
Full Recital Constitution Hall
Sun. Aft. Dec 9th
$1.10, $1.65, $2.20
Mrs. Dorsey, 1300 G

SERIES TICKETS—MRS. DORSEY'S CONCERTS—CONSTITUTION HALL

TUESDAY SERIES, 4:40. Metropolis. Opera Quartet. Kreisler. Rachmaninoff. Pons. Spalding. Gabrilowitsch. Series seats: $5.50, $7.50, $10, $12.50, $15.

1ST SUN. SERIES, 4 p.m. Tibbett. Kaufman'off. Vienna Choir Boys. Heifetz. Martinelli and Swarthout. Series tickets: $2.75, $4.15, $5.50, $7.50, $10.

2D SUN. SERIES, 4 p.m. Guerin. Cossack Chorus. John Charles Thomas. Yehudi Menuhin. Rubinstein. Series tickets: $2.75, $4.15, $5.50, $7.50, $10.

BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA
DR. SERGE KOUSSEVITZKY, Conductor—108 Musicians.
2 Mat. Concerts, 4:40 p. m.—Constitution Hall—Nov. 14, Jan. 30, Apr. 2.
Season Tickets: $5, $6, $6, $7, $8. Boxes, $50 (no tax).
Seats on Sale: Mrs. Dorsey's Bureau, Droop's, 1300 G St. NAtional 7151

Grid Fare Here to Reach New High With 3 Big Games Saturday

Gilbert Hunt Ranked No. 2 in Intercollegiate Singles; Mako No. 1

Tennis Body Announces '34 Lists

Tidball, Hess and Reese Complete First Five for Season.

Mako and Phil Castlin Given Top Position in Doubles.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP).—Gene Mako, University of Southern California star, is the ranking intercollegiate singles player for the 1934 season, Morris Duane, chairman of the intercollegiate committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, announced today.

Gilbert A. Hunt, of Washington, D. C., attending the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Jack Tidball, of the University of California at Los Angeles, were seeded No. 2 and No. 3 in singles competition. Tidball ranked No. 1 last year.

Mako, with Phil Castlin, a schoolmate at Southern California, were designated the ranking doubles team, with Tidball and Charles H. Church, another University of California at Los Angeles player, seeded second, and Martin Buxby and Bert Weltens, of the University of Texas, ranking third.

The rankings:

Singles.

1. Gene Mako, University of Southern California.
2. Gilbert A. Hunt, Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
3. Jack Tidball, U. of C. at Los Angeles.
4. Wilbur E. Hess, Rice Institute.
5. William B. Reese, Georgia Tech.

The remaining ten positions, in order, went to Martin Buxby, University of Texas; Kendall Cram, Tulane University; Gene Smith, University of California; Edward Sutter, Tulane; S. E. Davenpodt 3d, Harvard; E. Ramey Donovan, Fordham; Carl Holmes, University of California; Thomas D. Flynn, Princeton; Leonard S. Patterson, California Tech, nad George Stevens, Yale.

Doubles.

1. Gene Mako and Phil Castlin, Southern California.
2. Jack Tidball and Charles Church, University of California, at Los Angeles.
3. Martin Buxby and Bert Weltens, University of Texas.
4. Gene Smith and Carl Holmes, University of California.
5. Edward Sutter and Kendall Crame, Tulane University.

Five other doubles teams, in order of their ranking:

Leo Brady and Carl Smalley, University of Texas; R. J. Minnich and Whitman, Princeton; Edward Mansfield and George Stevens, Yale; Maxwell Davidson and Trevor Weiss, University of Chicago, and W. T. Tilden 3d and N. S. Tilney, Princeton.

Hunt's Barefoot Play Has Gained Him Fame

Gilbert A. Hunt, jr., son of Gilbert A. Hunt, sr., Washington construction engineer, is one of America's few colorful netmen. His playing of important matches in bare feet has gained for him almost as much fame as his unorthodox, though effective, midcourt tactics and amazing half-volleying talent.

In being named No. 2 in the country's intercollegiate ranking, Hunt, 18-year-old boy, former Eastern High student and tennis star, passes another milestone in a meteoric tennis career.

The past summer saw the youngster skyrocket to new heights in one after another of the country's blue-ribbon tournaments. He scored a sensational upset in the National intercollegiate tournament by defeating the defending champion, Jack Tidball, in straight sets, and was eliminated only by Gene Mako, who won the title. Hunt also stroked his way to runner-up honors in the National Junior championship, once more falling before Mako in the finals.

In the National Championships at Forest Hills, Hunt forced Wilmer Allison, the ultimate finalist who met Fred Perry, of England, for the title, to call on all his resources to pull out a victory.

Hunt did not return to M. I. T. this fall. He is studying at the Berlitz School of Languages, but expects to return to M. I. T. in February.

Michigan Coach Plots Defense for Minnesota

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 29 (AP).—The Michigan varsity jumped into a snappy drill this afternoon to get ready for Saturday's game against the Minnesota power house.

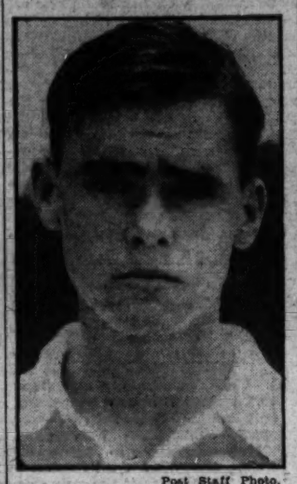
After applauding the general improvement shown by Michigan against Illinois, Coach Harry Kipke showed his regulars the Gopher formations and began plotting a defense for the highly geared Minnesota machine.

Hardest Monday Drill Engages Irish Gridmen

South Bend, Ind., Oct. 29 (AP).—Notre Dame's football warriors were driven through their hardest Monday practice of the year today as Elmer Layden began drills for Saturday's invasion of Pittsburgh.

The usual blocking and tackling session occupied most of the workout, after Layden and his assistants had reviewed at length mistakes made against Wisconsin Saturday.

Second in Rank



Post Staff Photo.

GILBERT A. HUNT.

Terry Says 12 Giants Are For Sale

New York Team Ready to Spend $125,000 for New Players.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Oct. 29 (U.P.).—At least a dozen New York Giants are on the auction block and the club is ready to spend $125,000 for new material, Manager Bill Terry said today.

The boys held a post-mortem on the 1934 baseball season at a hotel chat here and "Memphis Bill" made one point clear—the Giants did not lay down in the closing days of the pennant race; "they wore down from two years of top-speed playing."

Terry was frank about the Giants' big flop.

Denies Clubhouse Fight.

"It wasn't true that Schumacher and I had a fight, or that Hubbell didn't speak to me during the last month of the race. I don't care what the papers wrote. My men knew such stories weren't true. They're the only ones I cared about next to the front office.

"I am still responsible for running the team and I don't need any help from the newspapers. If they put me on the spot I can't help it."

Terry's plans for next year are "plenty."

Without any hemming or hawing, he announced that "almost anybody on the team is for sale except Mel Ott and Carl Hubbell."

"The story that we're going to trade Hubbell and $50,000 for Dizzy Dean makes me laugh. Hell, I wouldn't trade 'em even. Though Dizzy—and the other Dean, too—is a great pitcher."

Ott Joins Terry.

Terry is touring various Southern cities where the Giants will play next spring. Ott, the 25-year-old New Orleans star, was on hand to see his boss. Charlie Dressen, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, Jimmy Hamilton, of the Nashville Club, and Cy Herman, National League umpire, dropped in.

The conversation drifted to the demise of the Giants, who "blew" a seven-game lead in the last three weeks of the race and let the St. Louis Cardinals get into the World Series.

Terry blamed reporters for a lot of his troubles. His stand against women reporters sticks. "Women can want a story on only two things—my private life or baseball," he said. "My private life doesn't belong in baseball and women can't possibly know enough about baseball to write intelligently about it."

Needs Infield Strength.

The Giants are ready to "spend a lot of dough" for a shortstop, he said. "Not because Travis Jackson needs any help at short, but because we need strength at third, and Stoney can play a great third base."

As for the rest of the infield, Bill said, "Critz had a good year at second and we're counting on him again, but I'm looking for my successor at first because I'm getting old—36 right now and I feel like 45 after every ball game."

It was recalled that Terry batted .352 last season and fielded sensationally. Bill replied "I'll be there until I find somebody I can't beat."

Shepherd Causes C.U. To Worry

Coach Bergman Holds a Parley Over Western Maryland Star.

Saturday's Game Is to Be Featured by Nation's Leading Scorer.

By Lewis F. Atchison.

CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY'S ways and means committee, Messrs. Dutch Bergman, Fod Cotton and George Vlk, yesterday went into executive session to figure ways and means of stopping Bill Shepherd, Western Maryland's ace, when he is turned loose in the Brookland Bowl Saturday.

Since Shepherd is the East's leading scorer and its most consistent ground gainer, the only possible method of bringing him down appears to be with shotguns. This was suggested by Mr. Vlk and promptly overruled. It's a great idea, but decidedly unethical.

Grief in Maryland's Left.

Getting over Shepherd, the committee ran into the left side of Western Maryland's line and fell over in a dead faint. Their shock was entirely justifiable. The Terrible Terrors have three intercollegiate boxing champions holding down the left side—Andy Gorski, end, 169-pounder; Bernie Kaplan, guard and light-heavy title holder, and Tom Pontecarvo, tackle and heavyweight king.

The presence of these men gives the C. U. committee another problem to wrestle with. They want plenty of fight, but not too much. A thing can be overdone. Well, Gorski kayoed Tom Oliver, the Cardinals' fullback, in their match last season and Tom likes his vengeance—in large doses.

Red Fleming, the Catholic end, trounced Tom Pontecarvo in the same match, and Tom is not one to take it mildly. They'll all be over there together and from this angle it looks like a mighty interesting party.

Concentrating on Shepherd.

Catholic is concentrating on Shepherd. Western Maryland's opponents have been doing that these past three years, but with little success. Shepherd simply refuses to be stopped.

Shepherd has the unique distinction of being selected on every all-opponent team picked by Western Maryland rivals, and of being singled out as the greatest player these teams faced all season. Remember, the Terrors played Temple, Fordham, Lafayette, Washington and Jefferson, Maryland and Duquesne in that period.

Shepherd's life-time scoring record is a young monument to his greatness, 228 points, and he has gathered them in every conceivable manner. Against Albright he kicked six out of six placements for the point after touchdown, and he connected on three out of five against Boston College.

He Whips Bucknell.

Last year he whipped Bucknell single-handed, scoring both touchdowns and kicking the point after for a 14-13 victory. He had a couple of ribs cracked in that game, incidentally.

Catholic U. officials are making intensive preparations for this game—Homecoming Day. Postmaster Jim Farley will be a guest of honor, heading a notable list of dignitaries. An amplifying system has been installed in the bowl and the plays will be called out as they are made. A throng of 15,000 is expected to see the game.

Injured Iowans Expect To Be Fit by Saturday

Iowa City, Iowa, Oct. 29 (AP).—Battered from the Minnesota game, University of Iowa's football squad was excused from practice today as it prepared to step from its own homecoming observance into another against Indiana Saturday at Bloomington.

Oze Simmons, Dick Crayne, and Dwight Hoover, three back field mainstays, appeared to have taken the worst pounding, but Dr. A. S. Fourt, team physician, announced they would all be ready for the Hoosier game.

Post Mortems . . .

Until Dick (Honeyboy) Finnegan came along, Maj. Harvey L. (Heinie) Miller was the only man ever to hold two Navy boxing titles simultaneously . . . the present secretary of the District Boxing Commission was all-service bantamweight champion in 1905 . . . in 1907 he won the featherweight title of the Far East, and in 1908 he won the lightweight championship of the Far East and defended them both several times . . . Finnegan was featherweight champ of the Navy and lightweight titleholder of the fleet . . . incidentally, Miller still is the only man ever to hold three Naxy boxing titles . . . Laverne Fator, for 15 years a leading jockey, has become an owner . . . he recently purchased Mars Palatine, a high-class plater . . . he will take his one-horse stable South for the winter and there pick up a few other promising runners . . . Baltimore defeated Louisville in three ball games September 7 and two on September 8, in 1896 . . . Tom Gallery, of the Hollywood Arena, is said to be the highest paid matchmaker in the country . . . he receives $12,500 a year and a substantial bonus . . . Promoter Joe Turner is contemplating a new deal for his wrestling and boxing following . . . Joe may rearrange the Auditorium so that his ring is in the center and the seats grouped about it as at the Riding and Hunt Club . . . Mrs. B. J. Mattox watched her son, Capt. Sam Mattox, lead Washington and Lee to victory over V. P. I. last Saturday . . . it was the first football game Mrs. Mattox ever had seen, although five of her sons have starred on the gridiron for the Generals . . . and only 25 years ago today 15,000 fans watched the Johnson-Ketchel fight pictures reproduced by The Post on a large screen in front of The Post Building.

MILLER.

Ohio State Stresses Pass Defense in Drill

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 29 (AP).—Past the half-way mark in their schedule, Ohio State's Buckeyes drilled lightly today, with Coach Francis A. Schmidt stressing aerial offense. Apparently confident of an easy victory over Western Reserve next Saturday, the Bucks are pointing for the Chicago contest the following week.

Chicago Begins Work For Tilt With Purdue

Chicago, Oct. 29 (AP).—Coach Clark Shaughnessy wasted no time today in getting Chicago's Maroons started on preparation for Saturday's battle with Purdue.

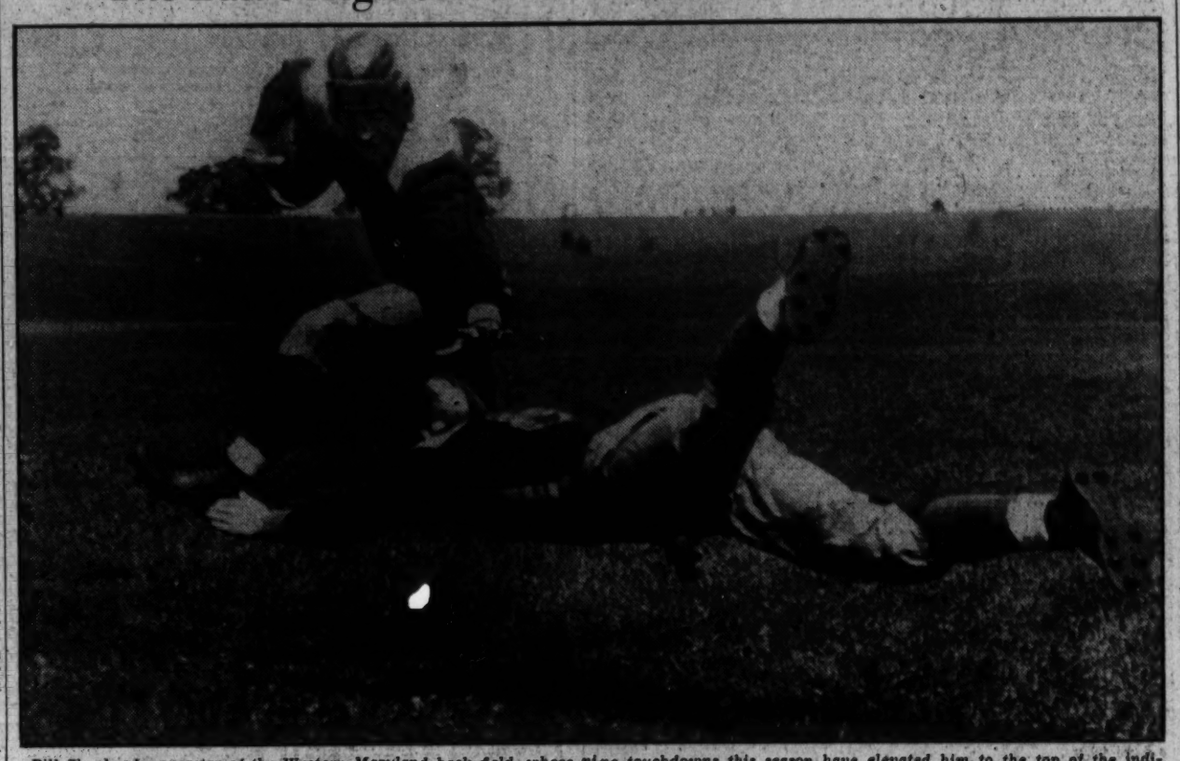
After an hour of fundamentals, Shaughnessy took the whole squad onto Stagg Field, locked the gates, and went to work on offensive measures.

Sports Results

The Post's new telephone number for sports results is

National 1885.

The East's High Scorer Demonstrates How It's Done



Bill Shepherd, superstar of the Western Maryland back field, whose nine touchdowns this season have elevated him to the top of the individual high scorers in the East, shows how he eludes tacklers. Shepherd will draw the full attention of the Catholic University defense here Saturday. Starring for the Green Terrors for his third year. Shepherd has kicked 23 goals after touchdown in 26 attempts.

Rose Bowl Talk Links Many Elevens

Eastern Trend Unsettled; Washington, Stanford Best on Coast.

PASADENA, Calif., Oct. 29 (AP).—The fact that selection of 1935's Rose Bowl football opponents rests entirely in the hands of Pacific Coast conference officials failed utterly today to dampen the ardor of the usual unofficial welcoming committee.

With the current gridiron season still very much in the making, the delegates-at-large have sifted the potential candidates down to something like a dozen of the country's unbeaten elevens.

While several precincts have not been heard from—particularly those including the eligible voters of the conference — the West has about concluded Stanford and Washington stand the best chance of defending the Pacific Seaboard's fading football prestige.

Gophers Head List.

In the face of almost yearly rebuffs from the Western Conference, Minnesota, Illinois and Chicago have been mentioned, with Coach Bernie Bierman's Gophers heading the list. Michigan State also is mentioned.

The East is conceded five possibilities. These are Princeton, which quite coldly declined last season; Army, Navy, Syracuse and Dartmouth.

Below the Mason and Dixon line are Alabama, Tulane, Louisiana State and Rice.

Baton Rouge Talks.

Meantime, football-minded Baton Rouge, groggy after a week-end extravaganza of fun as the guest of Huey Long, today began talking about Louisiana State University's football team as a possible Rose Bowl contender with the "Kingfish" an added attraction.

They were thinking about the spectacular game they saw L. S. U.'s team play in defeating Vanderbilt Saturday at Nashville, Tenn., 29 to 0.

Fans argued that if their team goes through the rest of its difficult schedule undefeated and then has Huey Long to offer as an added crowd gatherer, Rose Bowl officials will think twice before picking some other squad for the New Year's Day classic.

L. S. U. has already defeated Auburn, Arkansas and Vanderbilt, but has been tied by Rice and Southern Methodist. It has Mississippi State, Tennessee, Tulane and Oregon to hurdle before the season is over.

Navy Regulars Given Respite, Others Begin Drills for W. & L.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Navy gridders who have been going at top speed since the start of the season, and especially in the last two weeks, in view of the tough games with Pennsylvania and Columbia, were given a rest today, although another hard game is just in the offing, that with Washington and Lee next Saturday.

The men who participated in the triumph over Penn did not get into togs at all, but watched the second and third varsity combinations put on a scrimmage session against the strong Plebe team. A touch of gloom pervaded the camp of the regulars during the day because of the death of the father of one of their mates, Robert (Dusty) Dornin, crack left end. The elder Dornin died in San Francisco while his son was speeding westward by plane, having left here Sunday morning soon after being advised of his parent's serious illness.

Whether Dornin will return to Annapolis in time for the Washington and Lee fracas is indefinite. In the event he does not, the Middies will be seriously handicapped for flankmen, as Dick Bull, who has

Continued on Page 23, Column 2.

Major Battle of Wits Seen In This Week's Grid Contest

WITH the games becoming more difficult to forecast as the season advances and the fans becoming more expert in their predictions, this week's Postilion football contest promises to develop into a major battle of wits. As in the past, 15 choice seats to the Capital's outstanding gridiron contest—the November 10 engagement between George Washington and Louisiana State—will be awarded the winners.

Below are 25 games selected by Shirley L. Povich, sports editor of The Post, upon which the contest is based. The blank below is for your convenience, although it is not necessary to use The Post chart.

To the entrant predicting correctly the outcome of the greatest number of games will be given four seats to the George Washington-Louisiana State game. The second-place winner will receive three seats.

Third, fourth, fifth and sixth place winners each will be awarded two seats.

In case of a tie, priority of receipt will determine the winner.

On Saturday night, Harris B. Hull, the Postilion broadcaster, will include scores of the games in his radio program over Station WMAL.

1933 Scores		LOCAL TEAMS.	Your Selection		The Result
—	—	George Washington-Vanderbilt
—	—	Catholic U.-West. Maryland
0	6	Maryland-Virginia
—	—	Georgetown-Richmond
1933 Scores		EAST.	Your Selection		The Result
14	0	Pittsburgh-Notre Dame
—	—	Harvard-Princeton
14	13	Yale-Dartmouth
—	—	Fordham-Tennessee
—	—	Navy-Washington & Lee
1933 Scores		SOUTH.	Your Selection		The Result
7	13	Auburn-Duke
0	14	Florida-Georgia
10	6	Georgia Tech-N. Carolina U.
0	20	Kentucky-Alabama
21	6	Louisiana State-Miss. State
1933 Scores		MIDWEST.	Your Selection		The Result
0	14	Chicago-Purdue
0	6	Illinois-Army
0	0	Minnesota-Michigan
—	—	Indiana-Iowa
—	—	Northwestern-Wisconsin
1933 Scores		SOUTHWEST.	Your Selection		The Result
21	0	Oklahoma-Missouri
10	0	Texas-Sou. Methodist
0	7	Texas Christian-Baylor
—	—	Texas A. & M.-Arkansas
1933 Scores		FAR WEST	Your Selection		The Result
0	7	California-Santa Clara
0	3	U. C. L. A.-Stanford

Mail or send your selections to The Postillion at The Washington Post. Contest entries must be postmarked or in the The Post's offices by Friday at midnight.

Name .....

Address .....

Vandy Is Wide Awake, G. W. Hears

Colonials' Scouts Report L. S. U. Victory Due to Slump.

TAKE it from Jean Sexton and Johnny Lee, who scouted Vanderbilt last week, that 27-0 lacing the Commodores took from Louisiana State is no criterion of the Commodores' real power. Far from it.

Both gentlemen think Vanderbilt got off on the wrong foot and couldn't get back in stride. They hardly think a similar circumstance will occur again Saturday when George Washington's unbeaten huskies play them at the stadium.

Team Drills Hard.

Disappointing in their 6-2 victory over Wake Forest, the Colonials were back at hard work yesterday, ironing out the rough spots that cropped up Friday night. A lot of time was given over to designing and perfecting a defense capable of trapping Randy Dixon, Vanderbilt's ace back.

Dixon ranks only a peg lower than Abe Michael, L. S. U.'s all-around back, in football ability. Saturday he held his own in a punting duel, though Michael went ahead on passing. Abe pegged one to Walter Sullivan—30 yards—for the first touchdown of the afternoon.

While Dixon is the featured player, Vanderbilt has other boys who know how to act on a gridiron. There's Rannie Throgmorton, 215-pound tackle; Carl Earl, the end who saved the day against Auburn by blocking the placement that would have tied the score.

Guffee Must Be Watched.

Harry Guffee, cocaptain and guard, is regarded as the team's best tackler and certainly the best forward in a line that averages 205 pounds. Guffee's closest rival in bringing 'em down is Dick Plasman, a sophomore end who only weighs 195 pounds. Plasman also is handy to have around for a pass-attack.

Bobby Oliver (no relation to Catholic's player) is Vanderbilt's speed merchant and an artist at circling ends. For plunging the Commodores usually call on Arnold Peoples, a 200-pound bone-crusher.

George Washington may not have the services of its regular center, Red Rathjen, whose knees were injured Friday night. In the event that he can not start, either Bernie Witucki or Tom Privott will replace him, though Witucki has an edge on the berth because of his greater experience.

Junior League Is Organized.

G. W. officials have organized a Junior Colonial Football League, which will play preliminary games to the feature attraction starting Saturday. Georgetown, Merrick, Northeast and Metropolitan Police Boys Club are members. The Mercricks and Little Coppers will play this week, starting at 1:30 o'clock.

George Washington U. will outfit all of the teams with uniforms and will provide a trophy for the winner. The championship will be decided by an elimination series, finalists meeting Thanksgiving Day. They are 100-pound teams.

V.M.I. Team Ready For Indian Tribe

Lexington, Va., Oct. 29 (AP).—The V. M. I. squad reported for practice without injury from the Virginia game and anxious to start hard work for the William and Mary contest at Norfolk Saturday.

Coach Bill Raftery gave a light workout to the starting eleven today, along with Capt. Jack Zimmerman, Harry Hightower and Dave Kane, but the "B" and "C" teams scrimmaged at top speed for an hour.

G. W., Vandy To Meet at Stadium

Catholic U. Will Seek to Stop Shepherd, of West. Maryland.

Maryland and Virginia Renew Old Rivalry at College Park.

THE tastiest gridiron fare ever set before Washington fans on a single Saturday afternoon is on the week-end menu. George Washington University, Catholic University and Maryland University will be vieing for the Capital patronage with their presentations of feature games of their schedules.

At Griffith Stadium, George Washington will be host to Vanderbilt's Commodores.

At its Brookland stadium, Catholic U. offers its homecoming day game with Western Maryland.

At nearby College Park, Maryland will meet its traditional Southern Conference rival, University of Virginia.

Share of Spotlight.

The Catholic-Western Maryland game has rocketed full into a share of the spotlight of Washington football interest as a result of the Green Terror's amazing 40-0 rout two weeks ago of a Boston College team that held Fordham to a touchdown victory.

Unbeaten and unscored on since the Holy Cross battle, Catholic U. last Saturday gained the high esteem of football critics with a smashing 31-0 defeat of Manhattan in New York. The Cardinals revealed unexpected power in romping to victory over Manhattan, and their battle with Western Maryland portends a meeting of two furious offensives.

At the Brookland Stadium, the individual attraction will be Bill Shepherd, superstar of the Western Maryland back field, who is now holding the lead among the East's individual scorers. Shepherd has not been held scoreless in any game this season and his terrific smashes and long runs have visited havoc on all of the Terrors' foes.

Dixon-Leemans Duel.

On display at Griffith Stadium against the Colonials, Vanderbilt will put its highly-publicized triple-threat back, Randy Dixon, in a game that may offer an individual duel between Dixon and Tuffy Leeman's, George Washington's own hard-running claimant to National fame.

The Vanderbilt game, booked originally as G. W.'s choicest attraction for Capital fans, suffered when the Commodores absorbed a 29-0 beating at the hands of Louisiana State last Saturday, but it still offers the severest test thus far confronted by the Colonials.

On Saturday, Coach Pixlee will instruct the Colonials to take the wraps off their offensive weapons which, for the most part, they have kept sheathed for this fray. Against neither Tulsa nor Wake Forest did the G. W. team display all of its tricks, having borne in mind Saturday's game with the Commodores, who demonstrated their power with a 7-0 victory over Mississippi State, a 27-12 trouncing of Georgia Tech and a 7-6 defeat of Auburn.

Traditional Rivalry.

The Maryland-Virginia game overshadows the other attractions of the day in point of traditional rivalry. Cordial enemies on the

Continued on Page 19, Column 1.

Indiana Coach Grooms Offensive For Iowa

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 29 (AP).—A full week of practice and an open date last Saturday having been devoted to defense, Coach Bo McMillin started today to point the Indiana offensive tactics toward the homecoming game with Iowa here Saturday. Further attention was paid to tackling and blocking, and the varsity then took the ball in a long dummy scrimmage against defensive formations.

YOU DON'T SHOP FOR EYE-GLASSES They're Made for You!

And how well you look, is just as important as how well you see.

We've Been Specialists in TAILORED CLOTHES for 41 years. The skill at the needle, coupled with an expert knowledge of body proportions, allows us to give you that individual distinctiveness of dress that marks the difference between a tailored garment and just another suit.

Prices Start At $22.50

& MERTZ & MERTZ TAILORS

405 11th St. N.W.

H. J. Froehlich, Mgr. Est. 1869

Red John's Closing Rush Wins Thrilling Laurel Feature Race by Nose Margin

Ashen Loses By Turning At Wire

Steeplechase Decided by Nose; Favorite Falls Near Finish.

By Walter Haight.

CURVES may be all right in baseball and Mae West movies, but it's the straight and narrow path that brings the pay-off on horse races. After leading for 99 40-100 per cent of yesterday's feature race at Laurel, the Shandon Farm's Ashen was curving out at the wire and that fact allowed Mrs. J. D. Hertz's Red John, running in arrow fashion, to win.

"A nose" is the shortest official margin by which races are decided, so the chartmakers can not be charged with exaggeration for their description of the finish, but there are many who will tell you that a distance not greater than the thickness of the sole of your shoe, and even mine, separated the pair.

Booed and Cheered.

Those to the left of the finish voted for Ashen, which benefited by the outside angle. Those to the right voted for Red John, which appeared ahead on the inside angle. Those in the middle, the judges, had the final say, as usual, and directed the hanging of Nos. 2, 6 and 3, indicating that they had finished Red John, Ashen and Sang Froid. The customary booing came from Ashen backers and the customary cheering came from the Red John backers. The booing lasted the longer because the Red John betters were busy figuring what they had won.

Although there could not be two winners, everyone had to admit he or she had seen a hoss race. While Ashen remained a longshot, the gelding had drawn much wagering due to the presence in his saddle of young Wayne Wright. Jockey Donny Meade had tied Wright at 26-all for the riding honors at Laurel and many believed he would bring Ashen home and regain the lead.

Off to Good Start.

If horse races were decided at the break of the barrier, Wright would have won. He sent Ashen away at break-neck speed and banked the clubhouse turn in a catch-me-if-you-can-manner. It was Ashen against the field, with the field doing its best to cut down his lead.

Up the backstretch Ashen flew with the green and white of Wright shirt showing behind his flowing mane. Sang Froid and Greyglade tried to dislodge him, but on went the Shandon Farm horse. In the lower stretch, it was the same. Wright was riding with all his might and Ashen apparently was sticking to his guns. There was no move from those closest, but, cutting through on the rail, came Red John with Jockey Coucci aboard.

To many, Red John's effort seemed another one of those fast finishes that oftentimes fail to change the result. But this was the genuine article. As if shot out of a gun, Red John leaped for the wire and, as he did, Ashen's head went sideways.

The day's steeplechase for maiden jumpers, those which have never won a race, brought another nose finish and headaches to the favorite players. Help Me, an even-money choice, had dominated the race from the start and was leading by eight lengths approaching the last jump. Help Me went into the air and apparently landed safely, but not so with Jockey Jim McGrath. The boy became loose from his stirrups and, after resorting to acrobatic tactics in an effort to regain his seat, he fell to the ground.

Royal Riot and Brad, two well-beaten horses a moment before, now battled it out for the purse, with the latter barely missing a victory. Royal Riot proved the longest mutuel of the day, paying $55.50 for the usual $2 investment.

Chart of Laurel Races

(Copyright, 1934, by Daily Racing Form Publishing Co.)

Monday, October 29, 1934.

WEATHER CLEAR. TRACK FAST.

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs. Purse, $900. For 2-year-old maidens, foaled in Maryland. Start good. Won ridden out; place, driving. Went to post at 1:37. Off at 1:40. Winner, J. E. Adams' b. f. (2), by J. Fred A—Peggy L. Trained by owner. Value to winner, $625; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:14 2-5.

Horses.	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Straight.
ADAMS EVE	107	1	3	1½	1½	1½½	1½½	Meade	*0.50
ROCK SPRAY	107	4	2	2h	2½½	2h	2h	Wright	5.05
HAPPY TOM	107	7	1	3h	3h	3h	3h	Balaski	†3.75
PEKIN	105	5	5	5½	5½	4h	4h	Coucci	*
ITALIAN HARRY	115	3	4	4½	4½	5h	5h	Reid	48.60
LADY PLYMOUTH	102	8	6	6h	6h	6½	6½	Litzenberger	111.50
BOBE	105	2	7	7	7	7	7	Merritt	23.00

†Labrot entry.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—ADAM'S EVE, $3.10, $2.60, $2.10; ROCK SPRAY, $3.60, $2.20; †HAPPY TOM, $2.10.

ADAM'S EVE, nicely handled and sent up on inside to take command in the opening furlong, opened up a clear lead when straightened into home stretch and had enough in reserve to stall off ROCK SPRAY. Latter, prominent in early stages, made a determined effort when swinging into home stretch, but could not threaten winner. HAPPY TOM weakened steadily after making a strong challenge.

SECOND RACE—Six furlongs. Purse, $600; claiming. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 2:07. Off at 2:10½. Winner, Jersey Stable's b. f. (3), by Supremus—Patty Victoria. Trained by C. H. Trotter. Value to winner, $435; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $15. Time, 1:13.

Horses.	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Straight.
SQUEEZE OUT	100	8	4	2½½	2½½	1½½	1h	Hanford	91.90
FLYING WATCH	108	5	6	1½	2½	3½	2½	Meade	3.80
FRED ALMY	112	13	2	3½	1½	1½	3½	Kacala	1.90
MR. BOSS	103	1	7	7h	3½	4h	4h	Merritt	†1.50
HILTED	109	2	8	7½	6½	5½½	5½	Stout	32.70
LINE OF FIRE	107	3	9	8½	6h	6½	6h	Bryson	40.75
JAMBALAYA	112	6	11	10½	9½	8h	7h	Munoz	147.30
SCOTTY DON	108	12	1	4hk	7½	7h	8h	Litzenberger	80.35
WHIRRY	108	11	3	11h	11½	11½	9h	Trenchard	*143.35
KEDYM	109	10	5	6h	8h	9½	10h	Burrill	*
PRINCE KHAYYAM	107	9	10	12½	13½	12h	11½	Booker	*
CLIFTONS MARIE	109	10	12	9h	10h	10h	12h	Fowler	*
STREET GUIDE	108	7	13	13	13	13	13	Balaski	*

*Field.

†Sturm entry.

Two-dollar mutuels paid—SQUEEZE OUT, $5.80, $3.40, $2.40; FLYING WATCH, $4.90, $3.80; FRED ALMY, $2.60.

SQUEEZE OUT, rushed into a prominent position after getting away nicely, swung to outside of leaders when making a strong challenge at stretch turn and closed fast to wear down FRED ALMY and was up in last sixteenth. FLYING WATCH was stronly ridden to reach the front, was steadied along while saving ground, then held on stubbornly. FRED ALMY assumed command after the first furlong, was kept under pressure, but faltered.

THIRD RACE—Two miles. Purse, $1,000. Steeplechase. For maiden 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 2:34. Off at 2:39½. Winner, J. E. Hughes' br. m. (5), by Royal Canopy—Pracas. Trained by A. White. Value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50. Time, 4:04 3-5.

Horses.	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Straight.
ROYAL RIOT	140	7	6	2½	3h	2½½	1½	1nk	Brooks	$26.75
BRAD	143	5	5	7½	4h	4h	2nk	2nk	Haley	2.65
LAVISBY	150	12	7	7½	6½	3½	3nk	Hirst	17.20
FAST CHANGE	130	2	3	5h	8½	7½	4h	4h	Turner	14.90
PRINCE APOLLO	143	3	1	4½	6½	8h	5nk	5nk	Busby	54.10
ERSE	143	9	8	9	9	9	6	6	Penrod	70.20
HELP ME	143	4	4	1½	1½	1h	Fell.		McGrath	1.00
GREYSIDE II	143	6	2	3h	2h	3h	Fell.		Christian	8.20
SEMELE	117	8	9	6½	5h	5nk	Lost rider.		Rippan	65.35

Two-dollar mutuels paid—ROYAL RIOT, $55.50, $12.40, $6.00; BRAD, $4.20, $3.10; LAVISBY, $5.20.

ROYAL RIOT, closest in attendance of HELP ME coming to the last fence after racing forwardly all the way, withstood a strong drive after clearing last fence and barely lasted. BRAD, unable to keep up in early stages, closed gamely and would have needed another stride. LAVISBY, always far back, could never enter a contending position.

FOURTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles. Purse, $800; claiming. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 3:06. Off at 3:07½. Winner, R. B. Archer's b. c. (4), by Wise Counsellor—Larecolite. Trained by owner. Value to winner, $625; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:47.

Horses.	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Straight.
PRETTY WISE	111	3	2	3½½	2h	1½	1½½	1½	Hanford	$1.50
KINDACORN	108	5	8	9	7h	3½	2h	2h	Bryson	3.75
DONNA DULCIN	105	2	3	2½	4½	6½	4½	3h	Renick	34.25
GENERAL LEJEUNE	112	6	7	7½	8h	7½	5h	4½	Merten	10.05
INFILEE	108	6	9	7½	8½	7½	6½	5½½	Merritt	7.90
SNOOPS	100	4	4	4½	5½	5½	6½	6h	Reid	*44.90
IN INDIA	109	1	1	1½	1½	4½	7½	7h	Gilbert	8.50
COLORIO	112	7	5	6½	6½	9	9	8h	Jackson	62.50
GOLDEN PLAY	112	9	6	8½	9	8½	8½	9	Wright	6.30

Two-dollar mutuels paid—PRETTY WISE, $5.00, $3.00, $2.90; KINDACORN, $6.40, $4.50; DONA DULCIN, $9.20.

PRETTY WISE, away nicely and sent into a contending position when straightened into back stretch, responded stoutly to overtake IN INDIA, then drew clear, but had to be shaken up. KINDACORN, slow to get settled into her stride, went to outside in last half-mile and then finished gamely. DONA DULCIN came again to pass tiring horses.

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs. Purse, $1,000; claiming. For 2-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won handily; place, driving. Went to post at 3:37. Off at 3:38. Winner, Howe Stable's ch. f. (2), by Stimulus—Emma Helen. Trained by P. M. Walker. Value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50. Time, 1:12 3-5.

Horses.	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Straight.
APERITIF	109	1	1	1½	1½	1½	1½	1h	Merritt	$0.80
SHOW BOY	112	5	6	5½	5½	4½	2½	Kacala	6.00
BRINDLE	105	1	8	8	7½	6h	3½	Coucci	58.90
BACK FENCE	116	3	6	4½	4½	3h	4nk	Renick	23.35
GOLDEN SCEPTRE	113	4	3	2½	3nk	5½	5½	Wright	5.65
ENCHANTRESS	116	3	4	6½	6h	7½	6½	Meade	17.60
IDLE VICTORY	111	8	2	1½	1½	2½	7h	Steffen	16.25
SEATED ORDERS	105	7	7	7½	8	8	8	Balaski	101.50

Two-dollar mutuels paid—APERITIF, $3.60, $2.60, $2.50; SHOW BOY, $3.70, $3.30; BRINDLE, $10.30.

APERITIF, rushed to secure a forward position in the opening furlong, went to the outside of IDLE VICTORY at the stretch turn to take command, then was steadied for the closing drive. SHOW BOY bettered his position on the outside until reaching contention, then closed in game fashion. BRINDLE, slow to get into racing stride, closed resolutely in the last five-sixteenths.

SIXTH RACE—One mile and 70 yards. Purse, $1,000; allowances. The Nanticoke. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 4:06½. Off at 4:06½. Winner, Mrs. J. D. Hertz's b. c. (3), by Reign Count—Salome II. Trained by F. S. Hackett. Value to winner, $700; second, $150; third, $100; fourth, $50. Time, 0:23 3-5, 0:48, 1:12 3-5, 1:38, 1:42 1-5.

Horses.	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Straight.
RED JOHN	108	2	1	5½½	5½	5h	3½½	1nk	Coucci	$2.20
ASHEN	107	6	4	1½	1½½	1½	1½	2½	Wright	12.15
SANG FROID	113	3	3	2½	2nk	2½	2½	3½½	Merritt	1.85
UNENCUMBERED	110	5	5	4h	4h	4h	4h	4½	Kacala	10.60
GREYOLADE	107	4	6	3½	3½	3h	6	5h	Balaski	6.35
CARABINIER	105	1	2	6	6	6	5h	6	Meade	7.05

Two-dollar mutuels paid—RED JOHN, $6.40, $4.30, $2.70; ASHEN, $10.30, $3.40; SANG FROID, $2.40.

RED JOHN, outrun for the first six furlongs, responded willingly when put to a drive, slipped through on the inside of the leaders when straightened into the home stretch; then finished stoutly to get up in the concluding strides. ASHEN, hurried into the lead and raced until forced to a drive, continued stoutly, but was bearing out at the end. SANG FROID forced a steady pace in the early running, made a strong effort to reach the winner midway of the home stretch, but weakened right at the end. UNENCUMBERED raced well up from the beginning and had no excuses. CARABINIER II lacked early speed and could not reach contention. He closed some ground in the stretch. GREYOLADE was used to racing in a different manner.

SEVENTH RACE—One mile and one furlong. Purse, $800; claiming. For 3-year-olds which have not won since October 18. Start good. Won easily; place, driving. Went to post at 4:35. Off at 4:35½. Winner, Miss Betty Jane Christmas' b. f. (3), by Mont D'Or II—Sonnet, trained by B. F. Christmas. Value to winner, $625; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:53 1-5.

Horses.	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Straight.
TRIOLET	109	3	6	4½	3½½	1½	1h	Hanford	$3.45
BRILLIANT ROSE	110	5	4	1h	2h	4h	4h	2½	Wright	5.15
TIGHT WAD	108½	4	5	2h	1½	1h	2h	3h	Fallon	11.15
SUN ABBOT	111	2	2	3½½	3½	2½	3½	4h	Meade	1.80
BUNTINO	111	7	7	6½	5½	5h	5h	5h	Coucci	6.80
THIS PLAY	105	6	3	5h	6h	6h	6h	6h	Merritt	9.80
KILTAMOND	107	1	1	5½½	7	7	7	7	Fowler	183.15

Two-dollar mutuels paid—TRIOLET, $8.90, $3.60, $2.60; BRILLIANT ROSE, $7.20, $3.80; TIGHT WAD, $4.70.

TRIOLET began to move up around turn, came around field, took lead in stretch and won drawing away. BRILLIANT ROSE displayed keen speed and held on gamely. TIGHT WAD ran into early leader but weakened in final furlong. SUN ABBOT hard ridden the last half-mile. BUNTINO ran a fair race. THIS PLAY was outrun.

EIGHTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles. Purse, $600; claiming. For 4-year-olds and upward. Start good. Won driving; place, same. Went to post at 5:07. Off at 5:08. Winner, W. Sachsenmaier's b. h. (6), by Luke McLuke—In Bounds. Trained by P. Reuter. Value to winner, $435; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $15. Time, 1:54 2-5, 0:49, 1:14 2-5, 1:40 2-5, 1:53 2-5.

Horses.	Wgt.	Post	St.	¼	½	¾	Str.	Fin.	Jockeys.	Straight.
OUTBOUND	107	8	4	1½½	1½	1½	1½	1h	Reid	$4.30
WISHING STAR	112	3	10	9½	5½	5½	2½½	2½½	Wright	.90
COATTAILS	114	4	3	6½	7h	6h	4½	3h	Carney	103.45
ENERGETIC BOY	107	6	5	2½	2½	2½	3½½	4½	Peden	62.25
FAIR BILLY	107	5	6	4½	4½½	4½	5h	5h	McManus	5.05
THE TOUT	112	1	2	3½	3½	3h	6h	6½	Steffen	7.35
MAKE BELIEVE	113½	10	8	8½	9h	8½	7½	7½	Cassard	39.50
POST BRIGADE	112	7	9	5½	8½	8nk	8h	8½	Trenchard	122.35
BARCELONA PETE	109	9	7	10	10	10	10	9½½	Fowler	7.35
TRUNDLE	109	9	7	5h	6h	7½	9½	10	Stout	787.15

Two-dollar mutuels paid—OUTBOUND, $10.60, $3.70, $3.40; WISHING STAR, $2.80, $3.00. COATTAILS, $10.40.

OUTBOUND outran his field to the first turn, resisted repeated efforts from ENERGETIC BOY in the last half-mile and, under strong urging, outstayed WISHING STAR. Latter, allowed to settle in front before moving into contention, swung to the outside and closed resolutely to finish going the strongest. COATTAILS worked his way up steadily and continued to make up ground nearing the end. ENERGETIC BOY followed close to the winner early, but tired after reaching the home stretch. FAIR BILLY went prominently and had no excuses. THE TOUT began tiring after seven furlongs. The others were held safe.

Laurel Entries.

(Associated Press.)

FIRST RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	P.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	1	Chestnut Oak (Meade)	112	5-1
2	2	Some Good (Merritt)	112	5-1
3	3	Stephrother (Fowler)	108	15-1
4	4	Jilted (Coucci)	109	20-1
5	5	*Black Bong (Hanford)	107	6-1
6	6	*Lt. of Old (McManus)	107	4-1
7	7	Nay Nay (Davis)	106	20-1
8	8	*Postscript (Hanford)	100	4-1
9	9	Postponement (Steffen)	112	20-1

SECOND RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	P.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	1	The Bourbonian (Tryon)	112	20-1
2	2	Jack Low (Wright)	112	6-1
4	3	Bally Bay (Wright)	112	6-1
3	4	Band Wagon (Merritt)	116	3-1
9	5	*Adv. Junior (Hanford)	103	10-1
6	6	*Leonie (McManus)	100	10-1
7	7	*East Herald (Davis)	107	10-1
8	8	*Prof. Elmy (Burrill)	107	10-1
2	9	Aegis (Coucci)	112	3-1

THIRD RACE—About 2 miles; purse, $1,000; claiming; steeplechase; 4-year-olds and upward.

No.	P.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
9	1	†Flavius (Brooks)	135	6-1
8	2	†Muttering (Brooks)	135	15-1
5	3	†Snake Charmer (Coe)	138	5-2
7	4	†Rosell (Mitchell)	129	4-1
3	5	Luckite (White)	145	3-1
1	6	†Sir Catalan (McKay)	130	15-1
4	7	†Black Cock (Smiley)	138	5-1
6	8	War Mist (Diamond)	142	20-1
10	9	Aries (Little)	144	4-1

*5 pounds allowance.
†7 pounds claimed for rider.

FOURTH RACE—Mile and 70 yards; purse, $800; claiming; maiden 2-year-olds.

No.	P.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
7	1	Leolette (Knapp)	105	15-1
5	2	Volgadale (Kacala)	105	4-1
9	3	*Sister Vinie (Hanford)	100	15-1
1	4	Gifted Lady (Merritt)	105	8-1
2	5	Steagal (Wright)	113	3-1
6	6	Braydon (Barnes)	108	10-1
8	7	Bethle Star (Meade)	108	10-1
10	8	Goose Creek (Coucci)	108	20-1
3	9	Pan (Steffen)	107	6-1
4	10	*Goldfin (Corena)	100	4-1

FIFTH RACE—One mile; the Gunpowder purse, $1,000; 3-year-olds.

No.	P.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
10		Official (Kacala)	112	20-1
7	2	Indian News (Davis)	109	10-1
4	3	†Diablesse (K'singer)	109	8-5
1	4	Braddock (Wright)	112	15-1
14	5	†Diverting (L'bacher)	109	8-5
12	6	Apathy (Cruz)	112	20-1
11	7	Ghost Story (Fowler)	109	20-1
13	8	Palma (Gilbert)	109	8-5
2	9	Stavka (Kacala)	112	4-1
3	10	Ten Law (Renick)	106	10-1
8	11	Abercrombie (Cousett)	112	4-1
5	12	Navy Gunner (Wright)	112	3-1
6	13	Dixie Princess (Balaski)	109	20-1
9	14	Star Shadow (Gilbert)	108	8-1

†Wheatley-Belair and Phipps entry.

SIXTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $800; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	P.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
2	1	*Last Rom'ce (Hanford)	106	4-1
4	2	Smooth Cro'g (Gilbert)	112	6-1
6	3	Prumper (Wright)	112	4-1
1	4	*Fairly Wild (Reid)	110	2-1
3	5	R. Pinchot (Workman)	114	8-1
5	6	Chatterdoo (Steffen)	111	6-1

SEVENTH RACE—Six furlongs; the Inverness; purse, $1,000; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	P.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
4	1	Ladfield (Barnes)	111	10-1
6	2	Star Porter (Workman)	115	2-1
3	3	Hopetodo (Merritt)	108	4-1
1	4	Miss Patience (Kacala)	105	6-1
5	5	Bold Lover (Meade)	108	6-1
2	6	*Dust Girl (Hanford)	104	8-1
7	7	Red Wagon (Wright)	112	10-1

EIGHTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $600; claiming; 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	P.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
7	1	Manager Bill (Wright)	114	6-1
8	2	Jolly Farrow (Workman)	115	10-1
9	3	Jimmy (Meade)	112	6-1
1	4	Battle of K'xie (Meade)	112	8-1
2	5	*Bright Bird (Hanford)	113	5-2
5	6	Mud O. (Gilbert)	112	4-1
6	7	Dunfern (Merritt)	115	6-1
10	8	Huppy (Tryon)	108	20-1
4	9	Resurrection (Reid)	113	10-1

*Apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather clear, track fast.

Dallas Entries.

(Associated Press.)

FIRST RACE—George course (chute); purse, $600; the Garland; for 2-year-olds.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	Caroline C.	111	7
2	Thelma d'Or	107	4
3	Keltner	114	9
4	Chatterman	110	10
5	Polante Rose	111	11
6	Wayne P.	114	2
7	Heron	114
8	Diane Bor	104
9	Carb's Goldie	111
10	My Rose Ann	107
11	Greydon	114

SECOND RACE—George course; purse, $500; the Masquitte; claiming; for 3-year-olds and 4-year-olds.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	Royal Pride	107	9
2	*Little Pridie	102	10
3	*Circero	107	11
4	*Sun'rcle Trail	102	12
5	*Miss Brook	104	13
6	*Sir Lady	99	14
7	Distrust	110	15
8	*Losing Cion	99
9	Marie R.	104
10	*Thirty Days	99
11	*Cherapp	104
12	*Pinelo Pete	102
13	Zev Star	104
14	Air Val	107
15	*Billy O'Neil	102

THIRD RACE—Six and one-half furlongs; purse, $500; the Lancaster; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	Normahal	102	9
2	*Jessie P.	102	10
3	Mahandle	106	11
4	Wolverine	110	12
5	Doctor Happy	110	13
6	Amer'n Queen	111	14
7	Morfa Rose	106	15
8	Flying Fantom	107	16
	*Showcase	98
	*Renounce	102
	Emery	107
	*Entice	106
	*Olive Sabath	104
	Excitation	109
	*Vassal	106
	*C'ese Custom	101

FOURTH RACE—One mile (chute); purse, $600; the Seagoville; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	*Seths Queen	102	7
2	*Wash. Belle	102	8
3	*Infants	109	9
4	Clinton	108	10
5	*Little Joyce	97	11
6	*Wise Carmen	97	12
	*Little Heel	103
	*Renounce	102
	Mahandle	106
	Wolverine	110
	*Olive Sabath	104
	Emery	107
	*Entice	106
	*Vassal	106
	*C'ese Custom	101

FIFTH RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $900; the Richardson; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	Chauvinism	101	4
2	*Crackle	104	9
3	Cora	103
	*The Sinner	106
	Drastic Water	113
	Homework	116

SIXTH RACE—Six furlongs; purse, $800; the Carrollton; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	Wild Law	109	6
2	*Miss Wynona	105	7
3	Tomberail	113	8
4	*Liberty Ace	104	9
5	*Justice B.	106	10
	Krakeriac	113
	Indian Boy	109
	*Mt. Wash'ton	108
	*Cheraw	99
	Baldy	108

SEVENTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $500; the Grand Prairie; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	Last Play	106	6
2	*Oaten	108	7
3	*Moronae	101	8
4	Double Dare	110	9
5	Mr. Apple	98
	*Krans Baby	98
	Annie Laurel	106
	*Animator	101
	Our Sandy	113

EIGHTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $500; the Irving; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	*Too Late	102	6
2	Lightin Bill	101	7
3	*Bunting Lad	108	8
4	Olen Peu	108	9
5	*Irving	101	10
	Navy Girl	113
	*Royal Ruth	99
	*Argus Lady	99
	Peter Blues	102
	*Beetle	104
	Indian Lore	107

NINTH RACE—(Substitute); George course (chute); purse, $500; claiming; for 3-year-olds and 4-year-olds.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	*Bubbleo	104	7
2	*Rosamond R.	99	8
3	Dono	107	9
4	*Little V.	102	10
5	Flying Lou	104	11
6	Pretty Pat	107
	*Royal Ruth	99
	*Argus Lady	99
	Peter Blues	102
	*Beetle	104
	Indian Lore	107

*Apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather, clear; track, fast.

Arlington Downs Entries.

(Associated Press.)

FIRST RACE—Wagoner course; purse, $800; allowances; for 3-year-olds and upward, maidens.

1	Three	107	5 Respect
2	Soluree	107	6 Minnie K.
3	Rapid Prince	110	7 My Wish
4	Jay	111

SECOND RACE—Five and one-half furlongs; purse, $800; claiming; for 2-year-olds.

1	Garner Allis	114	5 Miss Refugio
2	*Carb'es Belle	101	6 Witch Lass
3	Kuvito	114	7 *Odd Blue
4	Peachtree	106	8 *Vassal

THIRD RACE—Wagoner course; purse, $800; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

1	Galapan	106	6 Ultra Vote
2	Noble Tiller	114	7 *Parties
3	Patsy Ree	104	8 Polyphote
4	Oderic	111	9 Flax Bearer
5	*Orattan	109

FOURTH RACE—One mile; purse, $800; claiming; for 2-year-olds.

1	Little Cynic	110	5 Brother Lou
2	Gold Sweep	104	6 *Mint Baby
3	*Blowaway	99	7 Instead
4	Maple Ricra	107

FIFTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles; purse, $800; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

1	Centennial	113	5 *The Sinner
2	*Dusky Lass	105	6 Drastic Water
3	Scimitar	113	7 Homework
4	Johnny	111

SIXTH RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles; purse, $800; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

1	Hickory Lad	107	5 Whippercracker
2	*Miss Cornine	103	7 Impeach
4	Crowned Head	114

SEVENTH RACE—One mile; purse, $800; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

1	Bright Bubble	111	5 Doris B.
2	*Mynah	106	6 Culver
3	Off Duty	107	7 *Peacock Girl
4	Fabulous	108	8 Honfair

EIGHTH RACE—One mile; purse, $800; claiming; for 3-year-olds and upward.

1	Dunspritz	103	5 Colonist
2	Kavalry Lass	116	6 The Potter
3	Baizdora	112	7 *Uncom'n Gold
4	*Thorese Girl	102	8 Serat Hill

*Apprentice allowance claimed.
Weather, clear; track, fast.

Dallas Entries.

(Associated Press.)

FIRST RACE—George course (chute); purse, $600; the Garland; for 2-year-olds.

No.	Horse and Jockey.	Wt.	Odds
1	Caroline C.	111	7 Heron
2	Thelma d'Or	107	4 Jane Bor
3	Keltner	114

Tech, on Way to Title, Spurns Forfeiture; Central, Roosevelt to Clash Today

Refusal Puts New Slant On Race

Will Not Claim Crown Unless Won Outright, Daniels Declares.

The Records.

Roose.. 6: Alumni. 6	Central. 6: W'b'ry. 6
Roose.. 13: Devitt. 6	Central. 13: St. J.. 0
Roose.. 0: G'town. 9	Central. 7: W.-L.. 6
Roose.. 6: West.. 13	Central. 0: Maury. 13
Roose.. 0: Alex.. 12	Central. 0: Tech.. 45
Central. 0: Alex.. 12

TECH HIGH SCHOOL yesterday refused to acknowledge Eastern High's forfeiture of the 0-0 game played between the two schools on October 16.

The action, believed to be unprecedented, came on the eve of the fifth game of the inter-high series which brings two revolutionized Central and Roosevelt teams together this afternoon in Central Stadium at 3:30.

Though Eastern had virtually conceded Tech the championship by forfeiting the game because it had used a player over the age limit, Principal Frank C. Daniels of Tech said last night that Tech "would not acknowledge the forfeiture." It was Tech which drew Eastern's attention to the fact that Bill Cattell, Eastern back, was 21, one year over the age limit.

Forfeiture Means Nothing.

"So far as we are concerned," Mr. Daniels said, "the game is a tie. We will not claim the championship unless we actually win it. The forfeiture, declared by Mr. Hart (Eastern principal) means nothing to us."

When it was called to Mr. Daniels' attention that the forfeiture was said to be automatic, he said it was not automatic so far as Tech was concerned. When occasions in the past were reviewed in which schools had forfeited games, Mr. Daniels said that in those instances the other teams had accepted the forfeitures.

The position taken by the Tech principal complicates the inter-high race to a degree probably never before seen in series history. Even though the forfeiture should be of the "automatic" variety, as the Eastern officials hold, it is pointed out that the question remains whether that takes away a school's power to reject a championship if it wants to.

Big Favorite to Win.

It is possible, even probable, that Tech will win the championship by such a margin that the tie game will never enter into the matter.

Meanwhile, Coach Lynn Woodworth, of Roosevelt, and Coach Bert Coggins, of Central, have been juggling their line-ups beyond recognition in preparation for today's game. The Rough Riders will have big Frank Baroni at quarter back in place of Johnnie Saur, though the latter probably will see action.

Joe Bovello, made eligible by the new advisory, will be at full back in his first inter-high game. Joe Spelta will be at right tackle in place of Capt. Bob Sheahan and Irving Hayman at left tackle for Frank Witt. Bob Russell has displaced Ed Considine for the starting assignment at center.

Coach Coggins is starting George Mandes, 200-pound tackle; Ross Chaimson and Charlie Jones, hard-blocking guards, and Bill Vermillion, in the back field, all having displaced regulars. The three were made eligible by the advisory. The Central back field will find Johnnie Jones starting at quarter back instead of Capt. Don Dunlap.

No. Roosevelt.	Position.	Central No.
21 Kollus	L.E.	Whedon 13
8 Spelta	L.T.	Mandes 70
1 Lewis	L.G.	Chaimson 19
Russell	Center	Dunn 33
24 G.Papanicolas	R.G.	C.Jones 34
12 Hayman	R.T.	Munn 58
25 Beamer	R.E.	Kline 15
Baroni	Q.B.	J.Jones 12
17 Hill	L.H.	Vermillion 29
22 Lyman	R.H.	N.Sabatini 18
18 Bovello	F.B.	Richardson 11

Substitutes: Roosevelt—Sheahan (28), Witt (19), Spivock (16), Considine (26), Saur (20), Marlowe (7), Hughes (6), Foley (23). Central—Dunlap (14), Pistolas (17), King (20), Buah (24), La Salle (41), Groome (10), Kusch (21), McCallum (23), Menehan (26), O. Sabaatini (16), Wooten (27). Referee—Paul Magoffin (Michigan). Umpire—Paul Cohill (Lehigh). Head linesman—Henry O'Meara (Gonzaga).

Three Big Games Here On Saturday

Continued from Page 17.

gridiron are the Old Liners and Cavaliers. Maryland on Saturday will be seeking revenge for its 7-6 beating at the hands of the Cavaliers last season.

Like Catholic University, Maryland within the last two weeks has developed amazing power, holding Navy to a 16-13 victory, beating V. P. I. and upsetting Florida, 21 to 0. Against the 'Gators at Baltimore last Saturday, Maryland displayed the Capital's most versatile backfield, which romped to three touchdowns with a brilliant assortment of shovel passes, spinner plays and reverses.

For the first Saturday since the opening game with St. John's, Maryland will be performing at home. Except when they traveled to foreign fields, Maryland fans have not witnessed the effective and almost magical handling of the ball by the team's four capable backs, Sothoron, Guckeyson, Sachs and Stonebraker.

Lord Jim, Trotting Champ, Sleepy Head

Urbana, Ohio (U.P.).—Lord Jim, the harness racing sport's new trotting champion since his victory in the Hambletonian, is just naturally lazy.

At the stables of Dr. H. M. Parshall here, where Lord Jim spends the months off the racing calendar, the sleek trotter is known to handlers as a confirmed sleepy-head. When not running, he is almost completely relaxed.

It is characteristic of Lord Jim to lope onto the track, head drooping, in an awkward manner before a race. It is only when the starting signal is given that his manner changes.

Can't Lose

"Expert" Seer Says Derby Will End in Dead Heat.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Oct. 29 (AP).—Charlie Bishop, whose accurate forecasts of the results of many sports events have won him wide publicity, has the 1935 Kentucky Derby "all figured out."

Charlie—he lives in the Union Printers home here—said today, "There will be an epochal Derby race next year. Two horses will run a dead heat for first place, or so close a heat that the judges will have to decide by vote. There will be an argument that will last a century."

Charlie didn't do so bad on his "Darby" picks last spring, the race fans recall. He picked Cavalcade, Discovery and Agrarian to finish in that order and they did.

Before the recent World Series he predicted the Cardinals would win in a seven-game battle.

Old Foes Bury Hatchet, Vie Saturday

Just Think of All the Fun Princeton, Harvard Have Missed.

By Jimmy Powers
(Pinch hitting for Paul Gallico).

NEW YORK, Oct. 29.—A long, famous and unfortunate football feud ends in the Harvard Stadium next Saturday afternoon when Capt. Moose Kalbaugh of Princeton stands with fingers on his kidney pad cocking an inquisitive eye at a spinning coin.

I wish I were better equipped to discuss the changing passions of the human heart. I wish I were a philosopher, for here is an excellent chance to discern some deep moral truth. The Princetons and the Harvards in A. D. 1926 were very angry at each other. The Princetons and the Harvards discover in A. D. 1934 that they are not. This is a common cardiac somersault and it is the great riddle of our existence.

But look, if you please, how intelligently the young men renew their athletic relations. A cartoon in the Harvard Lampoon, more than anything else, caused the break. It depicted two pigs swollen to fantastic proportions, tubby snouts, industriously ploughing the earth. The caption read, "Come, brother, let us root for dear old Princeton."

Missed a Lot of Fun.

The fine old schools, rivals since 1877, immediately divorced themselves in athletics. Think of all the fun they missed—the after-game parties in Boston and Princeton and New York; the fireside post mortems through the long, snowy winter nights; the house parties, the dates, all the little thrills and joys that mean so much to youth and so much more to old grads in retrospect. Why some little Boston debutante with shining eyes and an altogether sweet way of subduing her R's undoubtedly missed a chance to meet and marry a stalwart Princeton hero. She may have been a very little girl, and alas, she may have giggled when she first saw the famed cartoon of the innocent swine.

People seem to be more concerned over what other people think of them than over what other people do to them. The quabbling among the footballers the familiar cases of slugging, the twisted-knee injury that is suddenly made to seem deliberate, the harsh words magnified—all these did not wedge Princeton and Harvard apart. The breaking point arrived with the publication of the Undergraduate Tom Nast's masterpiece. It seems the young men of '26 and their stuffy elders could not take it.

To Publish Joint Issue.

Now, what do you suppose today's rival students have done? They very wisely have decided to publish a joint issue of their magazines and circulate it in the Cambridge Stadium Saturday. They have encouraged amateur artists on each campus to submit drawings frankly spoofing the enemy. They have invited Yale's best limner to do a center spread with carte blanche to take both universities for a ride. You can't tell me these scions of the rich will grow up to be stuffed shirts.

Consciously or not, the students have recognized that the best way to fight a malady is to build a toleration for it. On Saturday they will inject doses of the sense-of-humor serum. These undergraduate magazines, incidentally, make excellent mirrors. You can gaze into their depths and discover community flaws. Do the Princetons overly affect a rugged masculinity? Do the Harvards concern themselves too much with haberdashery? Do the Yales attempt a contempt for masculine beauty and revel in convict haircuts? Look to the shop of the college journal. There stands an ink-stained noble St. John crying out in a wilderness of clanking presses.

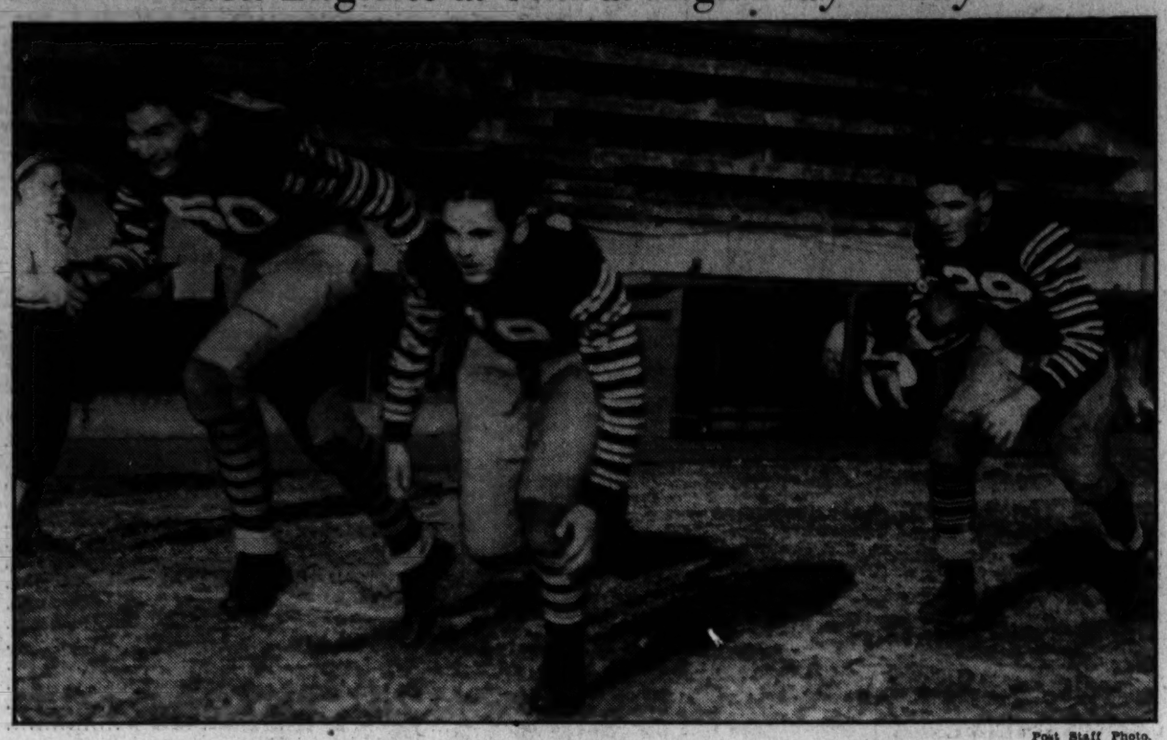
May Not Be as Bad.

No man, when you face the facts, has a right ever to feel completely insulted. He may not be the liar you called him but he very likely may be a petty rogue. He may not be the boor you charge him to be but he is probably an undiscovered craven. The Princeton men of '26 might have employed their signet rings as embroidery needles on the sacrosanct Harvard brows.

I don't profess to know, but I do wager that if they did not, they did something else in the way of plain or fancy infighting. And so did the Harvards in retaliation. Any man who has played football will tell you it is humanly impossible to go through a varsity career of rough-and-tumble contact and not take out your annoyance at sometime or other by hauling off and punching some poor fellow on the nose.

(Copyright, 1934, by Chicago Tribune-New York News Syndicate, Inc.)

New Eligibles at Central High Play Today



Post Staff Photo.

Made eligible by the new advisory, these Central High first-stringers will start against Roosevelt today in their first interhigh game of the season. Left to right—Bill Mandes, 200-pound tackle; Ross Chaimson, guard, and Bill Vermillion, back.

Women Name Five to Pick Officers

Set November 7 as Date of President's Cup Golf Tourney.

FIVE well-known golfers yesterday were appointed on the nominating committee to bring in a ticket of officers for the District Women's Golf Association.

Serving the committee are Mrs. Leonard B. Schloss, of Woodmont Country Club; Mrs. A. E. Dedicke, of Army and Navy; Mrs. C. E. Purdy, of Beaver Dam; Mrs. Harrison Brand, jr., of Chevy Chase, and Miss Mary Minnix, of Columbia.

The association rules stipulate that the committee must bring in a slate of officers within 30 days. Officers to be nominated are a president, two vice presidents, secretary and a treasurer. On December 26 the installation ceremonies will be held at Columbia Country Club.

Prominently Mentioned.

At yesterday's meeting of the executive committee, held in the law offices of Miss Elizabeth C. Harris, president, the names of Mrs. Howard Simons, of Manor, tournament chairman; Mrs. N. J. Waldron, of Beaver Dam; Mrs. H. L. Quinter, of Columbia, and Mrs. Don Scott, of Indian Spring, were prominently mentioned for president. Mrs. Simons, it is understood, has the inside track.

Wednesday, November 7, was set as the date for the President's Cup tournament, with Kenwood the scene. Mrs. Frank R. Keefer, of Chevy Chase, is the donor. Only officers and members of the executive committees of the association can compete.

Attending yesterday's meeting were Miss Harris, Mrs. Keefer, Mrs. Dedicke, Mrs. Quinter, Miss Hacker, Mrs. Waldron, Mrs. Douglas Tschiffely, Washington Golf and Country Club; Mrs. J. F. Gross, Indian Spring; Mrs. R. C. Miller, Kenwood; Mrs. Ralph Goldsmith and Mrs. Theodore Peyser, Woodmont, and Mrs. Ralph W. Payne, Congressional.

Illinois in Secret Drill for Army

Regulars Are Given Only Light Workout.

Champaign, Ill., Oct. 29 (AP).—For the first time of the season, spectators were barred from the sidelines as Coach Bob Zuppke started putting Illinois in shape for its battle with Army Saturday.

The regulars were given only light work, but the reserves scrimmaged against the freshmen. The yearlings were augumented by a pair of reserve backs, Steve Stieb and Earl Jansen, who imitated Jack Buckler, Army's ace back. They tore through for numerous gains.

Chicago Black Hawks Sign Paul Thompson

Chicago, Oct. 29 (AP).—Paul Thompson, star left winger who led the Chicago Black Hawks in scoring last season, signed a contract today, reducing hockey's Stanley Cup holders' list of holdouts to two.

Nothing has been heard from Elwyn (Doc) Rommes, center, or Clarence (Taffy) Abel, veteran defenseman, since they returned their contracts unsigned.

Nordlinger, With 8 Golf Titles, Hopes for 10 Before Quitting

Woodmont Star Started His String in 1923; Never Took Lesson.

UNIQUE in Middle Atlantic golf circles is Howard Nordlinger's record in club championships. Nordinger, strictly a week-end golfer, who says he never took a lesson in his life, has won the Woodmont Countty Club title 8 times in the last 11 years.

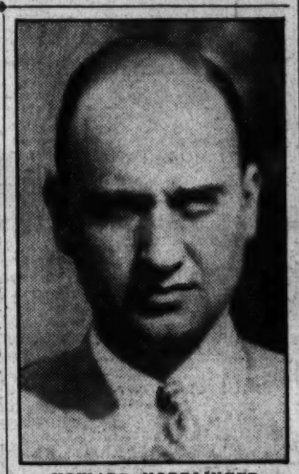
This is a target for other club marksmen to shoot at, notably Miller B. Stevinson, Columbia Country Club's veteran, winner of the crown six times at his club—and still going strong.

Although it would be difficult to prove, Nordlinger may be the only golfer in the world who has won a championship as many as eight times.

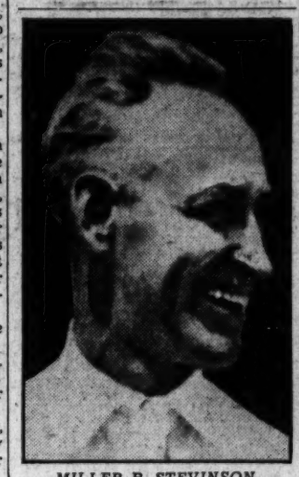
This 28-year-old Woodmont player captured his first title in 1923, about two years after he learned to play. He triumphed in 1926, 1927, 1929, 1931, 1932, 1933 and again this season. One reason why Nordlinger's didn't win more club championships was because he wasn't in town to play in them.

Stevinson hopes to hang up ten club titles before retiring from the game. He scored his first triumph in 1925, regained his crown in 1928, repeated in 1929. He was victorious in 1932, 1933 and this year. In four other championships Stevinson has been a finalist. Outside of Everett Eynon, he is the only other golfer at Columbia who has won the championship twice in succession.

There was a time when George Voigt was the class in Bannockburn Club championships. Luther C. Steward, jr., has won four titles at Congressional, and Leroy Sasscer has taken two at Indian Spring. Thus far this season Nordlinger, Steward and Stevinson are the only club champions who retained their 1933 crowns.



HOWARD NORDLINGER.



MILLER B. STEVINSON.

Gallaudet Plays American Eleven

Intracity Foes in Annual Battle Saturday.

Washington's lone intracity football series that has not been affected by the changing tides of football fortunes will bloom again Saturday when American U. plays host to Gallaudet.

Neither team has been overly successful against outside opposition, but when they meet in annual battle it always is a battle. This year's should be no exception.

Gallaudet's closest approach to victory was a scoreless tie with Lewisburg College. American, however, scored over Bridgewater.

Harvard Frosh Prefer Tennis

Cambridge, Mass. (U.P.).—Harvard freshmen prefer tennis above all other fall sports.

Statistics reveal that 203 of the 1,031 students in the class of 1938 participate in tennis, with swimming and sculling next in order of popularity. Crew, which was tied with tennis last year as the most popular sport, has dropped to fourth, while only 131 participate in football.

Pitt Scouts Warn Panthers of Irish

Best Notre Dame Eleven Since '30, Says Kern.

Pittsburgh, Oct. 29 (AP).—The power of Pitt will be fired at Notre Dame on Saturday in a game marking the twenty-fifth anniversary of gridiron warfare between the institutions. Although the Panther is the big favorite, the squad tonight heard glowing descriptions of the Irish comeback.

"It's the best football team I've seen at South Bend since 1930 and it's a team that's going to compare favorably with that great machine," said Bill Kern, ace Pitt scout, tonight.

Missouri Ball Teams Had Good 1934 Season

Kansas City, Mo. (U.P.).—Missouri baseball teams did themselves proud this year.

The feat of the St. Louis Cardinals in winning the world series is common history. Other winners were St. Joseph, which won the Western League title, and Springfield, which won the Western Association pennant. To offset this, however, Kansas City was far in the ruck in the American Association race.

Guggino Winner In Semifinal Bout

De Grasse took a split decision from Frankie Covelli in a 10-round furious fight at the Riding and Hunt Club last night.

Carl Cuggino out-speeded, outboxed and out-punched Dominick Nicco to take a split decision in an interesting featherweight eight-round semifinal at the Riding and Hunt Club.

Boxing with greater skill and speed than he ever before has displayed locally, the Florida flurry converted Nicco into a chopping block as early as the third round. By the fourth, he had the claret flowing freely from the Brooklyn boy's nose. By the final round, he was spraying leather at Nick almost at will.

Judge Bob Eller voted the fray a draw.

Danny Tardugno Victor.

Danny Tardugno, the best of the punching Portuguese family, won a split decision from Eddie Burl, of Jacksonville, in a furious six-round brawl. Tardugno took the first two rounds decisively, flooring Burl in each. The third went to Eddie as Tardugno was penalized for holding and hitting. Burl took the fifth with a body attack, but dropped the sixth as the Boston belter found the range again with his left.

Joe Marro, Brooklyn middleweight, stopped Roger Dunn, of Philadelphia, in the second round of a scheduled six-round opener. Marro dumped Dunn with a right hand to the short ribs after the second canto had gone 2 minutes and 43 seconds.

Minnesotans Are Given Rest From Grid Wars

Minneapolis, Oct. 29 (AP).—Coach Bierman today delivered the orthodox Monday chalk talk to Minnesota's gridders, excluding drill in uniform, in initial preparations to meet Michigan next Saturday.

All in good shape except for scratches and bruises, the Gophers promised to have full power at hand for the annual little brown jug struggle. Bierman said positively that Art Clarkson, kept out of the Iowa game, would be ready for Michigan.

Banquet Is Scheduled For Kensington A. C.

In celebration of a successful season, fans of Kensington, Md., are holding a testimonial banquet in honor of the members of the Kensington Athletic Club. The banquet is to be held November 3, at 7:30 p. m.

A list of prominent and interesting speakers is being prepared by the committee in charge, which includes P. F. McKeever, C. H. Davidson, jr., and T. L. Saxon

Berg Defeats Mizler To Win English Title

London, Oct. 29 (AP).—Jackie (Kid) Berg, the Whitechapel whirlwind, tonight won the lightweight boxing championship of Great Britain when Harry Mizler's seconds threw in the towel at the end of the tenth round of the scheduled 15-round bout. Berg weighed 135 pounds and Mizler, 134⅞.

Riverdale Terps Win.

The Riverdale Terps, 115-pound eleven, defeated the Randolph team yesterday, 6 to 0. Froda and Krauss starred for the Terps.

Washington Sports Week

TODAY.
Football.
Central High vs. Roosevelt High (Interhigh series), Central Stadium, 3:30 p. m.
Golf.
Hole-in-one tournament for women, at Chevy Chase.

TOMORROW.
Boxing.
Washington Auditorium card—Main event, Frankie Hughes vs. Mike Frattini, welterweights, 10 rounds; 8:30 p. m.

FRIDAY.
Football.
Tech vs. Western (Interhigh series), Central Stadium, 3:30 p. m.
Georgetown Freshmen vs. U. of Richmond Freshmen, at Richmond.
Georgetown Prep vs. St. Alban's, at St. Alban's, 3 p. m.
St. John's vs. Bullis (field to be announced).
Alexandria High vs. Washington-Lee High, at Ballston, 3:30 p. m.
Dunbar High vs. Douglass High of Baltimore, at Dunbar Stadium, 3:30 p. m.

SATURDAY.
Football.
George Washington vs. Vanderbilt, at Griffith Stadium, 2:30 p. m.
Catholic U. vs. Western Maryland, at Brookland Stadium, 2:30 p. m.
Maryland vs. Virginia, at College Park, 2:30 p. m.
American U. vs. Gallaudet, at American, 2:30 p. m.
Georgetown vs. U. of Richmond, at Richmond.
Howard U. vs. Morgan U., at Howard Stadium, 2:30 p. m.
Episcopal High vs. St. Christopher's, at Alexandria.

Pro Gridders Pile Up Points

Giants and Bears Nearing High Scoring Record.

NEW YORK, Oct. 29 (AP).—At least two new records are in prospect in the National Football League this season.

The champion Chicago Bears have scored 182 points in seven games and are almost certain to top the total of 244 points piled up by the New York Giants in 1933.

Official team statistics follow:

Western Division.	Yards gained.	Oppo. yards.	Passes tried.	Passes comp.
Chicago Bears..	2,447	1,100	110	34
Detroit	1,991	835	77	26
Green Bay	1,438	1,384	98	41
Chicago Cards..	937	986	96	21
Cincinnati	822	2,210	105	29
Eastern Division.
New York	1,328	1,356	71	23
Boston	1,331	1,563	79	21
Brooklyn	670	1,122	66	15
Pittsburgh	1,928	2,353	147	49
Philadelphia	1,505	1,419	90	22

Movies Tempt Shields.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—Francis X. Shields, top-ranking American singles tennis player, announced tonight he is giving serious thought to signing a movie contract proffered by one of the large Hollywood film-producing companies.

Football Games For This Week

FRIDAY.

Home team.	Opponent.	At.	1933 Score.
*Duquesne	W.Va.Wes.	Pittsburgh	25- 0
Grabiner	Gettelhorpe	Greenwood	6-13
Fairmt.Teh	Salem	Fairmont	6-13
*Loyola,N.O	Xavier,Cin.	N. Orleans	7- 0
*Loyola,L.A.	Redlands	Los Angeles	——
*Mercer	W. and J.	Macon	——
*St. Louis	Mo. Min.	St. Louis	26- 0
St. Marys	Wash. State	S. Francisco	——
SATURDAY.
EAST.
Albright	Norravian	Reading	——
Allegheny	Oberlin	Meadville	0- 6
American U.	Gallaudet	Washington	6-35
Amherst	Mass. State	Amherst	14- 0
Baltimore	Shenandoah	Baltimore	19- 7
Bates	Bowdoin	Lewiston	7- 7
Boston Col.	Villanova	Boston	3- 6
Brown	Springfield	Providence	13- 6
Brooklyn C.	Lowell	New York	0- 0
Catholic U.	Western Md.	Washington	——
Clarkson	Buffalo	Potsdam	26- 0
Coast G. Ac.	Wesn. State	N. London	0- 0
Columbia	Cornell	New York	0- 6
Cortland T.	Trenton Tch.	Cortlandt	54- 0
Delaware	Dickinson	Newark, Del.	——
Fordham	Tennessee	Lancaster	3-14
F. and M.	Muhlenberg	New York	——
Geo. Wash.	Vanderbilt	Washington	——
Gettysburg	Lehigh	Gettysburg	——
Grove City	Westminster	Grove City	12- 0
Harvard	Princeton	Cambridge	——
Ithaca	E.Stroudsb.	Ithaca	0- 9
Juniata	Lebanon Va.	Huntingdon	7-27
Maine	Colby	Orono	18- 7
Marriland	Virginia	College Pk.	0- 6
Montclr.Teh	N.Y.Aggies	Montclair	6- 6
Navy	W. and L.	Annapolis	——
N. Y. Univ.	Carnegie T.	New York	7- 0
Niagara	Providence	Niagara F.	7- 6
Northeast'n	Arnold	Boston	12-13
Oswego Teh.	Harwich	Oswego	7- 0
Penn State	Syracuse	State Coll.	6-12
Penn	Lafayette	Philadelphia	19- 7
Pittsburgh	Notre Dame	Pittsburgh	14- 0
R. P. I.	Hamilton	Troy	8-20
Rhode Isl'd.	Worcester	Kingston	20- 7
Rochester	Rochester	Rochester	0- 0
Rutgers	Boston U.	N.Brunswick	——
St. Joseph	P. M. C.	Overbrook	8-27
St. Lawrence	Alfred	Canton	12- 6
Swarthmore	Johns Hop.	Swarthmore	26- 7
Temple	Holy Cross	Philadelphia	——
Trinity	Wesleyan	Hartford	14- 6
Tufts	U. Hamp.	Medford	6-13
Union	Williams	Schenectady	0-13
Ursinus	Drexel	Collegeville	7- 0
Vermont	Norwich	Burlington	19- 0
Wash. Col.	Susquehanna	Chestertown	0- 6
*Waynesb'rg	Geneva	Waynesburg	7-14
W.Virginia	Ohio U.	Parkersburg	——
Yale	Dartmouth	New Haven	14-13
SOUTH.
Auburn	Duke	Birmingham	7-13
Centenary	Ouachita	Shreveport	——
*Emory-Hnr	Wake Forest	Emory	——
Florida	Georgia	Jacksonville	0-14
Furman	Bucknell	Greenville	0-12
Ga. Tech	N. Carolina	Atlanta	10- 6
Hamp-Syd.	St.John's(Md	Lynchburg	6- 0
Kentucky	Alabama	Lexington	0-20
Louisiana	Miss. State	Baton R'ge	21- 6
Louisville	Centre	Louisville	0-30
N. C. State	Clemson	Raleigh	0- 9
Rice	Tex.A.&M.	Houston	7- 0
Richmond	Georgetown	Richmond	——
Sewanee	Tenn. Tech	Sewanee	13- 0
S. Carolina	V. P. I.	Columbia	12- 0
Texas	S. Methodist	Austin	10- 0
Tex.Christ'n	Baylor	Fort Worth	0- 7
Tex. A.&M.	Arkansas	Coll. Station	——
Tulane	Mississippi	N. Orleans	——
WEST.
Chicago	Purdue	Chicago	0-14
Cincinnati	Marshall	Cincinnati	19- 0
Creighton	Grinnell	Omaha	6- 0
Detroit	Okla.A.&M.	Detroit	——
Drake	Haskell	DesMoines	——
Illinois	Army	Champaign	0- 6
Indiana	Iowa	Bloomington	——
Iowa State	Kansas	Ames	6-20
Mich. State	Marquette	E. Lansing	6- 0
Miami(Ohio)	Ohio Wesley	Oxford	24- 0
Minnesota	Michigan	Minneapolis	0- 0
Northw'rn	Wisconsin	Evanston	——
Oklahoma	Missouri	Norman	21- 0
*Washburn	Kans. State	Topeka	——
Wash.(St.L.)	Butler	St. Louis	36-12
W. Reserve	Ohio State	Cleveland	——
FAR WEST.
*Arizona	N. Mexico	Tucson	0- 7
Brig. Y'g	Utah State	Provo	6-14
California	Santa Clara	Berkeley	0- 7
Denver	Colo. Coll.	Denver	31- 0
Idaho	Coll. Idaho	Moscow	13- 0
Oregon	Montana	Eugene	——
U. C. L. A.	Stanford	Los Angeles	0- 3
Washington	Oreg. State	Seattle	——

*Night game. †Sunday game.

Greatest Year Near Reality For Hoyas

Meglen Is Most Improved Man on Team; Small Squad a Handicap.

HALFWAY through the season with its goal line uncrossed, Georgetown wins the palm for the most improved District ball club over last season, and to Coach Jack Hagerty must be given the lion's share of credit.

The Hoyas demonstrated conclusively that they have what it takes by tying New York University Saturday in New York. If they continue to improve, and there is reason to believe that they will, the boys will give the Blue and Gray a record such as it has not boasted since Lou Little coached at the Hilltop.

Faces Richmond U.

Georgetown faces Richmond Saturday. Next in line is Roanoke. Tough little teams that will be gunning for the District eleven and Hagerty's men can not afford to let down despite their four strenuous games. After that comes Maryland — Georgetown's biggest game this season. Should the Hoyas face the Terrapins undefeated, standing room in College Park on November 24 will be at a premium.

Joe Meglen, whose great kicking saved the team more than once, is the most improved player on the roster. From a mediocre, clumsy rookie, he has developed into a clever, hard-running back who can pick his holes. Meglen also has turned into a money player. Place him in a tight spot and he'll outdo himself.

Parcells Improves.

Next to him Chubby Parcells has shown the greatest improvement. Best of all, these two are improving with each game. Against Maryland you'll see two highly polished tackles. Parcells is a smarter field general than last season and undeniably the best punt-returner in local grid circles, and that includes Leemans, of G. W., Sothoron, of Maryland, and Augusterfer, of Catholic U.

Hagerty has been handicapped by a small squad this year—a situation he should not have to cope with next season. In all he has used only 16 players in four games. He simply hasn't had reserves to rest his men. On top of that, he has not opened up with his bag of tricks. The Hoyas have not used more than a half-dozen plays. And still they are undefeated and unscored on.

Alex. Battles Wash.-Lee Friday

Twins and Generals Are Pointing for Titular Gridiron Clash.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 29 (Spl.). Alexandria High School held a brisk scrimmage today in preparation for next Friday's titular tilt with Washington-Lee High School on the latter's home field. This game is all that stands in the Twins' way of a District Title as the Generals have already defeated Fredericksburg.

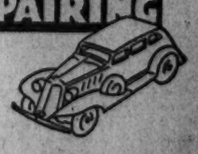
Last week, the Generals scored an easy 21-to-0 victory over St. Johns, of Washington, although most of the regulars were kept on the sidelines. The Generals used only straight plays and played under wraps.

Coach Driver has been pointing for the Alexandria game. Every game between the two schools has been hard fought to the last minute. This contest has become the major attraction in football in northern Virginia.

Officials of the Arlington County school have made preparations for handling a capacity crowd in their new stadium.

BRAKES
Relined, 4 Wheels, Complete
Ford '28 to '34 / Chev. '30 to '32
$4.50
Other Cars Proportionately Low
GENERAL BRAKE SERVICE
903 N ST. N.W. DE. 5483

Expert BODY REPAIRING



You wouldn't wear a suit that was spotted and torn. Why drive a car with dents and scratches. Bring it to the Capital Garage Body Repair Shop and have all these things eliminated. Keep the depreciation on your car at a minimum.
CAR PROTECTION AT THE CAPITAL GARAGE
1320 New York Ave. N. W.

Series Checks Mailed to Cards and Tigers

St. Louis Champions to Receive $5,389 Each, Rivals $3,354.

Chicago, Oct. 29 (AP).—Wives of the Detroit and St. Louis Cardinal ball playing regulars, managers and coaches can start their big shopping tours at once. Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis has mailed their husbands' world series checks.

Taxes reduced the players' pool from the original, unofficial estimate, but the players received some good-sized checks. The Cardinals received $137,739.19 as the winner's share, cutting their melon into 25 full shares of $5,389.57 each and dividing $3,000 among eight members of their baseball family. Charley Gelbert, whose baseball career was halted by a hunting accident, received $1,000 from his liberal mates.

The vanquished Detroit Tigers received $91,826.13, of which 26 players, coaches and Manager Mickey Cochrane received full shares of $3,354.68 each. The remainder was cut into six slices, Neil Conway getting $1,677.34 as the largest of the six.

On the basis of their shareholding plans, each New York Giant regular received $913.07, each New York Yankee regular received $763.09. The player pool for each of the runner-up teams was $24,596.29.

Joe Medwick, Cardinal outfielder, and Third Baseman Marvin Owen of the Tigers, who stopped the final ball game with their big battle around third base, each received full shares from the commissioner, indicating that the commissioner had decided to let the incident drop at least without plastering either or both with fines.

Each third place team, the Cleveland Indians and the Chicago Cubs, received a pool of $16,397.53 for distribution; each of the fourth place clubs, the Boston teams in each league, received a total of $6,198.76.

Medwick-Owen Incident Apparently Closed; Both Get Shares.

Mileage-Metered HYVIS MOTOR OILS
SUPER-REFINED PENNSYLVANIA
HIGH SPEED
Motor cars of today will not operate satisfactorily on all kinds of oil. HyVis, a 100% Pennsylvania put up in sealed cans has a lubricant suitable for your car according to its make and mileage.
WASHINGTON BATTERY CO.
1146-19TH ST. N.W. at M ST.

Stocks Retreat Four-Tenths In Small Sales

Traders Await U. S. Steel Report; Trading Cut to 428,470 Shares.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—Stocks retreated a little further today in the face of scattered liquidation but trading was the smallest in nearly a month. After the market had displayed firming tendencies, traders shied away from the share list in late dealings as wheat tumbled sharply.

Despite reiteration of inflation fears in some quarters, the general pattern of financial markets did not bear them out. The dollar maintained its strength in foreign exchange dealings and United States Government bonds were firm.

Traders in stocks had their eyes focused toward the quarterly meeting of the United States Steel Corporation directors tomorrow. The general expectation of a poor third-quarter earnings statement from that source, together with an uncertain business picture, contributed to an atmosphere of hesitancy.

Steel Shares Sag.

Steel shares sagged a little with other groups, although actual operations of the industry were somewhat higher. The American Iron & Steel Institute estimated production this week at 25 per cent of capacity, up 1.1 points from a week ago.

Turnover decreased to 428,470 shares, the smallest since October 3, compared with 869,850 Friday. With trading so restricted, the Standard Statistics Co. average for 90 stocks was only four-tenths of a point lower at 69.4.

Movements of stocks reflected little more than inertia in speculative quarters.

On Gaining List.

Safeway Stores, Standard Oil of California and other so-called California stocks picked up additional gains as financial interests took heart from latest reports on political trends in that State. Safeway gained a point. Other chain stores, including Kroeger, yielded a little ground, while the market watched developments in the Great Atlantic & Pacific's Cleveland difficulties.

Baldwin Locomotive preferred recovered more than 2 points after its severe decline last week. Rails eased. Santa Fe, Pennsylvania and New York Central closed fractionally lower. The break in wheat brought a little selling into Montgomery Ward, J. I. Case and Sears Roebuck. American Telephone, Bethlehem Steel, General Motors, American Can and Du Pont sagged a bit with the general list. Oils were steady, aided by improvement in the gasoline market.

Jewel Tea rose more than a point on announcement of an extra dividend of 50 cents a share.

The New York Stock Exchange announced a transfer of a seat at $97,000, off $3,000 from the previous sale.

Chicago Stocks.

(Furnished by W. B. Hibbs & Co.)

	Bid.	Asked.
Yellow Taxi	10	10¼
Thompson	5	5½
Wahl	1¼	1½
Butler Brothers	8	8½
National Leather	1	1¼
Swift	17⅞	18⅛
Swift International	37	37⅛
Libby, McNeil & Libby	6¼	6⅜
Midwest Oil		¼
City Com. com		¼
City Com. pfd	1¼	2
Edison	40¼	41
Public Service, $100 par	11½	12¼
Public Service, no par	11⅞	12¼
Quaker com	127	127½
Quaker pfd	127	130
Bendix	11⅝	12
Borg Warner	21⅞	22⅛
Illinois Brick	4	4¼
U. S. Gypsum	38	41
Great Lakes Dock & Dredge	16½	17
Conso. com		¼
Conso. pfd	1½	2
Electric Household	13¾	14½
McCord	8¼	12½

Bank Stocks

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—New York Security Dealers' Association.

Bank and Trust.	Bid.	Asked.
Bank of Manhattan (12)	25¼	26¾
Bankers Trust (3)	54	56
Brooklyn Trust (4)	85	90
Cen. Han. Bk. & Tr. (7a)	111	115
Chase National (1.40)	23¼	24¾
Chem. Bk. & Tr. (1.80)	38½	40½
Commercial (6)	131	141
Cont. Bk. & Tr. (.80)	11¾	13¼
Corn. Ex. & Tr. (3)	43½	44¼
Empire Tr. (1)	17¾	18¾
Fifth Avenue (34a)	970	1020
First Boston Corp	17⅜	18⅞
First Natl. (100)	1415	1455
Guaranty Tr. (20)	292	297
Irving Tr. (1)	14⅜	15¾
Manufacturer's Tr. (1)	18	19½
Natl. City (12)	20½	22
N. Y. Trust (5)	94	97
Public (1½)	28¼	29¾
Title G. & T.	5¼	5¾
United St. Tr. (70a)	1635	1685
Insurance.
Aetna Cas. (2)	49	51
Aetna Fire (1.60)	39¼	41½
Aetna Life (.20g)	14	15¼
Agricultural (2.60)	56	59½
Amn. Reinsur. (2½)	43½	45½
Amn. Surety (1⅝g)	25¼	26¾
Balt. Amn.		5
Boston (16)	495	510
Conn. Gen. Lif. (.80)	24¼	25½
Fid. & Dep. (1⅛g)	35	36½
Firemens Ins.	5	6
Franklin Fire (1.10a)	22¾	24½
Glen Falls (1.60)	29½	31½
Globe & Rut	38	42
Great Amn. (1)	17¾	18¾
Halifax (.60)	17½	19
Hanover (1.80)	32	34
Hartford Fire (2)	52¾	54¾
Home Ins. (1.15a)	25	26½
Lincoln Fire	2¾	3½
Mass. Bond	14½	15½
Natl. Fire (2)	52¾	54¾
Natl. Liberty (½g)	6½	7½
N. Y. Fire	10½	12
Nor. River (.85a)	21	22½
Phoenix (2)	63	65¼
Prov. Wash. (1)	27½	28½
St. Paul Fire (6)	158	163
Springfield (4½)	98	101
Sun Life	340	350
Travelers (16)	384	394
U. S. Fire (1.70a)	39	41
Westchester (1.40a)	25¾	27

a) Including extras.
(a) Declared or paid so far this year.

Money Markets

Foreign Exchange.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—Foreign exchange irregular; Great Britain in dollars, others in cents.

Great Britain—Demand, 4.96⅝; cables, 4.96⅝.

France—Demand, 6.59¼; cables, 6.59¼.

Demand Rates.

Italy	8.55⅛	*Austria	18.91
Belgium	20.35	*Hungary	20.97
Germany	40.28	Rumania	1.10
Holland	67.73	*Argentina	33.07
Norway	24.97	*Brazil	5.61
Sweden	26.62	Tokyo	28.90
Denmark	22.19	Shanghai	33.50
Finland	2.20	Hongkong	40.60
Switzerland	22.51	Mexico City
Spain	13.67	(silver peso)	2785
Portugal	4.51	Montreal in New York	102.26
Greece	94½
Czechoslovakia	4.18⅛	New York in Montreal	97.81¼
Yugoslavia	2.30

*Nominal.

New York.

Call money, steady; 1 per cent all day. Time loans steady; 60 days-6 months, ¾-1 per cent. Prime commercial paper, ¾. Bankers' acceptances unchanged. 30 days, ¼-⅜; 60-90 days, ⅜-½; 4 months, ½-⅝; 5-6 months, ⅝-¾. Rediscount rate, New York Reserve Bank, 1½ per cent.

Bar silver barely steady, ½ lower at 43¾.

London.

Bar gold advanced 1½ pence to 140s 7d. U. S. equivalent $34.84 on basis of sterling opening at $4.95⅛. Money, 1½ per cent. Discount rates, short and three-month bills, ½-⅝ per cent.

Bar silver quiet, ⅛ lower at 23¾d.

Paris.

Three per cent rentes, 73 francs 55 centimes; 4½ per cent rentes, 87.60. Exchange on London, 75.13. The dollar was quoted at 15.16.

Finance, Business, Economics

Effect of New Security Regulation Has Tendency to Favor Type of Speculative Operations It Was Designed to Curb, Observer Charges.

Special Correspondence of The Post.

New York, Oct. 29.—An anomalous effect of the new security legislation has been its tendency to favor, in some respects, the very type of speculative operations it was avowedly designed to curb.

The Federal Securities Act, it has often been said, hampers the distribution of highly speculative securities of new promotions less than the sale of seasoned issues. New enterprises have no history. They can not, therefore, provide much of the information which older, established concerns must include in the registration statements required for new security offerings. Unscrupulous vendors of securities of new promotions, it is common knowledge, often imply, where they do not openly assert, that issues they sell have passed muster as to quality by the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Similarly, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, now fully in effect, in some respects encourages less conservative brokerage practices. In particular, the margin provisions promulgated by the Federal Reserve Board are less strict in many particulars than the rules long applied by conservative brokerage houses. The present required margin of 25 to 45 per cent of the selling price of a registered security is less than many houses have required, especially on low-priced stocks. Many of the latter are now quoted near the lowest price at which they have sold since July 1, 1933, and so enjoy the 25 per cent margin requirement under the Reserve Board's rules.

Brokers who had stricter requirements previously prefer to retain them, and are ignoring the more generous provisions promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission. This brings complaints from customers who charge it is an excess of zeal to apply stricter rules than those of the Reserve Board.

Experiences Strengthen Belief Regulation May Prove Futile.

These experiences strengthen the belief of many careful observers in the financial district that the effort to regulate the security business in detail will prove futile. As an alternative, it is suggested that the margin and other restrictions in the act, which now serve no protective or stabilizing function, should be made applicable only at times when the Securities and Exchange Commission finds that excessive speculative activity is getting under way, or when some other specific purpose can be served thereby.

Certainly, as far as the immediate conduct of trading activity by the public is concerned, the new margin regulations appear to be "much ado about nothing." The act provided that accounts in existence when the regulations go into effect (actually October 15) are to be exempt from its provisions until July 1, 1937. In practice, however, the need for setting up separate "old accounts," subject to complex regulations, has discouraged both customers and brokers. Relatively few such "old accounts" are in existence.

Perhaps the chief effect of the new regulations on the great bulk of existing margin accounts, now classed as "new accounts," has been to bar unregistered securities, including such important groups of unlisted issues as bank stocks, insurance stocks and numerous issues of local public utility bonds and stocks throughout the country, from the privilege of being carried in margin accounts as collateral. However, many brokerage houses have long discriminated against unlisted securities in their margin accounts.

Procedure for Regulations Regarded of Least Importance.

The procedure in the Federal accounts which become undermargined is regarded as being of least practical importance. The time honored practice of the brokers, upheld by the courts, has been to send notice of margin calls for the deposit of additional cash or securities to customers whose accounts are undermargined.

Investors and speculators are going on occasion to lose money on both new offerings and trading in already issued securities in the future, as they have in the past. This will prove disappointing to the many people in this country who mistakenly regard the new legislation as a means of avoiding losses for individual investors, which it never was meant to be.

Resulting resentment, it is feared, may evoke agitation for making the legislation stricter and more rigid, rather than to curtail its scope where needed to encourage, rather than hamper offerings of high grade investments. This danger of popular resentment and demands for more radical security legislation is recognized, and is being given serious attention at the current annual meeting of the Investment Bankers Association of America at White Sulphur Springs, at which members of the Securities and Exchange Commission are present to participate in open forums where the new security legislation is being given serious discussion.

Foreign Markets.

(Associated Press.)

London—Big institutions by investing their surplus funds caused many gilt-edged securities to advance to new high records on the stock exchange today. Industrial and oil shares improved, while business otherwise was quiet and the tendency uncertain. The market closed irregular.

Paris—Month-end liquidation weighed heavily on the bourse today, counteracting the favorable impression made by the Radical Socialist convention at Nantes upon the French political situation. The closing was heavy.

Berlin—After a steady opening, prices on the boerse were unsettled due to the lack of orders. Potash and lignite shares were lower. The closing was weak.

Dried Fruits.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—EVAPORATED APPLES—Barely steady; choice, 10½@11; fancy, 11½@11¾; extra fancy, 12@12½.
PRUNES—Steady; California, 4½@9; Oregon, 7½@10.
APRICOTS—Steady; choice, 18; extra choice, 18½; fancy, 19½.
PEACHES—Barely steady; standard, 8¾@8¾; choice, 9@9¼; extra choice, 9¼@9½.
RAISINS—Steady; loose Muscatels, 6@6½; choice to fancy, seeded, 5¾@6¼; seedless, 5½@5¾.
FIGS—Steady; California, fancy, Black Mission, 10½@11; Adriatic, 10@10½; Kadota, unquoted.

Bond Market Is Unchanged; At 84.4 Level

Fairly Steady Tone Prevails With Narrow Fluctuations in Prices.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—A fairly steady tone prevailed in today's bond market, but price changes generally were inconsequential and trading extremely dull.

Transfers totaled only $7,745,000, par value, against $10,233,000 last Friday. The day's aggregate was the the smallest since August 20 last.

The Standard Statistics Co. average for 60 domestic corporate loans was again unchanged at 84.4.

Bright Spot in Market.

A bright spot in the market was the firmness of United States Government securities. Although the turnover in the Federals amounted to only about $1,850,000, advances of 1-32d to 14-32d of a point predominated.

The best gains were made by the Federal Farm and Home Owners Loan obligations. Home Loan 4s, no longer convertible into the fully guaranteed 3s, recorded the maximum advance.

Baldwin Locomotive 6s, on the curb, dropped 8 more points, but the 5s, on the "big board," were unchanged at 100¼. The various Paramount issues held gains of 1 to 2 points as reorganization plans appeared to be maturing.

Small Advances Made.

Small advances were also registered by bonds of Western Union, Western Electric, United Drug, Union Oil of California, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Studebaker, New York Edison, National Steel, National Dairy, McKesson, Lorillard, American Telephone and American & Foreign Power.

Losers of fractions to around a point or more included some loans of Tennessee Electric Power, Postal Telegraph, Nassau Electric, Lehigh Valley Coal, International Telephone, Goodrich, General Steel Castings and Armour & Co. The rails did little.

The foreign department was exceptionally quiet and somewhat mixed. Rome City 6½s got up 1¼ points to 85½ and Belgian 7s advanced 1 to 105½.

Curb Displays Irregularities; Volume Drops

Market Closes Down as Sales Decrease to 84,000 Shares.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—The curb market started the week with irregular price changes today. Volume was exceptionally small, transfers dwindling to 84,000 shares compared with 145,000 last Friday.

Opening quotations were narrow and the list worked a trifle higher around noon, particularly some of the specialties. Selling appeared in the last hour and closing values were generally lowest for the day.

Great Atlantic & Pacific issues were weak features, dropping 3½ to 7 points, due largely to reports of labor unsettlement in some of the retail store units. National Sugar Refining, Fajardo Sugar and Ford of Canada "A" lost 1 to 2 points. Gulf Oil advanced 2 while other firm specialties included Aluminum Co. of America, Davenport Hosiery and Sherwin-Williams.

Metals were narrow, with Bunker Hill & Sullivan and Lake Shore finishing unchanged. American Cyanamid "B," Pittsburgh Plate Glass, American Gas & Electric, Swift & Co., and International Petroleum showed slight recessions.

Treasury Certificates.

(Reported by Charles D. Barney & Co.)

Rate.	Maturity.	Bid.	Offer.
2½	Dec. 15, 1934	100 22-32	100 24-32
2½	Mar. 15, 1935	101 8-32	101 10-32
3	June 15, 1935	102	102 2-32
1¾	Aug. 1, 1935	101 3-32	101 5-32
2½	Dec. 15, 1935	102 10-32	102 12-32
2½	Apr. 15, 1936	102 30-32	103
3¼	Aug. 1, 1936	103 28-32	103 30-32
1½	Sept. 15, 1936	100 27-32	100 29-32
2¼	Dec. 15, 1936	101 11-32	101 14-32
3	Feb. 15, 1937	103 22-32	103 25-32
3	Apr. 15, 1937	103 22-32	103 25-32
3¼	Sept. 15, 1937	104 11-32	104 14-32
2¾	Feb. 1, 1938	102 20-32	102 23-32
3	Mar. 15, 1938	103 20-32	103 23-32
2⅞	June 15, 1938	103 10-32	103 13-32
2½	Sept. 15, 1938	102	102 3-32
2⅛	June 15, 1939	100 24-32	100 27-32

Baltimore Securities.

Baltimore, Oct. 29.—Closing prices:

Stocks.
Black & Decker	6
Houston Oil pf. n. vt.	6½
Maryland Casualty	½
Monong. W. Pa. P. S. 7% pf.	18¼

Montreal Silver Futures.

Montreal, Oct. 29 (AP).—Silver futures closed dull. Sales 2 contracts.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
December	52.45†	....	....	52.00†
March	53.35†	....	....	52.90†
May	54.00	54.00	54.00	53.50†

†Bid.

The Markets at a Glance

What the Stock Market Did.

	Mon.	Sat.
Advances	142	123
Declines	288	180
Unchanged	158	128
Total issues	588	431

Stocks—Small trading volume resulted and stocks continued to sag. Dealers awaited the United States Steel report. Declines averaged four-tenths of a point. Sales dropped to 428,470 shares.

Bonds—Price fluctuations were narrow and the market closed unchanged from the 84.4 level. Trading was extremely dull. Sales volume dropped to $7,745,000.

Curb—Irregular price changes marked trading and quotations averaged lower. Sales volume decreased to 84,000 shares.

Wheat—Values declined to new lows for the season. The drop was blamed on reported restrictions on the Winnipeg exchange. Prices fell about 2 cents per bushel. December wheat sold at 95; May, at 94¼.

Cotton—Prices continued to move lower under selling. The general market declined 1 to 8 points. December sold at 12.20; January, at 12.23.

Sugar—Raw sugar was lower, at 2.90; refined stood unchanged, at 4.65.

Coffee—Spot coffee was quiet. Santos, No. 4, sold at 11¼; Rio, No. 7, at 9¼.

Silver—Bar silver was lower. In New York it dropped ⅛, to 52⅞ cents per ounce. In London it fell ⅛, to 23⅝ pence.

Gold—Bar gold sold in London at 140 shillings and 7 pence.

Dollar—The United States dollar was steady on foreign exchanges. It stood in New York, with reference to other currencies, $4.96⅝ to the English pound; 6.59¼ cents to the franc, and 40.28 cents to the German mark.

Securities Averages.

(Associated Press.)

Stocks.	50 Indus.	20 Rails.	20 Util.	90 Tot.
Yesterday	81.1	35.9	55.2	69.6
Previous day	81.6	36.1	55.5	70.0
Week ago	83.7	36.7	56.6	71.6
Month ago	83.7	37.6	59.3	72.3
Year ago	83.7	39.6	71.6	74.8
3 years ago	78.0	47.4	117.8	80.3
7 years ago	132.6	116.7	120.8	124.7
High (1934)	105.0	54.3	90.3	93.8
Low (1934)	76.0	34.1	53.6	66.4
High (1933)	102.1	58.0	113.7	96.9
Low (1933)	42.3	23.5	61.1	43.9
High (1932)	72.3	39.8	111.0	73.9
Low (1932)	35.1	13.2	51.8	35.0

Bonds.	20 Indus.	20 Rails.	20 Util.	60 Tot.
Yesterday	82.6	82.0	88.7	84.4
Previous day	82.4	82.1	88.6	84.4
Week ago	82.6	82.4	88.3	84.5
Month ago	82.3	80.5	87.9	83.6
Year ago	72.0	72.4	79.8	74.7
2 years ago	62.9	65.2	82.0	70.0
3 years ago	72.7	80.1	90.3	81.0
High (1934)	83.9	90.0	90.6	88.1
Low (1934)	72.6	74.1	77.2	74.8
High (1933)	77.1	84.9	88.5	83.4
Low (1933)	58.3	57.0	74.1	63.6
High (1932)	71.3	78.0	86.2	78.1
Low (1932)	53.2	47.4	70.9	57.5

(1926 average equals 100.)
(Copyright, 1934, Standard Statistics Co.)

Metal Market.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—COPPER—Quiet; electrolytic, spot and future, Blue Eagle, 9.00.
TIN—Steady; spot and nearby and future, 51.10.
IRON—Quiet; No. 2, f. o. b. eastern Pennsylvania, 19.50; Buffalo, 18.50; Alabama, 14.50.
LEAD—Steady; spot, New York, 3.70; East St. Louis, 3.55.
ZINC—Firm; East St. Louis, spot and future, 3.85.
ALUMINUM—20.00@23.30.
ANTIMONY—Spot, 9.50.
QUICKSILVER—74.50@77.00.

U. S. Treasury Receipts.

(Associated Press.)

The position of the Treasury October 26 was: Receipts, $9,619,436.65; expenditures, $29,163,759.81; balance, $1,826,702,114.44; customs receipts for the month, $26,447,-135.98.

Receipts for the fiscal year (since July 1), $1,188,474,720.96; expenditures, $2,108,-923,208.63 (including $1,088,015,131.98 of emergency expenditures); excess of expenditures, $920,448,487.67; gold assets, $7,995,-686,901.45.

Week's Stock Sales.

New York, Oct. 29.—Total reported stock transactions, including inactives, on the New York Stock Exchange during the week ended Saturday, October 27, aggregated 3,989,580 shares. Daily totals follow:

Monday	573,080
Tuesday	847,680
Wednesday	772,200
Thursday	1,027,970
Friday	869,670
Saturday	203,980

Transactions on N. Y. Bond Market

(Associated Press.)

Total bond sales yesterday, $7,745,000. Previous day, $4,602,000. Week ago, $10,-811,000. Year ago, $12,448,000. Two years ago, $5,789,000. January 1 to date, $3,185,-363,000. Year ago, $2,776,258,000. Two years ago, $2,556,593,000.

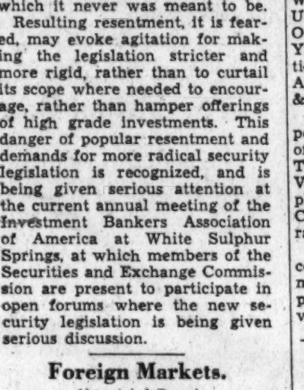
U. S. GOVERNMENT BONDS.
(Sales in $1,000. Dollars and 32ds.)

Liberty
47 3½	'32-47	104.6	104.3	104.6
31 4¼	'32-47	103.24	103.20	103.24
18 4¼	'33-38	104	103.30	104
44 4¼	'33-38cld	102.9	102.8	102.8
Treasury
29 4¼	'47-52	112.5	112	112.5
60 4¼	'43-45	102.5	102	102.5
64 4	'44-54	108	107.27	108
178 3¾	'46-56	106.5	105.31	106.5
5 3⅜	'40-43 June	103.18	103.18	103.18
1 3⅜	'43-47	103.8	103.8	103.8
16 3⅜	'41-43 Mch	103.18	103.16	103.18
193 3¼	'41	103.21	103.16	103.20
81 3¼	'44-46	102.4	101.31	102.4
2 3¼	reg '44-46	101.31	101.31	101.31
12 3⅛	'46-49	101.7	101.3	101.7
40 3	'46-48	100.4	100.1	100.4
59 3	'51-55	100.4	100	100.4
149	Fd Fm Mtg 3 '49	98.8	97.30	98.8
12	Fd F M 3¼ '64	101.1	100.28	101.1
205	Hm O Ln 4 '51	98.15	97.29	98.12
298	Hm O Ln 3 '52A	98.6	97.26	98.6
244	H O L 3¾ '39-49	95.4	94.26	95.4

CORPORATION BONDS.

Sales		High	Low	Last
	A
1	Alleghany 5 '50	26½	26½	26½
8	Am & For P 5 2030	52½	52	52½
25	AmIGChem 5½ '49	99½	99	99
3	Am Roll M 5 '38	104¼	104	104
14	Am Smelt 5 '47	105¼	105¼	105¼
20	Am T & T 5½ '43	112¼	112	112¼
21	Am T & T 5 '65	110¾	110	110¾
1	Am T & T 4½ '39	108⅛	108⅛	108⅛
9	Am W W & E 5 '44	100⅜	100⅛	100⅜
38	Arm 4½ '39	101⅞	101½	101⅞
3	Ark&SP ext 4½ '48	105¾	105¾	105¾
31	A T & S F 4 '95	103¾	103½	103½
3	A O Line 1st 4 '52	97¾	97¾	97¾
19	Atl Refin 5 '37	107⅛	107⅛	107⅛
	B
10	B & O rfg 6 '95	82¾	82½	82½
6	B & O 1st 5 '48	106⅛	106⅛	106⅛
11	B & O cvt 4½ '60	55⅜	55	55
17	B & O 4 '48	100¾	100½	100½
5	Bell TPa 5 '48 B	112½	112½	112½
5	Boston&Me 5 '67	71¾	71¾	71¾
22	Bklyn M Tran 6 '68	103¾	103	103¾
5	Buf R&P 4½ '57	67	67	67
4	Bush T Bldg 5 '60	54	54	54
	C
17	Can NatRy 4½ '56	111½	111	111¼
1	Can Nat Ry 4½ '68	107½	107½	107½
11	Can Nor 7 '40	108⅜	108	108
10	Can Pac 4½ '60	94	93⅞	94
42	Can Pac 4 perp	81½	81	81½
2	Cen Ill E&G 5 '51	67½	67	67½
4	Cen Pac 5 '60	74	73⅝	73⅝
8	Cen Pac 1st 4 '49	95½	95	95½
22	Certain-td 5½ '48	60⅜	59½	59½
22	Chesap Corp 5 '47	102½	102	102
1	C&O gen 4½ '92	110⅜	110⅛	110⅜
13	CB&Q gen 4 '58	104⅜	104⅛	104⅜
1	Chic Ot West 4 '59	33	33	33
34	CMSP&Pac 5 '75	28⅜	25½	25½
11	CMSP&P adj 5 2000	7¼	7¼	7¼
24	Chi&NW cv 4¾ '49	27	26¼	26¼
2	CRI&P cvt 4½ '60	7½	7½	7½
14	CRI&P rfg 4 '34	18½	17¾	17¾
1	Chile Copp 5 '47	71	70¾	72¼
8	Cinn G & E 4 '66	102¾	102¾	102¾
5	CCC&StL 4½ '77E	71	71	71
17	Clev U T 4½ '77C	88½	88⅜	88½
1	Col Indus 5 '34	23½	23⅜	23⅜
5	Colmbia G 5 '61	84¼	83¾	83¾
16	Comml Inv T 5½ '49	110	109¾	110
17	C Gas NY 5½ '45	106½	106½	106½
2	Crown Cork 6 '47	106	106	106
7	Cuba N Ry 5½ '42	36	36	36
29	Cub Cane Pr 6 '50	2½	2¼	2½
	D
31	Del & Hud rfg 4 '43	95	94½	94½
7	Del Ed 5 '32	108¾	108⅜	108⅜
16	Det Ed 4½ '61	105¾	105½	105¾
35	Dodge Bros 6 '40	107¾	107	107¼
1	Duque L 4½ '67 A	108⅜	108⅜	108⅜
	E
3	Erie rf 5 67	66¼	66	66⅛
72	Erie gen lien 4 '96	73	72¼	72¼
	G
4	Gen Cable 5½ '47	74¾	74¾	74¾
5	Gen Petrol 5 '40	106½	106½	106½
9	Gen Rlt Cast 5½ '40	71	70	70
2	Goodrich 6½ '47	106	106	106
11	Goodyr T & R 5 '57	102½	102½	102½
4	Gr Tk Rr Can 6 '36	106¾	106¾	106¾
23	Gt Nor Ry 7 '36	89¾	89	89
18	Gt Nor 4½ '77 E	74¼	73	74¼
	H
19	Hudson Coal 5 '62A	46	45½	46
23	Hudson&Man rfg 5 '57	86	85¾	85¾
6	Hud&Man inc 5 '57	38¾	38¼	38¾

Bond Averages Daily



Sales		High	Low	Last
	I
12	Ill Bell Tel 5 '56	110⅝	110¼	110½
29	Ill Cen 4¾ '66	59	58½	58½
14	IC&CStL&NO 5 '63A	75½	74¼	74¼
13	Ill Steel 4½ '40	107⅜	107	107½
39	Inland St 4½ '78 A	101½	100¾	101¼
8	Interb R Tr 4 '32	51¾	51¼	51¾
35	Interb R Tr rfg 5'56	76½	76¼	76½
19	Int Cement 5 '48	93½	92½	92¾
13	Int Hydro El 6 '44	46½	46	46½
13	Int Paper 5 '47	67	66	66¼
13	Int T&T 4½ '52	55	54¾	54¾
20	Int T&T deb 5 '55	60	59¾	59¾
	K
17	K C P&L 4½ '61	109¾	109¾	109¾
5	K C South 5 '50	73¼	73¼	73¼
10	Kans G&E 4½ '80	98½	97¾	97¾
	L
2	Lac Gas 5½ '53	64¾	64¾	64¾
2	Lautaro Nit 6 '54	11⅛	11	11¼
3	Low's Inc 6 '41	103	102⅞	102⅞
10	Lorillard Co 5 '51	110¼	110¼	110¼
1	Louis & N 4 '40	103¾	103¾	103¾
	M
3	Manhat Ry 4 '90	51¼	51	51
25	McKes&Rob 5½ '50	88¾	88¾	88¾
6	Midvale Stl 5 '36	103	102¾	103
6	Mil El Ry&L 5 '61 B	79	78½	79
3	MSP&SSM con 4 '38	34½	34½	34½
13	Mo Pac 5½ '49	7½	7½	7½
10	Mo Pac 5 '77 F	25½	25¼	25¼
4	Mo Pac gen 4 '75	9¼	9¼	9¼
16	Mo Pac 5 '81 I	25½	25	25
5	Mont Pw rfg 5 '43	93	93	93
	N
57	Nat Dairy 5½ '48	99⅞	99½	99⅞
12	Natl Steel 5 '56	106	104⅞	105
2	New Eng T&T 5 '52	114½	114¼	114½
11	N O Pub Sv 5 '55 B	58¼	57¾	58
37	NYC cvt 6 '44	112½	111¾	112⅜
15	NYC rf 3 2013	65¾	65¼	65¾
15	NYC con 4 '98	84⅜	83½	84½
3	NYC&HR 4½ 2013	90¾	90¾	100¼
14	NY Ch&StL 4½ '78	56½	56	56
7	NY Edis 6½ '41	114½	114¼	114¼
2	NYNH&H cvt 6 '48	58½	58½	58½
5	NY Ry inc 6 '65	9	8¾	8¾
16	NY Tel 4½ '39	108½	108⅜	108½
2	NY W&Bos 4½ '46	37	37	37
4	Norf & W 4 '96	106¾	106¾	106¾
3	N Am Co 5 '61	87½	86	87½
4	N Am Ed 5½ '63	86¾	86¼	86¼
46	N Pac 6 2047	96½	96	96¼
4	Nor Pac 4 '97	98⅜	98⅜	98⅜
17	N States Pw 5 '41	104¾	104¾	104¾
	O
25	Or-W RR&N 4 '61	98¾	98	98½
1	Otis Steel 6 '41	56	56	56
	P
2	Pac G & El 5 '42	106	106	106
3	Pac T & T 5 '37	107½	107½	107½
63	Par-P-Las 6 '47filed	57¾	56	57¼
65	Par Pub 5½ '50filed	57¾	56	57¾
2	Penn Dix 6 '41 A	65¾	65¾	65¾
60	Pen P&L4 4½ '61	98	97¾	98
6	Pen RR gen 5 '68	108	107½	107½
21	Pen RR gen 4½ '65	102½	102	102
24	Pen RR 4½ '84 E	97	96¾	97
18	Pen RR

Iron and Steel Hail Improved Trade Outlook

Rate of Plant Operation Drops to 25½ Average for Past Week.

Cleveland, Oct. 29.—More favorable features are apparent in the iron and steel markets, resulting from a quickening in seasonal manufacturing operations, and the better feeling being established between business and the National Administration, states the magazine Steel.

Despite conservative consumer commitments, guaged by size of orders, steelmakers are confident the base is being laid for much broader improvement. Business appears to have discounted the results of the November election, and to be making progress.

In some instances steel production schedules have been stepped up in response to slight gains in tonnage, and in preparation for larger demands in the approaching month. The National average of steelworks operations last week, however, dropped 1 point to 25½ per cent.

Buying by Small Users.

Purchasing by small users with fairly steady requirements has been more consistent recently than from large consumers, who have been specifying in less-carload quantities to round out stocks. With automobile manufacturers nearing the starting line on 1935 assemblies, more activity in farm implement, stove and radiator manufacture, tonnage buyers are becoming more of a factor in the markets.

November is expected to develop further recession in production of present automobile models, but will mark a definite beginning on new models by leading manufacturers.

Attesting the Government's acceptance of steel prices, the Navy last week purchased 565 tons of plates and bars at the open market prices bid August 28, the first substantial purchase since NRA's recent ratification of the steel code and price policies. Four thousand tons of plates which the Navy has been withholding since they were bid October 12 are to be awarded this week. High-carbon spring wire has been reduced $6 a ton.

River Barge Work.

River barge work has become more active at Pittsburgh, coal and transportation interests about to close on 20 units, and an inquiry for 24 coal barges by a Chicago interest pending. Structural shape awards for the week dropped to 11,000 tons from 14,973 tons in the preceding week.

General contracts were awarded last week for the Los Angeles aqueduct project and 51,550 tons of steel is to be purchased shortly, 45,000 tons being reinforcing bars, one of the largest single orders for this material on record. Bids also are to be taken on 8,810 tons of shapes for two more units in the Golden Gate, San Francisco, bridge.

Colonial Beacon Oil Co., Albany, N. Y., has awarded six tanks, requiring 1,000 tons of plates. Five thousand tons of steel pipe may be required for the New York postoffice, on bids November 9.

Railroads are being offered a reduction from 4½ to 3½ per cent in interest charged for Government loans, but except for buying more machine tool repair parts to rehabilitate shop equipment they appear to be retrenching. Norfolk & Western has issued a tentative inquiry for 10,000 tons of rails for delivery next year. South Africa placed 2,500 tons with a Canadian mill.

Anglo-Mexican Petroleum Corporation, New York, has purchased 75 tank cars, and the Delaware River Bridge commission is in the market for 44 subway cars. The Union Pacific has ordered 20 motor-coaches, and the Chicago Motor Coach Co., 75.

Further advances in scrap prices at Pittsburgh have made the net gain there 75 cents a ton, and the market also is stronger at Chicago. In eastern districts, however, steelmakers are reducing scrap inventories. Demand for foundry pig iron continues to rise; a machinery manufacturer is reported to have placed 2,000 tons.

Japanese Seek Imports.

Japanese interests have applied to their government for permission to import 100,000 tons of steel to repair damages to areas recently swept by typhoons. Steel's London cablegram states British makers have booked 4,000 tons of steel for a tanker for a South American company.

Steelworks operations at Cleveland last week increased 7 points to 38 per cent; Wheeling, 6 to 29; Pittsburgh, 1 to 21; Chicago, ½-point to 27½; eastern Pennsylvania, ½ to 20. Youngstown was off 4 to 26; Birmingham, 15 to 10. Detroit held at 59; New England, 40; and Buffalo 24.

Due to the rise in scrap Steel's iron and steel price composite is up 3 cents to $32.12; the finished steel index is unchanged at $54; while the iron and steel scrap composite has advanced 17 cents to $9.54.

Sugar Futures' Declines Trimmed During Week

New York, Oct. 29.—Sugar futures moved to new low ground and then recovered part of the losses, in one of the most exciting week's trading in recent years. From Friday to Friday, while December showed a 6-point gain, January was 1 lower and the balance of the 1935 months 5 points lower.

Trading was heavy. The decline culminated on Tuesday with the final downward push the result of news that the Cuban Sugar Institute had called brokers into conference with the idea of finding refiners' views on price for the unsold balance of their 1934 quota (estimated at 360,000 tons). Values at the bottom were 27 to 31 points, about 15 per cent, under the top prices ruling October 1.

Visible Supply of U. S. Grain.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—The visible supply of American grain shows the following changes in bushels: Wheat decreased 1,787,000; corn decreased 198,000; oats decreased 109,000.

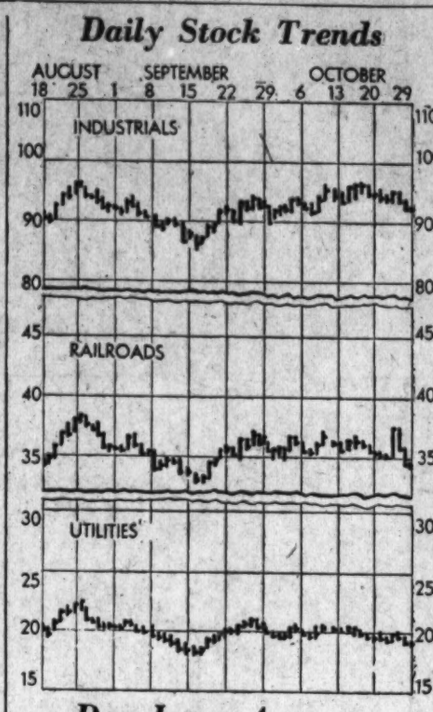
Complete Transactions Yesterday on New York Stock Exchange

(Associated Press.)

Sales—Total yesterday, 428,470; previous day, 293,890; week ago, 574,080; year ago, 1,489,130; two years ago, 385,060; January 1 to date, 281,465,204; year ago, 584,907,484; two years ago, 378,244,537.

—1934— High	Low	Name and Dividend	Rate	Sales—Add 00	High	Low	Close	Net Ch'ge.
		A
11⅞	6	Adams Express		8	6⅞	6⅝	6⅝	— ⅛
34⅝	16	Adams-Millis (2)		4	29	29	29	.....
8¾	3⅛	Advance Rume		4	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	.....
9¾	4⅛	Affiliat Prod (.40)		2	8	8	8	.....
23⅞	16⅝	Alaska Jun (1.20b)		13	18	17⅞	17⅞	.....
8¼	1½	Allegany		3	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	.....
14⅜	5	Allegany pfd xw		1	6¼	6¼	6¼	— 1
23½	15	Allegheny Steel (.15g)		18	18	18	18	.....
160¾	115½	Al Chem & Dye (6)		4	130½	129	129	+ 1¾
23⅝	10⅜	Allis-Ch Mfg		13	13¼	13⅛	13¾	.....
20½	11½	Alpha P Cem		1	13	13	13	.....
7⅝	2¼	Amal Lea		7	3	3	3	.....
45	25	Amal Lea pf (1½k)		1	27	27	27	+ ½
55⅜	39	Amerada (2)		11	40	39¼	40	+ 1
44½	20½	Am Ag Ch Del (2)		3	44	44	44	+ ½
25¼	11½	Am Bank Note		1	12½	12½	12½	— ½
107⅞	90¼	Am Can (4)		6	101	100	100	— ½
148½	126½	Am Can pf (7)		1	144½	144½	144½	+ 1½
33⅞	12	Am Car & Fdy		1	15½	15½	15½	.....
56½	32¼	Am Car & F pf		1	33	33	33	.....
40	19	Am Chain pf		1	21¼	21¼	21¼	— 1¾
65½	46½	Am Chicle (3½b)		11	65	65	65	+ 1
6¼	2¾	Am Colortype		4	2½	2½	2½	— ⅛
62½	20¾	Am Coal Alco		8	27	26½	26½	— ⅝
72⅞	46½	Am Cryst S pf		10	56½	56½	56½	— ⅛
5	1¼	Am Encaus Til		3	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	.....
13⅜	4½	Am & For Pow		3	5¾	5¾	5¾	.....
42¼	17¾	Am H & L pf		5	18½	18	18	— 3½
10	3½	Am Ice		1	3½	3½	3½	.....
38¾	14½	Am Loco		1	16¼	15⅞	15⅞	.....
27⅝	14½	Am Metal		5	15	14½	14½	— ⅛
19⅝	12⅜	Am M & Fdy (.80)		20	18⅜	17⅝	18⅛	+ ⅛
91	70¾	Am Met 6% pf		1	72	72	72	— 1
13½	3¾	Am Pow & Lt		4	4½	4½	4½	— ⅛
29⅞	11⅜	Am P & L 1st pf (1½)		1	14	14	14	.....
17⅝	10	Am Rad & St S		89	14⅜	13⅜	13⅜	.....
26½	13½	Am Roll Mill		33	18⅝	18¼	18½	.....
51¼	30¼	Am Smelt & R		4	35⅛	34⅛	34⅛	.....
68	48¾	Am Snuff (3¼b)		1	66¼	66¼	66¼	.....
26⅛	10¼	Am Stl Fdrs		3	13⅞	13⅝	13⅝	.....
81	59⅞	Am Stl P pf (2)		20	71	71	71	— ⅛
44¼	37	Am Stores (2½b)		1	42	42	42	— ⅛
21¼	13¾	Am Sumat Tob (1½b)		3	20½	19⅞	20⅛	+ ⅛
125¼	105¾	Am Tel & Tel (9)		42	110½	109¾	109⅝	— ⅛
82⅝	65¼	Am Tob (.75)		2	81⅝	80	80	— 1½
84½	67	Am Tob B (5)		10	80	79	79¼	.....
125	107¼	Am Tob pf (6)		2	124½	124¼	124¼	+ ½
13	3	Am Type Fdrs		6	4⅛	4	4	— ⅛
28⅜	7⅝	Am Type F pf		80	10½	10	10	.....
27⅝	14¼	Am Wat Wks (1)		10	18½	15	18½	+ ⅛
17⅛	8	Am Woolen		1	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝	— ⅛
83⅝	36	Am Woolen pf (2½k)		2	38	38	38	— ⅛
4¼	1	Am Wat P		1	1½	1½	1½	.....
17¾	10	Anaconda		23	10⅝	10½	10⅝	+ ⅛
24¾	13½	Anchor Cap (.60)		1	15⅛	15⅛	15⅛	+ ⅛
36	26⅛	Arch-Dan-M (1¼b)		1	34	34	34	— ⅛
99	76⅛	Armour Del pf (7)		1	98	98	98	+ ⅛
6¾	3⅛	Arm Ill		28	5⅞	5⅝	5⅝	— ⅛
67	46¼	Arm Ill pr pf (6)		3	64½	64	64	.....
8⅜	3	Arnold Const		5	5½	5½	5½	+ ⅛
18½	7½	Asso Dry Gds		1	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜	— ⅛
43⅜	43¼	Atch T & S F (2½)		19	81⅜	80½	80⅝	— ⅜
90	70½	Atchison pf (5)		6	81⅜	80	80	— 2½
54¼	24½	Atl Cst Line		10	29¼	28⅛	28⅛	— 1½
16	5	Atl G & W I		10	6	6	6	.....
35¼	21½	Atl Refin (1)		6	23½	23	23½	— ⅛
55½	35¼	Atlas Pow (2)		3	43⅝	43⅛	43⅛	— 1½
57⅜	16½	Auburn Auto		14	23½	23	23	.....
16⅜	7	Aust Nich		2	11⅜	11½	11½	— ⅛
10⅜	3¾	Aviation Corp		5	3¾	3¾	3¾	.....
		B
16	4⅜	Baldwin Loc		112	4⅞	4⅛	4⅜	.....
64⅜	16⅛	Bald Loc pf		3	18⅜	17	18⅜	+ 2⅛
34½	13¼	Balt & Ohio		9	18¼	18⅛	18¼	— ⅛
10	5⅞	Barnsdall		5	6	6	6	.....
43¼	23	Bayuk Cigar (4%f)		4	40¾	40½	40¾	+ ⅛
105½	89	Bayuk pf (7)		2	106½	106	106½	— ⅛
19½	10¼	Beatrice C		1	16⅜	16⅜	16⅜	— ⅛
15¼	8⅞	Belding-Hem (½g)		1	12¼	12¼	12¼	.....
23⅞	9¾	Bendix Aviat		2	11⅞	11⅜	11⅜	.....
19½	12½	Benef Ind Ln (1½)		5	15	14⅞	14⅞	— ⅛
36½	26	Best & Co (1½)		1	35¼	35¼	35¼	— ⅛
49½	24⅛	Bethlehem Stl		38	25	24½	24½	— ⅜
82	55	Beth Stl pf		4	55½	55	55	.....
40	19½	Bigelow-San (1g)		30	20½	20½	20½	— ⅛
26	17	Bloomingdale (.30g)		20	21½	21¼	21½	+ ⅛
10¾	6⅜	Boeing Airpl		4	7¼	6¾	6¾	— ⅛
68¾	44½	Bohn Alum (3)		8	52	52	52	.....
28½	19⅞	Borden (1.60)		13	25	24¼	24¼	— ⅛
28⅝	16⅛	Borg-Warner (¾g)		3	23¼	22⅝	22⅝	.....
19⅜	12	Briggs Mfg (1¼b)		7	17	16⅜	17	.....
97	82½	Bklyn-M T pf (6)		1	89⅜	89½	89½	— ⅛
80½	52	Bklyn Un Gas (8)		1	82½	82½	82½	+ ⅛
7¼	3	Budd Mfg		1	4⅜	4⅛	4⅛	+ ⅛
44	16	Budd Mfg pf		50	21½	21	21	.....
5⅜	2	Budd Wheel		1	2¼	2¼	2¼	— ⅛
15½	5⅞	Bullard Co		5	9	8½	8½	— ⅛
15½	4	Burns Bros pf		40	8½	8½	8½	+ ⅛
19⅜	10½	Burr Ad Mach (.65b)		6	14⅝	14¼	14¼	— ⅛
3⅞	¾	Bush Term		1	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	.....
3¼	1½	Butte Cop & Z		3	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞	.....
4⅜	1⅜	Butterick		3	1½	1½	1½	.....
32¾	13¾	Byers Co		2	16¼	15⅝	15⅝	— ⅛
		C
44⅜	18¾	Calif Pack (1⅝g)		7	37⅛	36½	36½	— ¾
1⅜	⅛	Callahan Z-Ld		1	⅜	⅜	⅜	.....
6⅝	2¾	Calumet & Hec		3	2⅞	2⅞	2⅞	— ⅛
18¼	11⅜	Canad Pac		8	12⅜	12	12	— ⅛
86¾	35	Case (J I)		22	45⅜	44½	44⅝	— ¾
84½	68⅝	Case (J I) pf (4)		2.80	72½	72½	72½	— 1¾
33⅜	23	Caterpil Tract (1⅛b)		10	29¼	28⅝	28⅝	— ⅜
44⅞	17⅛	Celanese		42	26¾	25½	26	— ⅜
22⅜	6½	Celotex pf		4	10⅛	9¼	9¼	— ⅜
32½	23⅜	Cent Aguir (1½)		1	24	24	24	— ⅛
43½	30¼	Cerro de Pas (1½g)		9	36⅜	36	36¼	+ ⅛
7	3½	Certain-teed		5	5	5	5	.....
48⅝	39½	Ches & Ohio (2.80)		13	42¾	42¼	42⅜	.....
48⅞	34	Ches Corp (2½)		2	38	38	38	— 1½
8	1⅜	Chi & E Ill pf		1	2	2	2	.....
15	4½	Chi & N W		2	5⅛	5½	5½	— ⅛
28	8¾	Chi & N W pf		3	10¼	10¼	10¼	— ⅛
5½	2	Chi Gt West		1	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝	+ ⅛
11⅞	4	Chi Gt W pf		1	4¼	4¼	4¼	.....
8	2½	Chi M St P & P		2	3	3	3	.....
13¼	3¾	Chi M St P & P pf		8	4⅞	4⅝	4⅝	.....
2	⅝	Chi Rls & P		2	2⅛	2⅛	2⅛	— ⅛
8	2	C R I & P 6% pf		2	2¾	2¾	2¾	.....
30¾	19¼	Chick Cot Oil (2)		3	25¾	25	25	— 1
17⅜	10¼	Chile Cop		10	12	12	12	.....
60⅜	29¼	Chrysler (1¼b)		78	34½	33½	33½	— ½
24⅜	17¼	City Ice & F (2)		7	18⅞	18¾	18⅝	.....
52	36	City Investing (2g)		10	38	38	38	— 6
2¼	½	City Stra		14	1½	1	1½	+ ⅛
57	30½	Coca-Cola A (3)		1	54⅜	54⅜	54⅜	— ⅜
18½	9⅜	Colgate-Palm (⅝b)		1	15⅝	15⅝	15⅝	— ⅛
11	5	Coll & Alk		4	11¼	11	11	.....
94	75	Coll & Alk pf (7)		30	77	76½	76½	— 1½
40⅜	18	Col & Sou		10	18¼	18¼	18¼	— ⅛
19¼	6⅞	Colum G & El		11	8⅜	8⅛	8¼	+ ⅛
39⅜	21½	Colum Pict vtc (1a)		1	34¼	34¼	34¼	— ⅛
77¼	49	Colum Carb (3.40)		1	67	67	67	+ ⅜
35½	18⅜	Coml Credit (1)		15	29⅜	29	29	.....
30	23½	Coml Cr pf (1¾)		30	28¼	27⅞	28⅛	.....
61	35¾	Coml Invest Tr (2)		7	49¾	49¼	49¼	+ ⅛
110¼	91	Coml Inv Tr pf (6h)		1	108¾	108¾	108¾	+ ⅛
36⅝	15¾	Coml Solv (.80)		11	18½	18¼	18⅝	— ⅛
3¾	1⅞	Com'wlth & Sou		26	1½	1⅝	1½	+ ⅛
52⅜	21½	Com & Sou pf (6)		4	32¼	31½	31½	— ⅝
31¼	22	Congoleum-Na (1.60)		12	29¼	29	29	+ 1
14½	7¼	Congress Cig		1	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝	.....
5¾	1⅜	Con Film		2	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	— ⅛
17½	10⅜	Con Film pf (1¾k)		7	15⅜	15¼	15¼	— ⅛
47⅜	25	Con Gas (2)		56	26	25⅝	25⅝	— ⅛
95	82	Con Gas pf (5)		1	86½	86½	86½	— ⅛
14½	7¼	Con Oil (.42g)		18	7¾	7½	7¾	+ ⅛
6¾	2½	Con R R Cuba pf		1	3	3	3	.....
2⅛	½	Con Text		8	¾	¾	¾	.....
13¼	6½	Container A		2	9	8¾	8¾	— ⅛
5¾	2¾	Container B		1	3¼	3¼	3¼	.....
2⅜	⅞	Cont Bak B		1	1	1	1	— ⅛
64	46¼	Cont Bak pf (4)		2	50⅜	50⅜	50⅜	.....
89¾	69½	Cont Can (2.40)		7	57⅝	57½	57⅝	+ ⅛
35½	23⅜	Cont Ins (1.20)		1	29½	29½	29½	— ⅛
2⅜	1¼	Cont Mot		14	1	1	1	.....
22¾	15¾	Cont Oil Del (1½g)		19	16	15⅝	16	.....
51	40½	Corn Exchange (3)		1	44	44	44	+ ⅛
84½	55½	Corn Prod (3)		5	62¾	61½	61½	— ⅜
9⅛	3⅜	Coty		2	5	4¾	4¾	— ⅛
38	28	Cream of Wh (2)		1	32⅜	32⅜	32⅜	.....
17½	8	Crosley Rad		12	8	8	8	— ⅛
36¼	18¾	Crown Cork (1)		10	23½	23	23½	+ ⅜
69	47	Crown WP pf (4)		10	66	66	66	+ 1¾
38⅜	17	Crucible Stl		2	18½	18⅛	18½	+ ⅛
3½	1	Cuba Co		2	1½	1½	1½	.....
9⅛	3½	Cuban-Am Sug		6	6¼	6	6	.....
85	20½	Cuban-Am S pf		10	47	47	47	.....
52⅜	37	Cudahy Pack (2½)		1	47½	47½	47½	+ ½
29⅜	13½	Curtis Pub		1	16⅜	16⅜	16⅜	— ⅜
5¼	2⅜	Curtiss-Wright		47	2½	2⅜	2⅜	— ⅛
12¼	5¼	Curtiss-Wr A		9	7	6⅝	6⅝	— ⅜
		D
34½	10½	Deere & Co		8	18	17⅜	17⅜	— ⅜
15½	10¼	Deere & Co pf (.40)		21	14⅜	14⅛	14⅜	— ⅛
73½	35	Del & Hud		4	38	37½	37½	— 1
33¾	14	Del Lack & W		32	17¾	17½	17⅝	+ ⅛
48¾	32	Dome Mines (3¼b)		7	39¾	38½	38¾	— 1¼
28½	14¾	Douglas Aire		10	17	16⅝	17	+ ⅛
19	8¼	Dresser A		2	12	11¾	12	+ ⅛
11¾	3	Dunhill Int		1	6	6	6	.....
103⅞	80	Dupont de N (3.10b)		14	91½	90¾	90¾	— ¼
127	115	Dupont deb (6)		4	126	125¾	126	.....
107	90	Duq Lt 1 pf (5)		10	105½	105½	105½	+ 1
		E
12¾	4⅜	Eastern Roll		1	5¼	5¼	5⅛	.....
106¾	79	Eastman Kod (4)		1	103½	103½	103½	— ⅛
147	120	East Kod pf (8)		30	143¼	143¼	143¼	.....
22½	12⅛	Eaton Mfg (1)		3	15⅛	15⅛	15⅛	+ ⅛
9¼	4¼	El & Mus (.20g)		4	7⅞	7⅝	7⅞	+ ⅛
31⅝	15	El Auto L		1	22¾	22¾	22¾	— ⅛
101	80	El Auto L pf (7)		80	99¼	99¼	99¼	+ ⅛
7½	3	El Boat		4	4¼	4	4	— ⅛
9¾	3½	El Pow & Lt		3	3⅞	3¾	3¾	.....
31	8¾	El P & L pf		1	9	9	9	.....
52	34	El Stor Bat (2)		1	41¼	41¼	41½	.....
24½	9¾	Erie R R		1	11½	11½	11½	.....
28¼	14⅜	Erie 1 pf		1	15½	15½	15½	— 1
14⅜	7	Eureka Vac Cl (½)		2	9	9	9	+ ⅛
2⅜	1	Fairbanks Co		10	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜	— ⅛
		F
11¼	4	Fed Lt & Trac		3	4¾	4⅝	4⅝	— ⅛
62	34⅛	Fed Lt & Trac pf (6)		20	50	50	50	.....
5⅜	2	Fed Screw		2	2⅜	2¼	2¼	.....
31	20	Federat D Strs (1b)		1	21½	21½	21½	+ ⅛
35	23¾	Fid P Fire Ins (1.20)		3	30	29½	30	+ 1
25⅝	13½	Firestone T & R (.40)		1	13¾	13¾	13¾	— ⅛
60¼	54½	First Nat Strs (3½)		8	64⅞	64½	64½	— ⅛
22	8½	Foster Wheel		4	10¼	10	10	.....
37½	17½	Fourth Nat Inv (.85g)		10	23	22	22½	+ ⅛
17½	8¼	Fox Film A		6	11¾	11¾	11¾	— ⅛
63	20	Frank Stan pf		20	22¼	22	22¼	+ 3¾
30⅜	21½	Freeport Tex (2)		10	27¼	26½	26½	+ ⅛
33½	14	Fuller pr pf		10	16½	16½	16½	— 3
19⅜	5	Fuller 2 pf		10	6½	6½	6½	.....
4⅜	1⅛	Gabriel A		3	1¾	1¾	1¾	— ⅛
		G
11½	8¾	Gen Am Inv		3	8⅜	8½	8½	— ⅛
43¾	30	Gen Am Trans (1)		1	34¼	34½	34½	.....
23½	12	Gen Asphalt		1	16	15⅞	15⅞	— ⅛
14⅜	7⅛	Gen Bak (.65g)		5	7⅛	7	7⅛	+ ⅛
108½	100	Gen Bak pf (8)		90	103⅝	103¼	103¼	— ⅜
10½	5	Gen Bronze		4	6½	6	6⅛	— ⅛
87½	27	Gen Cigar (7b)		2	51	50⅜	50⅜	+ ⅛
25¼	16⅞	Gen Elec (.60)		35	18¼	18	18	.....
12⅜	11⅜	Gen Elec spl (.60)		7	12½	12⅜	12⅜	— ⅛
36⅛	28	Gen Foods (1.80)		8	32	31⅝	31⅞	+ ⅛
1⅜	⅛	Gen G & El A		1	⅛	⅛	⅛	.....
62½	50	Gen Ital Ed (3.30)		1	62½	62½	62½	+ 1½
64½	51	Gen Mills (3)		3	58	57¼	58	+ ¼
42	24⅜	Gen Mot (1⅛b)		107	29¾	28¾	28⅝	— ⅛
104¼	89¾	Gen Mot pf (5)		2	103	103	103	.....
21	8¾	Gen Out Adv A		2	9½	8¾	8¾	— ⅛
25½	10½	Gen Print Ink (.70b)		80	17½	17½	17½	— ⅛
3⅜	1	Gen Real & Ut		1	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛	.....
19½	10	Gen Refract ctf		2	12	11¾	11¾	.....
13⅝	4½	Gillette (1)		10	14⅝	14¼	13⅞	— ⅛
66¼	47	Gillette pf (5)		10	65½	65	65½	+ ⅜
6⅝	2⅜	Gimbel Bros		10	4½	4⅛	4⅛	.....
28¾	15⅜	Glidden Co (1.15b)		5	22½	22	22	.....
9⅛	3¾	Gobel		10	4¾	4¼	4⅜	— ⅛
23	16	Gold Dust (1.20)		18	18½	18	18½	— ⅛
18	8	Goodrich		2	16½	16½	16½	+ ⅛
41¾	18½	Goodyear T & R		7	20	19¾	19¾	— ⅛
11¾	3¾	Goth Silk H		4	5¼	5	5¼	+ ⅛
2½	1½	Graham-Paige		14	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	.....
13⅜	5½	Granby Con M		3	8¾	8¾	8¾	+ ⅛
8¾	4	Grand Union		1	8¼	8¼	8¼	.....
15½	8½	Gt Nor Ir Ors ctf (⅝g)		3	11	11	11	— ⅛
32½	12¼	Gt No Ry pf		11	14¾	14½	14⅝	+ ⅛

Daily Stock Trends



Dow-Jones Averages

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—Dow-Jones averages:

Stocks—	Open	High	Low	Close.	Net ch.
30 industrials	93.04	93.80	92.37	92.53	—0.33
20 rails	34.88	35.04	34.60	34.69	—0.29
20 utilities	19.23	19.35	19.05	19.13	—0.06
Bonds—
40 bonds				93.49	+0.03
10 1st rails				101.62	+0.01
10 2d rails				94.69	+0.04
10 utilities				98.61	+0.02
10 industrials				97.10	+0.04

—1934— High	Low	Name and Dividend	Rate	Sales—Add 00	High	Low	Close	Net Ch'ge
		H
8¼	3⅛	Hahn Dept Strs		3	5¾	5½	5¾	— ⅛
52⅜	25¼	Hahn D Strs pf		1	40	40	40	.....
9⅜	3½	Hall Print		8	7½	6⅞	7⅛	— ⅜
6½	1½	Hat Corp A		1	4⅜	4⅜	4⅜	.....
8¾	1¼	Hayes Body		3	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝	.....
98½	74	Hazel-Atlas Gl (6)		2	82	82	82	+ 1
81⅝	59	Hercules Pow (3)		1	69¾	69¾	69¾	— ⅛
101	83	Hersh cv pf (5b)		2	96½	96½	96½	— ⅛
13	5¾	Hollander (½)		1	8¾	8¾	8¾	— ⅛
23¼	11	Houd-Her A (2½k)		2	20	20	20	+ ⅛
6½

50 Stocks Fall $283,361,750 In Listed Value

25 Representative Chicago Exchange Issues Drop $23,919,325.

New York, Oct. 29.—The market value of 50 representative stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange at the close of business for the week ended October 27 was $11,368,517,750, a decrease of $283,361,750, or 2.43 per cent, as compared with the market value of $11,651,879,500 at the close of the preceding week, according to a compilation by Paul H. Davis & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange.

At the close of the corresponding week a year ago, the same 50 stocks had a market value of $12,172,396,250, indicating a decrease during the year of $803,878,500, or 6.60 per cent.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 29.—Twenty-five representative stocks listed on the Chicago Stock Exchange had a market value at the close of business for the week ended October 27 of $425,544,875, a decrease of $23,919,325, or 5.32 per cent, as compared with the market value of $449,464,200 at the close of the previous week, according to a compilation by Paul H. Davis & Co., members of the Chicago Stock Exchange.

At the close of the corresponding week a year ago, the same 25 stocks had a market value of $441,214,500, indicating a decrease during the year of $15,669,625, or 3.55 per cent.

Local Produce

(Prices paid shippers, f. o. b. Washington). (By the U. S. Bureau of Agricultural Economics.)

Live Poultry.

POWLS—Colored, large, 16@18; mediums, 14@15; Leghorns, 11@12; roosters, 7@9; spring chickens, Plymouth Rocks, over 3 pounds, 17@18; under 3 pounds, 15@16; mixed colors, 14@15; Leghorns, 13@15; turkeys, old toms, 14; old hens, 16; spring turkeys, 10 pounds and over, 20@21; guinea fowls, 1½ pounds and over, 70@80 cents a pair.

Eggs

Current receipts, 27@29; hennery whites, 35@38; Government graded and dated white eggs, U. S. extras, large, 43½@46½; U. S. extras, mediums, 35; U. S. Standards, large, 37½; Government graded and dated brown eggs, U. S. extras, large, 38½; U. S. Standards, large, 27.

Fruits.

APPLES—Bushels, Virginia, Grimes, U. S. No. 1, 2¼ inches minimum, 75@90; 2½ inches minimum, 1.00@1.25; Staymans, U. S. No. 1, 2¼ inches minimum, 75@85; 2½ inches minimum, 1.00@1.25; few higher; Delicious, U. S. No. 1, 2¼ inches minimum, 1.00@1.15; 2½ inches minimum, 1.25; few higher.

CRANBERRIES—Massachusetts, ¼-barrel boxes, 2.90@3.00.

ORANGES—California, boxes, 5.50@5.75, according to grade and size.

GRAPEFRUIT—Florida, boxes, No. 2 2.25@2.50, according to size; truck receipts bushel hampers, 75@1.25.

PEARS—New York, bushel baskets, Sheldons and Seckels, 1.50@1.75; Bartletts, fair condition, 1.50@1.75.

Vegetables.

KALE—Maryland, bushel baskets, very few sales, 40.

PARSNIPS—Pennsylvania, bushel baskets, 60@75.

CABBAGE—Pennsylvania, domestic flat type, 80-lb. sacks, 60@80; 1½-bushel hampers, 60; fair condition, 50.

CELERY—New York, 2-3 crates, washed, 4-6 dozen, 1.50@2.00.

DRIED BEANS—North Carolina, bushel hampers, green, flat type, 1.50@2.00; poorer, lower.

SPINACH—Pennsylvania, bushel baskets, 50@65.

CAULIFLOWER—Long Island, crates, 1.00@1.25; fair condition, 75.

OKRA—Florida, bushel hampers, small sizes, 1.50@2.00; mixed, 1.00.

CUCUMBERS—Florida, bushel baskets, U. S. No. 1, 2.50; medium size, 1.50@2.00; culls, 1.00.

BROCCOLI—Pennsylvania, crates, 1.25.

EGGPLANT—Florida, 1½-bushel crates, best, 1.50; fair condition, 75@1.00.

SQUASH—Florida, bushel hampers, white scraped, fresh arrivals, 1.25@1.50; nearby bushel baskets, blue Hubbard, 50.

TOMATOES—California, lug boxes, ripes, wrapped, 6x6 and larger, 1.25@1.50.

CARROTS—California, crates, 1.35@1.50; Pennsylvania, bushel baskets, topped, 75.

BEETS—Pennsylvania, bunched, 25.

TURNIPS—Pennsylvania, bushel baskets, 40; nearby sections, bunched, 25.

LETTUCE—Western stock: California, Western crates, iceberg type, 4-5 dozen, 1.50@2.00.

ONIONS—New York, 50-lb. sacks, Yellows, U. S. No. 1, 1.10@1.15; few higher.

PEAS—California, bushel hampers, Telephones, 3.00@3.25.

POTATOES—Pennsylvania, 100-lb. sacks, Round Whites, U. S. No. 1, 90@1.00; Maine, 100-lb. sacks, Cobblers, U. S. No. 1, 1.10@1.15; Delaware, 100-lb. sacks, Round Whites, U. S. No. 1, 1.00; Idaho, 100-lb. sacks, Russet Burbanks, U. S. No. 1, 2.00; Long Island, 100-lb. sacks, Green Mountains, U. S. No. 1, 1.00.

SWEET POTATOES—North Carolina, bushel baskets, Puerto Ricans, 60@65.

(Quotations From Other Sources.)

Live Stock.

Hogs, light, 5.00@5.25; medium, 5.25@5.70; heavy, 4.50@5.00; pigs, 2.00@3.50; calves, 4.00@7.50; lambs, 4.00@6.00.

Meats.

Beef, 10@14; veal, 13@14; lambs, 13@15; cured loins, fresh, 18@19; frozen, 15@16; fresh hams, 18@19; smoked, 19@20; skinned shoulders, 23@24; lard, 11@12½; compound, 9¾@10½.

Butter.

One-pound prints (92 score), 29; tub, 28; 1-pound prints (90 score), 28; tub, 26; 1-pound prints (88 score), 27; tub, 26.

New York Produce.

New York, Oct. 29 (AP).—EGGS—Receipts, 10,187; firm; mixed colors, special packs or selections from fresh receipts, 29@35½; standards and commercial standards, 28@29; firsts, 25½@26; mediums, 24@25; seconds, 22@23½; dirties, No. 1, 42 lbs., 22@22¾; average checks, 20@20½; refrigerators, special packs, 23@23½; standards, 22½; firsts, 21½@22; seconds, 21@21¾; mediums, 21@21¼; dirties, 20½@20¾; checks, 17½@18. White eggs, resale of premium marks, 46½@47½; nearby special packs, including premiums, 46@46½; nearby and Midwestern hennery, exchange specials, 37@43½; nearby and Midwestern exchange standards, 30@36; marked premiums, 30@32; pullets, 26; peewees, 23; Pacific Coast, fresh, shell treated or liners, fancy, 43½@46; Pacific Coast standards, 39@43½; Pacific Coast shell treated or liners, mediums, 30@32½; Pacific Coast pullets, 25@26; refrigerators, nearby large, 23@27½; Pacific Coast, large, 27@30; browns, resale of premium marks, 39@40; nearby and Western special packs, private sales from store, 30@38½; Western standards, 28; Western refrigerator, finest, 23@25.

DRESSED POULTRY—Steady; chickens, fresh, 14@23; frozen, 17@25; fowls, fresh and frozen, 10@20; old roosters, fresh, 12@14; frozen, 11½@14; turkeys, fresh, 15@26; frozen, 20@27; ducks, fresh, 15@17; frozen, 17@17½.

LIVE POULTRY—Steady to firm; chickens, freight, 12@18; express, 13@18; broilers, fresh, unsexed, express, 20; fowls, freight, 11@18; express, 12@17; roosters, freight, 13; express, 12@14; turkeys, freight, 15@20; express, 20@25; ducks, freight, 11@13; express, 13@17.

BUTTER—Receipts, 7,935; firm; creamery, higher than extras, 28½@29½; extra (92 score), 28½; first (88 to 91 scores), 26@28½; seconds (84 to 87 scores), 24¾@25¼; centralized, 90 score, 27.

CHEESE—Receipts, 229,307; steady; State, whole milk flats, held, 1933 as to quality, 17@20; do., 1934 fancy to specials, 16½@18.

RAW SUGAR—Quiet today and no sales were reported. The easier ruling of futures allowed operators who own store sugars to sell at concessions from prices prevailing on Saturday, but refiners continued to hold aloof. At the present price of December store sugars were firmly offered at 2.86 delivered.

Baltimore Grain Prices.

Baltimore, Oct. 29.—WHEAT—Shipments from elevators, 6,000. Stock in elevators, 6,301,968 bushels. Opening prices were: No. 2 red, spot, garlicky, domestic, 97; October delivery, domestic, 97.

CORN—Shipments from elevators, 1,330 bushels. Stock in elevators, 52,963 bushels. Cob corn quoted at 4.50 per barrel for mixed; loads prime nearby yellow on spot. Offerings ample for present needs. Demand fair. No. 2 yellow corn arriving here by rail quoted at 93 per bushel with transit billing.

OATS—Shipments from elevators, 300 bushels. Stock in elevators, 25,998 bushels. No. 2 white oats, 61@65 per bushel, as to weight and location. Note—On all sales of oats to the local trade, excepting those to trade, there is an additional charge of 1½ cents per bushel for storage and elevation, which is paid by the buyer.

RYE—Receipts, 3,167 bushels by car. Stock in elevators, 106,870 bushels.

HAY—General hay market steady. Sample sale: On good timothy and clover mixed, prices range from 13.00@17.00 per ton. The nearer grades of hay are hard to sell at these prices. Market irregular on everything below No. 1 timothy.

Transactions on N. Y. Curb Market

(Associated Press.)

Total stock sales yesterday, 84,000 shares; year ago, 196,960 shares; total bond sales yesterday, $2,700,000; year ago, $2,108,000.

Sales in hundreds.		High	Low	Close
	A
.25	Adams Mil 1 pf (7)	100¼	100¼	100¼
2	Air Inv war	⅛	⅛	⅛
.30	Ala Pow $7 pf (7)	44½	42	43½
1	Allied Mills	7¼	7¼	7¼
1.50	Alum Co Am	51	50	51
2.50	Alum Co pf (1½)	65	64¾	65
.35	†Am Cit P&LA (3h)	27	27	27
2	†Am CitP&LB(.10g)	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
20	Am Cyan B (⅛g)	15¾	15½	15½
1	Am & Frn P war	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝
3	Am Founders	⅛	⅛	⅛
7	Am Gas&El (1a)	19¾	19¼	19¾
.50	†Am Maize (1¾g)	24	24	24
2	†Am Maracaibo	⅜	⅜	⅜
23	Am Sup Power	1½	1½	1½
1	†Arctur Rad Tube	⅜	⅜	⅜
2	Ark Nat Gas A	1	1	1
.10	Ark P&Lt pf(2.34g)	40	40	40
2	Armstrong Ck (¼g)	18½	18⅜	18½
2	†Art Met Wks(.10g)	2½	2⅜	2½
3	†As G & EL A	½	½	½
10	Atlas Corp	8¼	8⅛	8¼
1	Atlas Corp pf A(3)	46	46	46
3	Atlas Corp war	2¾	2¾	2¾
	B
2	Baldwin bond rts	2¼	2¼	2¼
1	†Blue Rid cv pf(3h)	32⅜	32⅜	32⅜
1	Brill B	⅝	⅝	⅝
7	Buf N&EP pf (1.60)	17¼	17¼	17¼
.25	Bunk Hill & S	27½	27½	27½
1	Butler Bros	8	8	8
	C
7	†Cab El Prod vtc	1⅛	1	1⅛
.30	Can Gen El pf (3½)	62¼	62	62⅛
1	Can Ind Alc A	7½	7½	7½
1	Can Marc Wire	2¼	2¼	2¼
1	Carib Syn	2½	2½	2½
3	Carrier Corp	8⅞	8⅞	8⅞
1	Catalin Am	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛
5	Celanese 1st pf (7)	91	91	91
10	Celluloid	10	10	10
.25	Celluloid pf	23	23	23
1	Celluloid 1 pf	69	60	69
2	Cen St El	⅜	⅜	⅜
.75	Cen St E 7 pf	3	3	3
.25	Cen St E cv pf	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝
1	Chi Riv & Mch(½g)	10	10	10
21	Cities Service	1⅜	1⅛	1⅛
3	Cit Serv pf	14⅜	14	14
1	City Auto Stpg	4	4	4
1	Cleve El Ill (2)	22	22	22
1	Colon Oil	⅛	⅛	⅛
.25	Colum G & E pf (5)	70¾	70¾	70¾
1	Colum O & G vtc	½	½	½
1	Comwlth Edis (4)	40¾	40¾	40¾
2	Comwlth & So war	⅛	⅛	⅛
7	†Cons Aire	7	6¾	7
3	Cons G&E Bal(3.60)	63¼	63¼	63¼
3	†Corroon & Rey	2⅜	2¼	2¼
1.50	Crane Co	7¼	7¼	7¼
20	Creole Pet	12½	12¼	12¼
1	Crocker Wh	4	4	4
1	†Crown C Pet	⅛	⅛	⅛
9	†Cusi Mex	1½	1⅜	1½
	D
6	†Davenp Hos (7½g)	19¼	18½	18⅜
1	De Havil Air(.25g)	13⅜	13⅜	13⅜
18	Dist Corp Seagr	13¼	12⅝	12⅝
1	†Driver-Harris (¼g)	13	13	13
	E
.25	East G&F p pf(4½)	67	67	67
1	East Sta Pow	½	½	½
19	El Bond & Sh	9½	9⅜	9⅜
.25	†Elect Sh pf	38½	38½	38½
1	Empire Pow (1g)	8	8	8
4	†Equity Corp	1½	1⅜	1½
1	†Ex-cello A & T	6	6	6
	F
2	†Fairchild Av	8¼	8¼	8¼
.25	Fajardo Sug	75	75	75
3	†Falstaff Brew	2⅝	2½	2⅝
1	Fansteel (Pat New)	7⅝	7⅝	7⅝
6	†Fidelio Brew	⅛	⅜	⅜
.50	Fst Nat St 1pf (7)	113¼	113	113¼
3	Fisk Rub	7⅞	7¾	7¾
4	Ford M Can A (½g)	22¼	21½	21½
2	Ford Mot Ltd	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
	G
1	Gen Alloys	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
4	†Gen Aviation	4	4	4
7	Glen Alden (1¼b)	23	22¼	22¼
1	Glenn L Under (⅛g)	7	7	7
2	†Gold Seal Elec	1¼	1¼	1¼
1	†Grand Rap V (½)	5⅝	5⅝	5⅝
3.30	Gt Atl & P nv (7b)	126¼	123	123
1.50	Gt A&P 1st pf (7)	125	122½	122½
5	Greyhound	16¾	16¼	16⅝
6	Gulf Oil Pa	52½	51½	52
	H
1	†Hamilton Gas vtc	⅛	⅛	⅛
1	†Hartman Tob	1½	1½	1½
1	Heyden Che (1.10b)	35½	35½	35½
22	†Hir Walker	25¼	23¾	23¾
1	Holling Gold (1¼b)	19¾	19¾	19¾
.25	Horn & Hard (1.60)	18⅛	18⅛	18⅛
15	†Hudson Bay M&S	12¼	11⅛	11⅞
16	Humble Oil (1)	38	37⅝	38
	I
.50	Ill P&L $6 pf	12½	12½	12½
13	Imp Oil Can (.65b)	16¾	16¼	16¼
1	Ina Co N Am (2)	49½	49½	49½
5	Int Holding	1	1	1
1	†Int Mining	11⅞	11⅞	11⅞
7	Internat Pet (1.56b)	29	29	29
3	Inter Util B	⅝	⅝	⅝
1	†Kleinert	7	7	7
4	†Krueger Brew	5⅞	5⅝	5⅝
	L
5	Lake Shore M (3b)	54¼	54	54
1	Lehigh C&N (½)XD	7⅞	7⅜	7⅜
7	Lib McN&L	6⅛	6	6
2	Long Is Lt	3	3	3
7	Louis L&E	3⅝	3⅜	3⅝
1	Lynch Corp (2)	28	28	28
	M
.25	Mahzel Strs pf ww	45	45	45
1	Marion St Shov	2¼	2¼	2¼
2	Maryland Cas	1⅜	1⅜	1⅜
1	Massey Harris	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜
6	†Mavis Bott A	⅛	⅛	⅛
1	†Mead John (3¾b)	56¾	56¾	56¾
1	†Memph NGas(.10g)	2¼	2¼	2¼
1	†Michigan G&O	2¾	2¾	2¾
.25	Midvale (1) XD	25½	25½	25½
.60	Mntg Wrd A(10½k)	122½	122	122
	N
6	†Nat Bellas Hess	2¾	2¾	2¾
1	Nat Bond & Sh (1)	30¼	30¼	30¼
3	Nat Fuel G (1)	14¼	14⅛	14¼
2	†Invest	1½	1½	1½
.50	Nat P&L pf (6)	49	49	49
3	Nat Rug Ref (2)	33½	32½	32½
1	†Nat Un Rad	¾	¾	¾
20	†Natomas Co (.80)	8	7⅞	7⅞
12	New Bradford (.20)	2	2	2
1	NY Merchan (1½)	23	23	23
1	Nias Hud A war	⅛	⅛	⅛
2	†Nipissing Mns(⅛g)	2¾	2¾	2¾
1	Nor Am L&P pf	6	6	6
2	Railroad Sh	⅛	⅛	⅛
1	Nor St P A	10½	10½	10½
3	†Novadel-Ag (2)	21½	20¾	20¾
	O
1	Ohio Brass B	14½	14½	14½
1	Ohio Oil pf (6)	87	87	87
1	Outbrd Mot A	3¼	3¼	3¼
1	†Overseas Sec	1¾	1¾	1¾
	P
1	†Pac Eastern	2½	2½	2½
5	Pac G&E 1 pf (1½)	21¾	21¼	21⅜
1	Pac Pub Svc pf	8	8	8
.50	†Pac Tin spec (2g)	22	22	22
5	†Pan-Am Air (⅛g)	33⅛	33	33
2	†Pantepec Oil	1½	1⅜	1⅜
3	Park Davis (1.30b)	29½	29¼	29½
5.50	Park Rust-Pr (3a)	52	50¾	51
1	Penncoal	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
7	Philip Morris Cons	13½	13½	13½
4	Pitts Pl Gl (1.40)	45¼	45	45
2	†Potrero Sugar	¾	¾	¾
1	Prod Roy (.025g)	⅛	⅛	⅛
1	†Pruden Inv	5¾	5¾	5¾
.70	Pug Sd P 5 pf	13½	13½	13½
1.10	Pume Oil pf	33¾	34	34¼
3	Pyren	2½	2½	2½
2	Nor Pipe L (½)	6	6	6
1	Relian Intl A	2½	2½	2½
8	Reybarn Inc	2⅜	2⅜	2⅜
2	Rich Oil pf	⅞	⅞	⅞
	S
5	†St Anth Gold	⅜	⅜	⅜
6	St Regis Pap	1⅞	1⅞	1⅞
2	†Schiff Co (2)	27¼	27¼	27¼
1	Sec Corp Gen	1½	1½	1½
1	†Seeman Bros (3½b)	40	40	40
3	†Selected Indus	1⅛	1⅛	1⅛
2	†Shattuck Denn	13¾	13¾	13¾
3	Shaw W&P (½)	18¼	18¼	18¼
6.25	Sherwin-W (3) XD	72¼	71	71
7	S Am G&P (.30g)	3⅜	3¼	3¼
3	S Cal Ed Apf (1¾)	19⅞	19⅝	19⅞
2	So C Ed B pf (1½)	17½	17⅜	17⅜
1	So C Ed C pf (1⅜)	15¾	15¾	15¾
2	So Ind Gas (1)	15¼	15¼	15¼
1	St Oil Neb	9	9	9
5	†Stand Sil-Lead	⅛	⅛	⅛
1	†Starrett	½	½	½
2	†Starret pf	1¼	1¼	1¼
2	†Stein Cosmetics	⅞	⅞	⅞
1	†Sun Ray Am	1½	1½	1½
5	†Sunray Oil	1	1	1
1	†Sunshine M (.64)	9¾	9¾	9¾
14	†Swift & Co (½)	18¼	17¾	17¾
1	†Swift Int (2)	36¾	36¾	36¾
1	†Tastyeast A	⅛	⅛	⅛
2	†Teck-Hugh G (.40)	4	4	4
2	Todd Ship (1)	21½	21	21½
21	†Transcont Air	2	1⅝	2
5	†Trans-Lux (.20g)	2	1⅞	2
1	Tubize Chat	5¼	5¼	5¼
	U
9.50	†Union Am Inv	19¼	19¼	19¼
1	†Unit-Carr F (.55g)	11¾	11¾	11¾
1	Unit Corp war	1	1	1
30	Unit Founders	⅛	⅛	⅛
3	United Gas	2	2	2
1	Un Gas war	⅛	⅛	⅛
1	Unit Gas pf (7)	31	31	31
5	Un Lt & Pow A	1½	1½	1½
4	Un Lt & P cv pf	7¾	7½	7½
1	Un Molasses Ltd	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝
1	Unit Shoe M (5b)	70	69¾	70
1	U S Elec Pow	¼	¼	¼
7	U S Foil B (.60)	11¼	10¾	10¾
.75	U S Rad pf	9¼	9¼	9¼
4	Unit Stores vtc	⅞	⅞	⅞
2	Unit Verde (1)	3½	3⅜	3⅜
1	Unit Wall Paper	2½	2½	2½
.50	Univer Insur	8½	8½	8½
1	Utah Apex M	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝
	V
4	†Venezuel Pet	⅝	⅝	⅝
	W
.25	West TexUtil pf (3)	23	23	23
.75	Westvaco Ch pf (4.50)	95¾	95¾	95¾
10	Wright Harg (.80b)	8¼	8¼	8¼

DOMESTIC BONDS.

Sales in hundreds.		High	Low	Close
	A
4	Ala Pow 5 '46	93⅛	90¼	90⅞
7	Ala Pow 5 '51	82	82	82
7	Ala Pow 5 '58	72¼	71½	71½
31	Ala Pow 4½ '67	67¾	67¾	67¾
11	Ala Pow 5 '56	82	81½	82
3	Alumin Co 5 '52	105	105	105
5	Alumin Ltd 5 '48	92¼	92	92
26	Am G & E 5 2028	91	90¼	90¼
4	Am G & Pow 6 '39	29½	28¾	29½
5	Am G & Pow 5 '53	26½	26	26½
9	Am P&L 6 2016	48¾	48¼	48½
3	Am Rad 4½ '47	105¾	105¼	105¼
11	Am Roll M 5 '48	91½	90½	90½
1	Am Seat 6 '36	58	58	58
19	Appal El Pw 5 '56	99¾	99¼	99¼
1	Appal Pow 5 '41	107	107	107
4	Ark P&L 5 '56	69¾	69¼	69¾
4	As Elec 4½ '53	36¼	36¼	36¼
68	As G & E 5 '50	18¾	17¾	18½
10	As G & E 5½ '77	20½	19	20
24	As G & E 5 '68	18½	18⅛	18⅛
1	As G & E 4½ '48	16½	16½	16½
29	As G & E 4½ '49 C	16⅝	16½	16⅝
6	As Tel Co 5 '65 A	94¾	94½	94½
2	As Tel Ut 5½ '46	15	15	15
2	As Tel Ut 6 '53	18	18	18
4	As Tel Ut 6 '33 ctf	18	17¾	18
11	As T&T 5½ '55 A	54	53¼	53⅛
7	Atlas Plyw 5½ '43	80	80	80
	B
98	Baldw Loc 6 '38 ww	77	64¼	66
100	Baldw Loc 6 '38 xw	67¼	57	61⅜
6	Bell T Can 5 '57 B	111⅝	111⅜	111⅝
1	Bell T Can 5 '60 C	111¾	111¾	111¾
1	Beth St 6 98	119	119	119
3	Binch LH&P 5 '46	102⅜	102⅜	102⅜
3	Birming Gas 5 '59	53½	53⅛	53⅛
	C
1	Can NRyEnT '35 E	102⅝	102⅝	102⅝
18	Can Pac 6 '42	110½	110⅜	110½
1	†Cap Ad 5 '53 A	85	85	85
10	Caro P&L 5 '56	77½	77	77
6	Cen Aris L&P 5 '60	85¾	84¾	85¼
1	Cen Ill Lt 5 '43	107⅛	107⅛	107⅛
1	Cen Ill P S 5 '56 E	71	71	71
9	Cen Ill P S 5 '68 G	70½	70⅛	70⅛
9	Cen Ill PS 4½ '81H	64⅝	64	64⅝
19	Cen Ill PS 4½ '67F	64⅛	64⅛	64⅜
12	Cen P Ar L 5 '56	59¼	58⅝	59
7	Cen St El 5½ '54	32½	32¼	32½
10	Cen St El 5 '48	32½	32¼	32½
5	Cen St P&L 5½ 53	49	48¾	49
8	Chi Dist E 4½ '70	91	90⅝	90⅝
9	Cities Ser 5 '66	39¾	38⅝	38¾
45	Cities Ser 5 '50	40	38⅝	39¼
1	Cit S Gas 5½ '42	63	63	63
1	Cit S G Pipe 6 '43	79	79	79
14	Cit S Pow 5½ '52	37⅜	37	37⅜
2	Comw'l Ed 5 '53 A	107⅛	107⅛	107⅛
2	Comw'l Ed 5 '54 B	107⅛	107⅛	107⅛
2	Comw'l Ed 4½ '56C	102⅛	102⅛	102⅛
12	Comw'l Ed 4½ '57D	102¼	101⅝	101¾
25	Comw'l Ed 4 '81 F	94⅛	94	94⅛
39	Comw'l Ed5½ '62 G	106	107⅜	106
2	Comw'l Sub5½ '48A	82	82	82
5	Commun P&L 5 '57	49¾	49⅛	49½
1	Con Riv P 5 '52	105	105	105
5	Con GEL&P 4½ '35	101⅛	101	101
1	Con GEL Ba4⅝ '59	106¼	104¼	106⅛
2	Con Gas Ut 6 '43	48¼	48⅛	48⅛
19	Consum P 4½ '58	107¼	107	107¼
6	Cont G & E 5 '58 A	47⅛	46⅞	47⅛
4	Crane Co 5 '40	99	99	99
2	Crucible St 5 '49	94	94	94
2	Cudahy P 5½ '37	104¼	104	104¼
1	Cum CP&L 4½ '56	96	96	96
	D
1	Dayton P & L 5 '41	108¾	108¼	108¾
1	Del El Pow 5½ '59	85¾	85¾	85¾
1	Derby G & E 5 '46	81	81	81
5	Det C Gas 6 '47 A	96⅝	96	96⅝
12	Det C Gas 5 '50 B	85⅝	85½	85⅝
3	Dix Gulf G 6½ '37	101¾	101⅝	101⅝
	E
12	Elec P & L 5 2030	38	37¾	38
3	Elmira Wat L 5 '56	82	82	82
15	Emp O & R 5½ '42	52¼	51⅝	51⅝
	F
1	Fairb Morse 5 '42	90	90	90
6	Fed Water 5½ '54	35	35	35
8	Fstone Cot M 5 '48	103¼	103	103
1	Fstone Tire 5 '42	103¼	103¼	103¼
9	Fla P & L 5 '54	62¼	61¾	61⅝
2	Fla P 5½ '79 A	71½	71½	71½
	G
2	Gary E & G 5 '34A	52¼	52	52
17	Gatin P 5 '56	95⅝	95⅜	95⅝
1	Gatin P 6 '41 B	90⅝	90⅝	90⅝
7	Gen Bronze 6 '40	72	72	72
3	Gen Pub S 5 '53	78	77	77
6	Gen Pub Ut 6½ '56	46½	46	46½
3	Gen Refrac 6 '38ww	120	120	120
1	Gen Refrac 6 '38xw	94½	94½	94½
2	Gen W Wk 5 '43 A	55½	55¼	55⅝
12	Geo Pow 5 '67	78¼	78¼	78¼
1	Geo P & L 5 '78	53½	53½	53½
5	Gillette 5 '40	103⅝	103⅝	103⅝
15	Glen Ald Coal 4 '65	79½	79⅜	79½
1	†Gobel 6½ '35	75½	75½	75½
1	Grand (Pat) Nov	78	78	78
2	Grand Trunk6½ '36	105¼	105¼	105¼
1	†Guar Inv 5 '48 A	36	36	36
5	Gulf Oil Pa 5 '47	105½	105¼	105¼
9	Gulf Oil Pa 5 '37	105	104⅝	105
3	Gulf St Ut 5 '36 A	89⅝	89	89
	H
13	Hall Pr 5½ '47 A	70¼	69	69
16	Hous Gulf G 6½ '43	68¼	68⅛	68⅛
5	Hous Gulf G 6 '43	87½	87	87
15	Hous L&P 4½ '78D	102⅜	102⅜	102⅜
3	Hous L&P 4½ '81 E	103	103	103
7	Hygrade Fd 6s49A	65¼	65	65
	I
3	Idaho Pow 5 '47	104¾	104¼	104¼
2	Ill Nor Ut 5s 57	103	103	103
11	Ill Pow&L 5 '56 C	65¾	65½	65⅝
5	Ill Pow&L 5½ '57	59½

32 Grid Teams Are Unbeaten and Untied

16 College Elevens Were Dropped Off List Over Past Week-End.

AN Associated Press compilation yesterday showed 32 college football teams neither beaten nor tied at the season's halfway mark.

There were heavy casualties over the week-end, no fewer than 16 schools dropping off the list either because of defeat or tie. Among these were such major teams as Holy Cross, Duke, Utah, Vanderbilt, Iowa State, Georgetown University and Penn State.

The undefeated and untied teams:

Team	W.	Pts.	Op. Pts.
University of New Mexico	5	174	27
Army	5	146	12
Trinity (Conn.)	5	139	6
Alabama	5	130	18
Dartmouth	5	135	0
St. Vincent (Pa.)	5	122	32
Kirksville (Mo.) Teachers	5	115	13
Tulane	5	109	30
Depauw (Indiana)	5	97	0
Navy	5	92	33
Birmingham-Southern	5	88	22
Augustana (Ill.)	5	70	13
Carleton (Minn.)	5	66	0
Cape Girardeau (Mo.)	5	52	12
Princeton	4	169	18
Minnesota	4	137	31
Syracuse	4	113	17
Michigan State	4	101	20
Ohio Northern	4	89	0
Chicago	4	86	6
Upper Iowa	4	78	26
Western Reserve (Ohio)	4	73	33
Tufts (Mass.)	4	34	0
Illinois	4	73	33
Miami (Fla.)	3	94	37
Bluefield (W. Va.) College	3	79	12
Washington College (Md.)	3	70	6
Union (Kentucky)	3	60	21
Ithaca (N. Y.) College	3	59	0
Utah Aggies	3	51	7
University of Washington	3	42	13
Panzer (N. J.)	3	26	0

Frederick Wins In Soccer League

Frederick, Md., Oct. 29 (Spl.).—Frederick defeated Brunswick, 2 to 0; Middletown champions last year, blanked Mount Airy, 5 to 0, and Emmitsburg set back Walkersville, 5 to 3, in the county soccer league. Frederick victory enabled the local team to move on even terms with Middletown and Emmitsburg for first place in the pennant race.

Brunswick.	Position.	Frederick.
Grams	Goal	Keefer
Moler	R.B.	Crawford
Lowery	L.B.	Swope
Conner	R.H.	Haller
B.Walker	C.H.	F.James
Taylor	L.H.	Garrett
Schamel	O.R.	Locke
Strathern	I.L.	Hossler
C.Walker	C.F.	Lumb
R.Grams	O.R.	J.James
Haines	O.R.	Rice
Brunswick		0 0—0
Frederick		1 1—2

Substitutions—Michel, Schamel, Burgee, Smith. Field goal—Michaek. Penalty goal—Rice. Referee—Elder. Time—Two 40-minute periods.

Middletown.	Position.	Mt. Airy.
Ohler	Goal	Butler
Shafer	L.B.	Day
Holter	R.B.	Barnes
D.Rudy	L.H.	Buckingham
Kefauver	R.H.	Scheel
Keefer	C.H.	Norris
W.Rudy	O.R.	Burdette
Wise	I.R.	Harrison
Plush	C.F.	Henderson
Adams	O.L.	Murdock
A.Rudy	I.L.	Snapp
Middletown		3 2—5
Mount Airy		0 0—0

Substitutions—Hauver, Cline, Plush. Goals—Hetzler, Molesworth, Straw, Norford, Harrison. Field goals—W. Rudy (2); Hauver (2). Penalty—W. Rudy. Referee—Paplan. Time—Two 40-minute periods.

Emmitsburg.	Position.	Walkersville.
Baldell	Goal	Smith
Creeger	R.B.	G.Trout
Bollinger	L.B.	Hoke
Poulson	R.H.	R.Kerchner
Yates	C.H.	Staley
Freese	L.H.	Mercer
Tokar	O.L.	L.Kerchner
Yonkers	I.L.	Zimmerman
Keilholtz	C.F.	A.Trout
Eyler	I.R.	Culler
Riffle	O.R.	Cramer
Emmitsburg		2 1—3
Walkersville		1 2—3

Substitutions—Van Tossen, LeGore, Eyler, Eaves. Field goals—Eyler, Zimmerman, Keilholtz, Kerchner, Bollinger (2), Yonkers, Penalty—Trout. Referee—Dornheim. Time—Two 40-minute periods.

DIED.

CONNOR—On Sunday, October 28, 1934, at his residence, 2136 Y street northwest, DANIEL J., the beloved husband of Carrie Connor and brother of Mary C. Waters and Katherine Williams.

Funeral from the above residence on Tuesday, October 30, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited to attend. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery. Services by the W. W. Chambers Co.

COOK—On Sunday, October 28, 1934, at his residence, 55 S street northwest, MAX HUGO, beloved husband of Margaret M. Cook and father of Mrs. Margaret M. James and Miss Catherine Cook.

Services at the S. H. Hines Co. funeral homes, 2901 Fourteenth street northwest, on Wednesday, October 31, at 11 a. m. Interment Glenwood Cemetery.

DAVIS—On Sunday, October 28, 1934, at his residence, 2328 Nicholson street southeast, GEORGE E., the beloved husband of Carrie K. Davis and father of William P. Davis.

Funeral services at the W. W. Chambers Co. Southeast funeral home, 817 Eleventh street southeast, on Tuesday, October 30, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment Cedar Hill Cemetery.

HAMMER—On Saturday, October 27, 1934, at Providence Hospital, WILLIAM, beloved husband of Mary A. Hammer (nee Richter).

Funeral from his late residence, 2107 Thirteenth street southeast, on Tuesday, October 30, at 8:30 a. m., thence to St. Theresa's Church, Thirteenth and V streets southeast, at 9 a. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment at Congressional Cemetery. (Baltimore, Md., papers please copy.)

HESS—On Monday, October 29, 1934, KATIE A. HESS, beloved sister of the late James E. Kennedy, Sr.

Funeral services at the W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest, on Wednesday, October 31, at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends are invited. Interment Bethel Cemetery, Alexandria, Va.

PEYTON—On Monday, October 29, 1934, at her residence, the Wellington, 1701 Park road northwest, JEANNIE S., beloved daughter of the late Thomas Jefferson and Catherine Ross Peyton.

Remains resting at the parlors of Almus R. Spears, 1623 Connecticut avenue, where services will be held on Tuesday, October 30, at 3:30 p. m.

THOMPSON—On Saturday, October 27, 1934, at her residence, 1607 Thirty-fourth street northwest, JOSEPHINE THOMPSON, beloved mother of Cornelia Erwin, Josephine Simmons, Emery Simmons and Gertrude Decker.

Funeral from the above residence on Tuesday, October 30, at 2 p. m. Services at the Congress Street Methodist Protestant Church at 2:30 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Oak Hill Cemetery.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

CHAS. S. ZURHORST CO.
301 EAST CAPITOL ST. LINCOLN 0372

JAMES T. RYAN
317 PA. AVE. S.E. ATlantic 1700.

J. WILLIAM LEE'S SONS CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS.
CREMATORIUM
4th St. and Mass. Ave. N.E. LIncoln 8200.

Frank Geier's Sons Co.
1113 SEVENTH STS. N.W. Telephone
Modern Chapel. NATIONAL 2473.

THOS. S. SERGEON
1011 7TH ST. N.W. Telephone NAt. 1060

FUNERAL DESIGNS.

GUDE BROS. CO., Florists
1212 F STREET NAtional 4276.
APPROPRIATE FUNERAL DESIGNS.

GEO. C. SHAFFER 900 14TH ST. NW.
Expressive Floral Emblems Phone
Moderate prices. Open eve & Sun. Nat. 0106.

J. H. SMALL & SONS
FLORAL TRIBUTES. $2.50 up DELIVERED.
NOrth 7000. Dupont Circle.

Napoleon and Uncle Elby

By Clifford McBride

Generals Turn Eyes Toward Middies

Teams Met Last in 1932; Encounter Is Slated in Annapolis.

LEXINGTON, Va., Oct. 27 (Spl.).—With their last home game of the season down in the record books, the Generals Monday will turn their attention to the Navy. No traditional rivalry will be renewed, and no conference hopes will be involved for Coach Tex Tilson's eleven, but there will be unusual interest in the game because of the Generals' stand against Princeton, classed along with Navy as one of the great teams of the East.

Washington and Lee and the Navy have met on the gridiron only twice, according to available records. The first game was played in 1916, the Generals winning, 10-0. The two institutions did not meet again until 1932, when the Midshipmen trounced the Generals, 33-0.

Stronger Eleven.

Washington and Lee will take a substantially stronger eleven to Annapolis for the game next Saturday, an eleven rated better than the team that lost to the Navy crew in 1932. And barring injuries, the Generals will have their almost impenetrable forewall to start the game and probably cause the Sailors to take to the air as Princeton did.

Tax Report Seen As Holdouts' Aid

Continued from Page 18.

cover if Col. Hammond was spoofing him with his cries of poverty, attempted today to inspect income tax returns filed in March of this year covering 1933 incomes, under the belief that the law was retroactive.

Commissioner Hoey said, "We have received many queries similar to Johnson's with respect to Section 55, publicity of returns in the revenue act of '34. Paragraph A provides that all returns shall be open to public inspection beginning with the file on this year's income. It should be noted that the section does not permit examination of prior returns."

The new forms, which must be filled out in 1935 by the taxpayers, will be bound in a sheaf and placed in alphabetical order in the office in which it was returned. If the form is not filled out Uncle Sam will fill it out himself from the return and charge a fee of $5.

Navy Grid Team Takes Needed Rest

Continued from Page 17.

played in a major portion of every game this season, has a badly sprained ankle as a result of the Penn fracas, it developed today, and may not be in shape by Saturday. Bob Mandelkorn and Jack Mini will get the assignments if the double emergency exists.

The Navy contingent anticipates a stiff fight from the Generals and the staff of mentors tomorrow will begin some special pointing of their charges to meet the style of attack employed by the Virginians. Meanwhile, officials of the Navy Athletic Association are preparing to handle a capacity crowd.

DIED.

VOIGT—On Saturday, October 27, 1934, EDWARD, beloved husband of Charlotte Voigt and father of Edward Voigt, Jr.

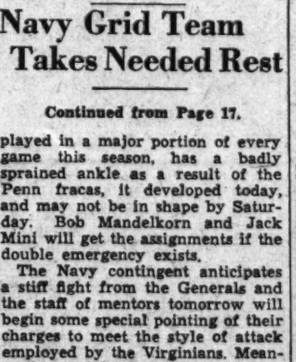
Remains resting at Saffell's chapel, Fifth and H streets northwest. Funeral from the above chapel on Tuesday, October 30, at 9:30 a. m. Requiem high mass at St. Patrick's Church at 10 a. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Prospect Hill Cemetery.

WEIGLE—On Sunday, October 28, 1934, at his residence, 3640 Thirteenth street northwest, JACOB A., beloved husband of the late Rose E. Weigle and father of Mrs. Claribel W. Thomas and Morton R. Weigle.

Funeral from the W. W. Chambers Co. funeral home, 1400 Chapin street northwest, on Tuesday, October 30, at 2 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment Glenwood Cemetery.

WHITE—On Monday, October 29, 1934, at Sibley Hospital, LULA M., beloved wife of Fred A. White, of 1256 Lawrence street northeast.

Funeral services at Hysons's parlors, 1300 N street northwest, on Wednesday, October 31, at 11 a. m. Interment at Glenwood Cemetery.



Deal Funerals
Always Cost Less
Deal revolutionized the price and methods of funeral directors over a quarter of a century ago in Washington. This policy of "always lower" price without exception and of giving the utmost in quality and service has never been equalled. Irrespective of price Deal service is always superior.
WASHINGTON'S LOWEST PRICES
$75 to $200 and up
DEAL
Funeral Home
Ph. LI. 8200-8201

Indiantown Wins Ninth Straight

Former Plater Steps Out in Front of Stake Horse Field.

NARRAGANSETT PARK, Pawtucket, R. I., Oct. 29 (AP).—Percy M. Pike's Indiantown, a former $1,500 plater, stepped out against stake horses today and registered his ninth consecutive victory in the mile feature. He drew a wonderful ride from Maury Peters, an apprentice jockey, and beat out the Branncastle Farm's Proud Girl by a neck after an exciting stretch duel. C. V. Whitney's Mad Frump showed, six lengths behind.

In the 6-furlong cofeature, Hal Price Headley's 2-year-old Fortsprings won after catching the fading pacemaker, Marty Madden's High Image, at the last turn.

The triumph of the 4-year-old Indiantown was outstanding in every respect and brought him to within one victory of the platers' record set a decade ago by Carefree, George Alexander's Canadian campaigner, which died only last week.

Arlington Downs Feature to Siskin

Cloud d'Or Sets Early Pace, Fades and Is Second.

Arlington Downs, Tex., Oct. 29 (AP).—Siskin, carrying 102 pounds with D. McGown up, raced from behind to win the $1,000 Port Arthur Handicap, feature of the Arlington Downs program. Siskin covered the Waggoner course in 1:08 2-5. The distance is 150 yards short of 6 furlongs.

Cloud d'Or, carrying 108 pounds with Jimmy King up, set the early pace but failed to last and finished second, with Mr. James third.

Siskin's victory was worth $700 to his owner, R. T. Watts, and rewarded his backers with mutuels of $4.20, $3.10 and $2.30.

Want Basket Ball Games.

The Lawrence Club has a gymnasium for tomorrow night and is anxious to book a game. Call Lincoln 3665.

Kenilworth Booking.

The Kenilworth 100-pounders are booking games. Call Lincoln 0334.

Sharkey Best Foe, Declares Carnera

Italian Is in South America for Boxing Tour.

Rio de Janeiro, Oct. 29 (AP).—Primo Carnera, former world heavyweight champion, arrived today by airplane en route to Buenos Aires and a scheduled South American boxing tour and said he hoped to have another chance to fight Max Baer, the man who took his title from him.

The big Italian, asked to list the best fighters he had met, said Jack Sharkey, from whom he won the title, was the best.

Carnera is scheduled to meet Paulino Uzcudun in Buenos Aires and then return here for a fight with Vittorio Campolo. He has met and defeated both before.

55-Yard Pass Made.

Philadelphia, Oct. 29 (U.P.).—A 55-yard pass—the longest ever seen here—was thrown in a football game by Ardell Passell, former Franklin and Marshall College halfback. The pass enabled Passell's team to tie All-York.

AUCTION SALES

Continued.)

ADAM A. WESCHLER & SON, INC., Auctioneers, 915 E Street northwest.
TRUSTEES' SALE OF TWO-STORY BRICK DWELLING, NO. 1434 A STREET SOUTHEAST.

Pursuant to decree of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia in Equity Cause No. 55745, the undersigned, trustee duly appointed by the said court, will offer for sale by public auction, in front of the premises, on FRIDAY, THE 9TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1934, AT 4:30 O'CLOCK P. M., the following described property in the District of Columbia, to-wit: Lot 60 in square 1058 in Nicholson's subdivision as per plat recorded in liber 45, page 102, of the records of the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia, improved as above.

TERMS OF SALE: One-third of the purchase money to be paid in cash and the balance in two equal installments, payable in one and two years from date of sale, and to be represented by the promissory notes of the purchaser bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, payable semiannually, and secured by a deed of trust on the property sold, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser; sale subject to ratification by the court, no settlement to be made within 30 days thereafter, or property may be readvertised and resold at purchaser's risk. A deposit of $300 will be required at time of sale. Cost of examination of title, conveyancing, recording, revenue stamps and notary fees to be paid by purchaser.

JOHN J. CARMODY,
815 Fifteenth street northwest, Washington, D. C.
LEO P. HARLOW,
1321 G street northwest, Washington, D. C.
Trustees.
oc29,d&dsaxS

PROPOSALS

TREASURY DEPARTMENT, PROCUREMENT Division, Public Works Branch, Washington, D. C., October 26, 1934.—Sealed bids, in duplicate, subject to the conditions of Executive Order No. 6646, dated March 14, 1934, will be publicly opened in this office at 10 a. m., November 14, 1934, for furnishing all labor and materials and performing all work for alteration and new metal and glass partitions, &c., in the Federal warehouse, Washington, D. C. Drawing and specifications, not exceeding one set, may be obtained from this office, W. E. REYNOLDS, Assistant Director of Procurement, Public Works Branch. 27,29,30

U. S. ENGINEER OFFICE, 1068 NAVY Building, Washington, D. C.—Sealed proposals will be received here until 2 p. m., NOVEMBER 13, 1934, and then opened, for construction of brick and steel temporary addition to Munitions Building, Washington, D. C. Further information on application. oc30,31,no1,6,12

The Washington Post
CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING
LOCAL RATES.
For Washington and Points Within 10 Miles of the District of Columbia
The following rates are for consecutive insertions:
1 time.....17c per line
3 times.....15c " "
6 times.....13c " "
7 times.....12c " "
30 times.....11c " "
Classified Display 2c per line additional.
The one-time rate applies on skip ads or irregular insertions.
OUT-OF-TOWN RATES.
Ads from points more than 50 miles from the District of Columbia are: 1 time, 20c per line; 3 times, 18c per line; 7 times, within 30 days, 16c per line; 30 times, within 30 days, 15c per line. Classified Display, 2c per line additional.
Kindly estimate 5½ average words to a line
Rates for special classifications and yearly contracts furnished upon request.
The Washington Post reserves the right to edit, revise or reject any Classified Advertising.
Misclassification of ads not permitted.
Situation Wanted ads are cash with order.
The Washington Post will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion on any order.
Kill Orders or Corrections (after insertion (excepting Death Notices) can not be made unless ordered before 8 p. m. any day.
The Washington Post strives at all times to prevent insertion of fraudulent or misleading advertisements.
Information concerning any ad that proves misleading or fraudulent will be appreciated.
Phone NATIONAL 4200
Ask For An Ad-Writer

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

APPLIANCES

Abdominal Belts—Trusses
Elastic Hosiery—Surgical Supports
BEUCHLER'S
1224 14th st. nw. NA. 8138.

AUTOMOBILE SERVICE

SALES AND SERVICE.
GLASSER'S AUTO CO., 133 Fla. Ave. N.E. Any size door glass installed, $1.50. Nonshatter windshield glass—Ford, Chevrolet, Plymouth, $4.50. ME. 8867.

WADE'S AUTO SERVICE.
General Auto Repairs
Tires, Batteries and Accessories.
1223 F St. N.E. LI. 7725.

AUTO AUCTIONEERS

Adam A. Weschler & Son., Inc.
Auctions Wednesdays and Saturdays.
915 E St. NW. NA. 1281.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

(Continued.)

BATHS

TURKISH—Massage for reducing elimination, colonic irrigation. Special rate for facial to introduce our wonder working skin rejuvenator and marvelous back. Riggs Ladies Baths. ME. 7236.

BEAUTY CULTURE

HEPNER'S
Most Fashionable Beauty Shop Downtown
525 13th St Mayflower Hotel.
NA. 8014. DI. 3000.

BEAUTY CULTURE

MAXINE MAX BEAUTY SALON.
Vitron Croquignole Non-Ammonia Solution
MISS JULIA McGRADY
ST. 9476. 1329 F St. N.W.

CLEANERS AND DYERS

VICTORY CLEANERS & DYERS
Under New Management.
Clothes called for and delivered.
1915 Pa. Ave. N.W. National 8870.

DRESS SUIT RENTAL

$2.00 TUXEDO—DRESS SUITS $3.00.
Full line of accessories.
BERNIE'S, 713 7th St. NW.
Open evenings. National 3417.

DRUGGISTS

Potomac Heights Pharmacy—D. V. Brown
PRESCRIPTION SPECIALIST.
Sundry Drugs. Delivery Service.
5104 Conduit Rd. N.W Cleveland 5353.

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES

MOUNT PLEASANT SCHOOL FOR SECRETARIES
14th St. and Park Rd. COlumbia 3000.

ELECTRICIANS

Chevy Chase Electric Co.
Installations. Repairs.
RADIO SERVICE
5514½ Conn. Ave. NW. CLev. 5656

FLORISTS

A COMPLETE FLOWER SERVICE
Member Florists' Telegraph Del. Ass'n.
GUDE BROTHERS CO., INC.
National 4276 1212 F St. N.W.

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

LEADING FUNERAL DIRECTORS
PRIVATE AMBULANCE
JOHN T. RHINES & CO.,
901 3d st. nw. ME. 4220.

OFFICE FURNITURE

Commercial Office Furniture Co.
Complete Office Outfitters.
800 E St. NW. MEtropolitan 2430.

WASHINGTON SALVAGE COMPANY
New and Used Office Furniture
We Buy and Sell
310 8th st. nw. NA. 8266.

PICTURE FRAMING

S. J. VENABLE.
Picture Frames Made to Order
Special Care in Restoring Paintings
1309 H St. N.W. NAtional 4868.

PRINTERS—STATIONERS

C. W. HILL, Printer.
I ALWAYS DISAPPOINT
1320 F ST. NW. ME. 4408.

W. F. ROBERTS COMPANY.
PRINTERS
PUBLISHERS, ENGRAVERS.
329 17th St. N.W. National 4092.

DOYLE PRINTING SERVICE
PRINTERS
1319 Eye St. N.W. NA. 7095.

Judd & Detweiler, Inc.
Legal, Magazine and Commercial Printing
Pla. Ave. & Eckington Pl. N.E. North 0994

REAL ESTATE

STORY & CO.
RENTS—INSURANCE
804 17th St. N.W Metropolitan 4100.

RESTAURANTS

IVY'S CEDAR HILL INN.
Suitland Road. Suitland, Md.
Beer on Draught. Light Lunches.
Open Till 2 A. M. Hillside 0418.

SCHOOLS

WOOD'S COMMERCIAL SCHOOL
Est. 1865. Foster Wood, Director.
Secretarial Accountancy
Civil Service Courses.
311 East Capitol St. LInc. 0038.

LOST 1

Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

DOG—15th and P sts. nw.; female; white pointer; brown ears and face; no tag. Reward. A. J. Rosche, PO. 5600.

DOG—Scottie, male, no collar, strayed Sunday p. m. Reward. 1717 19th st. nw. Phone Potomac 2391.

FUR—Neck piece, Martin (2 skins), either near Conn. ave. and R st. or Eye st. near 15th; reward. Phone Clev. 6214.

KITTEN—Large; black and white. Reward. 1522 Lamont st. nw.

POCKETBOOK—Black and red; on 16th below Columbia rd. Reward if returned, or keep money and return contents. NO. 7006. Mrs. Bradley.

PUPPY—Lost, black and white long-tailed fox terrier puppy; responds to name "Gwin." Reward paid for return to owner. Call ADams 7676.

PERSONALS 3

Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

OLD BUILDINGS wanted to wreck for available salvage to be used in house repairs for the needy. Property cleared and left in A-1 condition by cooperative group for settlement to be made within 30 days thereafter, or property may be readvertised and resold at purchaser's risk. A deposit of $300 will be required at time of sale. Cost of examination of title, conveyancing, recording, revenue stamps and notary fees to be paid by purchaser.

JOHN J. CARMODY,
815 Fifteenth street northwest, Washington, D. C.
LEO P. HARLOW,
1321 G street northwest, Washington, D. C.
Trustees.
oc29,d&dsaxS

AUCTION SALES

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1934—
THOS. J. OWEN & SON, Auctioneers.
1431 Eye Street Northwest.

Trustee's sale of the valuable eight-story and basement brick and limestone apartment hotel known as "The Jefferson," located at the northwest corner of Sixteenth and M streets northwest.

Because of default in the terms and conditions of, and by virtue of a certain deed of trust executed by the Jefferson Apartments, Inc., a Delaware corporation, dated June 20, 1927, recorded among the land records of the District of Columbia in Liber 5912 at folio 401 et seq., and at the request of the holders of over twenty-five per centum in amount of the outstanding bonds secured thereby the undersigned substituted trustee, by appointment of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia in Equity Cause No. 52847, will offer for sale at public auction in front of the premises on WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 31, 1934, AT FOUR O'CLOCK P. M. the following described land and premises, situate in the District of Columbia: All of lots numbered nineteen (19), sixty (60), sixty-one (61), sixty-two (62), sixty-three (63) and sixty-four (64) in William Redin, trustee and others subdivision of square one hundred and eighty-two (182) as per plat recorded in Liber W P, folio 70, of the records of the office of the surveyor of the District of Columbia, excepting the north one foot front by depth of said lot sixty (60), together with all buildings and improvements thereon consisting of the "Jefferson Apartments," and all furnishings, fittings and fixtures thereon which said trustee is authorized, by said deed of trust, to sell and convey.

TERMS OF SALE: One-third of the purchase price to be paid in cash on or before the thirtieth day of November, 1934, balance in two equal installments, payable on or before one and two years from date of sale, respectively, with interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum from day of sale, said interest payable semiannually, and to be secured by first deed of trust on the property sold, or all cash at the option of the purchaser. The said trustee will receive no bid from anyone offering to bid who shall not at or before the hour of sale, or any adjournment thereof, deposit with said trustee, as a pledge that such bidder will make good his bid in case of its acceptance, a deposit of $15,000; either in cash or certified check on a local bank or trust company, made or indorsed payable to the undersigned trustee, or in lieu thereof bonds of the par value of $30,000, in form transferable by delivery, secured by said deed of trust, said bonds to have all unpaid coupons attached thereto. The deposit of any unsuccessful bidder will be returned to him immediately after the sale. In case any successful bidder shall fail to complete his purchase by November 30, 1934, in accordance with the said terms of sale, said deposit may be forfeited at the option of the said trustee, or without forfeiting the deposit said trustee may avail itself of any legal or equitable rights against defaulting purchaser. The said trustee reserves the right to reject any and all bids and withdraw the property from sale. Adjustments with respect to taxes, assessments, insurance, rentals, income from operation of property, interest and all other adjustments shall be made as of the date of sale. The said trustee, however, will continue to manage and operate said property, and collect the income therefrom from date of sale to date of transfer upon existing terms as set forth in said deed of trust. After settlement of sale said trustee will not be responsible for any bills or expenses incurred in the management or operation of said property. Terms of sale to be complied with by November 30, 1934, otherwise the said trustee reserves the right to forfeit said deposit or to resell the property at the risk and cost of defaulting purchaser upon the foregoing terms, after advertisement of such resale published three times per week for two successive weeks in two newspapers published in Washington, D. C.

AMERICAN SECURITY AND TRUST COMPANY.
By CORCORAN THOM, President.
Substituted Trustee under said deed of trust from Jefferson Apartments, Inc., appointed in Equity Cause No. 52847, Supreme Court, D. C.
Attest: (Seal.) A. R. SHILLINGTON, Assistant Secretary.
McKENNEY, FLANNERY & CRAIGHILL, Attorneys for Trustee.
P—oc1,3,5,9,11,13,16,18,20,23,25,27,29,30,31

HALLOWEEN SPECIALS 3A

Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

VISIT
CLUB MICHEL
No. 1 Thomas Circle at 14th and M Sts.
HALLOWEEN NIGHT
Offering nightly for your entertainment two shows produced by JACK POMEROY, featuring CRAWFORD and CASKEY, JACK BEEKMAN and PEG O'NEIL. Homer Zirkle and his band.
For Reservations, Call Nat'l 2930.

COLLIER INN
1807 Columbia Rd. N.W.
Halloween Specials.
Pies Made From Our Own MINCE MEAT
PUMPKIN PIES More Famous Each Year
ICE CREAM MOULDS
Cocktail and Other Sandwiches
Call Col. 5042 For Quick Delivery.

EVERYTHING FOR YOUR
HALOWEEN PARTY
Favors, Noisemakers, Table Decorations
GADGET SHOP 2446 Wisc. Ave. NW.

GARRISON'S
Costumes, Wigs, Masks, Favors, Novelties
Full Line Crepe Decorations
1215 E St. NW. Open 'til 10 p. m. NA. 1586

Costumes for masqueraders, balls, theatricals, &c.; wigs, beards and masks; reas. Bickerton's, 1308 H st. nw. (over Goodacre's). NA. 3786.

NAPOLEON'S PASTRY SHOP
Canapes Sandwiches Ice Cream
Cakes and Nuts
For your Halloween Party.
3000 Conn. ave. nw. Columbia 8955.

SHIP CONSTELLATION
Dining Dancing
A Unique and Delightful Experience
ON BOARD
The Only Passenger Sailing Ship Afloat
RESERVATIONS AND INFORMATION
CALL DISTRICT 2123
Harbor Master's Dock
WATER AND M STS. SW.

BUSINESS PERSONALS 4

Post Classified Ads. National 4200

Ambulance Limousine Service. Call LI. 2343; local calls, $4. TIMOTHY HANLON, 641 H st. ne.

BATHS Cabinet, scientific Swedish massage, sun rays; by appt. Vivian Hopkins, CO. 4384, 2701 Conn. ave.

Camera Repairing Photographic supplies Fuller & d'Albert, Inc., 813 10th st. nw NA 4712

CHAMBERS CO.
One of the largest Undertakers in the world

DEAFNESS relieved or cured by new method. Dr. P. J. Clifford, D.P., 1716 H st. nw. Wash., D. C. Evenings by appointment.

DRESSMAKER, formerly with Garfinckle, specializing in coats and suits. Call Miss Elisabeth Jester, POtomac 3844.

DR. DELLA LEDENDECKER — Washington's foremost woman chiropractor. Appt. only. 1120 1025 O st. nw.

FINE WATCH REPAIRING—W. R. Russell, formerly with the Hamilton Watch Co., 951 Shoreham Bldg., 15th and H sts. nw.

FURS REPAIRED. Don't throw away your old fur coats. We remodel them in latest style. Summer prices. Free estimates. Chalfonte Valet. AD. 8710.

CHAMBERS CO.
Complete Funeral as low as $75.

HEMORRHOIDS (piles) eradicated by my own methods; results effective for a lifetime or money back; write for booklet; no drugs or surgery. Dr. SOMMERWERCK, 1365 Columbia rd.; AD 0388

NURSE—Graduate, registered; private cases or doctor's assistant; references. Nat. 0102, Apt. 216.

NURSE—Grad., registd.; priv. cases; chron. patients or companion. De. 5976.

NURSE—Practical; white; refined; companion to elderly lady or care of children; reasonable salary. SH. 2153.

SHOES DYED To Match Your Gown. Reasonable. SELLIS, 810 14th St. NA. 6790.

MOTOR TRAVEL 10

Post Classified Ads. National 4200

GO BY Short Line De Luxe motor bus North, South, West; low rates everywhere. Phone Mr. Hill, District 4224.

GREATLY REDUCED RATES. ALL POINTS NEW YORK, one day 8 p. m., $3.75. Frequent service to Baltimore, starting 7 a. m. Round trip, good until used $1
NEVIN ATLANTIC LINE
1201 N. Y. AVE. N.W. ME. 4437.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE 11

Post Classified Ads. National 4200

BEAUTY PARLOR OPERATOR—Must be good at marcel and finger waving; no other need apply. Adell Beauty Shop, 5421 Georgia ave. nw.

DEMONSTRATORS for closed facial demonstrations, over 23, refined, intelligent; reference necessary. Apply Mrs. Yeager, Apt. 15, 1424 K st. nw.

LADIES—Real Silk Hosiery Mills will employ immediately 6 refined women to help handle fine lingerie and hosiery business; local residents given preference; not house to house. Apply 9 to 12 a. m., International Building.

SECRETARY wanted by writer in social sciences; part time, for manuscript work; preferably college graduate, intellectually alive with humor. Describe self-qualifications. Box 160, Washington Post.

STENOGRAPHER—Age 18-30; experienced, capable and alert. Boyd's, 1333 F st.

YOUNG WOMEN to do listings at home. Salary and commission. Ga. 4896.

DEMONSTRATORS.
4 women for cosmetic demonstrations; experience not essential; training free; no canvassing. Interview by appointment. Phone Ad. 4795.

HELP WANTED—MALE 12

Post Classified Ads. National 4200

BARBER—Wanted: first class. Also bootblack. 713 O st. nw.

BOOTBLACK—Wanted. Apply 1517 17th st. nw.

COOKS and bus boys. Waters Agency, 724 9th st., Room 208.

EXPERIENCED furniture finisher. Apply National Furniture Co., 7th and H sts. nw.

MEN—Three; with fair education; willing to work 6 days and 3 evenings weekly. Apply 7:30 to 8:30, Tuesday night, Room 603, 1319 M st. nw.

MEN—Can use several men for commercial sales solicitation proposition. Apply Office, 738 Investment Bldg.

MEN to sell Christmas portrait coupons; 100%. 723 Albee Bldg.

MEN
Photo-Coupons, Magazines, Vacuum Cleaner Canvassers. See us for the best money-making opportunity of its kind in this vicinity. Salary and commission.
212 KELLOGG BLDG.
1416 F ST. N.W. 9-10 A. M.

MEN—Protected territory with established clientele open in Washington for responsible men; permanent; commissions advanced daily; local refs. required. Apply mornings, Real Silk Hosiery Mills, International Building.

PHOTOGRAPHER — For portrait studio; must be good, one that can retouch. Apply at once, Room 302, 1317 F st. nw.

RADIO SERVICE MAN—Ten years' experience necessary; auto required; good job for right man. Kennedy Radios, Inc., 3319 14th st. nw.

SALESMEN (2) wanted; one of Washington's largest Philco distributors desires 2 more outside salesmen; men selected will be trained; our salesmen are making good money; splendid chance for advancement; we deliver any radio for $1 down. Apply Bailey's Tire Store, Fla. and Sherman aves. nw., between 9 and 12 a. m., Mr. Scott.

SALESMEN — Drawing account and good commission.
Reliable men for reliable firm.
670 Penn. Avenue S.E.
Call a POSTad-taker today—National 4200.

HELP WANTED—MALE 12

Post Classified Ads. National 4200

(Continued.)

TAILOR—White, experienced on ladies' and gents' alterations; call in morning. 5305 Georgia ave. nw.

TWO neat-appearing men; come prepared for special advertising work. Apply between 9 and 12 a. m. Suite 723, RKO-Keith's Theater Building.

WANTED—Men for special Xmas advertising. 910 National Press Bldg.

SALESMEN.
Two neat, energetic men for immediate employment.
APPLY MR. HARTNETT
9:30 to noon. 900 H N.E.

SALES OPPORTUNITY
We have an opening for 4 salesmen to sell the full line of the well-known
Electrol Oil Heating Equipment
Must be under 45 years of age, of good appearance and some sales experience.
We have a plan for salesmen that will enable you to earn a substantial income at once. Apply to Mr. Barnes between 9 a. m.-12:30 p. m. today.
GRIFFITH-CONSUMERS CO.
1413 New York Avenue N.W.

TAXICAB DRIVERS
WITH IDENTIFICATION CARD.
GOOD PROPOSITION.
SECURITY CAB CO.
801 H ST. NW.

WANTED
WHITE CHAUFFEURS
WITH IDENTIFICATION CARDS
TO DRIVE
NEW DIAMOND CABS
APPLY MR. HIPSON
6 A. M. TO 6 P. M.
1ST AND M STS. N.E.

MEN
Can use 4 more experienced canvassers, 20-35; clean-cut, energetic men only; salary; also commission and car expense. Our men are making from $25 to $45 per week. See Mr. Paul Jones, 10 to 11 a. m. today, 4th floor, The Washington Post Building.

ROOMS and BOARD 34

Post Classified Ads. National 4200

NEW HAMPSHIRE AVE. NW., 1726—Desirable location; lovely large rooms; reas.

BEAUTIFUL Chevy Chase; anyone desiring a real home in a refined private family every comfort; best food obtainable, call Wisconsin 3510.

C ST. N.E., 123—Comfortable room, bath, suitable 2 or 3 gentlemen. Cont. hot water. Home served meals.

CEDAR ST., 2812, Mt. Rainier, Md.—Room and board for 2 ladies; private home; no children; excellent meals; ½ block from bus; reasonable. Greenwood 1417-J.

GEORGETOWN—3210 N st. nw. Lovely double front rooms; twin beds; home c

Furnished or Unfurnished 46
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

CHOICE NW. APTS.
2 rms. to 5 rms. $40 to $95.
Haskin & Co., 1424 K St. N.W. NA. 5437.

APARTMENTS—Unfurnished 47
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

CALIFORNIA ST. NW., 2138—4 rooms and bath, $30; also 6 rooms and bath, $75. Resident Mgr. Free elec. refrigeration.

COLUMBIA RD., 1736—Beverly Courts. 4 rooms, kitchen and bath, $80 and $82.50.
H. L. RUST CO.
1001 15th St. N.W. NAt. 8100.

K ST. NW., 1801—The Kedrick. Three large, light rooms, hall, kitchen and bath; newly decorated. Apply Apt. 502; Dist. 8336.

OTIS PL. NW., 1017—2 rms., kit., private bath, breakfast porch, gas; heat; elec., inc. 3d floor; private home for couple; $40 mo.

DESIRABLE apartments of 2 rooms, kitchen and bath to 8 rooms, kitchen and two baths, in well located buildings.
BLISS PROPERTIES
1811 Columbia rd. nw. ADams 3500.

1121 22D STREET N.W.
4 rooms and bath; flat; elec. $32.50
GEORGE F. HANE, INC.
1422 F Street N.W. Natl. 3964.

THE HOME, 640 K st. nw. (apt. 40)—3 rms., kitchen and bath; Frigidaire; $50.
AMERICAN SECURITY & TRUST CO.

SELECT APTS IN ALL LOCATIONS
WEAVER BROS., INC.
Washington Bldg. Dist. 9486.

APARTMENTS—Furnished and unfurnished, 1321 Conn. Ave. DE. 3600.
RANDALL HAGNER CO., INC.

$35.00 2 rms., kitchenette, bath. 812 10th St. N.W. Apply
FIDELITY STORAGE CO.,
1420 You St. NW. NOrth 3400.

THE ALBEMARLE
$75.00 17TH AND T STREETS NW. Very desirable and attractive 4 rooms, kitchen and bath apt.; electric refrigeration on house current and elevator service. Phone DEcatur 2931 or WEst 2044.

$60.00 AND $62.50. Regina Apt. House, 1214 Eye st. nw. Apartments of 3 rooms, kitchen and bath, $60.00 and $62.50.
WASHINGTON LOAN & TRUST CO.
9th and F Sts. N.W. NA. 3440.

WISTERIA MANSIONS
1101 L St. at Mass. Ave. W.
Apt. of 2 rooms, kitchen and bath, $70; electric refrigeration, switchboard and elevator service. Resident Manager, NA. 9200.
THOS. J. FISHER & CO., Inc.
738 15th St. NW. Dist. 6830.

THE CHALFONTE
1801 ARGONNE PL. NW.
Living room with Murphy bed, bedroom, dinette, kitchen, porch and bath 70.00
2 bedrooms, living room, dining room, foyer, kitchen and bath.... $82.50
Apply Resident Manager, or FISHER & DREYFUSS, INC.,
1518 K st. nw. NAt. 0583.

The PRESIDENTIAL
1026 16th Street N.W.
Desirable apartments consisting of from one room and bath to five rooms, kitchen, reception hall and two baths. Ideally located in downtown section.
Res. Mgr. Me. 2537.
THE MUNSEY TRUST COMPANY
National 8080.

OFFICES for RENT 50
Post Classified Ads. National 4200

CHANDLER BUILDING
1427 EYE ST. in the heart of the financial district, featuring small offices with secretarial telephone service to handle calls in your absence. Also large undivided space. Low rental.
SHANNON & LUCHS CO.
1503 H st nw NAt. 2345.

DESIRABLE OFFICE SPACE—Entire floor of 1,500 square feet; also 1 to 2 rooms.
J. C. WEEDON CO.
1727 K St. N.W. ME. 3011.

FURNISHED OFFICE—$30 per month. 718 National Metropolitan Bank Building.
A. E. Sixsmith. Telephone Met. 6140.

706 11TH ST. NW.—2d floor front, spacious 3-room suite, with private bath, completely refinished, $65.

FRONT—8-ROOM SUITE
In Boss & Phelps Bldg.
Rent: $125.00 per month.
BOSS & PHELPS.
1417 K St. N.W. National 9300.

DESK SPACE for RENT 51
Post Classified Ads National 4200

734 15TH ST. NW.—2d-floor front. Room 203; desk and chair furn.shed; phone calls taken; price reasonable.

Rent your spare room with POSTads.
National 4200

HOUSES—Rent—Furnished 54
Post Classified Ads National 4200

4604 POTOMAC AVE. (corner Brewer)—Reconditioned 6 rms., 2 baths, comfortably furn., laundry, furnace rm., large lot; Foxall schools; reas. Met. 5707, Apt. 8.

BUSINESS PROPERTY—Rent 52
Post Classified Ads National 4200

FOR LEASE—EXCELLENT DOWNTOWN BUSINESS LOCATION.
2-story and basement brick store building at 820 14th st. nw. (west side of 14th, just above H), containing about 7,000 sq. ft., building modern throughout, with elevator and private parking and loading area at rear; excellent appearance. Long lease if desired. For inspection and information call Met. 2304.

STORES for RENT 53
Post Classified Ads. National 4200

18TH AND COLUMBIA RD.
Wonderfully located store, at intersection of 2 street car lines; 20-ft. frontage, full window space, good depth, extra room in rear. Heat furnished. Has been redecorated throughout. Rent reduced to $125 per ment. Call BOSS & PHELPS. NAtional 9300, ask for Mr. MARSHALL.

HOUSES—Rent—Unfurnished 56
Post Classified Ads National 4200

BURLEITH—Modern brick house, 7 rooms (3 bedrooms); in perfect condition; reasonable. Call Mr. Harman, Nat. 2626.
TOLEDO GUARANTY CORP.
1026 Woodward Bldg.

NEBRASKA AVE. NW., 5120—Sunny house, semidetached, 8 large rooms, 2 baths, oil burner, instantaneous hot-water; built-in garage; large front porch; $100 a month.
HERMAN E. GASCH
923 15TH ST. N.W. NA. 3239.

ONLY $60!—Modern 6 rm. brk.; good location; own at rental payments; NO EXTRAS. Phone AD. 8355.

14TH ST. TERRACE—Very desirable detached home; 8 rooms, 2 baths, maid's room and bath; oil heat; 2-car garage. Call NAt. 1040 or EM. 9336.

5342 41ST NW.—$70.00; eight rooms and bath; extra lavatory; garage.
NATIONAL MORTGAGE & INV. CORP.
1004 Vermont Ave. NA. 5833.

CHEVY CHASE MODERN HOMES
Six rooms and bath to 11 rooms and 3 baths; moderate rentals; auto service for inspection. Leslie D. Measell, Cleveland 4733 or Cleveland 3465.

1300 RHODE ISLAND AVE. N.W.
3-story and basement brick; 9 rooms and 2 baths; hot-water heat; electricity; $70.00.
GEORGE F. HANE, INC.
1422 F Street N.W. National 3964.

DESIRABLE HOUSES—$45 AND UP.
Car Service Available
WASHINGTON REALTY CO. NAt. 3365.

IN EXCLUSIVE FOREST HILLS
English type, modern 6-room home, with acre of ground, 2-car garage, automatic heat. Also other houses. Cal NAt. 0470.

COLORED.
2312 17TH STREET N.W.
2-story and cellar brick; 6 rooms and bath; hot-water heat; electricity $47.50
GEORGE F. HANE, INC.
1422 F St. N.W. Natl. 3964.

COLORED
2418 K ST. N.W.
8 ROOMS AND 1 BATH. NEWLY DECORATED. HOT-WATER HEAT. ELECTRICITY; $50 PER MONTH.
H. G. SMITHY CO.
811 15th St. N.W. NAt. 5904.

HOUSES—Rent or SALE 57
Post Classified Ads National 4200

FURNISHED or unfurnished suburban home; 4 bedrooms, 2 baths; oil burner; garage; acre lot; best neighborhood, nearby Montgomery County. COl. 4465.

SUBURBAN for RENT 58
Post Classified Ads National 4200

APARTMENT—3 rooms, semiprivate bath; $25 month. Greenwood 1819.

BEAUTIFUL 8-room house; Washington Golf and Country Club section; possession Nov. 1; rental $90. Clarendon 322.

BUNGALOW—4 rooms, bath; newly papered and painted; electricity; cellar; pipeless furnace; $27.50 mo. NAt. 5371.

BUNGALOWS and houses; modern; furnished and unfurnished; nearby Va., Md., and D. C. Moderate rentals. Auto service for inspection. LESLIE D. MEASELL, Cleveland 3465.

WANTED—TO RENT 62
Post Classified Ads National 4200

LIST YOUR vacant houses and apartments with us. Prompt attention given.
DIXIE REALTY CO. NAT. 8880.

ONE ROOM, kitchenette and bath; reasonable; Gov't employed in apt. Box 85, Washington Post.

For active interest, advice and quick results, list your property with WAGGAMAN-BRAWNER REALTY CORP.,
1700 Eye st. nw. MET. 3860.

WE NEED DWELLINGS FOR RENT—Chiefly small and medium size; would appreciate your listings.
LOUIS P. SHOEMAKER.
1719 K St. N.W. NA. 1166.

WANTED—HOUSES AND APARTMENTS For Reliable Tenants.
LEE D. LATIMER CO.,
722 Investment Bldg. Nat. 4146.

INVESTMENT PROPERTY 65
Post Classified Ads. National 4200

GET our list of investment properties and homes that can be sold on very easy terms.
JOHN F. DONOHOE & SONS.
314 Penna. Ave. S.E.

FOR SALE
BARGAINS
First Commercial Zone
2645 Conn. Ave. N.W.
Between Calvert St. & Woodley Rd., ½ block from Wardman Park and Shoreham Hotels and Apartment Houses.

Lot 35x130—4,200 sq. feet.
3-story brick building—11 rooms, 3 baths and side lot.
Can be remodeled for business purposes.

1727 20TH ST. N.W.
Near Connecticut Avenue at S St. N.W. Lot 21x46 to 30-foot paved alley. 2-story brick building (21x60) on rear of lot. Excellent location for many purposes.

Priced for Quick Sale at Figures Below Prevailing Prices

Walter A. Brown
1400 H St. N.W. Natl. 1652

HOUSES for SALE 66
Post Classified Ads National 4200

1712 37TH ST. NW.—BEST BUY IN 6-RM. home; gas heat, gar.; screened-in por. Inspection invited. EMerson 7540.

Colonial Detached Brick
CHEVY CHASE—$10,950
The best in a home at moderate cost. Center hall and really charming with a different plan and beautiful setting. Large, bright living room with open fire, dining room, 3 exposures; de luxe, roomy kitchen; 3 lovely bedrooms, 2 luxurious baths, recreation room, spacious porches; deep lot with trees; recessed radiation; splendidly built. Nothing has been left out that would add to your comfort and enjoyment. See this new house full of new ideas. An inspection will be a revelation and it will not be for sale long.
TOLEDO GUARANTY CORP.
1026 Woodward Bldg. NAtional 2626.

HOUSES for SALE 66
Post Classified Ads National 4200
(Continued.)

BARGAIN—13 rooms, 7 baths, 3 stories; 3 garages; located between Park rd. and Col. rd., 13th and 14th; 2d and 3d floors rented at $105; owner lives on 1st floor; price, $7,500; $2,000 cash. CLev. 1360.

NW. BUNGALOW—6 real rms; (3 bedrms); new-house cond.; fireplace, metal weather strips, attic floored; garage; trees; $8,250; $750 cash. Dist. 4796 after 6 p.m.

1825 INGLESIDE TERRACE, N.W.—Semi-detached house, 8 rooms, bath and lavatory; garage; oil heat. No down payment; rental terms.
EDWARD M. WILLIS.
Investment Bldg. NAtl. 7479.

124 18TH ST. S.E.—1 square south of Eastern High School; 5-room brick house, redecorated with bath; basement and sleeping porch; reduced $1,000; opportunity to buy a home like new for payments better than rent; $100 cash, $45 monthly, including interest on both. Keys at 1734 A st. se., or call MR. CLARK, NAt. 3007.

List your properties with us.
McKEEVER-HARTUNG CO.
NA. 4750. Shoreham Bldg. NA. 2232.

$3,750—A semidetached six-room-and-bath home near 9th and Kennedy sts., convenient to schools, stores and car line; furnace heat, elec., front and rear porches.

$8,950—Nine-room and two-bath brick home in the most beautiful section of old Georgetown, overlooking Montrose Park; excellent condition; hooded-steel rooms, elec. refrig. Reduced $2,000 for immediate sale; terms.

$12,500—Beautiful Middaugh & Shannon-built semidetached brick home, overlooking Government park, near the Wardman Park Hotel, within walking distance of the downtown. Nine rooms, two baths, front and rear porches, hot-water heat with oil burner, hardwood floors. Easily arranged into separate apts. if desired. Terms arranged.
SHANNON & LUCHS CO.,
1505 H ST. NW. NATIONAL 2345.

BURLEITH
New house condition; southern exposure; spacious living room, real fireplace; large dining room; double rear porches (2d floor inclosed); deep lot; close to Western High schools, stores and bus; low price for quick sale. Call National 1040 or EMerson 9336 for appointment to inspect.
WAVERLY TAYLOR, INC.

FOR A NEW HOME
Any Price, Any Section—See
WAPLE & JAMES, INC.
(Builders & Brokers.)
1226 14th St. N.W. DIst. 3347.

$6,350—Near the intersection of 18th st. and Columbia road nw. We are offering in this home a value which we feel is without an equal in Washington. Ten rooms, bath, oil heat, elec. refrigeration, colonial front porch, 2-car brick garage. House done over like new.

New colonial-type detached brick home with slate roof. Has all the latest refinements and features to be found in a house of much higher price. Convenient N.W. location in D. C. Let us show you this home; you will be charmed by its true colonial plan and delightful size; its ultra-modern equipment and its price of $9,950.
H. G. SMITHY CO.
811 15th St. N.W.
National 5904.

COLORED—T. near 12th; 8 rooms, tile bath; h.-w. h.; elec. price, $6,500; small cash and terms. DEcatur 1160.

COLORED—Near Dunbar High School, 6 rooms and bath; all modern; $5,250; $1,000 cash, balance like rent.
AUSTIN M. COOPER.
820 11th st. nw. NAt. 1332.

SUBURBAN for SALE 70
Post Classified Ads National 4200

EXCELLENT 7-room dwelling; a. m. i.; h.-w. h.; nice lot; ideal location; bargain for large family; price, $6,500.
G. T. REEVES. Phone Falls Church 223.

OAKWOOD RD., HYATTSVILLE—New 7-room-and-bath semibungalow; a. m. i.; h.-w. h.; double built-in garage; beautiful location; on bus line; $6,750; $500 cash, $50 month. ZANTZINGER, Gr. 1819 or NAt. 5371.

TAKOMA PARK BARGAIN—10 days only; 6-room modern bungalow, $5,500. MORRISON AGENCY, Citizens' Bank, Takoma Park. Shep. 3444.

LOTS for SALE 69
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

BEST CORNER lot in Woodridge; high elevation. I have plans already drawn for home on this site. Apply owner.
H. W. CORD, 1003 K NW. MET. 4588.

ACREAGE for SALE 72
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

HUNTING PRESERVE—1,125 acres, stocked with small game, 40 miles from Washington, in Va. Nice boundary of timberland; price, $10,500. For particulars, John F. Garrett, 108 So. Washington st., Alexandria, Va. Phone Alex. 2400.

FARMS—LAND for SALE 73
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

BEAUTIFUL, rolling land, 5 miles D. C.; State rd. front; large stream rear touching future parkway; ripe for development; 2 good houses; lot other bldgs. low at $250 per acre. NAt. 1596.

FARMS and country homes; convenient to Washington. Buell Farm Agency, Herndon, Fairfax Co., Va. Office, Herndon Hotel.

FIVE ACRES on Lee highway, 6-room house, electricity, pipeless furnace, bath, grove of large oak trees around house, garage and barn. Price, $4,250. Convenient driving distance of Washington. Let me know exactly what you are looking for in northern Virginia convenient to Washington. Buell Farm Agency, Herndon, Fairfax Co., Va. Office, Herndon Hotel.

FOR FARMS, homes and business property call Herndon 69, or 51-J.
R. C. PRINTZ, Herndon, Va.

LARGE LISTING farms, suburban and waterfront property. R. D. Lillie, 266 Carrol st., Takoma, D. C. GE. 3300.

POTOMAC RIVER PROPERTIES—Colonial homes, ducking shores, farms. Write for booklet and list. The Maryland Realty, 1511 Guilford ave., Baltimore, Md.

$50 DOWN—8 acres; on good gravel rd.; 7½ miles D. C.; price, $675; partly wooded. NAtl. 3753 or ATlantic 5205-J.

WANTED—REAL ESTATE 76
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

CASH for houses in D. C., frame or brick, white or colored; confidential.
E. A. GARVEY, 1126 Vt ave.; Dist. 4508.

MODERN downtown apartment building about $175,000; have client who will pay cash above one trust.
C. H. HILLEGEIST CO.,
1621 K st. nw. NAt. 8500.

DOGS—CATS—PETS 79
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

PUPPIES—Cocker Spaniel and smooth fox terriers; registered; healthy; farm raised; reasonable. J. H. Sell, Taneytown, Md.

MISCELLANEOUS for SALE 83
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

A FEW WASHERS, used; refinished and look like new; as low as $19.75. F. S. Harris Co., 2900 14th nw.; COl. 0100.

AMPICO—Here's one for $300. You can buy this repossessed Ampico on terms as low as $2 weekly. Arthur Jordan Piano Co., 1239 G st. nw.

APARTMENT GRAND—Here is a repossessed grand that has had less than eight months' use. Small in size; beautiful in tone. We will resell this grand for $286. On terms as low as $2 weekly. Arthur Jordan Piano Co., 1239 G st. nw.

APARTMENT UPRIGHT—Just what you want; mahogany case, light responsive action, nice tone. Will sell for $150 on terms as low as $2 weekly. Arthur Jordan Piano Co., 1239 G st. nw.

APARTMENT GRAND—We have been instructed to sell this small grand for the balance due of $274. This grand has actually had very little use. The case is mahogany and it is a well-known make. Terms can be had as low as $2 weekly to pay out. Arthur Jordan Piano Co., 1239 G st. nw.

BEDDING MATTRESSES—Box springs and pillows reno.; best prices; prompt del. Wash. Mattress Co., 319 L sw. NA 6679.

CHEST OF DRAWERS; mahogany. Call Wis. 4775.

CLEARANCE SALE—Typewriters, Underwoods, Royals and L. C. Smith, &c.; priced $10 up. American Typewriter Co., 1431 E. Capitol st.; LI. 0082. Open eves.

CONCRETE MIXER—Rex 2 bag. Le Roi Engine. Good condition. Reasonably priced. J. Cohen, 4120 14th st. nw. Apt. 2.

FINEST COLLECTION of Chinese furniture, silks, cloisonne and rugs, worth $13,000, for sale. Will exchange for home valued from $8,000 to $10,000. 2336 Potomac ave., Quantico, Va.

FIREPLACE FIXTURES.
RUDOLPH & WEST.
1332 New York Ave. N.W. NAt. 4870.

FRIGIDAIRES—Biggest bargain ever offered; 5 cu. ft.; in good working order; $44.50; get yours while they last; open Sunday, 2030 14th st. nw.

GAS RANGES, consoles and table tops, De Luxe models; $10 credit on your old stove. Capital, 1524 L st. nw.

Quick service prevails with Post Classified Ads.

MODEL AIRPLANE SUPPLIES—Complete stock of balsa, tissue, wire, &c. National Aviation Supply, 1213 Eye st. nw.

OFFICE FURNITURE—A large assortment of used pieces at low prices. H. Baum & Son, 616 E st. nw.

PAINT—Pure linseed oil, 80c gal.; washable gloss paints, $1.45 gal.; white and tints, $1.85. 1119 9th st. nw. NAt. 8901.

PIANOS FOR RENT—Up., $3.50 and $4 mo. Finest rental stock in Washington. NA. 3659. W. W. Kimball Co., 721 11th nw.

PIANO—Used Schubert upright; suitable for practice, $35; also several other real bargains at $50, $60, $75. Pay $1 down, $1 weekly. Kitt's, 1330 G st.

MISCELLANEOUS for SALE 83
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.
(Continued.)

PIANO—We have a fine little Colonial model baby grand, just repossessed, that can be bought by simply assuming the unpaid notes of $12.50 monthly. This piano is one of the better makes and is exactly as if new. The total price is $462. Substantially less than the new price. Seldom are we able to offer such value in a really fine piano. See it today. Homer L. Kitt Co., 1330 G st. nw.

PIANO—Late model mahogany finished apartment upright. A lovely little piano with a full-size keyboard. Used, but for only a short time, it is in splendid condition. Just repossessed and can be purchased by anyone who will continue the weekly payments of $2, totaling $148. Homer L. Kitt Co., 1330 G st.

PIANO—One of our better apartment uprights; an unusually well-voiced and well-built instrument. It has been loaned out for about 3 months and looks and plays as if new. Now $265. Pay $5 down, balance monthly. Homer L. Kitt Co., 1330 G st.

PIANO—Queen Anne model; walnut finish grand in splendid condition; $430. This instrument sold originally for $625 and is a real value considering it was only used three months. Pay $5 down, balance monthly. Homer L. Kitt Co., 1330 G st.

PIANO—We have a well-built, late model baby grand, just traded in, that can be purchased for only $225. A real buy at this low price. Pay $5 down, balance monthly. Kitt's, 1330 G st.

PIANO—Hallett & Davis midget grand; in good condition, a splendid little instrument for the small home. Unusual at $185. Pay $3 down, $5 monthly. Kitt's, 1330 G st.

PIANO—N. W. Nelson mahogany baby grand; in absolutely new condition; reduced to $285. Pay $5 down, $5 monthly. See this value. Kitt's, 1330 G st.

PLAYER-PIANO—A used, reconditioned instrument, with a strong, responsive, action. Reduced to $79. Terms, $1 down, $1 weekly. Kitt's, 1330 G st.

PIANO STUDENTS—You can save money by taking advantage of our combination offer—both piano and a complete course of private lessons for only $2 per weekly lesson. There is no other charge. You pay for 5 lessons in advance and the piano is delivered to your home immediately. The lessons are given in our studios at hours to suit your convenience and under the supervision of competent instructors. Special children's courses. Homer L. Kitt Co., 1330 G st.

PRACTICE pianos for students. We have just brought over from the shop seven such upright pianos that can be bought at a price like $35-$50-$75 on terms as low as $1 weekly. Arthur Jordan Piano Co., 1239 G st. nw.

RADIO—Philco model 118-X. Regular retail sale price $100; won in contest; never used; 90-day guarantee; delivered; will sell for $65. NA. 4463, Apt. 401.

REFRIGERATOR—We have on hand one slightly used electric refrigerator in good condition; to go at a bargain price. 1328 N Y. ave. nw.

RESTAURANT equipment, chinaware, office furniture, store fixtures, cash registers. Edgar Baum, Inc., 914 E st. nw.

SHOTGUNS—USED
Winchesters, Remingtons, L. C. Smiths, Brownings and others in various models. All used guns guaranteed.
TENDLER'S PAWNBROKERS SALES CO.
913 D St. NW.

SMALL GRAND—Will sell a 4-foot 6-inch, well-known grand at a sacrifice of $80 as it has been used for exhibition for several weeks. Terms as low as $2 weekly. Will make it easy for you to pay. Arthur Jordan Piano Co., 1239 G st. nw.

STOVES—Coal, gas, oil heaters at lowest prices. Your old stove accepted in trade; free delivery. New Philadelphia Junk Co., 1432 H st. ne. LIn. 10311.

STUDIO COUCHES—1 rust, 1 green; regularly $24.50; close out $18.95. Ideal Bedding Co., 622 C st. nw.

TYPEWRITERS—Reconditioned portables and standards; all makes; excellent rental machines; lowest rates. Typewriter Sales & Service Co., 811 17th st. nw.; NAt. 6819.

TYPEWRITERS—1 Underwood No. 5 (rebuilt), $36.45; 1 Remington No. 10, $16.25. "United," 813 14th nw. NA. 6063.

TYPEWRITERS—Current model Coronas and L. C. Smiths for rent. Bargains in rebuilt and reconditioned machines. The L. C. Smith and Corona Typewriters, Inc., 1018 15th st. nw. NA. 0411.

TYPEWRITERS—Guaranteed one year; low prices; terms; we rent, repair, exchange. Standard Typewriter Co., 723 10th nw

VICTROLA, with records; handsome mahogany console case; $5. 1625 Newton nw.

WALL PAPER—Special room lots, $1.25; sufficient for ceiling, side walls, border; room 10x14x8; wide selection. Walter Morgan Co., Inc., 421 10th nw. NA. 7882.

WOOD—Thoroughly seasoned, hi-test-grade oak-maple, fireplace; $11 standard cord; prompt delivery; part orders. Berwyn 157-J.

RADIOS ON CREDIT
Baby Grand PHILCO
$20 Full line of Philco Radios for the home.
Name Your Own Terms!
MANHATTAN AUTO & RADIO CO.
1706 7th St. N.W.

Another Great Combination Offer!
A Handsome, New VIOLIN
and a Full Course of 50 Lessons
For Only 75 cents Per Lesson

There is no other charge. All you are required to do is pay for 5 lessons in advance to show your sincerity of purpose. You take the instrument home at once. This offer includes a complete violin outfit. The lessons are given at your convenience in our private studios under the supervision of experienced, competent instructors. Hear our students perform on the air, WOL, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays at 5:45 and the Children's Hour on WOL, Saturday, 11:00 a. m.

Homer L. Kitt Co.
Knabe Pianos 1330 G ST. Knabe Pianos

MISCELLANEOUS for SALE 83
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.
(Continued.)

WOOD—Best quality seasoned oak; delivered any length. Ph. Kensington 197-R.

BUILDING MATERIAL
Wrecking large Government building. Thousands of feet of used lumber, 2x4, 2x6, 2x10, 2x12, sheathing, flooring, timbers, &c. Wallboard, windows and doors (with frames). Pipes, radiators, plumbing, roofing, wall cases, &c. Unusually fine condition and priced reasonably.
BOILERS
Suitable for industrial purposes; 7 Yarrow, 500 h. p. ea.; 2 Heine, 150 h. p. ea.; 2 Kewanee, 100 h. p. ea. All have oil-burner equipment. Also steam pumps, valves, &c.
STEEL BUILDING
Bolted construction, corrugated asbestos sides and roof. Approximately 30x175x40 ft. high. Good condition. Can be easily taken down and reconstructed.
Newman Wrecking Co., Inc.
SALES OFFICE.
Corner 19th and C sts. nw. ME. 6511.

MERCHANTS' SPECIALS 84
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

CENTRAL CLEANERS
Hats cleaned and blocked, 50c. COl. 9312.

SHOE REPAIRING — Ladies' shoes half soled with McKay stitcher like new, 65c. Enterprise Delivery. Call MEt. 6819.

SPECIAL every Monday and Tuesday; half soles, 50c. Liberty Valet Service, 1412 H st. nw.

NEW AUTO DOOR GLASS—ANY SIZE—INSTALLED, NOT OVER $195
WINDSHIELD GLASS, ANY MODEL—A FORD..... $1.95
NON-SHATTER GUAR. LIBBY OWEN-FORD grade, installed..... $5.50
GLASSERS 2d & Pa. N.E. DI. 0754.

SMOOT MOTOR CO.
3342 M St. NW. WEst 1850.

CHEVROLET—1930 coach, $125; easy terms. 50 others priced equally as low. Gardner-Stuart Motors, 804 Bladensburg rd. LI. 8138.

CHEVROLET and Ford roadsters from 1931 to 1933; reasonable. Ourisman Chevrolet, 625 H st. ne.

CHEVROLET
1933 Sedan, very good paint, splendid motor, good tires. This car surely is a bargain at $415. C. C. C. guarantee. Terms and trade open evenings and Sunday.
CAPITOL CADILLAC CO.
1222 22nd st. N.W. National 3300.

DODGE 1934 Deluxe Sedan, demonstrator; driven by company official, big reduction for quick sale.
ROONEY'S GARAGE (Dodge-Plymouth)
Capitol Heights, Md. Hillside 0281.

DODGE—1933 coupe; in perfect condition; low mileage; guaranteed; $545. L. P. Steuart, Inc., 1325 14th st. nw.

FORD '32 "V-8" COUPE
We are very fortunate in having such a new looking car to offer. Not a scratch mars its glossy finish. Motor like new.
EMERSON & ORME
17th and M Sts. NW. DI. 8100.

FORD—1934 8-cylinder; will sell at low price; excellent condition; will take small car in trade and can arrange terms on balance. Phone LIncoln 3673. Mr. Middleton.

FORD 1929 Tudor Sedan. As clean a '29 as is on the road. This popular model won't be in our stock long and you'll have to be quick if you want it. Good shape throughout.
HANDLEY MOTOR CO.
3730 Georgia Ave. ADams 8060.

CHEVROLET 1934 Sedan; 4 door, slightly used practically new car; only $585. Terms, trade plus 90-day guarantee.
TOM'S CHRYSLER—PLYMOUTH
1355 Conn. Ave. DEcatur 3876.

CHEVROLET 1933 Sedan; 4 door, new tires, beautiful finish, black with green pin stripe trim, mohair upholstery. This car is a recent trade-in, owner refused to pay the particular owner; priced low for this car; $425. Terms, trade.
TOM'S—CHRYSLER—PLYMOUTH
1355 Conn. Ave. DEcatur 3876.

CHEVROLET—1933 sedan, $375; easy terms. 50 others priced equally as low. Gardner-Stuart Motors, 804 Bladensburg rd. LI. 8138.

CHEVROLET 1933 Master Coach —owned and driven by one owner; very good condition all around—motor, tires good tires; priced low for this car; $445.
SMOOT MOTOR CO.
3342 M St. NW. WEst 1850.

COAL 84A
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

JOHN A. EDELIN
All Best Grades—Prompt Deliveries.
1640 B St. S.E. Lincoln 5047

A. B. WATKINS
COLONIAL COAL—ALL OTHER KINDS
COKE—ICE—DELIVERIES ALL OVER.
843 LONGFELLOW N.W. GEORGIA 1847.

ALLEGHENY COAL CO.
"FOR BETTER-HEATED HOMES."
Telephone ATlantic 4375.

SAVE MONEY on your fuel bills! Why wait for cold weather? Call NA. 3910 now. Select fireplace, kindling, stove wood, anthracite and bituminous coal.

H. E. GLOTZBACH CO.
Lowest Rates—Best Coals. Wood—Fuel Oil.
923 12th St. N.E. LIncoln 0033.

FOR BEST COAL SERVICE CALL
BOYD FUEL & FEED CO.
2507 Nichols Ave. SE. LIncoln 7073.

L. P. STEUART & BROS.
"Complete Heating Service."
138 12th St. N.E. LIncoln 1203.

COLONIAL COAL. 'blue coal.'
Yellow truck service on all brands.
A. B. WATKINS.
ADams 5109. 4503 8th st. nw.

KEYSTONE COAL CO.
COLONIAL & ALL KINDS OF COAL
1240 Pa. Ave. S.E. LIncoln 8330.

BOATS 86
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

A ST. SE., 1418 and 1420—2 brick houses, 5 and 6 rooms, hot-water heat, electricity, gas, garage, only $3,800 each, to be sold on easy terms. Phone Adams 8563 or call at Newsom's, 1110 H st. ne.

WANTED—TO BUY 87
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

ALL KINDS of furniture, bric-a-brac, vases and china wanted; will pay highest cash prices. Call NAtional 1796.

ANTIQUE JEWELRY, watches, diamonds, coins, gold teeth, silver, mus. inst.; full prices Schiller's, 444 9th st., cor. E nw.

ANTIQUE JEWELRY, gold teeth, coins, silver watches, diamonds, &c.; highest prices. Gold Refining, Inc., 400 12th nw

BOOKS—Top prices for good books and old prints; any quantity. Bargain Book Shop, 808 9th nw.; DI. 5007. Open eve.

BOOKS—All kinds; highest prices paid, any quantity; also stamps, autographs and prints. MEt. 5415. Penman's Big Book Shop, 933 G st. nw. (No branches.)

BOOKS—Finely bound sets, Encyclopedia Britannica; whole libraries purchased. Brentano's, 1322 F; phone NAtl. 0860.

DESIRABLE FURNITURE—Top prices paid immediately; also store fixtures; stocks of merchandise. Call DI. 8112; prompt atten

FURNITURE—Used, bought; highest prices paid. District 2077.

FURNITURE and household goods bought for cash. For quick service, call "Charles," 709 H st.; phone NAtl. 4609.

FURNITURE—Household and office furniture wanted at once; highest cash prices. Call A. Margolis Furniture Co., ME. 9533.

FURNITURE—Spot cash; all kinds; highest prices paid. Call Atlantic 4029.

GOLD OR PLATINUM JEWELRY AND SILVERWARE AND GOLD TEETH; ANY CONDITION; WE HAVE U. S. GOVT. LICENSE TO BUY GOLD AND PAY CASH. A. KAHN, INC., 42 YEARS AT 935 F ST. NW.

GOLD, SILVER, antiques, gold teeth, watches; any old, new or broken jewery; cash; no waiting. Milsam's 436 9th nw.

HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE—Living, bedrm. suites; all kinds. We buy everything used in a house; prompt service. WE. 3063.

OLD GOLD, silver, platinum diamonds bought by oldest estab. Wash. dealers. Louis Abrahams, 711 G st. nw

PIANO—Want to rent very small upright; best of care given; terms must be reasonable. Call CLeve. 1263.

SPOT CASH PAID IMMEDIATELY
OLD GOLD, SILVER, WATCHES, DIAMONDS
Discarded jewelry, gold teeth. U. S. Government license to buy and sell.
SELINGER'S, 818 F St. NW.

WANTED—AUTOMOTIVE 88
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

CASH for '29, '30 and '31 Fords. Call Mr. Reithmeyer, LI. 7373.
Chesapeake Auto Co., 1102 11th st. se.

CASH for your car, regardless of condition. Auto Parts Corp., 3289 M st. nw. WEst. 0111.

CASH FOR YOUR CAR
BARNES MOTOR CO.
Highest cash prices paid for your Ford or Chevrolet or any other make, or will pay unpaid balance and give you difference in cash. See Mr. Barnes, 1729 14th st. nw.

GARAGES 89
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

$3 EACH—Individual garages at rear of 1907 15th st. nw. Apply to janitor.

AUTO REPAIRING 91
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

SCIENTIFIC BRAKE RELINING.
PLYMOUTH, $8 UP. PONTIAC, $8 UP.
W. S. PRATT, 1017 17TH ST. N.W.

MOTORCYCLES 96
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200

1929 HARLEY-DAVIDSON, $45; rebuilt Indian Scout 45, $85. Indian Motorcycles Sales, 1065 31st st. nw. WE. 0602.

AUTO TRUCKS—TRACTORS 97
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

CHEVROLET 1929 stake body truck, 1½ ton; excellent condition throughout; $245. Terms.
TOM'S CHRYSLER-PLYMOUTH.
1355 Conn. Ave. DEcatur 3876.

CHEVROLET 1927—panel truck; closed cab; new tires; motor A-1; ready to go to work; only $69.
WISCONSIN MOTOR CO., Inc.
29th and M Sts. NW. Decatur 5540

AUTO TRUCKS—TRACTORS 97
Post Classified Ads. National 4200
(Continued.)

'32 G. M. C.
TRUCK and TRAILER
20-ft. trailer, stake body, equal to new; short coupled; dual pneumatics; capacity 8 tons; tires perfect. Can be used for hauling lumber, transporting beer, general hauling, unloading freight cars, &c.
$575.00
Robt. Herson Auto Ex., Inc.
72 Florida Ave. N.E. NO. 1040S

FORD
1933 Sedan Delivery—blue. This car is in excellent condition and the V8 motor has been tuned to perfection. Our economical prestige builder and a chance for you to get away from that first year's depreciation. Cut your delivery overhead to a minimum; $425. Terms and trade.
ANACOSTIA MOTOR CO.
LI 2077. 1325 Good Hope Rd.

FORD—1932 panel delivery; economical 4-cyl. engine; perfect condition and appearance. Will sell cheap. Phone Mr. Scott, West 2186.

AUTOMOBILES for SALE 98
Post Classified Ads.—National 4200.

BUICK '33 SEDAN
A model 57 with 6 w. w., well fenders and metal tire covers; modern slip-stream lines that will please the most critical and a motor quiet as new. $565.
EMERSON & ORME
17th and M Sts. NW. DI. 8100.

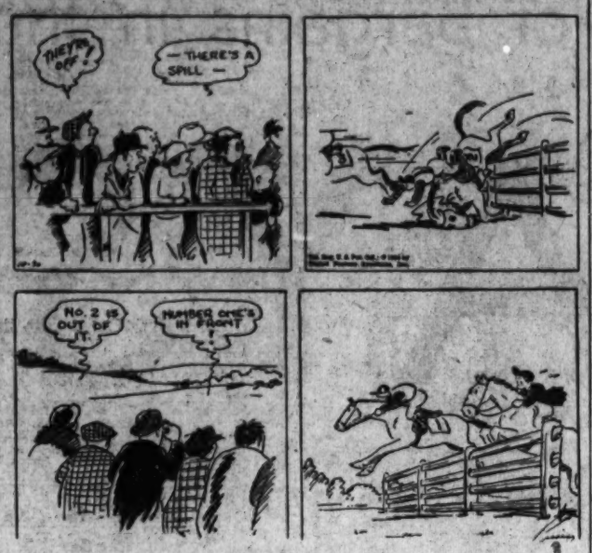
CHEVROLET
1931 Coach. In mighty good condition throughout. Finished in a pleasing green with green wheels. An economical car for business or family use. Only $260. Terms and trade.
HANDLEY MOTOR CO.
3730 Georgia Ave. ADams 8060.

CHEVROLET 1934 Sedan; 4 door, slightly used practically new car; only $585. Terms, trade plus 90-day guarantee.
TOM'S—CHRYSLER—PLYMOUTH
1355 Conn. Ave. DEcatur 3876.

CHEVROLET 1933 Sedan; 4 door, new tires, beautiful finish, black with green pin stripe trim, mohair upholstery. This car is a recent trade-in, owner refused to pay the particular owner; priced low for this car; $425. Terms, trade.
TOM'S—CHRYSLER—PLYMOUTH
1355 Conn. Ave. DEcatur 3876.

CHEVROLET—1933 sedan, $375; easy terms.

BENNY — Here Comes Benny — By J. Carver Pusey



"Cap" Stubbs — Other Troubles — By Edwina

CAN'T YOU STOP SMOKING IN TH' HOUSE — YOU KNOW COUSIN MILLIE DOESN'T LIKE IT — SHE WON'T BE STAYING LONG — HOW LONG!
AND DON'T ARGUE WITH HER — YOU KNOW SHE DOESN'T APPROVE OF YOUR VIEWS — WELL, SHE DOESN'T HAVE TO STAY AND LISTEN TO THEM —

Today's Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS.

1 Cause to float lightly
5 Moccasin
8 Direction
12 Canal in New York State
13 Syllable used in college cheers
14 One opposed to it
16 Expand
17 Church festival
19 Held a session
20 Tree with quivering leaves
22 Copy
23 Plural ending
25 Weary
26 Short for a girl's name
27 Violent storm
30 Large oil can
32 Alternative
34 Close of day
36 Sun god
37 Giggle
39 Tribe of Iroquian Indians
41 Metric land measure
42 Public vehicle
43 Musical note
44 Unit of work
46 Mottled
48 Catch suddenly: colloq.
51 Move to and fro
53 Tolerate
55 Feminine name
56 Room in a harem
58 Son of Adam
59 Ovule
60 Bushy clump
61 Ground grain

DOWN.

1 Marries
2 Operatic solo
3 Strainer
4 Beverage
5 Act as chairman
6 Rough lava: Hawaiian
7 Part of the face
8 Existed
9 Make necessary
10 Pace
11 Outer covering of a wheel
16 Symbol for tantalum
18 Article
21 Word used for a noun
24 Expression of contempt
26 Watch
27 Little child
28 Native metal
29 Salutation
30 Unity
31 Age
32 Oriental ship captain
35 In place of
38 Dispute about price
40 The famous blue river
42 Intolerant person
44 Female sheep
45 Vex: colloq.
46 Dad
47 Forward
49 Extent of surface
50 Ringing instrument
52 Stuff with a soft substance
54 Barrier in a stream
57 Serve the purpose

YESTERDAY'S ANSWER.

O	R	E		F	E	A	T		P	A	G	E
P	E	A		A	G	G	R	I	E	V	E	S
S	P	R	A	N	G		I	N	T	E	N	T
	R	I	D	S		B	A	H		R	O	E
I	O	N	S		P	O	L	E	S	T	A	R
D	O	G		B	A	N		R	A	S
O	F		P	O	L	E	M	I	C		R	A
		C	O	R		S	A	T		B	E	T
C	R	E	M	A	T	E	D		E	R	S	E
L	A	R		T	O	T		F	R	I	T
A	R	I	S	E	N		A	R	E	N	A	S
R	E	S	I	D	E	N	C	E		E	T	A
A	R	E	S		S	A	T	E		S	E	W

(Copyright, 1934.)

Walt Mason, Himself

Pharisees.

We thank our divers gods again, that we are not as other men when we have read the public prints, and found therein the lurid hints of crookedness and vice and sin, of men whose souls are made of tin. The world is full of loathsome gents who'd rob a church for 15 cents, who'd swipe the graybeard's Sunday wig and rob a widow of her pig. Along their evil paths they go, but we are like the driven snow. We are so pure and sweet and clean our equals seldom have been seen. We gather in the Blue Front store, and countless evils, we deplore. There is corruption everywhere, which drives the voters to despair; it seems to officeholders all would ride this Nation to a fall; there are no patriots alive—at least not more than 25, which figure covers all the score of good men in the Blue Front store. We read of lawyers who are crooks, of bankers who have placed their hooks in helpless victims, who, of course, have no defense and no resource. And when we read such tales as these, we feel our blood in anguish freeze, and we are glad that we alone adopt a highly moral tone and pace in triumph through the town, without a flaw in our renown. The world is full of sinfull skates who cheat in measures and in weights, who buy things cheap and sell them dear, who sell gold bricks and shove the queer, and fill the universe with woe, while we are like the driven snow.

(Copyright, 1934.)

APPLE MARY — By Martha Orr

THERE'S THE MAYOR, STOPPING FOR HIS DAILY APPLE! HE SURE HAS BEEN NICE ABOUT BUYING APPLES FROM ME!
APPLES 5¢
HOWDY, MR. MAYOR! HERE'S YOUR APPLE! I HOPE IT'LL BRING YOU GOOD LUCK!
I BELIEVE YOUR APPLES REALLY ARE LUCKY, APPLE MARY. I WOULDN'T THINK OF STARTING THE DAY WITHOUT ONE.
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.; Copyright, 1934, by Publishers Syndicate
I DON'T KNOW IF THEY'RE LUCKY FOR HIM OR NOT, BUT THEY SURE HAVE BEEN LIFE SAVERS FOR ME. AT LEAST, I'VE BEEN ABLE TO MAKE A LIVING OUT OF THEM FOR DENNIE AND MYSELF!
MARTHA ORR
THINK OF IT! ONCE I WAS RIDING AROUND IN A BIG CAR LIKE THAT, AND NOW LOOK AT ME! BUT I'LL GET BACK, SOME WAY. DENNIE'S GOING TO HAVE A CHANCE, SAME AS OTHER BOYS!

THE BUNGLE FAMILY — Ready! — By Harry J. Tuthill

A LITTLE STROLL SUGGESTED BY A NEIGHBORING HUSBAND WHO HAS IMAGINATIVELY REVIVED AN OLD ROMANCE, TURNED INTO SUCH A BIG WALK THAT THE INTENDED VICTIM OF ROUGH HANDLING STOPPED.
McNaught Syndicate, Inc., N. Y.
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF. 10-30
NO SIR, SIRDAR, TOO MUCH IS PLENTY. WE CAME OUT FOR A WALK, NOT A MARATHON AND...
JUST ONE LITTLE BIT MORE MY DEAR FRIEND. UP TO THEES LIGHT. A CAFE, WHERE I SHALL BUY CIGARS.
KINDLY YOU WAIT HERE WHILE I GET VERY GOOD CIGARS. YES?
O.K.
SPECIAL TODAY! HOT DOGS 5¢ UP
LISTEN. I HAVE THIS FELLOW BUNGLE OUTSIDE. FOLLOW US TWO, THREE BLOCKS, THEN JUMP ON US AND GIVE HIM WHAT THESE AMERICANOS CALL A GOOD TRIMMING.
HOW MUCH YOU PAY, SIRDAR?
WELL, BOYS, FOR REAL GOOD SNAPPY JOB THAT PUTS HIM IN BED FOR FIVE, SIX WEEKS I PAY $50..$60 O.K.?
$75 IS O.K.
THAT'S OKE BY ME TOO.
VERY FINE CIGARS I GOT, EH MY DEAR FRIEND?
YES, VERY GOOD SIRDAR. THANKS. WELL, LET'S STEP ALONG HOME. IT'S GETTING LATE.

JOE PALOOKA — To the Rescue — By Ham Fisher

'OW ABAHT H'APOLIGIZIN', MISTER SWELL?
HEY — LET GO A HIM, YOU!
I-I-OWCH!
10-30
OH YEAH — WELL GOR BLIMEE — IF TH' OTHER SWELL AINT SHOWIN' BAD MANNERS TOO!
LISSEN, BUDDY — WE AINT LOOKIN FER NO TROUBLE
I SAID LEGGO A HIM AN' HURRY UP!
!"@&!!
C'MON KID, LET'S SCRAM

DIXIE DUGAN — Quite So! — By J. P. McEvoy and J. H. Striebel

WHERE AM I? I SEEM TO HAVE BEEN IN MY AIRPLANE AND — AND I CAN'T REMEMBER ANYTHING ELSE .... HOW DID I GET HERE? WHAT HAPPENED?
I DON'T KNOW — MAYBE YOUR NEW WIFE CAN EXPLAIN, OR ALMOST YOUR WIFE ANYWAY 10-30
WIFE?
YES — MISS PENNLEY! — YOU WERE MARRYING HER WHEN WE GOT HERE!
OH-OH-
MISS PENNLEY!? I WAS MARRYING MISS PENNLEY!!
Y-YES!
GEE — THEN I HAVE BEEN IN AN ACCIDENT!

THE GUMPS — Poor Cinderella

SO HE'S GONE AND DONE IT — AFTER ALL THESE YEARS — BIM GUMP, OF ALL MEN — ELOPING WITH A LITTLE FUSSYFLOSS LIKE HER — WHILE VIRTUE GOES UNREWARDED —
10-30
IN THE OLD DAYS, IT USED TO BE THAT THE WAY TO A MAN'S HEART WAS THROUGH HIS STOMACH — TODAY IT SEEMS TO BE THROUGH HIS POCKETBOOK — FEED HIM AND HE FORGETS YOU — BUT SUE HIM AND HE'S YOURS — HEAVEN HELP THE POOR WORKING GIRL — WHAT CHANCE HAS SHE IN A WORLD LIKE THIS?
AND TO THINK UNCLE BIM ONCE TOLD ME THAT A SMART WIFE CAN MAKE A MAN OUT OF ANY FOOL — WELL IT WON'T BE LONG BEFORE HE FINDS OUT THAT A GIRL LIKE MILLIE CAN MAKE A FOOL OUT OF ANY MAN — LOVE MAY BE BLIND, BUT YOU'LL SOON FIND OUT, BIM GUMP — MARRIAGE IS A GREAT EYE-DOCTOR —
SIDNEY SMITH

DICK TRACY — Through the Meshes

SEE, TRACY — I TOLD YOU THAT GUY I SAW WAS "DOC" HUMP!
FROM THE VETERINARY'S DESCRIPTION, IT SOUNDS THAT WAY! WHAT DID HE WANT IN HERE?
HE CAME IN TO GET A SYRINGE.
A SYRINGE?
YES — HE SAID HE WAS A VETERINARY HIMSELF AND WAS IN NEED OF THE TYPE OF INSTRUMENT USED IN THE SERUM TREATMENT OF DOGS FOR DISTEMPER.
I'VE GOT TO USE YOUR 'PHONE!
RIGHT OVER THERE.
THANK GOODNESS YOU'VE CALLED, TRACY! I'VE BEEN TRYING TO GET YOU — YES — "DOC" HUMP IS OUT OF JAIL! THERE WAS AN ERROR REPORTED IN THE INDICTMENT FRIDAY, AND THAT SHYSTER, TWILLBRAIN, RUSHED OVER TO THE COUNTY JAIL AND GOT HIM OUT ON A HABEAS CORPUS WRIT.
WELL, I'LL BE — CLICK!

WINNIE WINKLE, the Breadwinner — To Whom It May Concern

I WANT TO SEE WINNIE WINKLE!
WHAT DO YOU WANT TO SEE HER ABOUT?
OCT. 30
I DON'T KNOW THAT IT CONCERNS YOU, YOUNG MAN!
OH YOU DON'T, EH?
JUST A MOMENT! I'M WINNIE WINKLE!!
WELL, I'M FROM TH' GENERAL FIXTURES COMP'NY AND — WELL, MR. BEN BAKER IS THE BOSS HERE!
OH — YOU DIDN'T KNOW I WAS BOSS EH??
WINNIE WINKLE FASHIONS INC.
BEN BAKER PRES.
TEE-HEE

Greif and NRA Reach Accord; Suit Dismissed

'Piece Rate' System Agreed Upon Satisfactory to Code Authority.

Baltimore, Oct. 29 (AP).—What was regarded as one of the most important attacks upon the NRA was ended today by dismissal of a suit of L. Greif & Bros., men's clothing manufacturers, after an agreement between the company and NRA had been reached.

Federal Judge William C. Coleman signed an order of dismissal when the agreement, signed by representatives of the NRA, the Men's Clothing Code Authority and the Greif company, was presented by Leonard Weinberg, Greif attorney, and District Attorney Bernard J. Flynn.

Weinberg and Howard A. Sweeten, also representing Greif, told the court the agreement was satisfactory to the company "without our in any way admitting the constitutionally of the National recovery act or the men's clothir ; code."

NRA and code authorities, however, were said to have accepted a "piece rate" system agreed upon in settlement of the controversy, revolving around wages and back compensation, as in complete compliance with all their requirements.

Weinberg said the establishment of the "piece rate" system was accepted as of June 9, 1934, the date the Greif company had contended for.

L. Greif & Bros., Inc., is rated as the second largest manufacturer of men's clothing in the world, and its action against the NRA, begun in July, brought on heated controversy. The agreement was reached some time ago, but Judge Coleman, at a hearing before him a few weeks ago, refused to dismiss the suit until representatives of NRA appeared in his court and the agreement was presented.

Playmate Shoots Boy, While Playing With Gun

Green Castle, Pa., Oct. 29 (Spl.). Roy Barnhart, jr., 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Barnhart, Route 2, is in the Waynesboro Hospital suffering from a wound in the stomach inflicted by a bullet from a .22-caliber revolver in the hands of Leslie Sellers, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Sellers, next-door neighbors.

The revolver was discharged accidentally while the boys were at play. The Barnhart boy's condition is critical.

Drought Area Cattle Ready for Slaughter

Annapolis, Md., Oct. 29 (Spl.). One hundred and sixty-four head of cattle sent into Anne Arundel County from the arid West a few months ago will be moved to Baltimore this week for slaughtering, and the meat distributed under Federal relief auspices, Stanley E. Day, county agent, announces.

The cattle were distributed among farms in the Waterbury and West River sections, where there are better pastures for grazing.

Events Today

Meeting: Federation of Paint and Varnish Production Clubs, Mayflower Hotel, 9:30 p. m.

Dinner: National Advisory Committee, National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Mayflower Hotel, 7 p. m.

Luncheon: Acquaintance Committee, National Paint, Varnish and Lacquer Association, Mayflower Hotel, 1 p. m.

Dinner: Theta Delta Chi Fraternity, Mayflower Hotel, 7 p. m.

Committee Meeting: National Federation of Federal Employes, Mayflower Hotel, 8 p. m.

Breakfast: Early Birds, Willard Hotel, 8 a. m.

Breakfast: Board of Directors, Rotary Club, Willard Hotel, 7:30 a. m.

Luncheon Meeting: Board of Directors, Boys' Club, Willard Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Luncheon: Community Chest Committee, Willard Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Buffet Luncheon: Women's National Press Club, Willard Hotel, 1 p. m.

Dinner: Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity, Willard Hotel, 7 p. m.

Meeting: Women's Union, Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Willard Hotel, 8 p. m.

Meeting: Order of Christian Mystics, Willard Hotel, 8 p. m.

Luncheon: Sigma Chi Fraternity, University Club, 12:30 p. m.

Dinner: Securities Commission, University Club, 7 p. m.

Meeting: Southeast Citizens' Association, Buchanan School, 8 p. m.

Luncheon: Civitan Club, Hamilton Hotel, 12:30 p. m.

Meeting: Montana State Society, Hamilton Hotel, 8 p. m.

Beer: Master Barbers' Association, Hamilton Hotel, 8 p. m.

Meeting: City Firefighters, Hamilton Hotel, 8:15 p. m.

Party: Ladies' Aid, Hamline M. E. Church, 2 p. m.

Band Concerts

U. S. Navy Band Orchestra
Sail Loft, Navy Yard, Today at 8 P. M.

"Louise" ..... Francois Casadesus
"Cydalise and Goat-Foot" ..... Gabriel Pierne
(a) School of the Fauns.
(b) Lesson on the Pipes of Pan.
(c) March of the Student Nymphs.
(d) Dancing Lesson.
"Bolero" ..... Maurice Ravel
"Bacchus et Ariane" (op. 43) ..... Roussel
"Afternoon of a Faun" ..... Claude Debussy
"Five Miniatures" ..... Paul White
1. By the Lake.
2. Caravan Song.
3. Waltz for Teenie's Doll.
4. Hippo Dance.
5. Mosquito Dance.
Two Spanish dances from "La Vie Breve" ..... Manuel de Falla
Russian sailors' dance from "The Red Poppy" ..... Reinhold Gliere
"The Star-Spangled Banner."

U. S. Soldiers' Home Band Orchestra
Stanley Hall, Today, 5:30 P. M.

March, "Carry On" ..... Lake
Overture, "Concert No. 2 in F Major" ..... Kalliwoda
For strings only:
"Bazatello" ..... Heimendahl
"Canzonetta" ..... Heimendahl
Selection of Irish songs, "The Emerald Isle" ..... Langey
Mexican, "Buenos Dias" ..... Widmer
Waltz suite, "Love's Proposal" ..... Tobani
Finale, "Florentiner" ..... Pucick
"The Star-Spangled Banner."

RIDE THE ESCALATORS to the Hundreds of Bargains in the

LAST 2 DAYS

HECHT MONTH!

We save you steps and we save you money here in Washington's Most Modern Department Store. And the popularity of our program is evidenced every day by the throngs of enthusiastic shoppers flooding our store. Seven floors full of once-a-year bargains for yourself, your family and your home. A complete Basement Store and the Men's Bargain Annex also participate in this event. "Stack the dishes," if you must, this morning. Don't let anything make you lose out on the savings being offered today and tomorrow!

NRA CODE RETAIL TRADE 1934

LAST 2 DAYS FOR THESE SAVINGS

- Last 2 Days to Save on Rugs and Floor Coverings!
- Last 2 Days to Save on Wanted House Furnishings!
- Last 2 Days to Save on Beds and Bedding!
- Last 2 Days to Save on Linens and Domestics!
- Last 2 Days to Save on Millinery and Smart Accessories!
- Last 2 Days to Save on Women's Coats and Frocks.
- Last 2 Days to Save on Boys' and Girls' Clothing!
- Last 2 Days to Save on Suites and Occasional Furniture!
- Last 2 Days to Save on Men's Apparel and Furnishings!
- Last 2 Days to Save on Lovely Silken Lingerie!

THE HECHT CO.

F STREET AT SEVENTH

All charge purchases made during the remaining days of October will appear on statements rendered December First.